20 Register for Jobs

Tecumseh's Jobs for Teens program got off to a good start last week. About a dozen jobs were filled. About 20 students between [illegible] have registered.

Terry Pinter, coordinator for the Tecumseh Jaycee Auxiliary sponsors, said that registration will be held until the end of the month.

About 80 applications were circulated. Students may return them to the Tecumseh Public Library or Lighthouse teen center on N. Ottawa St.

Area residents can help give teen an opportunity to earn some summer spending money. Call jobs in to the answering service at 423-3708, one day in advance for placement. Salary is negotiated between the teen and the employer.

Discuss Millage

The Lenawee Intermediate School District Board heard a rationale June 25 for a one mill country-wide charter tax proposal for special education that would raise $800,000.

The board took no action. A decision may be made at the July 11 board meeting at the ISD offices.

The rationale included three prime reasons: 1) to fund the cost of the construction of additional facilities at the Milton C. Porter Education Center 2) to provide special education programs for 1,000 mildly handicapped children 3) to continue current level of existing programs threatened by inflation.

Construction program at the Proctor Center was estimated at $1.5 million to provide a lunchroom, physical education gym, therapy rooms, media center and offices, bus transportation facility. A therapy pool may be paid for by private foundation funds.

Early Paper

Since next Wednesday is July 4th and a normal press day, The Herald will be printed a day early with copies on the newsstands and in the post office Tuesday afternoon.

Because of the short week, it will be necessary that advertising be availble no later than noon Monday. Early news will also be appreciated.

Ten-Mile Hike on 4th for MD

"I've got the hot dogs, pop and everything all ready to go. Now all I need are the walkers," said Bob Cunningham, coordinator for the first Tecumseh Jaycee walk-a-thon for Muscular Dystrophy.

Event will be July 4 from 11 a.m. at the Tecumseh Community Center. A 10-mile walk is planned. Proceeds will be used for the fight against Muscular Dystrophy.

Refreshments will be supplied free to participants. A first prize of a stereo system will be awarded the walker with the most pledges collected.

First, second and third place trophies will be awarded.

Pledge sheets are available from participating Tecumseh merchants.

For more information, readers may call 423-3339.

Chamber Meets next Thursday

Next regular meeting of the Tecumseh Area Chamber of Commerce will be held Thursday, July 5, 7:30 a.m., at Don's Beef Buffet.

Some of the topics to be discussed include the July 20 Sidewalk Sale, Chamber raffle and Christmas decorations.

3 Raisin Officials Reply to Petitions for Recall Vote

Rebuttal statements were received by the Lenawee County township residents who feel their interests are not served by the Clerk for the Aug. 21 recall election involving three Raisin Township officials.

Statements were given by Supervisor Robert D. Moore, Clerk Marjorie Comfort and Trustee Robert Murray.

The three are alleged by the over 300 recall petitioners to "have not acted in best interests of Raisin Township," "lack intestinal fortitude," take a "biased stand on township matters," and "failure to be responsive to the needs of the people, mainly excessive spending."

The rebuttal statement from each as well as the charges filed by the petitioners will be printed on the recall election ballot. The special election will be conducted in the township as any other.

Statement from Robert D. Moore, supervisor:

"The key issue is the necessity for Raisin Township to have an administration which emphasizes sound business principles and practices with decisions and actions that insure efficient and economic results beneficial to all taxpayers and citizens.

"Ours is a government by law, not of individuals. The law itself determines the role, duties and responsibilities and it is only in this framework that I can serve as Supervisor.

Statement from Marjorie Comfort, clerk:

"I value the many friends and supporters I have in Raisin Township. Their expression of confidence in electing me Clerk last fall showed that they appreciated the way they are being served by me.

"They will not be misled by the meaningless and unsubstantiated accusations which have been circulated in the township.

"As one of the fastest-developing areas of Lenawee County, Raisin needs dedicated and responsible leaders who will guide this development in the best interest of all the people who live here.

"My record shows that I am consistent in voting for efficient, orderly and economical government services.

"I will be happy to continue discussing the condition of the township — which is good and getting better — with anyone who wishes to contact me at home or in the township office."

Statement from Robert J. Murray:

"It is difficult to respond to the very vague statements on the recall petition. As a Raisin Township board member, I am elected to served all the people not just a few.

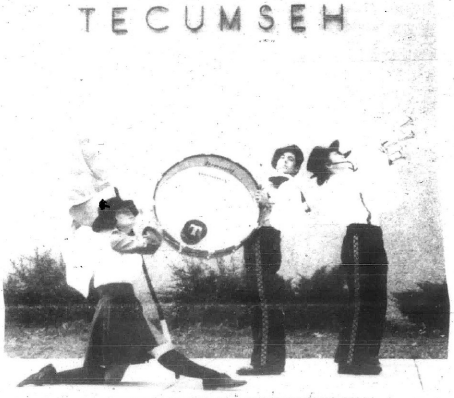
"This is an effort to recall a majority of the town board by a few [illegible] Board's actions. They have misrepresented the facts to the people they asked to sign the petition.

"As a board member, I am efficiently addressing the many problems of a rapidly growing and changing township whose property value now is 92 million dollars — only 7% less than the city of Tecumseh.

"We have acted to update zoning and nuisance ordinances, budget responsibly, improve fire protection, develop a park, improve roads, improve building permit procedures and obtain a new land fill site.

"I have appreciated your support for the last 12 years as chairman and member of the Board of Appeals and township trustee. I have enjoyed working for you and look forward to completing my elected term.

"If you have any questions, please feel free to call me at home."



SHAWNEE MARCHERS IN BAND COMPETITION

9 Bands Competing in June 29th Contest

Tecumseh will play host to the second annual Tecumseh Marching Band Contest June 29, 7:30 p.m. at the North Evans St. baseball diamond.

Nine bands from Michigan, Canada and this year from Ohio will compete for four trophies.

Returning to the competition are Amherstburg Community Band, the Kingsville-Essex Associated Band, both from Ontario and The Hatchet Marching Band from Bad Axe.

New on the program are bands from Chesaning, Utica Eisehauer of Saginaw, Warren Junior Military Band from Warren, Ohio, Reed City band and Carleton of Saginaw.

Tecumseh Shawnee Marchers will also compete and play host along with the Band Boosters to the anticipated 800 visitors.

Eight judges will mark the bands on the field for percussion, visual effect, color guard, timing, etc.

The candidates will vie for two first and second place trophies, one each in flight I and open flight. Four participation plaques will be presented to the runners-up.

Last year a total of six bands participated. This year the competition has grown to nine.

Tickets will be available at the gate. Bleacher seats are $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for children and senior citizens.

Seven New U.S. Citizens

Seven Tecumseh residents — including three children, married couple and a 31-year resident of the United States — became naturalized citizens in a ceremony June 22 at the Adrian Court House.

The total of 16 candidates for United States citizenship represented the largest class on record for Lenawee County according to Lenawee County Clerk Pat Johnston.

The seven Tecumsehites were:

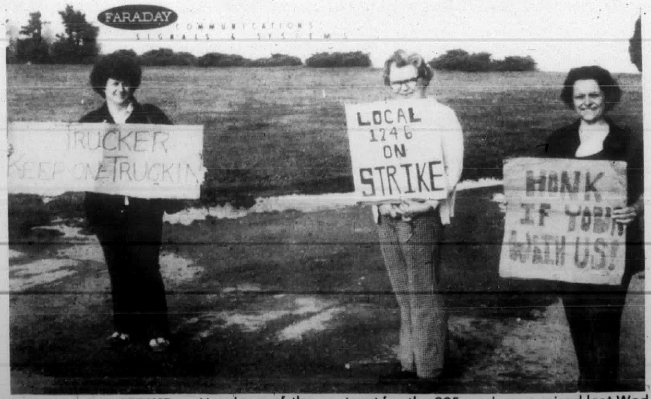
Gilberto S. Villanueve, 4959 DeLeon Dr. from Mexico; Elise Keith, 215 S. Oneida from Luxembourg; Joseph Anthony and Dolores Georgia Cutajar, 5337 Osburn from Malta;

Erica Soon Miller, 3, from Korea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller, 906 N. Union; Amanda Joy Lee, 3, from Korea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bollinger, 517 Occidental and Jeremy Gaston Powers, 2, from Columbia, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Powers, 301 N. Union.

Judge Rex B. Martin and Judge C. Ralph Kohn presided at the ceremony and congratulated the new citizens on successful completion of their citizenship requirements.

Nancy Nichols of Tecumseh, chairperson of the Lenawee County Board of Commissioners welcomed the new United States citizens. Mrs. Allan Gray, regent of the Adrian Daughters of the American Revolution, distributed citizenship booklets to the new Americans. A United States flag was another gift presented to each.

Standing room only was available in the court room. After the ceremony, there was a temporary disorder as relatives and well wishers rushed to congratulate the new citizens and snap their photograph with the officials.



FARADAY ON STRIKE — Members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers local 1246 continued in their week long strike against the local company that manufactures communications signals. The contract for the 235 workers expired last Wednesday. Faraday management refused comment on the status of negotiations. Disputes are reportedly about cost of living, insurance benefits and wage hikes.

MARRIAGE MADE IN HEAVEN — Cathy Burke, 27, and John (Chico) Martinez, 29, were the 'high flying' sky-diving couple who exchanged vows, rings, and a kiss in the presence of the Rev. Dan Wilcox, also a sky diver, over Tecumseh's Meyers Airport near dusk, June 23. The 90-second wedding ceremony took place in a 15,000 ft. free fall for the pair whose courtship began when diving instructor John pushed pupil Cathy out of a plane two years ago. They were attended by 17 other sky divers, friends of the couple, who fell in a diamond-shaped formation after the ceremony. (PHOTO BY JOHN SEAY)

Callihan Retires

Jeanne Callihan, Tecumseh home economics teacher, has retired after 25 years of teaching in the Tecumseh Public Schools.

Mrs. Callihan spent 10 of those years teaching in the elementary grades in Tecumseh and 15 in the high school teaching home economics. She has spent almost 31 years in teaching.

She started her teaching career with two years at Brimley school near Sault Ste. Marie, then one year in Onaway, one year in Monroe and 1½ years in the Marine Corps.

She and her husband J.T., a retired city police officer, have twin daughters, Linda, an office worker in Bath and Lana, a junior high school counselor in New Baltimore. Mrs. Callihan's mother, Mrs. C. W. Allen resides in the Tecumseh area.

Mrs. Callihan commented, "I enjoyed teaching second grade, fourth and sixth grades and high school." She added that she and her husband plan to continue living in Tecumseh.

Construction program at the [illegible] at $1.5 million to provide a lunchroom, physical education gym, therapy rooms, media center and offices, bus transportation facility. A therapy pool may be paid for by private foundation funds.

Currently the gym is only 300 ft. bigger than a standard classroom, the Porter center is the only county school without a lunchroom and hallways are utilized for office space.

The millage proposal is the result of comprehensive studies of programs and facilities conducted by the administration, board and community for the past year, said ISD Superintendent William Ross.

A charter millage is levied until changed by referendum. ISD millage for special education is now 1.5 charter mills county-wide.

Talking It Out

Why Have a Full-Service Funeral?

Since the beginning of recorded history, man has publicly viewed and buried his dead with dignity and ceremony. Although rituals have differed, the funeral service meets the needs of the survivors, the living, as well as provide for the deceased. What are these needs and how does a full-service funeral provide for these needs?

Realization: First, it is a declaration of a death which has occurred and a testimonial to a life which has been lived. Denial of a death is not uncommon. The very fact of a funeral and the viewing of the body (or casket) facilitates the realization of the death.

Emotional expression: The full-service funeral is of deep significance, emotionally and psychologically, aside from the obvious clinical need for preparation of the deceased for burial. Sorrow-shared is sorrow-diminished. The full service and the facing of true facts is the first step toward emotional adjustment to bereavement.

For more information about the full-service funeral, stop by, phone or write. Helpful literature is available without obligation.

Buck, Eaton Recite Vows

Nuptial vows were exchanged by Brenda Lee Buck and Michael Arthur Eaton in a double ring ceremony before the Rev. Alan Gray in the United Methodist Church, Tecumseh, Saturday afternoon.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Buck, 219 W. Church St., Clinton, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald E. Eaton, 812 Murray Dr.

Mrs. Donald Bush was the organist.

Accents of lace trimmed the empire waistline and formed the cuffs on the long sleeves. The chapel train ended in a ruffled trimmed with Venice lace.

A band of lace held her veil and she wore an opal necklace and earrings, a gift of the groom.

The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white miniature carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Bridal attendants were gowned alike in mint green, spaghetti strapped gowns with matching capes. Each carried a nosegay of white pompons, aqua miniature carnations and aqua silk daisies.

Attendants were maid of honor Christine Kerchner, of Clinton; bridesmaids, Lori Pike and Marsha Camfield, Tecumseh; junior bridesmaid, Lisa Eaton, sister of groom; and Michele Schuler, flower girl.

Lee Langschied was the ring bearer.

Brad Withrow of Tecumseh was the best man. Daniel and Joseph Eaton, brothers of the groom were the ushers.

Reception at the Methodist Fellowship hall was attended by 200 guests.

Mrs. Joseph Eaton and Mrs. Meryl Eaton poured beverages, and the cake was served by Dorothy Buck and Delia Austin, aunts of the bride. Korinne Brown of Monroe cousin of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

Groom is a 1977 Tecumseh graduate and is employed by Jay Osburn Development of Tipton.

MR. AND MRS. ALFRED LOOS

Leslie Montague, Alfred Loos Wed

Peach and white altar flowers and candles decorated the altar of St. Peter's Episcopal Church June 16 for the marriage of Leslie Kay Montague and Alfred Charles Loos.

The Rev. Richard E. Shinn, pastor of St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Trenton, officiated the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira L. Montague, 809 Outer Dr. and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred B. Loos of Livonia.

Lisa Byers was organist.

In her hair, she wore a ring of baby's breath and stephanotis. She carried white orchids, stephanotis and greens in a cascade style bouquet.

She carried a colonial style arrangement of silk flowers — peach tiger lilies, white and peach carnations with brown accents and peach and white streamers. She wore a spray fo peach silk tiger lilies in her hair.

Mrs. Dennis Johnston of Tecumseh was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Suzanne Loos, the groom's sister of Ann Arbor, Mrs. David Gunstrom the groom's sister of Canton and Patricia Mannino. They were attired as the honor attendants.

David Loos, the groom's brother of Jennings, La., was best man. Ushers were David Gunstrom of Canton, James Williamson of Livonia, Claus Borgnakke of Ann Arbor and Glenn Andres of West Chester, Ill.

A reception and dinner for 175 guests was held at the Leutheuser's restaurant in Saline.

The bride is employed at Jackson Tool Sales, Inc. as a secretary. She is a 1971 Tecumseh graduate.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Michigan employed as a research associate at the University.

A rehearsal dinner was held June 15 at Leutheuser's in Saline hosted by the groom's parents.

Having an insurance policy that only pays $25,000.

Every year, inflation and rising property values increase the value of your home. And make it that much more expensive to replace should something happen to make it a total loss.

But if you have an Auto-Owners homeowners policy with Adjusted Value Endorsement, you're protected. Because this modern Auto-Owners policy is designed to keep pace with rising values automatically.

If you aren't covered by Auto-Owners . . . well, maybe you should be replacing your present insurance. Let us fill you in. Before you have to replace your home.

BRITTON BREWERIANA — Mr. and Mrs. J.R. McKinney claim to own the largest mail order beer can business in the world. They have cans from every state that ever had a brewery. They are open weekends at 131 Chicago Blvd., Britton. They were collectors for 17 years and active dealers for about five years. (PHOTO BY KATHY BROWN)

Beer Can Collecting Is Growing Hobby

BRITTON — Beer can collecting has been acclaimed the fastest growing hobby in the United States, according to several recently published articles and news reports.

Jim and Phyllis McKinney are in the so-called "can business". Their hobby has grown to the point of opening a store in Britton called Britton Breweriana with the claim "Michigan's Largest Beer Can Store".

With over 3,000 different cans for sale, the McKinney's are stacked wall to wall with cans. Also for sale are all types of related brewery products, including trays, old beer taps, beer coasters, old beer cases and beer signs.

The business also has mail order business from all over the country. A recent sale was a 007 James Bond can worth over $200 to a Florida buyer. This particular can is considered a can collector's dream.

Just stopping and looking over their collection may bring the can collecting fever upon you as it has done to over 34,000 people across the country.

Their "can store" is located at 131 Chicago Blvd., Britton, with the hours, Saturday and Sunday, weekdays by appointment.

There is a new service available for senior citizens through the Lenawee County Health Department called Personal Care Service.

It provides for nursing aide help for people 60 years of age and older in their homes.

The service includes bathing, shampooing hair, grooming, changing bed linen and some light meal preparation.

There is no charge for the service although donations will be accepted. Care is given under the supervision of a registered nurse.

Senior Day Is August 23

The Lenawee County Fair is Aug. 19-25, 1979. Senior Citizen Day is Aug. 23. The bandshell feature 3:30 p.m. is a variety show with each senior citizen center entering an act.

This variety show is growing in scope as each center competes to have a better act and one that is more unusual than another Center. New entries are welcome.

Story Time Set To Begin

Pre-schoolers through second graders should come to the library July 3 at 7 p.m. dressed in their pajamas

Children's librarian Mary Berth Reasoner, who will also be wearing pajamas, will lead the children in some of the favorite Story Time poems and songs, like "My Beard," "Hug-a-War," and the "Pickle Song."

A short movie and a couple "sleepy" stories round out the hour. Parents are reminded to pick their children up at 8 p.m. The library can't have any little ones sleeping there overnight!

Regular Wednesday afternoon Story Time begins next week, July 11. Story Time lasts a half hour, 1:30-2 p.m., and promises to be loaded with fun.

There will be new stories, poems, and silly songs (mixed in with a few oldies, but goodies). The final Story Time will be Aug. 22.

If you'd like more information on Pajama Story Hour or regular Story Time, call the library at 423-2238.

Become a BRAT at Library

Would you like to be a B.R.A.T.? You can become one if you are a third through sixth grader living in or around Tecumseh. B.R.A.T.s is a new program designed for this age group at Tecumseh Public Library.

Before you get the wrong idea about this group, you should know that B.R.A.T.s stands for Book Review Action Team. The group of children will meet every Thursday from July 5 to Aug. 16, 1:30 to 2:30 p.m.

B.R.A.T.s will write reviews on new library books and on some of their old favorites. The children and Mary Beth Reasoner, children's librarian, will explore several categories of books: mysteries, science fiction, animal stories, sports stories, love stories, some nonfiction books, and other categories, too.

Each week the group will share their reviews which they have written at home. The reviews will then be put on display in the library for other young patrons to read.

Not only will the B.R.A.T.s be widening their own reading backgrounds and developing reviewing skills, they will also be helping young readers like themselves choose library books.

Several short movies will be shown throughout the summer for the B.R.A.T.s Some will be for reviewing purposes, but most will be for pure enjoyment.

For more information, call the library at 423-2238 or stop in Monday- Wednesday, 1-9 p.m., Thursday-Saturday, 9 a.m.-6 p.m.

Swim-a-Cross for Red Cross

Tecumseh area swimmers will participate in a Swim-a-cross for Red Cross at the Tecumseh pool July 13, 14 and 15.

This is the only fund raising event for Red Cross in Lenawee County. Proceeds will help support and maintain Red Cross programs in safety and first aid, C.P.R., disaster assistance training, nursing and health courses and others.

This program directly benefits the Tecumseh community with a supply of certified swimming instructors for Tecumseh youth swim activities, told Mrs. Kenneth Strack of Tecumseh, Water Safety Trainer for Lenawee County.

Completes Training

From Village Hair Forum

Tecumseh 423-6081 Manchester (313) 428-7684

Dear Total Image,

Could you please give me advice on what I can do for my tired, dried out split ends? I use my blow dryer and curling iron daily. Is there anything I can do to help this condition?

Thank You

S. S. of Tecumseh

Dear S.S.,

There is a truly unique product called henna that is scientifically formulated to penetrate the hair shaft through natural organic absorption to work from the inside to provide long term conditioning for your hair.

However, there is only one henna on the market that I would personally recommend. Hennalucent by Aidell. It contains no metallic salts, peroxide or harsh chemicals to build up on the hairshaft. Unlike some other brands, it is completely safe for perm or color treated hair without any problems.

I highly recommend a neutral shade applied every six to eight weeks for healthy, vibrant and beautiful looking hair. It will add shining highlights without any color change and can also be used over tinted, bleached and permanents to add sheen, body and mend tired, split ends!

The treatment takes 45 minutes and will only cost $12 at either my Manchester or Tecumseh salon in the Bidwell Exchange.

Thank you for writing Total Image. If you have a problem with hair, skin or nails, let us hear from you. Write to Total Image, care of Village Hair Forum, 104 E. Main, Manchester, Mich.

Sandy

Council Approves Multiple Site Plan

CLINTON — Village Council, at a meeting June 18, approved the site plan of Osburn Real Estate of Tecumseh, for multiple dwellings at a Kehoe Rd. location.

The property, formerly owned by Peel, adjacent to the Clinton High School track, will be developed with two single unit dwellings facing Kehoe Rd., and with a 12-unit, 2½-story, two-bedroom apartment structure at the rear of the property.

Developer Jack Osburn said plans will include the retaining of the big trees on the site.

Grading of site and building of single dwellings will begin immediately, and the apartment construction is expected to begin in the fall.

In other action, council voted to increase the requirement for building permits for construction. Permits will now be required for construction over $500, instead of for $100.

Council also approved new street specifications.

Senior News

CLINTON — Shamrock senior citizens will meet at 10 a.m., June 28 for crafts, cards and games. At noon there will be a bag lunch afterward. Judge James Sheridan will talk about "Custer's Last Stand."

Ransack Kiebler's

CLINTON — Kiebler's Meats, west of Clinton, was broken into sometime during the night of June 22, and the office was ransacked.

Entry was gained through a rear window.

No money or anything of value was found in the office, but the desk papers were scattered, and two clamps taken from a drawer.

Clinton State Police investigated.

STARS

1 pound butter
4 cups flour
1/2 pint (1 cup) sour cream
1 package yeast
1/4 teaspoon salt

Mix butter and flour.

Cut butter into flour with pastry blender or two knifes as in making pie dough. Add egg yolks, sour cream, yeast, and salt. Chill dough.

Divide dough into three parts, when thoroughly chilled. Roll 1/8 inch thickness. Cut dough into 1½ inch squares. Slit corners toward center, leaving centers uncut. Place 1/2 teaspoon of prune or apricot (Solo) filling in center. Bring 1/2 of each corner toward center to make star or pinwheel. Bake 350 degrees for 12 minutes.

ROHLICKY
(Butterhorns or Walnut Crescents)

4 cups flour
1 cup butter
4 egg yolks
3 tablespoon sugar
1/2 pint (1 cup) sour cream
1 teaspoon salt
2 packages yeast

Cut butter into flour with pastry blender or two knifes as in making pie dough. Beat the egg yolks until fluffy, add sugar, sour cream, salt and yeast. Add this to the flour butter mixture.

Roll into small balls (1/2 inch) and refrigerate overnight. Roll out paper thin. Spread with 1 teaspoon Nut Filling (recipe below).

Roll up like a crescent and curve ends. Place on greased cookie sheet. Brush top with cream or milk. Bake 325 degrees for 15-20 minutes or until lightly browned.

NUT FILLING

4 egg whites
1 cup sugar
1 cup ground nuts

Beat egg whites until stiff. Gradually add the sugar. Fold in ground nuts. Use to fill cookies.

RESOLUTION

Meeting of the Common Council of the City of Tecumseh, County of Lenawee and State of Michigan held on the 18th day of June, 1979 in the Council Chambers of the City Hall at 7:30 p.m.

ABSENT: Councilmen Cook and DeMoss.

The following preamble and resolution was offered by Councilman Palmer and supported by Councilman Tressler.

WHEREAS, it is the desire of this body that a continuing improvement be made in supplying the City with adequate curb and gutter installation.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That the installation of curb and gutter shall be undertaken as soon as practicable on both sides of the street, where applicable.

2. North Maiden Lane, Assessor's Plat of Indian Acres, part of outlot B of Assessor's Plat No. 1 Tecumseh Village.

3. That the cost thereof is estimated at $5.22 per lineal foot.

3. That said cost shall be 100% by said particular property owner less 5% discount if paid within 30 days from date of invoice. SPECIAL ASSESSMENT DISTRICT to be set up for a three year period with one third paid each year.

4. That the particular property owners are defined to those persons who own realty abutting on any of the above described areas of improvement.

5. That permanent surfaced drive approach will be installed at the expense of the property owner, such cost being estimated at $1.92 per square foot of driveway approach.

6. That the Clerk cause this resolution to be published for two successive weeks in the Tecumseh Herald, designating Monday, July 2, 1979, at 8:00 P.M., at the Council Chambers as a time and place for hearing any objections hereto on the part of any person or persons considering himself or themselves aggrieved by the proposed improvement and assessment.

NAYS: None.

RESOLUTION DECLARED ADOPTED.

Tecumseh Chamber Makes Plans for Sidewalk Sale July 20

Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce is preparing for Sidewalk Sale Day July 20 with rain date as July 21. Nadine Seitz, chairman for the event chamber sponsored, announced at the June 7 meeting.

Chamber has paid $500 for Fourth of July fireworks. Jim Fielder will work on the pyrotechnic display.

Ten dollars was donated to the Tecumeh Jaycees Auxiliary to help with postage to produce an inter club newsletter to improve communication among Tecumseh groups.

Margie Ball, auxiliary president, said future issues will depend on how the first newsletter is received.

Two bids were received for the planting of the downtown tree planters. Only one met specifications. Bid of Philip Karner of August Co. was accepted in the amount of $290.

In other chamber reports, Don Dobrosky reported that patrons should soon receive two complimentary copies of the new Tecumseh civic brochure, a joint project with the city of Tecumseh. It features a four-color cover and pictures of Tecumseh's recreation, industrial and community resources.

Harvey Schmidt, chairman for the Antique and Old Craft Sidewalk Market during the Promenade the Past May 19 and 20 reported a $500 profit for the chamber after expenses. Forty dealers participated.

Roger Proctor, Michigan Week chairman, reported 106 persons attended the Michigan Week banquet. Youth Day was cancelled due to poor weather, but other planned activities went well.

John Damelio is chairman for the 1979 chamber drawing. Tickets are now available at participating merchants and at the chamber of commerce office. A $1,000 Tecumseh shopping spree is the grand prize. Others are choice of microwave oven, portable color television or Moped bicycle, compliments of Gambles, Meyers Sportspal canoe and $100 gift certificate from Trikey's.

Drawing will be Oct. 31.

Tecumsehites in 'Brigadoon'

Croswell Opera House in downtown Adrian is the scene of hectic activity as scenery is built and painted, cast and orchestra rehearse for the opening of "Brigadoon" June 27, curtain at 8 p.m.

Tecumsehites featured in the cast are Heather Beatty, Bill Cook, Jeanne Johnstone and Skip Johnstone. The young women attend Tecumseh High School. Bill is a 1977 alumnus and Skip a 1979 graduate.

Heather of 510 Milwaukee has appeared in productions of "Bells Are Ringing" for the Tecumseh Players and in the "Music Man" and "The Steadfast Tin Soldier" in Grayling.

She has studied ballet and jazz and tap at the Dance Academy at Lake Zurich, Ill. and studied modern dance locally.

Jeanne Johnstone of 1203 Willow St. has three years of professional dance training and has been a member of a touring girls' choir, "Sunshine" for three years. Jeanne appeared in the Croswell's production of "Gigi," "Bye Bye Birdie" and "My Fair Lady" and in the Tecumseh Players production of "Tom Sawyer" and "Snow White."

Brother Skip Johnstone appeared in the Tecumseh Players productions of "Lil Abner" and "Two Blind Mice," in the Tecumseh High School productions "Father's Been to Mars" and "Harvey" and the Croswell Summer Theater production of "Unsinkable Molly Brown."

Bill Cook, 140 W. Brown St., is a student at the University of Michigan. He has appeared in several Croswell Summer Theater productions including "Camelot," "Little Mary Sunshine," "Music Man," and "Fiddler on the Roof." For the Tecumseh Players he appeared in "Romanoff and Juliet."

The Johnstones are daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Johnstone, active in the Tecumseh Players as well as in the Croswell Summer Theater program.

Cook is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Carlton Cook. Dr. Cook has been seen on the Tecumseh and Croswell stages and Mrs. Cook is a booster for both groups.

Musical director for "Brigadoon" is Dr. Art Jones. Douglas Miller is the set designer. Choreographer is Kathy Williams and Sally Wentz is costumer.

"Brigadoon" plays for 10 nights Wednesday through Sunday with the Opera House closed on Monday and Tuesday evenings. All curtains are at 8 p.m. Show closes July 4. For more information, phone the Croswell Opera House at (517) 263-5674.

"Brigadoon" will be followed by productions of "Godspell" opening July 18 and "Funny Girl" opening Aug. 8.

Plan Arts and Crafts

There is an arts and crafts class being held every Thursday at 1 p.m. at the Community Center. This class is open to school age children interested in doing craft projects.

Each project can be done for a nominal fee each week. If interested, come to the class on Thursdays.

Herrick Proposal To Be Reviewed

Herrick Memorial Hospital's application for a certificate of need will be reviewed by the Michigan Mid-South Health Systems Agency (MMSHSA) Board of Trustees July 11, at 6:15 p.m.

The meeting will be held in the Community Room, Mason City Hall, located at 201 W. Ash, in Mason.

Herrick Hospital is proposing a 19 bed acute psychiatric inpatient care unit, which would function under a management contract between Comprehensive Care Corporation and the hospital.

The proposed service would operate in existing space, previously utilized for medical/surgical beds.

Under the agreement between Comprehensive Care and Herrick Hospital, the hospital would provide the physical space for beds, nursing staff and supporting auxiliary services.

Comprehensive Care would provide other professional staff, in-service education, community/public relations, research, outcome studies and unit audits/support.

The project's estimated cost is $4,000; which would cover carpeting, desks and room decorations. Funding of the project is expected through facility funds.

A presentation on the project will be given by Herrick Hospital, and the MMSHSA Project Review Committee will also give their recommendation to the Board.

MMSHSA project review committee will meet July 5 to review the Herrick Hospital project proposal.

The MMSHSA Board's comments and recommendation for approval and/or disapproval will be forwarded to the Michigan Department of Public Health for a final review and decision.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

An update on the hard working wren and the young squirrels. Quite frankly I thought both had been taken care of in recent articles. Wrong, all wrong. Hardly had their articles been dictated when wow, the bird and squirrels started performing again.

We truly did chuckle that the busy wren and her serenading husband were behaving according to the books. She lugged building material while he sang and, if her choice of the bluebird box instead of the wren house was a bit eccentric, so be it.

The first afternoon the work we watched her do was incredible, we wondered how in the world she had the energy to make trip after trip after trip to that big bluebird box.

The next day a bad storm blew up, much wind and much rain. Although we heard a wren singing his heart out, there seemed to be no activity at the bluebird house.

Perhaps she had decided that to build a suitable nest in that oversized white box was just simply too much work.

For several days we heard the birds and occasionally even saw them flitting nervously from one perch to another. No construction work though.

Then came the day I happened to look in the direction of the bluebird house just as she shyly popped into it. She carried a small twig in her bill. In a moment or two she appeared in the doorway again.

After taking a quick look around, she exploded out of the house and was off to find another twig. As we watched she made a dozen or so trips and then she quit. During none of this though did we hear her mate singing encouragement as he had done before.

As matters now stand there are several sessions of house building almost every day. At least that is the activity we have observed. What goes on behind our backs, who knows. Occasionally we hear loud wren singing but it is certainly nothing to match the first day.

Is he becoming less attentive or could it possibly be that he is helping her a little with the construction? On the other hand she could be working on the house herself and he might be courting another mate.

The young squirrels continue to come for their daily rations of corn and sunflower seeds. They are growing fast too. Anyone who has watched puppies would recognize many of the squirrels' antics.

One day, for example, the mother squirrel and the small female were peacefully eating corn when the kid decided she wanted to play.

She scampered to her mother and started mauling her. The adult "returned the favor" and, for too short a time, Mom and I had the fun of watching the two wrestle.

It was exactly the way our English setter used to play with her pups. And just like the setter, when the mother squirrel thought it was time to quit the rough-housing and settle back to business, she had a very effective way of letting the youngster know. Play ended and eating began with no argument or teasing at all.

The kid squirrels are still not out of the awkward stage yet. At first the little female had to sit so hunched up that her elbows rested on her knees.

She can now sit a bit straighter and maintain her balance. Her brother usually stands on the food tray with one foot resting on the railing and the other on the floor.

When leaving the feeder they still are apt to be in too much of a hurry and trip themselves. Instead of making a graceful exit they actually fall off the tray.

Thank goodness for the bushy yews. They are so thick that the squirrels never fall far and, in fact, a favorite past time seems to be crawling through these thick bushes.

When they try to crawl across the top it is almost as if they were wading. Cute characters.

Macon News

By Phyllis Thomas

MACON — Don and Dorothy Graf, former residents of Macon now living in Bellflower, Calif., have been visiting relatives and friends in the area for a few weeks.

Thirty-three relatives and friends from Reading, Lansing, the Detroit area and local towns, gathered in the home of Bill and Marilyn Swanston when Jacki, Heather and Melinda Swanston honored their cousin Terri Miller at a bridal shower.

Terri, daughter of Jerry and Karen Miller of Reading, will wed David Marvin also of Reading, Aug. 18.

Special guests at the Sunday afternoon party were the bride's mother, Karen Miller; the groom's mother, Mrs. Pat Marvin of Lansing and bride's grandmother, Mrs. Arthur Miller of Saline.

After the shower, immediate family members went to the home of Paul and Sally Schafer and sons where Bill Swanston was surprised with an early birthday supper and appropriately decorated cake.

Lyle Riddell is a patient in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ypsilanti.

Sesquicentennial Party Plans Set

MACON — A sesquicentennial birthday party for the Macon area will be held at the Eldredge Mill, Mills-Macon Rd., Saturday, June 30 beginning at 2 p.m.

Former residents are invited to the homecoming as are present residents.

Families are invited to bring a picnic lunch for their brood and table service. Macon Historical Society will furnish barbecue beef, buns, hot dogs and beverage.

The favor of a reply is requested. Macon residents may call Karen Oswald, 423-2567; Myra Bush, 423-2049; Mary Ann Bush, 423-7652; Julie Rhora, 423-3001.

There is a donation requested for children and adults.

Schedule is picnic, 3-4 p.m.; tour of mill and Mills School restoration project, 5-7 p.m.; games, 5-7 p.m.; movie for kids, 7-9 p.m.; square dancing, 7-9 p.m.

Rain date is July 1.

Mrs. Jean Shafer of Follansbee, W.Va., arrived at Toledo Airport Monday afternoon and is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Conrad and sons hosted the Billau Family Reunion Sunday afternoon. Seventy members from Kentucky, Mount Clemens, Ann Arbor, Detroit, Pickney, Tecumseh, Britton and Macon were present.

Oldest member of the family, Mrs. Sophie Billau, 88, and mother of the four generation group, was unable to attend. She is a patient at the Parkview Convalescent Center in Ypsilanti following a broken hip. After the potluck dinner, games were played by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Berry and family of Clinton-Macon Rd., have returned home from a camping trip which included portions of the Upper Peninsula.

Bernard and Pearl Tucker are back in the village after a two week vacation at Curtis in the Upper Peninsula. They were joined by their sons Norman and Wayne and their families for some of the time.

. . . Our American heritage has its roots deep in our homes and hearts.

. . . To understand it we must behold the light of hope it kindles in the hearts of enslaved men.

. . . To honor it we must revere the institutions and beliefs upon which it is founded.

. . . To preserve it we must exercise faithfully its privileges and opportunities.

. . . To perpetuate it we must keep its vision bright before the eyes of our children.

. . . To enshrine it we must thank, worship, serve and love the divine Author of Liberty.

Record 9 Mishaps

Nine traffic mishaps were investigated here the past week by local police, but only one involved personal injury.

Richard C. Weirich, 45, of 3247 Clinton-Macon Rd. and an employee of the City of Tecumseh, suffered a badly injured foot Friday when Claudia A. Simpson, 26, of 1000 E. Chicago Blvd. turned in front of him on N. Maumee.

Weirich was first taken to Herrick Hospital and then to Ann Arbor for treatment. He returned home that evening. Simpson was cited for failure to yield.

Other accidents were:

June 20 — Cynthia Anschuetz, 19, of 502 Seneca, rode her bike into the side of a vehicle driven by Kerry Jo Hamilton, 18, of 10186 Macon Rd., on N. Evans St. The 15-year-old later complained of a sore shoulder.

June 20 — Willian G. Goble, 26, Adrian was attempting to turn on S. Occidental when Gail L. Gibson, 17, of 11066 Macon Rd., tried to pass on the right side. She was cited for no proof of insurance.

June 21 — Eric G. Amstutz, 18, of 11075 Billmyer, changed lanes on E. Chicago Blvd. and struck Paul S. Pinter, 35, of 9954 Matthews Hwy.

June 21 — Vincent Boden Jr., 17, Adrian and Mark W. Richmond, 17, of 805 S. Union were both turning at Occidental and Russell Rds. when they collided.

June 23 — Robert D. Humphries, 18, of 1304 Southwestern, was cited for failure to yield after pulling out of a drive on W. Chicago and striking Timothy H. Stuwe, 17, of 1422 Southwick.

June 24 — Tammy J. Randall, 16, of 802 Red Mill, ran a stop sign at the intersection of Sunset and Cairns and struck a vehicle operated by Glen D. Bow, 30, of 1202 Willow.

Drunk Driving Arrests Increase

Complaints handled the past week by Tecumseh police were routine except for an increasing number of drunk driving arrests.

They were Jack P. Weyer, 26, Houston, Texas; Michael R. Thorson, 24, of 6530 Sutton Rd.; Zella L. Sharrock, 32, Ann Arbor; Stephen G. Brosamer, 25, Holloway Rd.; Oscar C. Wolfe, 28, Ypsilanti, and Eldene R. Finkbeiner, 50, Clinton.

Other complaints were:

June 20 — Carol McGraw, 212 W. Logan, reported her car and front door to house was spray painted.

June 20 — Linda Ivan, 504 Pawnee Heights, had a bicycle stolen.

June 22 — A door to the high school storage building was forced open. Nothing was reported missing.

June 23 — Pam Jones, 9103 N. Union, reported a hub cap and three hub cap rings stolen from her vehicle.

June 24 — Douglas W. Osworth, 500 Outer Dr., reported a window broken in his vehicle.

June 26 — A B&E at Airport Bowl occurred with some change taken from two cash registers. Entry was gained by breaking an 18x24-inch window.

TUESDAY NIGHT

Margie's Restaurant evened their record at 1-1 by defeating Blaisdell's Gulf 13-7.

Blaisdell's jumped out to an early 5-0 lead in the top of the first but Margie's countered with six runs in the bottom of that inning. Blaisdell's rallied for two more runs in the third inning to tie the game, but then ran out of gas as they failed to push another run across the plate.

Hoelzer had three hits to lead Margie's. Clark had two hits in two trips for Blaisell's.

Hittters Dominate Monday Softball

WOMEN SOFTBALL

The women's softball games on Monday night saw a lot of sluggers at the plate. The first game was Doc's Frame and Axle getting by DST, 17-8.

Dundee Products delivered 14 singles to get by Airport Bowl, 10-1. Kim Gall's excellent pitching held Airport Bowl to just four hits, which proved to be the key to the game.

Mary Ann Mueller, Ruth King, and Peggy Albaugh all had three hits for Dundee. Karen Harper had two hits for Airport Bowl.

The nightcap saw a tough game between Jerry's Pub and Ives Body Shop. Jerry's Pub rallied in the seventh inning with five runs, but it wasn't quite enough as Ives Body Shop held on to win it 18-16.

Ann Forrister and Linda York each pounded out three hits for Ives Body Shop. Chris Wallace delivered four hits for Jerry's Pub.

Fox Shoots Hole-in-One

Woody Fox of Sand Creek shot a hole-in-one this week at Raisin Valley Golf Club.

Fox hit a five wood on the 172 yard, number five hole for the ace and carded a 39 for the round. Fox was playing with Randy Salisbury and Mark Lewis.

Saltzman 1st after Birdie Putt

Brad Saltzman dropped a five foot birdie putt Wednesday on the second playoff hole of the Raisin Valley Junior Golf Tournament to beat John Faulkner by a stroke.

Both Faulkner and Saltzman carded 153 totals, 77's the last 18 holes Wednesday. The two were tied for third after Tuesday's 18 holes. Wednesday they passed by Mike Zettle and Greg Scheuerman, who were seated first and second respectively.

Zettled finished in fifth at 156 and Scheuerman missed a five-footer on the last green that pushed him into third instead of a three-way tie for first. He finished with a 79 and 154 total. He shared that spot with Brad Smith, who shot a hot 73 the last day for a 154 total.

Scott McDonald took first flight honors with a final round of 85 and final score of 165. Bob Foster and Steve Behnke each finished with 84's and 171 totals to tie for second in the first flight.

In the second flight, Rick Johnston carded a 100 the last day to finish out a 193 for the win. Larry Clemons finished in second place at 195.

Faulkner Is Medalist

Faulkner shot a 33, 38 at the Macon Golf Course, two strokes better than Tom Dutoit. Three strokes back of Dutoit is Rob Bruce at 76 and Dan Scheuerman shot a 77. All compete in the 17-18 year old flight.

Mike Lahmann shot a 73 to lead all competitors in the 15-16 year group. Just two strokes behind him is Steve Behnke and Mike Zettle carded a 77. Ron Smith and Brad Saltzman each came in at 79.

In the 13-14 year old flight, Greg Scheuerman shot a 86 to lead Bob Foster by a stroke. Mickey Hyatt hit 91 and Paul Dodd carded a 97.

In the 11-12 group, Rick Johnston hit 90 to lead the golfers. Gary Richardson shot 94, Tim Winzler hit 97 and Brian Richardson is presently in fourth place at 103.

The tournament runs Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

Handley First

Handley Equipment finished first in the Deerfield Tournament last weekend after dropping their opening game in Sunday's finals and winning the next seven in a row.

The double elimination tournament for class C and D teams ran Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Banda, Carlton Are All-County

Seniors Brian Banda of Tecumseh and Terry Carlton of Clinton were chosen to the all-county baseball team by the Adrian Telegram Saturday.

Banda, who primarily played first for the Indians, also played some outfield and hit .347 with 25 hits in 72 trips to the plate. At bat, he had five doubles, drove in 12 runs and scored 13.

Banda also stole nine bases, had three sacrifice hits and walked three times. He had just two errors during the season.

Carlton, also an infielder, led the county in hitting with a .492 average. He had 30 hits as a Redskin with 61 at bats.

Carlton hit four doubles, one triple, drove in 12 runs and scored 20. He stole 12 bases, walked five times, and was guilty of six errors.

Honorable mentions in the area went to Troy Bailey, Greg Fanslau and Dennis Kimerer of Britton and Dave Porter of Clinton, Andy Geshwiler and Randy Halvin received honorable mentions for Tecumseh.

The other seven players chosen to the all-county team were from Adrian, Blissfield, Madison and Sand Creek.

Plan Softball Tournament

Royals Beat Twins, Orioles Win

MINOR LEAGUE

The Royals knocked off the previously unbeaten Twins 9-6 last week. Jim Short and Todd Powell combined to toss a three hit, 13 strike out game. Todd Powell and Clark Griffin led the hitting attack with three and two hits respectively.

The Orioles remain undefeated as they beat the Tigers 22-18 and the Royals 5-2.

John Foster, Matt Misterka and Allen Robinette collected two hits apiece for the Orioles. Jeff Fisher had a home run and a triple for the Tigers and Jeff Borton had three hits.

The Orioles scored two runs in the second and fourth innings then held off a late rally by the Royals as they picked up a 5-2 victory. Foster collected two hits for the Orioles.

MAJOR LEAGUE

The Police rallied for four runs in the last inning to slip by Plywood 11-10. Brian Purdy delivered a double that brought in the winning run. Purdy also had a home run and another base hit. Greg Knight was the winning pitcher as he struck out 10.

Tom Foster was the winning pitcher as UPW crushed Credit Unbion 28-5 in five innings. Gary Richardson slammed three home runs and a triple for UPW.

The Kiwanis picked up two victories as they shelled Rotary 21-18 and Plywood 12-1. Dan Rendell was the winning pitcher against Rotary as he struck out 12. Kevin Johnson had three hits for the Kiwanis. Mike Roseberg had four hits including a home run for Rotary.

UPW upset the Police 13-11. Gary Richardson was the winning pitcher and also had three hits including two home runs.

PONY LEAGUE

Ottawa Machine scored two runs in the fifth and added three more in the sixth as they defeated UPW 7-3. Mark McFadden was the winning pitcher as he gave up seven hits and struck out eight.

VFW blasted Milan Green 19-1 as Mickey Hyatt struck out nine and only gave up three hits. Milan's pitchers had trouble finding the plate as they walked 23 VFW batters.

Ottawa Machine scored six times in the first inning, and three in the third, and one in the fourth, and then held off a last inning rally by VFW to win 10-7. Jeff Reidberger was the winning pitcher as he struck out 10. Carl Harsh had a double and a single

Girls' Softball

SENIOR SOFTBALL

The girls fastpitch senior team got off to a good start this week with an 11-10 victory over Britton.

The game consisted of a lot of walks and strikeouts. Lori Burack, the winning pitcher, hurled a one-hitter for Tecumseh. Katie Rafael slammed a home run to help the victors pull it out.

JUNIOR SOFTBALL

Tecumseh #1 got blasted by Clinton 15-5. Tecumseh #2 and #3 squared off in a defensive dual. The final outcome saw Tecumseh #2 take the game from Tecumseh #3, 18-8. The score stayed even through the first three innings and then the #3 team made several errors to allow #2 to pull it out.

Monday night, the Juniors saw action again. Manchester #2 played Clinton in a tough battle which saw Clinton edge it out 14-11. Tecumseh #3 got by Manchester #1, 18-12.

The winless team of Tecumseh #1 failed to score as a strong Blissfield team slid past them 20-0. The final game saw Tecumseh #2 win over Deerfield, 15-3.

ANTHONY AMRHEIN BEAMS ABOUT HIS SOLAR COLLECTOR (HERALD PHOTO)

Sun Shines on Energy Saver

by Kathy Brown

Anthony Amrhein, 6181 Billmyer Hwy. saves money while the sun shines. He believes he is the first homeowner in the Tecumseh area to design, construct and operate an auxiliary home solar water heater system.

His invention has been operating since last August. It has saved him an average of $6.90 per month on his electric bill and as an unplanned bonus, qualified him for a $300 tax credit last year.

Amrhein explains that the materials he used are "non-exotic. The goal is to make it as cheaply as possible." His system cost about $1,000 for 120 sq. ft. of collector space.

"In the eyes of an accountant, it is probably not cost effective — not yet. But if you look at it from the standpoint that utility costs are continuing to rise, yes, it will be economical some day. You have to be philosophical about it. Any expendable energy has to be saved, oil, gas, whatever you can save should be saved. From a hobby standpoint, it gives me a good feeling to do this," said Amrhein.

Amrhein's system is called a flat plate collector system with five panels and 120 sq. ft. of collector surface aimed south in his back sideyard.

The panels are constructed with 2 x 4 wood frame, 3/8 inch plywood backing, one inch insulation, galvanized metal (leftover garage siding) that is painted sun-absorbing black with a special paint and copper tubing used for the heat exchange.

The system works on the principle of heat exchange. Water in the collector system is warmed year around as long as the sun shines. It moves along at the rate of .3 to .5 gallons per minute per collector.

It is diverted into the house into a "day tank", a 200 gallon old oil tank that is insulated. The household water is warmed as it is carried in the pipes that pass through the "day tank."

Attorney Advises: Do Not Sign

Tecumseh does not qualify for retroactive payment in the county's subsidy plan for ambulance service because it has not signed an agreement that would hold the county blameless in the event of legal action.

The city should not sign such an agreement, city attorney Greg Forsthoefel told Council Monday night, because the city does not have adequate insurance should the city be dragged into legal action if the ambulance provider does not have sufficient professional liability insurance, in essence malpractice insurance.

Forsthoefel said that the city does not have an agreement with either the county or EMT ambulance service at this point. He advised the city to investigate the availability of insurance before council acts.

"I don't think any attorney is going to predict what would happen if EMT is found negligent," Forsthoefel told Council regarding an outcome of any possible threat of legal action against the city.

Forsthoefel said he opposed the county subsidy plan for three reasons.

First, Forsthoefel said the hold harmless agreement was not required by the county in the original agreement with the cooperating units of government until March 5, when the city first received notice.

Second, Forsthoefel said he believes that the ambulance provider as private enterprise should be self-supporting, that in essence government should not be involved.

Third, he opposes the city's participation in the subsidy plan because "the county has total control" of the requirements.

Last week, the Lenawee County Board of Commissioners decided to reimburse local units of government with first quarter subsidy payments if they had provided all necessary paperwork prior to the mid-May deadline.

Tecumseh did not qualify since the county did not receive a hold harmless statement for the city. Tecumseh has already paid $2,373 to EMT ambulance for services for four months.

Walk-A-Thon Is Wednesday

Sponsor is the Tecumseh Jaycees. Proceeds will go for the national campaign against the disease.

Prizes will be awarded to first place walker with trophies to the top three. For more information, readers may call 423-3339.

Tecumseh Celebrates 4th with Fireworks

Fireworks are scheduled for the 4th of July in Tecumseh beginning at 9:30 p.m. Celebration will mark the beginning of the 204th year of independence of the United States of America.

The Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce and the city of Tecumseh are sponsors of the annual display. This year's display will feature $1,500 of fireworks.

They will be set off over the high school athletic area. As in previous years the North Evans ball diamond bleachers and lawn will be available for lawn seats.

Due to the new sod at the athletic field, however, there will be no ground display. Jim Fielder is in charge.

July 5 is the rain date.

The Shawnee Marchers will perform their summer competition show for the public beginning at 9 p.m., prior to the fireworks, in the vicinity of the North Evans field.

Tecumseh Police Chief Merlyn Mowrey asks parents to help keep their children under control and spectators to please refrain from throwing sparklers and other fireworks during the display to avoid accidents.

Ratify Contract

Tecumseh City Council was presented a signed three year police contract Monday night. Contract is retroactive to July 1978.

Contract provides for six percent annual increase for each year, addition of one holiday from nine holidays to 10, addition of rotating shift and changes in retirement system recently adopted for city employees by council.

Petition Requests 'Full Investigation'

A petition calling for a "full investigation" into the rape of a Tecumseh housewife June 4, allegedly by a juvenile resident of Boysville, was submitted to Tecumseh City Council Monday night.

The petition contained the signatures of 238 citizens from the city of Tecumseh and also its neighboring townships.

The petitioners stated: "We feel that the assault which took place would never have had the opportunity to occur had the supervisor been doing his job."

Petitoners said they wanted "some assurance that this type of situation will not have a chance to be repeated." They suggested "some type of censure or action by council."

Copies of the petition were sent to the administration of Boysville, Knights of Columbus of Michigan, Director of the Child Welfare Licensing of the Michigan Department of Social Services and State Senator John Mowat and State Representative James Hadden.

"We, too, are concerned," said Mayor Aden Mead. "However at this point, we can only wait and see what Boysville will do. I think the first responsibility is theirs."

He reassured the petitioners that the city is concerened about the incident.

Boysville had not received its copy of the petition when the Herald called Tuesday morning for comment. Brother Francis, administrater, said a statement would be forthcoming.

Registration Deadline Set

July 23 is the last day for Raisin Township residents to register to be eligible to vote in the special Aug. 21 recall election of three township officials.

County Clerk Pat Johnston announced the registration deadline last week.

Those who are not already registered may register for the election at the Raisin Township Hall, 5525 Occidental Rd. Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Or they may register with Chris Ruggirello, deputy township clerk, 2686 Coachlite Dr., Tecumseh. Call 423-3115 for appointment.

Registrations will also be taken the last day, July 23, between the hours of 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. in the township hall.

The election was called for by petition to determine the recall of township officers Supervisor Robert D. Moore, Clerk Marjorie Comfort and Trustee Robert J. Murray.

Big Boy, City Settle Taxes

Tecumseh Big Boy agreed to pay the city of Tecumseh the equivalent of personal property taxes and saved the city possible court decision.

An agreement signed by the three restaurant owners was presented to the city by restaurant attorney Henry Newlin Monday night.

At the June 18 council meeting, city administration argued that the original 1977 agreement between the Tecumseh Township restaurant and city provided that the restaurant would pay the equivalent of current city millage less 2 mills in lieu of taxes — both personal and property taxes — for the privilege of city sewer and water service.

Restaurant owners argued that the agreement was payment on real estate property taxes only. Council itself was split on its understanding of the agreement. Two councilmembers, Carlton Cook and Len DeMoss who made and seconded the original motion, were absent at the last meeting.

Regarding the restaurant's decision, city attorney Greg Forsthoefel said, "I think Big Boy is to be commended." Other council members agreed.

Children's Carnival Is Special Feature of Sidewalk Sale

Special features of Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce sponsored Sidewalk Day, July 20, will be a carnival for children in the parking area behind the fire station.

There will be clowns, popcorn and cotton candy.

Tecumseh Players will have a publicity booth to dispense general information about the Players, history of the group, and information on how to become a member, as well as the forthcoming show dates.

Costumed members of the Tecumseh Players will be distributing balloons to youngsters.

Anyone who needs information about Sidewalk Day may call Nadine Stites at Ken-Ray's on sponsoring a chicken barbecue at the Gregory Barber Shop, corner of E. Chicago Blvd. and Ottawa St.

Investigate 2 B&E's

Tecumseh police investigated two B&E's this week where intruders took cash and checks totaling $1,225 from the Tecumseh Community Center and gum and cigarettes from Bug's Marathon.

Last Wednesday police investigated the Community Center breaking to find vandals had broken out a west side door window to gain entry. They proceeded to the office area and broke the door there off the hinges.

That funny looking pole sprouting from home plate is the tee from which the mighty Mites hit.

At far left, Tim O'Toole grits his teeth in anticipation of contact. In the middle, Chad Eaton finds that swinging his tongue as well as his bat helps his concentration.

GTE Installs Equipment

Additional dial switching equipment is being installed in the Tecumseh office, according to Les Moench, Division Manager for General Telephone Company.

He said 200 lines of Touch Calling central office equipment is being installed to provide for more switching facilities.

These "lines" are the circuitry or communications channels necessary to route telephone calls within and through the Tecumseh central office.

This $54,200 project is necessary because of the continuing telephone growth in Tecumseh, Moench said, and will insure adequate facilities for the future growth. There are presently 8,773 telephones in the Tecumseh exchange.

For the Record

There was a typographical error in the page one story on the proposed special education one-mill tax for Lenawee County.

The lead paragraph should have read: The Lenawee Intermediate School District Board heard a rationale June 25 for a one mill county-wide charter tax proposal for special education that would raise $800,000. (Editor's note: not country-wide).

Players Elect 1979-80 Slate

Mary Ann Bone has been elected president of the Tecumseh Players for the 1979-80 season.

Ricki Speller will serve as vice-president.

Guil Rothfuss was elected treasurer and his wife Vesta will serve as chairperson of the play reading committee.

Other officers and board members are Elizabeth Frolich, publicity; Susan Santer, librarian and membership; Dick Egli, director committee chairman.

Gary Mills and Ginger Meikle are other members. One board member will still need to be appointed.

Earl Munson in Mishap

Earl J. Munson, 31, 2215 Munger Rd., was charged with not having an operator's license, when he was involved in a mishap, June 29 at 12:15 a.m. on Tecumseh-Clinton Rd. just south of Pennington Rd.

Munson told Clinton State Police he was southbound, when an oncoming car forced him off the road. His left rear tire blew after he went into the field.

Sun Shines on Collector

So water in the collectors is never used for drinking, bathing, etc. It only recirculates through the collectors into a day tank where it exchanges heat.

The system is sychronized so that when the temperature of the water in the collector system exceeds the temperature of the day tank by 6-10 degrees the system automatically starts to operate or slow down as necessary.

The day the Herald visited, the outdoor temperature was 74 degrees, 138 degrees in the collector and 130 degrees in the day tank, all Farenheit.

In winter, Amrhein also has a heat exchange system to divert heat from his fireplace to the water heater system.

Amrhein admits that he has learned from this first design. He acquired most of his design information through periodicals. He is a member of the Michigan Solar Energy Association. A center at Jordan College in Cedar Springs acts as an information exchange for people interested in alternative energy sources.

One of the problems with solar energy is aesthitics, said Amrhein. Solar designs are "something that people have to get accustomed to. However they can be built too cheaply and can distract from the looks of a home."

Amhrein said his next venture will be to design a solar hot air auxiliary heating system for the entire house which could be utilized in part as a greenhouse.

"It shrinks the heating season. It supplements utilities in the early fall and early spring when we have some nice days and some rotten days," Amhrein explained the benefits of solar heating.

Energy saving ideas seem to come naturally for Amrhein. He is an electrical engineer at Ford Motor Company, Saline, and a plant energy conservation coordinator.

Conservation is a tradition he grew up with in his native Germany. "In Europe, when you are not in the room using a lightbulb you turn it off."

Amrhein's wife Ilse and their daughters Dorothea, 19 and Kathryn, 16 share in the benefits of Amrhein's invention. "They were looking on eagerly when I was building it. I do all sorts of things like this. They are used to me by now."

"We also have a solar dryer," said Amrhein, pointing to the sheets, shirts and towels billowing in the breeze of the outdoor clothesline he said his wife has always preferred.

Two Accidents, Two Are Cited

Tecumseh police investigated two accidents this week, citing two drivers in minor mishaps.

Friday, Elvira Valdes, 31, 610 N. Maumee, was cited for failing to yield after she pulled from the United Savings Bank lot on N. Evans as Catherine Choske, 57, of 707 Wenonah was pulling in. The two collided as Choske was turning left.

Saturday, Douglas W. Schneider, 25, of Adrian was cited for driving too fast after he was unable to stop on Maumee at the Russell intersection. He slid through the intersection there, crossed into a field and overturned his motorcycle.

Police Report

the scene and $86 and in cash and $1,139 in checks were taken.

Tuesday morning, police went to Bugg's Marathon on N. Evans to find intruders there broke in and took cigarettes and gum.

Police believe the vandals attempted entry by the front door before going to the northeast side of the building and breaking in a garage window.

The handle on the safe was broken and the counter display had been tampered with, with a number of items missing from the display.

A resume of other police complaints includes:

June 27 — Steven R. Downing, 17, of Tipton was arrested on minor in possession of alcohol charges after police found him sitting by Raisin River with beer in his possession.

June 30 — Walter N. Frayer of 1104 Murray was arrested on DUIL charges after police stopped him for weaving on westbound Pottawatamie, west of Union.

Maxine's German Pretzels and Fabricare received malicious damage in a related incident Saturday. Maxine's sign was torn from the building and broken into pieces on the roof. Fluorescent bulbs at Fabricare were broken. Police have a suspect.

July 1 — Steven R. Downing, 17, of Tipton was arrested on minor in possession of alcohol charges and was also cited for driving with a suspended license after police stopped his auto. Police stopped Downing after he reportedly hit the median strip on eastbound Chicago. An Adrian passenger was also cited for minor in possession of alcohol.

Also Sunday, Robert Tiede of 210 Cairns reported a tool chest and wrenches stolen from his garage. Loss was set at $400.

Area Obituaries

DOYLE BUMPUS

Services were Tuesday at the Proctor Funeral Home for Doyle Wayne Bumpus, 41, of 11700 Brix Hwy., Brooklyn.

He was pronounced dead at the scene of a head on collision June 29 at "dead man's curve" on US-12 near Person Hwy.

Scot Marquedant, 21, driver of the second car, and a passenger, Keith Doke, 19, both of Brooklyn, were treated and released from Herrick Hospital. Marquedant was admitted to Addison Community Hospital Sunday.

According to a witness, the Marquedant auto was traveling at a high rate of speed, eastbound on US-12, crossed the center line and skidded into the westbound Bumpus car, sheriff's report said.

Marquedant told Lenawee County Sheriff's deputies the Bumpus auto crossed the center line causing him to slam on the brakes and slide into that car.

Sheriff's department continues to investigate the accident.

Bumpus was born May 16, 1937 in Tecumseh to Clarence C. Bumpus and Maxine Hoover. He married Nancy E. Brix in 1954. She survives.

Mr. Bumpus lived in this area his entire life and was an engineer at Tecumseh Products. He was a member of the First Congregational Church of Hudson and a church trustee.

He was also a member of the Irish Hills Eagles Lodge.

He is survived by his father and step-mother Clarence and Gladys Bumpus of Naubinway; his mother, Maxine Eggleston of Adrian; one son, Dennis and one daughter, Tamara, both of Brooklyn; and two sisters, Wilma Higgins and Beverly McCarley, both of Tecumseh.

He was preceded in death by one brother and his stepfather.

The Rev. Glenn Miller officiated. Burial was in Lenawee Hills Memorial Gardens in Tecumseh.

Naomi Sallows Chairs Class

Naomi Sallows was elected president of the Friendly Quakers class of Friends Church at a potluck dinner meeting June 26.

Other officers elected are: vice-president, Ethel Wright; secretary, Louis Johnson; assistant secretary, Elizabeth Manley; treasurer, Fay VanValkenburg; assistant treasurer, Carroll Hess; sunshine committee, Iva Hotrum and Nova Comfort; teachers, Clark Pearson and Mary King; program committee, Ruth Halley, Gertrude Hess and Mary King.

Meeting was attended by 16 members and the Rev. Dane Ruff.

MR. AND MRS. DARCY DIOT

Cindy Piatt and Darcy Diot Wed

Cindy Piatt and Darcy Diot were married June 23 at the United Church of Christ in Clinton.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Piatt of 326 E. Franklin St., Clinton and Mrs. Elaine Diot of Algonac and William Diot of St. Clair Shores.

The Rev. Roy Wagner officiated the ceremony.

Blue and white gladioli, daisies and mums decorated the altar, white bows marked the pews and green plants decorated the sanctuary.

For her wedding the bride wore a sleeveless, white chiffon gown with wedding band collar and flounced A-line skirt, trimmed with Brussels lace.

Bridesmaids were Sue Oakes of Lansing, Sue Frolich of Clinton, Carol Heye of Lansing, Sherry Diot, the groom's sister, was flower girl.

Best man was Tim Brown of Algonac. Ushers were Mike Giampartone, Jim Sammons and John Groebbel, all of Algonac. Steve Diot, the groom's brother, was ring bearer.

The bride attends the school of nursing and the groom is studying crimonology, both at Grand Valley College.

After a four day vacation along Lake Michigan, the couple will reside in Grand Rapids.

The groom's father hosted the rehearsal dinner at Cedar Shack restaurant.

The engagement of Sheryl Bihlmeyer to Robert Ondrovick is announced. Her parents are Joan Bihlmeyer of Tecumseh and Duane Bihlmeyer of Tecumseh. She is a 1978 Tecumseh graduate. Her fiance is coach and industrial teacher at Tecumseh High School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ondrovick of Blissfield. No date has been set.

The engagement of Sheila Bihlmeyer to William Zimmerman is announced. Her parents are Joan Bihlmeyer of Tecumseh and Duane Bihlmeyer of Tecumseh. She is a 1978 Tecumseh graduate, employed at Northern Telecom in Ann Arbor. Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Zimmerman of Clinton. He is employed at the Ford Motor Company, Rawsonville plant. An Aug. 24 wedding is planned at the Clinton United Church of Christ.

The engagement of Michele Maria Vanzo to John Thomas Espinoza is announced by her parents Mr. and Mrs. James Vanzo of Addison, formerly of Tecumseh. The bride-elect is a 1977 Tecumseh graduate, employed at the Lenawee Medical Care Facility. Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Anthony Espinoza of Adrian. He is an Adrian high school graduate and attended Spartan School of Aeronautics. An Aug. 4 wedding is planned at Lumen Chapel in Adrian.

Yes, Donna Is Real

Yes, Tecumseh area, there really is a human being on the other end of the Tecumseh Answering Service. And there is a new owner, too.

Donna Prater of Holloway Rd. in Raisin Township is the new owner of the answering service. She took over the business May 1 from previous owner Beulah McClellan of Tecumseh.

Donna said this is the first time she has gone into such a business venture. She reported that it is going well however, "most people think that an answering service is a box, a tape recorder, and it is not. It's a real person back here.

"Most people call and when I answer 'Tecumseh Answering Service' they ask me: 'Is this a recording?' I tell them it isn't. It really is me. But I wonder what they would say if I told them 'It isn't me. This is a recording.'"

Donna and her husband Ross, a die caster at the Ford Rawsonville plant, have two children Cheri, 10 and Rhonda, 7. They attend Tecumseh schools.

One of Donna's current customers is the Tecumseh Jobs for Teens. People who have a summer job for a teen may call the answering service at 423-3708, 24 hours in advance.

The Tecumseh Jaycee Auxiliary, sponsors of the program, will then return the calls and match the potential employer with one of several teens aged 13-18 who are willing to work to earn some summer cash.

What's worse than having your $45,000 house burn to the ground?

Having an insurance policy that only pays $25,000.

Every year, inflation and rising property values increase the value of your home. And make it that much more expensive to replace should something happen to make it a total loss.

But if you have an Auto-Owners homeowners policy with Adjusted Value Endorsement, you're protected. Because this modern Auto-Owners policy is designed to keep pace with rising values automatically.

If you aren't covered by Auto-Owners . . . well, maybe you should be replacing your present insurance. Let us fill you in. Before you have to replace your home.

Announcing 4 YEAR INVESTMENT CERTIFICATES.

Ask us about this new high yield savings certificate.

Commercial Savings Bank is now offering a new form of savings certificate, which can be a significant investment opportunity.

This four-year certificate requires a minimum deposit of just $1000.00. It pays 1¼ percent less than the average four-year yield of U.S. Treasury Securities.

Using recent performance of Treasury Securities as an indicator, our new investment certificate can be expected to provide higher returns than conventional four-year certificates of deposit.

For more information about this important investment opportunity, contact any office of CSB.

Money facts about funerals from people who want you to know.

Knowledge is the best protection you have against spending more than you should for a funeral. That's why National Selected Morticians has published a booklet that tells you now what, someday, you'll have to know. In it, you'll learn about costs . . . optional services . . . and the procedures of planning a funeral.

Think about it. Isn't it better to have the facts beforehand rather than face the reality of planning a funeral without the time or the knowledge to make wise decisions?

Mail the coupon or visit us for this free, impartially written booklet.

Bands Play on Despite Rain

The bands played on Friday night despite the rain during the second annual Tecumseh Marching Band Contest.

The nine bands performed in the high school gym. Flag corps and riflers were able to perform routines, but the quarters were too cramped for much of a show by the bands.

Cheaning won the first prize in the open flight and the Warren Military Band received second. Bad Axe came away with first prize in the first flight and Reed City took second.

According to band competition guidelines, the Shawnee Marchers were not allowed to compete but did perform.

The Shawnee Marchers did however compete in three other band competitions in a grueling schedule this past weekend. They returned early morning Tuesday.

And they are scheduled to compete in three more competitions this weekend.

Luisa Calkins was born and raised in a town situated right in the middle of Germany. She has been residing in the United States for 15 years. She and her husband, David, have a teenage son and daughter and now live in Tecumseh.

Luisa presented the Tecumseh Band Boosters with the idea of the International Dinner held in May and was the co-ordinator for the event. This first recipe was served at the dinner.

HUNGARIAN GOULASH

4 pounds beef chuck or rump cut in 1½ inch squares
2 strips bacon or salt pork
6 medium onions, coarsely chopped
3 tablespoons paprika
1½ teaspoon salt
2 green peppers (or 1 green and 1 red pepper)
2 bay leaves
2 tablespoons Maggi (seasoning at Kroger Deli)
2 tablespoons Crisco
1 teaspoon Kitchen Bouquet
1 tablespoon cornstarch
2 pounds sauerkraut (optional)
½ teaspoon pepper

Brown beef on all sides in Crisco in large skillet. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Add onions and bacon to skillet and brown.

Transfer meat, onions and bacon to kettle or dutch oven. Heat 4 cups hot water and stir into skillet to mix with drippings and make broth. Transfer to kettle.

Add green pepper, paprika, bay leaves, Maggi. Cook slowly over low heat until meat is tender but not soft. Add 1 teaspoon Kitchen Bouquet. Blend cornstarch into ¼ cup cold water until smooth and add to broth to thicken gravy. Stir well. Serve hot. Serves 8-10.

For variation, omit cornstarch and add 2 pounds of drained sauerkraut to the meat after the meat has cooked for 1½ hours. Continue cooking for one half hour.

TORTENBODEN

3½ ounces sugar (a little more than ⅓ cup)
3 large eggs
¼ teaspoon vanilla
¼ teaspoon lemon extract
6 ounces flour (¾ cup)
1 teaspoon baking powder

Separate eggs. Beat egg whites until stiff. Set aside. Mix sugars with egg yolks until creamy. Combine flour and baking powder and add one spoonful at a time to the yolk/sugar mixture.

Beat after each addition. Add lemon and vanilla extract. Beat for another five minutes. Fold in egg whites slowly. Grease with butter a fluted Tortenboden pan or a 9 x 13 inch cake pan.

Carefully pour batter into prepared pan. Bake in preheated oven 375 degrees for 12 minutes. Cool on rack. When fully cool, fill with choice of filling. Serve with whipped cream or ice cream.

FILLING SUGGESTIONS:

1) Top with 2 cups fresh fruit thickened with two heaping teaspoons cornstarch in fruit juice.

2) Top with prepared pie filling.

3) Spread with vanilla pudding and top with fresh in season fruit.

Tortenboden can be prepared ahead and frozen for a long time without filling. Remove from freezer and fill when needed.

Tortenboden pan can be purchased at the Oetker Cake Place in Saline and in other gourmet shops.

Luisa gave these recipes on Kay Russell's Tecumseh Spotlight Show (WLEN Radio). Kay will interview Luisa and Britt Wann again.

View Blocked

Helen Hendershot, 70, of 7723 Hendershot Hwy. was eastbound on Munger Rd., when she apparently pulled into the intersection and stuck a southbound vehicle driven by Ralph D. Samples, 53, of Clinton.

There were no injuries. Mishap occurred at 7:50 a.m., June 29.

Bible School Attracts 150

Vacation Bible school was just completed at the Church of Christ in Tecumseh. About 150 attended.

A program was held Friday night and a picnic with organized games was held Saturday with a soft ball game through most of the afternoon. Food, fun and fellowship was experienced.

The church is planning "an even bigger and better" vacation Bible school next year, according to minister Otis Lang.

He invited residents to regular services at the Church of Christ, 312 W. Chicago Blvd. He broadcasts a radio program each morning beginning at 9:45 a.m. on WLEN-FM in Tecumseh.

Seek Director for Play

The opening production by the Cromwell Players for Fall 1979 will be "Butterflies Are Free" by Leonard Gershe, and applications are now being accepted from those persons interested in directing it.

The story concerns a blind young man living alone in Greenwich Village, who seeks independence from a domineering mother by developing a relationship with the girl in the apartment next door.

The production will be presented Oct. 18, 19 and 20.

Anyone interested in directing this play should send a resume to Jo Ann Dalgard, 5802 Billmyer Rd., Tecumseh, Mich. before July 10.

4 Tecumsehites Study at Camp

They are band student Susan McCann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. McCann, 6250 Rogers Hwy., and piano students Chyrl Peck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren L. Peck, 509 W.Chicago Blvd.; David Compton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam L. Compton, 504 Blanchard St. and Dan Gamber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Phillippi of Tipton.

Blue Lake hosts approximately 3,200 elementary through high school students this summer and offers instruction in a wide variety of the fine arts field.

Located 15 miles north of Muskegon in the Manistee National Forest, the 14-year-old summer school of the arts has grown to be one of the largest facilities of its type in the United States.

Students attending Blue Lake's first two-week session have the option to major in art, band, choir, dance, jazz-rock ensemble, orchestra, piano or theater. The first session is primarily for intermediate school students.

Students who elect a band major at Blue Lake can expect to find their work challenging, no matter what their level of proficiency or experience might be.

Band students are assigned to one of three different bands on the basis of ability. In addition to three hours of intensive daily rehearsals and sectionals, technique classes and a master class are included as part of the regular fee.

The goals of Blue Lake's piano program are to introduce the students to a wide variety of keyboard literature, to aid the student in acquiring effective practice discipline and to expose the student to aspects of piano including accompanying, keyboard ensembles, harmonization and transportation.

Tecumseh Plant Recognizes 3 Men

Three Tecumseh area men — Murray G. Palmer, Leo Perrin and Robert E. Marvar — were honored during June at special lunches in recognition of their 25th service anniversaries with Fisher Body Division, General Motors.

William H. Siegmund, plant manager, presented each with a clock inscribed with his service date and a special Fisher Body Division service certificate in commemoration of the events.

Murray G. Palmer, a native of Detroit, began his career with GM's Fisher Body Division General Offices in Warren May 25, 1954 as mailroom clerk following graduation from high school.

March 1, 1965 marked the date of transfer to the Tecumseh Plant as accountant-payroll accounting.

In Sept. 1965 he was promoted to supervisor-payroll accounting with his further promotion to general supervisor-payroll Jan. 1, 1969.

Since coming to Tecumseh he has served local government as councilman (1970-72) and is currently a member of the board of trustees First Baptist Church of Tecumseh. The Palmer family resides at 5546 Milwaukee Rd.

Leo Perrin began his GM career with the Fisher Body Livonia Plant as a senior clerk-general accounting June 1, 1954.

The opening of the new Fisher Body Tecumseh Plant brought about his transfer and promotion to general supervisor-cost accounting April 16, 1965.

Mr. Perrin transferred to the general accounting section of accounting June 1, 1969 where he currently serves as general supervisor.

Cambridge Starts Season

The Cambridge State Historic Park is now open seven days per week.

The park is located at the junction of US-12 and M-50, within the Irish Hills. The park interprets the history of southeast Michigan's frontier period (1835-1855).

The visitor may also request a 15 minute movie, a hands-on demonstration of frontier lighting devices, or a guided tour of the historic park.

The Walker Tavern, an 1840's stagecoach stop, and the 1840's barn are included in the tour program.

For information on our group tour program, call 517-467-4414.

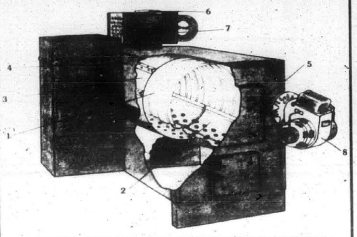
This unique furnace combines the economy of wood with the convenience of gas or oil

The dualfuel means comfort economy and durability

LONGWOOD

The Longwood Dualfuel furnace
- cuts fuel costs up to 75%
- accommodates wood up to 5 feet long
- provides heat during electric power outages
- requires minimal tending (12-hour intervals)
- ignites wood automatically
- burns wood to fine powder ash
- controls temperature with automatic thermostat



1 STAINLESS STEEL 14 GAUGE COMBUSTION CHAMBER liner inside the 3/16" steel heat exchanger for high heat transfer and durability.

3 3/16" STEEL HEAT EXCHANGER This exceptionally heavy steel construction is designed to give years of dependable service.

4 ALUMINUM JACKET The high heat transfer capabilities of the aluminum jacket make it an important feature. It also contains a rust proof cabinet and one that is cool to the touch.

5 LARGE 12" x 12" COMPRESSION SEALED DOOR The fire door is provided with a roller for easy tending.

6 STANDARD 6" FLUE.

7 FLUE HEAT RECLAIMER Heat that is ordinarily lost up the flue on all conventional wood furnaces is reclaimed on the Longwood Dualfuel. Hot flue gases pass over 35 heat tubes. A thermostatically controlled blower forces fresh air through the heat tubes and reclaims as much as 30,000 BTUs which normally would be lost up the chimney.

8 OIL OR GAS (LP or natural gas) power burners are available as standard equipment and are interchangeable.

The Longwood Dualfuel is just as efficient as a modern conventional furnace when operated on gas or oil alone.

DEVILS LAKE ELECTRIC TOWER CIRCA 1930's

Supper Club 'Swings' Again

BRITTON — The White Swan Supper Club near Devils Lake has been renovated under the new management of John Lorenz of Britton.

A 1974 graduate of Britton-Macon High School, John went to Arizona State University. He then worked for the Del Webb Corp. and later with The Marriott Hotel chain in Arizona and California.

The White Swan Supper Club is now the home of a "Big Band Supper Club". The Supper Club is currently enjoying its grand opening.

A local group "The Continentals" plays all "Big Band Hits" and Lenawee County residents can once more visit the old Devil's Lake Electric Tower.

Class Examines How To Motivate

Motivation, a workshop for teachers who want to upgrade their skills for motivating classroom achievement, will begin Monday at Adrian College.

Available for three hours of graduate or non-graduate credit, the course will meet each weekday through July 20 on campus. Instructor of the course is Dr. Tom Hyldahl, an instructor of education at the college.

The course is designed to deal with the psychological and sociological theories of motivation and the means of developing and evaluating achievement motivation. Practical concerns will be handled by dealing with discovery and evaluation of motivation.

A member of the Adrian faculty since 1977, Dr. Hyldahl completed his doctoral studies in educational psychology and foundations of education. He also has taught at Kent State University and the University of Akron.

Registration for the course may be completed at the Registrar's Office through the first day of class. Contact the education department at Adrian College, (517) 265-5161, ext. 207, for more information.

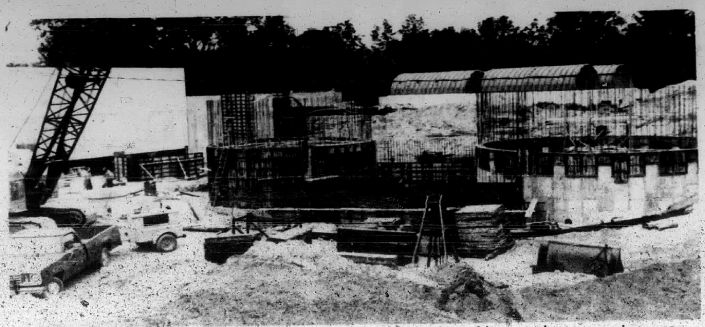
July 4 Party

MACON — The sesquicentennial birthday party for Macon residents and former residents will be July 4 at the Eldredge Mill, Mills-Macon Rd. beginning at 2 p.m.

Party was postponed due to the unseasonable cold and rainy weather Saturday and Sunday.

Dug to the Tecumseh fireworks, the only event to be cancelled is the evening square dance.



CLINTON'S WASTEWATER PLANT — $4 million project is behind schedule, but may be opened by year's end. Complex construction involves filter tanks, screening process, digester, clarifiers and automated equipment center, all engineered to return clean water to the River Raisin.

Sewer Plant Half Complete in Clinton

CLINTON — Fourteen months of construction brought Clinton's wastewater treatment plan to only 50 percent of completion, according to village engineer Richard Sharpe.

The project, which was 10 years in the planning, was scheduled for fall 1978 completion, but after numerous delays, it may be the end of the year before it is done, Sharpe said.

Sadler Construction Co. is building the plant, which will cost nearly $4 million.

Federal grant will pay for 75 percent of cost; state, five percent, and village 20 percent.

The village has already issued $650,000 of bonds to pay for its share.

A shower of cards is requested for Bertha Mahrle on her 82nd birthday, July 5. Her address is: Evangelical Home, 440 W. Russell, Saline, Mi. 48176.

Hootenany Sparks July 4 Party

CLINTON — The all day celebration of the Fourth of July and Clinton's 150th anniversary, Wednesday, will be sparked by a hootenany from 4 to 5 p.m.

Local talent participating in the hootenany will include the Four Wards of Haromony, barbershop quartet; Genevieve Reilly, fiddler; Peg and Cindy Geiger leading sing-along; vocalist Sally Scheer; musician Carolyn Dicks, and others will be joining in the fun.

For the square dance from 6 to 8 p.m. at the tennis courts, Elwood Bush will be the caller, and the fiddler will be Ray Shepherd of Onsted.

Clinton Township Board contributed toward the cost of the day's activities, sponsored by the Historical Society of Clinton.

Jaycees Host July 15 Barbecue

CLINTON — Clinton Area Jaycees planned a chicken barbecue to be held July 15, at Memorial Park, with serving starting at 8:30 a.m. and continuing until late afternoon.

A family swim-social will be held at Vineyard Lake, July 29. Meat and beverage will be furnished. Those attending are to bring a dish to pass and table service.

Next regular meeting, Aug. 6, will be Membership Night, at the Pizza Pit at 7:30 p.m.

School Board Organizes

CLINTON — Board of Education of Clinton Community Schools will meet July 11 at 8 p.m. to elect offices for the 1979 school year, and to select meeting times, place and dates.

After the organizational meeting, the board will hold a regular session to transact normal July business.

No one wanted the old country church torn down when the new building was put up across the road. It just didn't seem respectful. Charlie Swenson suggested, "Why not make it a museum?"

You should have seen the activity here one Saturday. Everyone for miles around turned out, bringing mops and paint brushes — and, of course, chicken salad and apple pies. Then we had a dedication ceremony. Charlie Swenson's wife accompanied us on the old piano as we sang "The Church's One Foundation."

Now tourists from the city come out to see the pot-bellied stoves, rustic pews and old lamps in our church museum. Once each summer we worship here.

For some of us there will always be a place in our hearts for this little church where we first learned about the teachings of God's Son. We love the new one, too. It is leading new generations into finding the same enduring values.

Four Escape Potential Fire Hazard

Madeline C. Townsend, president, Realty World Townsend II, announces that M. Susan McKeever is the first realtor from the firm this year to close in excess of one million dollars in volume. Susan also completed Institute I, II and III offered during the winter quarter by the University of Michigan and the Michigan Association of Realtors to earn the G.R.I. designation.

Four persons received serious injuries, were treated at Bixby Hospital and then transferred to St. Joseph Hospital, June 29, following an accident on Ridge Rd., 200 ft. south of Milwaukee Rd.

Walda A. Landrum, 26, of Ypsilanti, was the driver of a southbound vehicle, which slid out of control, left the road, struck and uprooted a tree, then flipped over throwing out all the occupants.

The car then came to rest upside down, as it ruptured a full tank of liquid propane gas at the residence of Carol DeJonghe, 7861 Ridge Rd., Britton.

Troop 272 Camps Out

Twenty-five scouts and leaders of Boy Scout troop 272 camped at Camp Kanasatache June 22-24.

Henry Smoke directed an instruction session on the proper use of firearms and supervised the rifle shooting exercise.

Many of the scouts went swimming in Lake Washington and cooking meals over wood fires in portable grills.

A special camp fire program was presented Saturday night which included skits by the different patrols, singing camp songs, and story telling.

Hawaii Calls Club Women

The Northeast Tecumseh Extension Club met June 26 at 5:30 p.m. for a planned meal as part of the "Food and People lesson" on Hawaii.

It was held at the home of Mrs. Ellsworth Robinson with eight members present and a former member, Mrs. Elmer Wiln of Cedarville of the Upper Peninsula as guest.

Mrs. Gwen Cox gave the lesson on Hawaii and roll call answered with a fact or item on the Islands.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

The chain saw roared and for once my teeth did not stand on end. Chain saws are not normally among my favorite things but in this instance I knew where it was, who was 'manning' it, and what it was doing.

In fact, what it was doing it we did have a camera was doing to help Mom and ready.
me. We dearly love trees, bushes and green leaves; however, even a good thing can be carried too far. And so it was that the General and his Lady came to our rescue.

Over the years the trees on the creek bank had grown and new ones had sprung up until suddenly we realized that, although we were living by the creek, we could see little of the water.

The curtain of green leaves was pulled down so tightly to the top of the bank that our view, from both the porch and my room, was almost completely blocked. And, we asked ourselves, what was the use of living by the creek if we could not see it?

Then came the evening when the General and his Lady arrived with a chain saw, safety glasses, ear plugs, a special hat and sturdy boots.

As he sliced off offending branches and view-blocking sapplings she directed traffic as it were.

Mom and I were saying "yes" to that branch and "no" to another, his Lady relayed the messages. It was quite a well coordinated operation and before it seemed possible, the views were opening up.

It is always a pleasure to watch people who know what they are doing. Never is there a wasted motion. On this particular evening, and it was early in the evening, the sun was casting long shadows and shining through the trees with that special kind of low slanting rays.

At one time I looked and saw a classic picture. The foreground was in deep shadow but there were bright spots of sunshine, especially on the creek itself.

The General was standing in half light. He was poised to start taking off another limb and his chain saw was putting out pale blue exhaust. The back lighting was perfect and the composition could not have been better. Naturally,

Now Mom and I are enjoying super creek views from both the porch and my west facing window. Raising the green leafy curtain was done carefully — we can see more but the trees do not look scalped nor are there ugly empty places where the saplings were cut out.

Any time of the day we can look out and be so grateful to be living where we are. The play of light and shadow on the water as it ripples over three sets of rapids is soothing to the soul and exciting to the imagination.

Already there are three things I expect to see in or along the creek. A raccoon, a great blue heron and an Indian.

The raccoon we have already had the thrill of watching. He came splashing across the creek, sat on a stone and stared up at the house. He finally turned, waded back across the stream and disappeared.

The great blue heron has not yet made an appearance. Any day though we hope to see him slowly stalking up the creek looking for small fish, frogs or what have you.

Perhaps everyone will not understand about my Indian but I see no reason why he shouldn't come gliding by sometime. It will probably be early on a misty morning or in the haze of dusk.

He will perhaps have come from Evans Lake and will work towards the Council Grounds. His clothes will be buckskin and not spick-and span clean, his hair will be long and greasy, chances are good he will wear only a feather or two in it.

Will he be in a birchbark canoe or a dugout — I'm not quite sure but probably the former. Chances are he will be a member of the Pottawatamie tribe and one bond between us is that I was born and spent early years living on Pottawatamie Street.

Oh, but it is fun to see the creek again.

Griggs Operate Wee Tee

The Lyle M. and Marvin C. Griggs are the new owners of the Wee Tee Golf located on US-12 across from the Walter J. Hayes State Park.

The 18-hole miniature golf course and indoor arcade offers entertainment for all ages.

The Grigg family has many friends among Tecumseh Herald readers. They are former Tecumseh residents. Lyle is retired from the Tecumseh Products. Dorothy served as society editor of the Tecumseh Herald for [illegible] years.

Their son Marvin was Cambridge Township Supervisor for four years and was a manager for two other Irish Hills attractions, Prehistoric Forest and Mystery Hill for about 12 years.

While we had Dorothy on the line, we decided to catch up with the rest of the Grigg brood.

Son Norman is employed at Willow Run plant of General Motors. He and wife Carolyn have three childen Amy, 7, Tony, 5 and Anita, four months old.

Daughter Camilla Woodhaving the time of her life driving a freightliner truck up and down the Washington state coast for Borden Chemical Company.

Her mother, who has had an opportunity to ride with Camilla, is fascinated with her daughter's command of the monster. "She pulls out stops. Uses 13 gears. To me, it's like playing an organ," commented Dorothy Grigg.

Beef Recipes Yield Cash

Your favorite low cost beef recipe could win you $1,500 in the 1979 Beef Cook-Off sponsored by the Michigan Beef Industry Commission and the American CowBelles.

Finalists will compete in the Michigan Beef Cook-Off to be held Aug. 13, in East Lansing.

The winner of this state contest will receive an all expense paid trip for two to Omaha, Neb. for the National Beef Cook-Off. National prizes include $1,500 first place, $750 second place, $500 third place, and five $100 honorable mention awards.

Anyone 18 years and older with a non-professional food status is eligible to enter. The recipe must contain a minimum of two pounds and maximum of five pounds of beef using cuts from the chuck, round, brisket, and rump. The meat must be exclusively beef. Total cooking time cannot exceed four hours, not including marinating time.

All recipes should be specific — no brand names, no tenderizers, and indicate the number of servings and approximate cost per serving. Finalist recipes will be judged on taste, ease of preparation, originality and appearance.

Recipes should be received no later than July 15. Finalists will be notified by mail by Aug. 1.

Girls Head for Hills

Brownie troop 242 of Tecumseh will participate in a new program at Camp O' the Hills June 25-27, called core staff camping.

Girl Scout troops will be attending Camp O' the Hills, Brooklyn, with their own leaders, while the summer camp staff will be there to help them.

Activities available for the troops during the week will include nature exploration, sports, swimming, boating, crafts, camp skills, camp fires and service projects.

Meals will be served in the dining hall or cooked over a camp fire by the girls.

Debbi Opel, 208 N. Union, feels that camping with other troops will broaden the girls' feeling for what Girl Scouting is all about.

During July and August, Camp O' the Hills, operated by Irish Hills Girl Scout Council, offers one-week sessions for individual girls who have completed first through twelfth grades. Girls who are not Girl Scouts are also welcome.

Friendship Camp for physically and mentally impaired boys and girls will be held July 23-28. For further information, call 784-8543.

Welcome Mom with Dinner

The convention of 2,700 delegates was the largest for that city. There are 190,000 members of AAUW.

Speakers included Maureen Reagan, daughter of Ronald Reagan, Judy Carter, daughter-in-law of President Jimmy Carter, both ERA advocates, and Sarah Weddington, Special assistant to the President.

Marjorie Bell Chambers, national president of AAUW also spoke. She is chairwoman of the President's advisory council on women.

Managing resources for tomorrow and families facing change are two of the program themes for the administrative year. The delegates visited examples of solar homes.

AAUW's goal is to advance the status of women through organizing college alumnae. AAUW has a national budget of almost $2 million and a $19 million endowment for fellowships and grants for women and men.

Though assertiveness training was not on the program, Betty had a chance to exercise her skills.

She had three dozen cans in boxes labeled 'Do not touch" stored in her hotel room. The cans were souvenirs for her sons Mike and David who have a collection.

When the room was cleaned, the boxes disappeared. Betty refused to pay her bill until the cans were replaced. Finally, the management sent bellhops scurrying around to replace the missing collection.

Back on the home front, Mike and David prepared their catch of fish for Saturday dinner for their parents. They used the only recipe they could find for crayfish—a Swedish recipe for Dilled Marinated Crayfish.

"I didn't suffer and neither did they," Betty concluded about the trip away from home.

DOUBLE PLAY — Welding Metal's third baseman turned an unassisted double play here Wednesday. Pat Murphy got the force at third and then wheeled it over to first for the second out. The play was not nearly enough, however, as Metals lost the match to Big Boy 21-6. (PHOTOS BY KENT DOWNING)

Gastons Win Two, Up Record to 7-1

MAJOR LEAGUE

The J.C.'s just slipped past Plywood 9-8 in eight innings and then defeated the Kiwanis 25-4. Craig Rudolph had three hits against Plywood. Jamie Baty had two hits for Plywood. Tim Winzeler, Ryan Cadmus and Craig Rudolph led the J.C.'s hitting attack against the Kiwanis.

The Police easily defeated the Kiwanis 18-6 and then dropped an 8-5 decision to the Lions. Brian Purdy had two home runs while Greg Knight and Scott McCarley collected two hits apiece.

Dennis Phillips pitched the Lions to an 8-5 victory while Jeff Wood, Kevin Adams, Ron Orr, Steve Squires and Dennis Phillips had two hits apiece for the Lions. Greg Knight had three runs for the Police.

Credit Union picked up two victories last week with a 17-16 win over Rotary and then a 15-9 victory over Plywood. James Fliss, Fred Anspach, and Kelly McCrate led the hitting attack against Rotary. Fliss was the winning pitcher.

PONY LEAGUE

Gaston's knocked off previously undefeated Milan Red 11-6 and ripped their record to 7-1 by defeating Milan Green 19-7. Kurzyniec and Smith shared the pitching duties against Milan Red. Smith also had two hits to pace Gaston's. Kurzyniec and Smith led the hitting attack against Milan Green with two hits apiece.

Micky Hyatt pitched a very strong game against Milan Red as he struck out eight and only allowed three hits.

Plan Camp

John Drennan, new head basketball coach at Britton, is planning a five day basketball camp beginning Monday, July 16th.

The fourth annual Adrian College camp is for all boys and girls entering grades seven to 12 and will feature five speakers.

For more information, call Drennan collect at 313-529-2776 for a complete brochure.

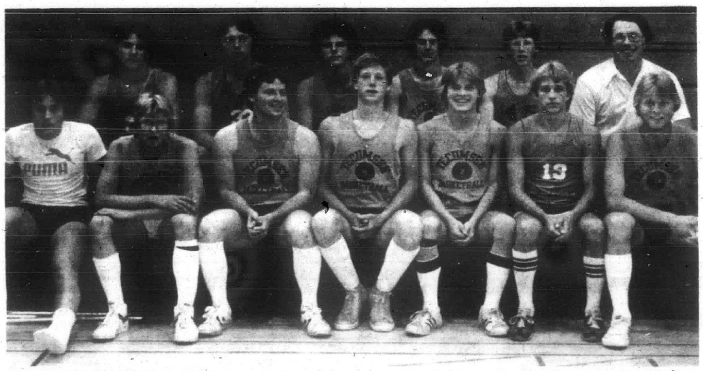
Twins Beat Orioles

The Twins knocked off the previous undefeated Orioles 14-10 in minor league action last week. Brian Kurzyniec was the winning pitcher for the Twins. Lance Harter, Jeff Hawkins, and Mike Wilson had two hits apiece for the Twins.

The Yankees were very tough this last week as they defeated the Athletics 11-6, and then blasted the Twins 23-3. Mike Conrad was the winning pitcher while John Hartley and James Randall had three hits apiece. Mike Conrad and Ray Brosamer had three hits against the Twins.

The Royals held off a last inning rally by the Angels to win 7-6. Guy Gregg, Clark Griffin, Jim Short and Jeff Warzynski had two hits apiece. Clark Griffin, Mike Fowers, Danny Weimer, Darren Bow and Jim Short led the hitting attack as the Royals scalped the Braves 20-5.

A week ago, the Yankees also knocked off the Angels 5-2 and the Braves 28-6. Mike Conrad was the winning pitcher against the Angels and John Hartley got the 28-6 win over the Braves. Hartley also went five for five at the plate.



SUMMER BASKETBALL — Tecumseh coach Jim Curth, upper right, kept his perspective 79-80 basketball team in shape after school by playing scrimmages and games with other schools. Their summer program concluded Thursday and participants included, front, l-r, Dave Cubberly, Pat Lytle, Brian Long, Randy Wisner, Kevin Salters, D.J. Biscupski and Steve Pope. Top, Dave Duhan, Todd Palmer, Wally Foster, Jeff Corley and Scott MacDonald. Missing are Scott Hans, Marty Wallich, Ron Smith and Scott Schafer. (PHOTO BY JOHN SEAY)

Games End with 10-Run Rule

SENIOR SOFTBALL LEAGUE

Senior softball games played last Tuesday night were all won easily. Two games ended with the 10-run rule established by the league.

Tecumseh got by Deerfield 15-5 in six innings of play. Lori Burack, the winning pitcher, gave up three hits, walked one, and struck out seven players.

Tecumseh committed only two errors in the game while they delivered 13 hits off of Deerfield's pitching. Cassie Palmer led the hitting attack with three while Lisa Lapham and Kathy Steuwe each had two hits.

In other action, Blissfield downed Britton 17-4. Lisa Delzith had a home run for Blissfield. Lee Price delivered two hits for Britton.

Blissfield won over Deerfield 15-6 in a make-up game. Blisfield's two pitchers did an outstanding job for the team.

Thursday night saw some evenly matched teams battle to the end before the games were decided. Britton squeaked by Deerfield 11-8.Deerfield tried to rally back in the seventh inning, but a tough Britton defense held on to save the win.

Lee Price had two hits for Britton and Jill Smith and Julie Kniffen both had home runs. For Deerfield, Kim Iott played a tough game at shortstop and had two hits. Also with two hits for Deerfield were Sharon Gilson and Nona Iott.

The other Senior game matched up Blissfield and Tecumseh, the two undefeated teams in the league. Blissfield's pitching and defense proved to be more than Tecumseh could handle in the early innings.

After the first two innings, Tecumseh was able to hold down Blissfield. The final score was 9-1. Thompson, the winning pitcher, hurled a two-hitter. She had 16 strike outs and gave up ony two walks.

Burck, Tecumseh's pitcher had 11 strike outs and allowed five walks.

JUNIOR SOFTBALL

Wednesday night's Junior Softball League saw runs being scored frequently.

Tecumseh's #3 team got by Clinton easily 27-5. Terri Ruggirello, Wendy Phelps, and Mamie Wallace all had home runs for Tecumseh. Brenda Lape had a double.

In the two late games, Deerfield took the lead in the first inning and held on to beat a determined Manchester #1 team 13-8. Lori Jones had a home run for Deerfield.

Tecumseh's #1 team rallied in the fifth inning with six runs, but it wasn't enough as Britton held on to win 16-8.

Local and State Police Busy with Two B&E's, Fleeing Driver and Concealed Gun

Ernest Wayne Oliver, 22, of 133 1/2 E. Chicago Blvd. was charged with leaving the scene of a property damage accident and reckless driving July 8.

He reportedly tried to escape from a moving patrol car after his arrest. He was taken to Herrick Hospital by State Police Troopers for leg injuries he received when the car ran over his left leg, said the report. He was admitted to Herrick Hospital then released the next day.

Oliver was identified by witnesses as the alleged driver of a pick-up truck that hit a parked travel trailer with three persons in it Sunday night about 10:30 p.m. on Dillingham Drive in Tecumseh. No injuries were reported.

Oliver was stopped by troopers a short time later, based on a description from witnesses. They told troopers that a vehicle fishtailed at a high rate of speed, driving over a lawn at 4240 Dillingham Drive and striking the camper.

In Tecumseh police investigations this week, local police checked into two residential breakings and enterings and arrested a Tecumseh man for carrying a concealed weapon on Thursday.

Police found a guitar broken and placed back in its case in the bedroom, and an old bicycle damaged in the garage. Nothing appeared to be taken and no forced entry could be found. House was reportedly left unlocked.

On July 4, the home of Mrs. Charles Manley at 107 W. Kilbuck was reported as being entered. Mrs. Manley told police Wednesday that she looked for cash and keys in her purse, but they were gone.

Police theorize that intruders there entered the home between 5 p.m. and midnight the night before through an unlocked rear door. The intruders went to the bedroom, took $15 in cash, the keys and left without disturbing anything else.

Thursday, Clifton R. Depew of 101 S. Occidental was arrested for carrying a concealed weapon after police stopped him in the Cedar Shack parking lot.

According to police, Depew was reportedly thrown out of the property on S. Occidental where residents there complained that Depew had a gun and had been drinking.

Local officers attempted a stop on Occidental, near Chicago and then followed Depew as he turned onto Chicago. Police forced Depew into the parking lot where they found the loaded gun next to the driver's leg area and made the arrest.

Mrs. Melvin Murphy, 744 N. Union, also reported a stolen bicycle Tuesday. Bike was taken from the garage and valued at $100.

6 Accidents, 3 Are Cited

Tecumseh police investigated six traffic accidents this week, citing three of the drivers. All of the accidents were minor, but two of the mishaps involved three autos.

Last Tuesday, Wilma E. Wittman, 53, of Brooklyn exited Ottawa Machine Shop on E. Cummins and backed into a parked vehicle owned by Richard Solarski of Tecumseh.

Thursday, police cited Zulema Baugh, 48, of 5435 Billmyer for failing to stop after she hit a second auto in the rear on E. Chicago, near S. Maumee. Second driver was Richard A. Hoffman, 31, of Columbus, Ohio.

July 6, Brian Long, 17, of 8875 Billmyer, Randall S. Eiermann, 20, of Saline and Bonita A. Scott of Tipton were all eastbound on M50. Eiermann and Scott were reportedly nearly stopped for construction when Long hit the rear of Eiermann. Eiermann, in turn, hit the rear of Scott. Long was cited for failing to stop.

Vera I. Driscoll, 82, of 605 N. Evans and Lynette K. Kopka, 17, of 7484 Billmyer collided on S. Maumee when Kopka reported turning into a private drive off that road Friday.

Also on Friday, Bradley O. Gauss, 20, of Tipton and Harry J. Judson, 41 of Chelsea were both eastbound on Russell, just off Occidental when Judson stopped to make a left. Gauss could not stop in time and skidded into the Judson auto.

July 9, Police cited Keith L. Spencer, 41, of 115 N. Maumee for failing to yield when he turned left onto Maumee from Chicago. Spencer hit a vehicle driven by James L. Yoder, 25, of 704 Wenona on Chicago and then skidded into a third auto stopped at the Maumee intersection. Harold J. Warner, 32, of Britton was the driver of the third auto involved.

Negotiations at Impasse

Negotiations between striking local of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers #1246 and Faraday in Tecumseh are at an impasse, according to local union president Homer Elliott.

Strike which idled 238 workers, marked its third week Wednesday. Strike began after midnight June 20.

Last meeting between the company and the union was July 3, said Elliott, with no meeting scheduled as of Wednesday for the future.

Percentage increase for union workers and scheduling of vacation are two points to be negotiated, said the union president.

"We would like to get it settled and get our people back to work," said Elliott.

Guild Is Stable, but Comatose after Accident

David Guild, eight year old son of Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Guild of Tecumseh, is reported in serious condition, still in a comatose state after being hit on his bicylce June 4 in an accident at Red Mill Dr.

David's father reported that the boy's condition is stable. He is improved from the critical condition he has been in a month since the accident.

He opens his eyes frequently, though he is not focusing. He was taken off the respirator and his leg cast has been removed. He is being tube fed.

Judge Kenneth B. Glaser will preside at a hearing in circuit court July 17, 8:30 a.m. to determine whether or not to accept a "no contest" plea for Michael Connors, 30, of 9800 Tecumseh-Clinton Rd. Connors is charged with leaving the scene of a serious personal injury accident involving the Guild boy June 4.

Report Friday Sale Plans Going Well

Mike Volpi and Nadine Seitz, co-chairmen of the Tecumseh Sidewalk Sale, report that plans for the July 20 event are going well.

In addition to the sales offered by local merchants, four area automobile dealers will show vehicles along main street. Dealers include Erb Chevrolet, Underwood Ford, Les Dallas Dodge and Wagner Sales.

The Chamber of Commerce will also sell promotion tickets during the Friday event with proceeds to go to non-profit organizations and churches. Tickets will be available in the stores.

The Tecumseh Jaycees are sponsoring a chicken barbecue at the corner of E. Chicago and Ottawa Sts. The carnival of children's rides is set for the lot just south of the city's southeast parking lot.

Clowns from the Tecumseh Players will be on hand to distribute balloons and even the Wrangler Bear will be on hand. The Players will also have a publicity booth to distribute information about the group.

Hospital Awaits Board Review

Herrick Hospital's application for a proposed 19 bed acute psychiatric in-patient care unit received a preliminary approval last Thursday from the project review committee of the Michigan Mid-South Health Systems Agency.

The review committee recommended approval of the hospital's application.

The MMSHSA board of trustees will review the hospital's application July 11. Its recommendation will be forwarded to the State Department of Public Health which will make the determination as to whether or not a certificate of need will be issued and the project can proceed.

The proposed service would operate in existing space, previously utilized for medical/surgical beds. It would be managed by the Comprehensive Care Corporation under a contract with the hospital.

Under the proposed agreement, the hospital would provide the physical space for beds, nursing staff and supporting auxiliary services. Comprehensive Care would provide other professional staff, in-service education, public relations.

Project's estimated cost is $4,000 for furnishings.

Burleson Is Critical

Leroy Burleson, 39, son of Clyde Burleson remained in critical condition Wednesday after an accident at the Ford Motor Co. plant, Saline, Thursday evening. He is a patient at the University Burn Center, Ann Arbor.

Burleson apparently slipped from a catwalk above the etching acid tank, and fell into the tank, which was 155 degrees.

He was covered with the acid up to his shoulders and some splashed on his face.

BB Gun Shot Victim Listed in Good Condition

Wendell Shane Mackey, 13, of 301 Miami Ct. in Tecumseh was listed in good condition at St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor Tuesday afternoon.

He was shot with a BB gun July 5, at about 5 p.m.

Accident occurred in the vicinity of the railroad tracks in the river area near Paul's Trailer Court at Newburg Hwy., straight east of the New York Central Railroad tracks.

Mackey and two friends were reportedly fishing on a bridge near there. Lenawee County Sheriff's deputies reported the youths brought the gun along to shoot turtles and frogs.

His friends flagged down a train on the railroad tracks and asked the engineer for assistance.

Mackey was first taken to Herrick Hospital and then transferred to St. Joseph Hospital for surgery, according to the sheriff's department report. No charges have been filed. Sheriff's department is still investigating the incident.

William Macbeth Elected President

The election of Macbeth marks the beginning of his second term in that post. Dr. D.L. Phelan was reelected vice president and Jim Records was reelected secretary.

Miss Yerman was acting principal at Patterson in 1977 and then taught in the classroom in 1978. She replaces Pete Clark, who returned to the classroom.

The School Board also elected to continue meeting every third Monday of the month at 7 p.m. and it adopted by-laws. Board approved the United Savings Bank as depositor of school funds.

4,000th Jump Ends in Bath

Dave Sauve, 39, chief jump master at Parachuting Services in Tecumseh was greeted Sunday at Al Meyers Airport with a champagne bath after his 4,000th parachute jump, making him the first person in Michigan to reach that record.

Sauve's record is one of several accomplishments in his 19 year jump record.

A school teacher in Lansing schools, Sauve was a member of the United States parachuting team that beat the Russians in 1968 competition. He was also a member of the first place team in the Pan American games in 1972.

Sauve ranks 11th in the United States in the number of jumps for his personal log. Only a handful of jumpers have surpassed 4,000 jumps. The highest record for an American is 6,000 jumps. Sauve started jumping in 1960.

Another parachutist, Jerry Marklin, 40, an engineer at Ford Motor Company in Dearborn, made his 2,900th jump in Tecumseh Sunday.

Other Tecumseh parachuters made news with parachuting honors and first time jumps.

Tecumsehite Craig VanCamp is a member of the Golden Knights, the parachute performance team for the 82nd airborne division United States Army. His team tied for third place in the United States parachuting national championships held recently in Richmond, Va.

BACKYARD NURSERY — The Louis Schapp family of 5255 Pocklington Rd. raised two baby squirrels that apparently were abandoned about eight weeks ago. The animals were bottle fed with baby formula and then advanced to peanut butter and apples. One critter, Skippy, decided to strike out on his own. He chewed his way out of his cardboard box. Bike Through Historic District

"Pedal power" will be the order of the day Sunday, July 15 as Pat Connors will lead members of the Tecumseh Area Historical Society on a bike tour of Tecumseh pointing out historical points as he goes.

This will be an abbreviated version of the two-day journey that has become an annual event for Connors' students of Michigan history at Tecumseh High School.

Considering the out-of-shape condition that some may be in, Connors is mercifully bringing the members the meat of the tour in just over two hours.

Commencing from the library, the group will visit the sites of early business development, the homes of early pioneers in the area, the grave sites of prominent citizens in Tecumseh's past, ending the sojourn at the Musgrove Evans memorial rock at the little park on N. Evans. The tour will leave the library at 2:30 p.m.

So no one will be left out of the activity, there will be several vehicles to transport the non-bikers along the route (also to act as rescue squad for any bikers that are too pooped to pedal or whose bikes break down.)

If you need a ride to join the outing, contact Betty Kline to make arrangements, 423-4226.

This outing will be something of a three-fold celebration. The group is anxiously looking forward to the famous "Connors Tour" as the first gathering since Promenade. The group is also using the opportunity to closely view and celebrate the completion of the fence restoration project (of Brookside Cemetery and Pioneer Park memorial fences). The fence repair was paid for with monies from Promenade the Past, the Antiques Show held in March, and from private contributions for which the TAHS thanks the community.

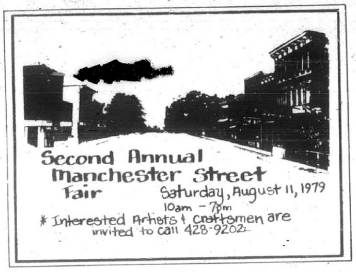
A grand finale for the day will be an opportunity to honor Jim Beardsley for the many contributions he has made to the community.

The group will gather at the Pioneer Park on N. Evans (Evans Memorial Boulder) for a picnic at 5 p.m.

Even if readers are unable to join the bike tour, the group cordially invites anyone who wants to join to come and thank Beardsley for the donations of his time, money and personal belongings in the interest of preservation of Tecumseh's heritage. Bring own picnic lunch/dinner.

New members are welcome to learn something about the TAHS, Tecumseh's history, and generally have a good time.

Date is Sunday, July 15, 2:30 p.m. at the library for the tour and 5 p.m. at the Evans Memorial for the picnic.



Croswell's 'Brigadoon' Delightful

by Kathy Brown

"Brigadoon", the musical which completed its 10 night run at the Croswell Opera House July 8, was a complete delight. It was just what the doctor ordered to cure cabin fever caused by the preceding rainy weekend and gloomy gasoline situation.

The cast, scenery, acting, dancing, singing were exceptionally good. Leading to the hearty chorus of voices were Tecumsehites Bill Cook Jeanne Johnstone, Skip Johnstone and Heather Beatty.

Heather's performance was the most memorable for this reporter.

She spoke not a line. She didn't have to. Her dance performance was expressive and enchanting and said it all. She was in the spotlight twice, once in a frolicsome dance with Harry Beaton, portrayed by Dean Shullick and later as the mourner at the funeral of the same character.

Shullick's dance role was dramatic and exciting.

Two other musicals are planned for the summer at the Croswell. "Godspell", a rock opera based on the Gospel according to Matthew, will debut July 18 and "Funny Girl", the story of Fanny Brice popularized by Barbra Streisand, will open Aug. 8.

For tickets, call 263-5674.

ROTO MILLING MAUMEE — Roto milling, a process of planing the top layer of road surface before resurfacing, was used for the first time in Tecumseh on Maumee St. from Kilbuck to Mohawk last Friday. Ajax Paving Industries received the city's contract for the work. (HERALD PHOTO)

Raisin Twp. Board News

Raisin Township Board postponed action on three proposals at its July 9 meeting.

Board postponed a request from General Motors for tax abatement under Public Act 198 which could mean a 50 percent tax cut for up to 12 years for expansion at the company's Tecumseh Fisher Body plant.

Board requested a legal description of the property for the exact amount of acreage involved.

Board also postponed a decision to hire Lynn Hedges of Ann Arbor to complete 264 property cards for assessing purposes.

Supervisor Robert D. Moore was checking into bids from other assessors. He was called out of town and absent from the meeting. Board did not have the information to act.

The board's consideration of hiring an assessor to do the work drew sharp criticism from at least one individual during the meeting.

Finally, the board also tabled three separate motions by Trustee Robert Murray to repair three bridges in the township for which critical bridge money has become available. Those bridges are at Academy Road, Raisin Center Hwy. and Comfort Rd.

The Lenawee County Road Commission representative is to be invited to the Aug. 13 meeting to answer questions about the township's share of costs.

In other board business, the township officials agreed to pay EMT ambulance $2,161 for first half of the year. Township has submitted all paperwork to county and expects to qualify for $1 per capita reimbursement under the county's subsidy plan for ambulance service.

Board accepted the sole bid of Kreighoff-Lenawee for $700 for emergency exit in the township hall.

Board transferred $3,000 from its reserves for the anticipated special recall election scheduled for Aug. 21.

Bid of Kapnick and Company of Adrian for accident policy for fire department was accepted at $1,027.

New deputy treasurer is Caroline Carter who replaces Suzanne Simon. She resigned for personal reasons.

A tour of the township for planning purposes will begin at 5:30 p.m. July 17 from the township hall for elected and appointed township officials.

Merchants Meet, Plan Christmas '79

A general meeting for the merchants will be held July 12, 7:30 a.m. at Don's Beef Buffet for the purpose of planning the 1979 Christmas promotion. Jan Fox has more information at 423-5760.

At the July 5 meeting of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce, the members present voted to have a Moonlight Madness Sale Friday, Sept. 7. Nadine Seitz volunteered as coordinator for the event.

John Damelio reported that various local organizations have been contacted by letter for their help with the sale of tickets for the chamber's drawing to be held Oct. 31.

Plans are being made to sell tickets at the Sidewalk Sale July 20. Prizes include a $1,000 Tecumseh shopping spree; choice of microwave oven, moped bicycle or portable color television; and a $100 gift certificate and Meyers canoe.

Damelio also reported that additional Christmas bows, lanterns and tree lights were ordered.

He also stated that 13 shrubs were replaced in the downtown tree planters. Paul Preston, assistant city manager, said that weeding the planters can be done by summer help.

Jimmie Rice, director of the Shawnee Marchers from Tecumeh High School, presented a brief summary of the various high school musical groups. He also mentioned that he would be willing to look at an annual calendar of events to consider what the music department could be involved with for the chamber of commerce.

In other business, Alan Beatty reported that preparations are underway to re-incorporate the chamber of commerce. The board voted to give the chamber secretary Betty Preston a $200 bonus.

To the Editor

To the Editor:

I realize that the fourth of July is for celebrating our independence. One way in which we celebrate this event is by using fireworks.

Fireworks can be a joy to everyone if correctly used. But there are always those few who misuse this privilege.

It gets very disturbing when you look out in the crowd and see people throwing firecrackers and sparklers through the air.

What they don't realize is that this is fire, and can be dangerous to those that surround them. Do we have to wait until someone gets burned or loses an eye before any action is taken?

It would be nice if next year everyone does his part in preventing unnecessary accidents.

Leave your sparklers and firecrackers at home where they can be used safely under supervision.

Hope to see all of you again next year.

Thank you,
Jennifer Fielder

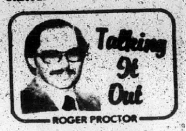
Harold Lange, owner of Parachuting Services and manager of Al Meyers Airport, was also recently honored at the national parachuting championships as one of the best performing pilots and for having the best performing aircraft.

VanCamp was on leave from Fort Bragg, N.C. and was in Tecumseh Sunday to jump with four friends and first time jumpers Jeff Anderson, Mary Beth Kane, Sandy Sprague and Kevin Kirkland, all of Tecumseh.



Be Sure to Visit the Terminally Ill

If you are ever in doubt about whether or not to visit a friend or relative whom you know to be terminally ill, then make the visit! It will benefit both of you.

If he doesn't wish to see you, he will make his wishes known. If it grieves you to see him, share your grief . . . bring a caring and mutual friend. Together you may diminish the sorrow you share with your terminally ill relative. Do not be reluctant to ask if there is anything he wishes you to do for him -- any letters to write, people he'd like to see again whom you could bring or ask to come.

Don't be backward about talking of good times shared, memories of happy occasions, sad ones, too. If he knows he is seriously ill, your offer of help may be most welcome, perhaps even fortuitious.

What else do you talk about to someone terminally ill? Shared experiences, mutual good and bad and amusing times and situations -- but mostly you LISTEN. He has a lot to tell you . . . in words, in looks and expressions.

Studies made with terminally ill patients by Herman Feifel, Elizabeth Kubler-Ross and others indicate they may pass through emotional stages of denial, anger and finally, acceptance of their impending death. To learn more about coping with these stages, stop by for some suggested reading.

What's worse than having your $45,000 house burn to the ground?

Having an insurance policy that only pays $25,000.

Every year, inflation and rising property values increase the value of your home. And make it that much more expensive to replace should something happen to make it a total loss.

But if you have an Auto-Owners homeowners policy with Adjusted Value Endorsement, you're protected. Because this modern Auto-Owners policy is designed to keep pace with rising values automatically.

If you aren't covered by Auto-Owners . . . well, maybe you should be replacing your present insurance. Let us fill you in. Before you have to replace your home.

Locher-Hawkins Take Vows

MRS. DAVID HAWKINS

Central United Methodist Church in Springfield, Ohio was the setting for the marriage of Jo Ellen Locher and David Paul Hawkins July 7 at 7:30 p.m.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Locher of Springfield, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Hawkins of Clinton.

Herbert E. Massey was the officiating minister. Mrs. Warren Thrasher and Leland Mallet were organists. Inalee Thomas and Dana Cartwright III were soloists.

She wore a diamond necklace, a gift from the groom. Her fingertip veil was edged with chantilly lace and secured with a Juliet cap.

Cheri Leffel of Springfield, Ohio was matron of honor wearing a pink chiffon grown with satin underdress. It was styled off the shoulder with large ruffle. Small pleats were fashioned at the waist and ended in a large ruffle.

She wore a Juliet cap and shoulder-length veil. She carried a bouquet of burgundy sweetheart roses and pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Ann Locher of Toledo, Ohio and Barb Jettinghoff of Willis, the groom's sister. They wore gowns in rosette and burgundy.

David Eaton of Peru, Neb. was best man. Ushers were Lynn Hawkins, the groom's brother of Tuscaloosa, Ala., Greg Locher, the bride's brother of Toledo, Ohio and Dave Jettinghoff of Willis. Eric Jettinghoff of Willis, the bride's nephew, was ring bearer.

Beni Sue Locher of Springfield and Marie Hunter of Fort Wayne, Ind. assisted at the reception. Ann Wilbur, the bride's cousin of Nevada, Iowa, passed the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Bowling Green State University with a bachelor of science in education. She is employed at Fremont Junior High as an English and music teacher. She plans to return to Bowling Green in the fall as a graduate assistant to earn a masters degree.

The groom is a graduate of Grand Valley State College. He has a bachelor of arts in history and social studies education and is employed as a foreman for Scott Equipment and Fabricating Co., Toledo, Ohio.

After a vacation in Snowmass and Aspen, Colo. the couple will reside at 5601 Goodhue Dr. #202E, Toledo, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hawkins, the groom's parents, hosted the rehearsal dinner at Derr Road Inn in Springfield.

MR. and MRS. LYNN HELDT

Couple Marries in St. Mark's

St. Marks Lutheran Church in Brooklyn was the setting for the marriage of Denise Kay Bigelow and Lynn Michael Heldt June 16 at 7 p.m.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bigelow of 710 Joseph Kies St. and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Heldt of 16221 Wellwood Rd.

Pastor Lenhart Etzel officiated the ceremony.

Pink carnations and sweetheart roses decorated the altar for the candlelight service.

For her wedding the bride wore an ivory organza gown with A-line skirt, fitted bodice and lace edged flutter sleeves. She wore a heart locket and diamond earrings. She carried a Bible with pink and red sweetheart roses and baby's breath, and wore baby's breath in her hair.

Tami Rafferty of Clinton was maid of honor wearing a gown with fitted bodice of pink floral print taffeta and full skirt. She wore baby's breath in her hair and carried red and pink sweetheart roses and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Diane Heavener of Clinton, Peggy Fridd of Brooklyn, Paula Hodge of Westland, Kathy Weinburg of Ann Arbor and Heather Heavener, the bride's niece of Clinton as junior bridesmaid and Julie McGeorge of Ypsilanti as flower girl.

Mike Rogers of Saline was best man. Ushers were Brian Heldt, the groom's brother of Tipton, Larry Relitz of Milan, and groomsmen Reed Heavener of Clinton, Bob Hodge of Westland, Steve Weinburg of Ann Arbor, Steve McGeorge, junior groomsman from Ypsilanti and Derek Heavener, the bride's nephew of Clinton.

A reception was held at the Peerless Gear Union Hall in Clinton. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gainber of Phoenix, Ariz. and Mrs. L.D. Mahan of Lansing were special guests.

Mrs. Heldt is a 1978 graduate employed at Evangelical Home in Saline. Mr. Heldt is employed at Bechtel Power Corporation in Ann Arbor.

After a vacation in Bermuda, the couple will reside in Jackson. The groom's mother hosted the rehearsal dinner at Sveden House in Jackson.

like Christine Fairbanks, & Britton Office Teller.

Chris Fairbanks knows almost everyone who comes in the Britton Office of United Savings Bank. And no wonder. She and her husband, Douglas (no, he's not the swashbuckler of movie fame) have raised a family, lived and worked in Britton for over 30 years.

Chris is an energetic person. She served Britton Village as Treasurer for 7 years and was a columnist and news reporter for the Tecumseh Herald too. She is also a member of the Congregational-Christian Church where she is currently Assistant Treasurer.

When we opened our Britton Office of USB 6½ years ago, it seemed natural to have Chris join our staff.

Her experience with accounting procedures and knowledge of Britton area people has proved to be a valuable asset to both customers and bank alike.

If you haven't met Chris Fairbanks, introduce yourself the next time you're in our Britton Office. She probably already knows you and will make you feel very welcome. Chris is just one of the hard-working people at USB who cares about you.

Circus at the Lee Benedicts?

BRITTON — Did you wonder what the circus was at the Lee Benedicts? Well, the Bruces and the Benedicts got together and invited all "The DeRemer cousins" for a family weekend of fun and games.

Cousins and aunts started arriving Friday night with their tents and campers. Saturday was spent playing Putt-Putt golf, swimming, treasure hunting and pony rides.

Sunday brought a grand total of 84 for dinner. Egg throws, penny hunts, bubble gum blowing contest, a greased pig chase and Uncle Rick's traditional chicken catching contest were the high spots of the day. All of this was topped off with a skit by the "Four DeRemer Girls."

Marge Benedict was presented quilt squares designed by each family represented. It is to be added to another year and quilted by the aunts in 1980.

Those traveling the farthest were from Delaware and West Virginia. There were four generations represented by the Bruce family.

The youngest there was Amanda Jay, 4½ months, daughter of David and Peg (Aultman) Jay, granddaughter of the late Wilma (DeRemer) Aultman.

The oldest there was Amanda's grandfather, Rex Aultman at a spry 80.

The families are relatives of the late Rev. J.C. and Margaret DeRemer, former pastor of the Britton Congregational Christian Church.

Their daughters who all had someone representing their branch of the family tree were Vera Bruce and Wilma Aultman, both deceased and Dorothy Jackson, Marge Macy DeWeese, Greta Baker Pepper and Ruth Stromе.

Blissfield Undefeated

Senior Girls Softball

The Senior League only had one game Tuesday night. Blissfield remained unbeaten as it slipped past Nighswander's Store of Deerfield 23-2.

Blissfield's winning pitcher, Paula Pavelka, gave up only two hits. Pavelka and Paula Barrett each had three hits for Blissfield. Barb Iott of Deerfield played a good defensive game in left field robbing Blissfield of several additional hits.

Thursday night's games were close and well played by all the teams. First place Blissfield pulled out another victory as they got by Britton 12-4. Britton out hit Blissfield 14-9 but committed several key errors and left too many on the bases.

Linda Barrett, Lisa Delzith, and Sherrie Siering all had two hits for Blissfield. For Britton, Jodie Smith, Rita Handley, and Julie Grounds had two hits apiece.

A winless Deerfield team struggled to the end against Tecumseh with four runs in the seventh inning, but came up a run short as they dropped it 10-9. Lisa Lapham and Kathy Steuwe led the hitting with four and three hits respectively.

The final game saw Tecumseh get by Britton easily with a 15-2 victory. Tecumseh out hit Britton 14-3 to up their record to 4-1. Britton's record dropped to 1-4. Lori Burack was the winning pitcher.

Junior Girls Softball

In the girls Junior League games, Clinton had trouble getting started and Deerfield took advantage of it by crossing the plate 22 times. Clinton could only get across nine times in the five-inning game. Lori Jones slammed a bases empty home run for Deerfield.

Tecumseh #2 got off to an early lead against Manchester #1. Manchester tried to come back in the fifth inning by rounding the bases four times, but that was all they could get as Tecumseh remained unbeaten and won 13-8.

Britton held off an improving Manchester #2 team in five innings of play. Manchester's errors helped Britton score 20 times. Britton's defense only allowed Manchester to touch home plate 10 times.

In a make-up game Friday night, Blissfield edged out Tecumseh #3, 17-12 in eight innings of play. Tecumseh led the entire game until Blissfield scored six times in the seventh inning to tie the game.

The eighth inning saw Blissfield score another six runs and Tecumseh could only manage one. Tracy Walters led the hitting attack for Tecumseh with three big hits. Cheryl Salters and Terri Ruggirello each had two hits.

For Blissfield, Elaine Berk had three hits and Kim Goetz pounded out two hits. Kay Ewartowski of Tecumseh played a good defensive game in left field. This was the best game Tecumseh #3 has played both in the field and with the bats.

The engagement of Frances Lacny to Mark Virgil Deming is announced by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lacny of Tecumseh. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Deming of Tecumseh. Frances is employed by the University of Michigan C.S. Mott's Children's Hospital, Ann Arbor. Her fiance is employed by the University of Michigan department of pathology. An Aug. 25 wedding at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church is planned.

The engagement of Jacqulyn Marie Hannah to Michael Lee Allshouse is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hannah of 5404 Rogers Hwy., Tecumseh. Miss Hannah is a 1979 Tecumseh graduate, employed at Calhoun School of Aviation. Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Allshouse of 5333 Noland Dr. He is a 1978 Tecumseh graduate, employed at Uniloy in Manchester. A March 22, 1980 wedding is planned.

There are still openings for the July 25 senior citizen evening at Westgate to see the zany, one and only Vaudeville show in Toledo, "Baggy Pants and Co.", rated as one of the funniest shows to hit Toledo in many years.

For reservations and more information call the Tecumseh Recreation Department at 423-5602.

Record 1.86 Rain Inches

Tecumseh's water treatment plant recorded 1.86 inches of rain Monday. The heaviest downpour came about 11:30 a.m., workers there estimated.

Return from Summer Circuit

Tecumseh's Shawnee Marchers have returned from their summer circuit of eight competitions and performances that started in Bad Axe and ended in Chesaning July 8.

The marchers started June 23 with a score of 27 out of a possible 100, said director Jimmie Rice, but they raised their score by nearly 11 points by July 1 in Reed City. Tecumseh brought up its score more than any other band, he commented.

The competition schedule included Bad Axe, June 23; Tecumseh, June 29; Kingsville, June 30 and Amhurstburg, July 1; the last two dates were in Ontario and wet weather dominated the last three dates.

July 2 the band was in Windsor, Ontario for the Freedom Festival. July 4 the Shawnee Marchers performed their summer show prior to the Tecumseh fireworks.

July 7 the group performed in Reed City and July 8 at the Chesaning Showboat festival.

Band camp will be held in Tecumseh beginning Aug. 27.

Rice commented that the Shawnee Marchers will begin an aggressive recruiting campaign for more band members and flag corps members to keep the program strong in the years to come.

He said that Bad Axe has a student population of 500 with 70 to 80 students in its band program and 60 in its marching band.

Tecumseh in contrast has 1,200 students, 130 in the music program, 60 marching including the flag corps and only 40 instrumentalists.

Despite their smaller enrollment, other schools have a strong band program that attracts students and is equally competitive with sports programs, Rice commented.

He said student participation is lower in Tecumseh because many students are interested in working, although not all are saving their money for college.

Boysville Visitations Are Restricted

Visits to Tecumseh by Boysville youth are being restricted to emergency medical treatment only since the rape of a Tecumseh housewife allegedly by a Boysville youth June 4.

The policy is in response to "our responsibility to Tecumseh," said Brother Francis Boylan, administrator at Boysville.

Last week a petition with 238 signatures of Macon and Tecumseh area residents was delivered to Tecumseh City Council. The petitioners asked for a "full investigation" of the incident.

In the latest development, the petitioners asked the Boysville administrator to attend the July 16 Tecumseh City Council meeting to discuss the signers' concerns. Brother Boylan said that he plans to attend the meeting.

Located about 15 miles northeast of Tecumseh in the village of Macon, Boysville is a community based, residential program that services "socially maladjusted male youth," aged 12-17 and their families.

Unlike a detention center where individuals are confined and isolated from each other, Boysville is an "open setting." It utilizes peer and family group support systems in treatment programs. Youth live together in groups of 11. They work, study, eat, sleep and recreate as a group with their staff on duty 24 hours.

Operated by the Catholic Church in Michigan, Boysville is administered by the Brothers of the Holy Cross. Brother Boylan has been director for three years, having served at Boysville for 11 years.

About 120 students reside at the campus year-round. Ratio of students to staff is 11 to one. Referrals are made to Boysville by private agencies or county or the state. The students are either wards of the court or state or they may be placed at Boysville by their parents.

All students are residents of Michigan. The largest number of students come from Wayne County and neighboring counties in the southeastern Michigan metropolitan area.

Brother Edward Overstreet explained that those admitted to Boysville are "adjudicated." In the language of the court that means the court determines that it is in the best interest of the student that he should not live at home and could benefit from a treatment program.

Of the student population, 45-60 percent are status offenders, 19-12 percent are abuse-neglect dependents and about 55-40 percent are criminal offenders, Overstreet stated.

Status offenses include behavior problems such as truancy. Criminal offenses range from shoplifting, car theft, traffic offenses, larceny, assault.

Of those criminal offenders, only 5-8 percent are alleged felons, said Overstreet. He pointed out that the state does not recommend a felon to be placed in an open setting such as Boysville, although a waiver may be granted.

"Labels don't mean all that much," said Overstreet. "We look at the boy's record, where he has been and decide whether or not he fits in with the program. Obviously if he poses a potential danger to either himself or the community, he belongs in a closed setting."

Boylan pointed out that in 1977 of the 513 referrals made to Boysville — the highest number in four years — only 213 boys were served in the program. In 1978, 474 referrals were made, 196 students entered the program.

"We've been accused of taking only 'good boys'. They (case workers) say that that's why our success rate is so high," said Boylan. "But we believe it is our responsibility to select those we feel suited to the program."

Boylan said that in the past, students came to Tecumseh for limited recreation, such as swimming; for off campus employment such as landscaping work and for medical visits such as dental and hospital treatment that cannot be provided in the clinic on campus. The doctors are paid for their medical service.

On these off campus trips, the students are accompanied with their resident staff, one or two staff members for a group of 11.

For dental and medical appointments, the procedure was to chauffeur the students, usually one to three, to an appointment. The staff member would then do an errand such as banking and return to pick up the students.

Now the students will be escorted to the doctor's office, said Boylan.

Degree of supervision depends on the individual's growth in the program. Growth is reviewed daily by peers, staff and the student himself in intense discussions of observed behavior and personal logs. A student that has been in the program longer and has proved hirfiself responsible may be assigned to observe the behavior of newer members in the program, said the Brothers.

Basketball Camp Opens Monday

John Drennan, new head basketball coach at Britton and assistant coach at Adrian College for three years, is heading up the Fourth Annual Adrian College Basketball Day Camp July 16-20.

The five-day camp is for boys entering grades seven through 12. Participants will be placed in groups of comparative ability.

The purpose of the camp is to school players in the fundamentals of basketball. All phases of basketball will be covered to make the player better individually and in team ball.

Daily program includes teaching stations, contests, swimming, films, individual work, guest speakers, stations and league games.

Speakers featured include, Stan Joplin, University of Toledo; Donnis Butcher, Converse Shoe Company; Jim McDonald, assistant basketball coach, University of Toledo; Tony Archibald, former basketball coach, Adrian College; and Ben Poquette, Detroit Piston.

Assisting Drennan with the staff work are Kevin McQuade, Jeff Eckel, Garry Benko and Kevin Strong, all had basketball coaches from Ohio and Michigan high schools.

Fagan Moves to Ypsilanti Coaching Job

Tom Fagan, head football coach at Huron High for the past five years and head football coach in Tecumseh for 11 years until 1973, will soon resign his position to take over the head coaching job at Ypsilanti High.

Fagan has been offered the position and accepted it, according to the Ann Arbor News. Now, the appointment must just be approved by the Ypsilanti School Board.

Fagan was one of the winningest coaches ever at Tecumseh and compiled a 69-28 record in football, as well as winning five championships. He resigned in the summer of 1973 and was replaced with Tecumseh's present head coach, Pat Connors.

Fagan also coached track in the earlier part of his career in Tecumseh. There he captured four league titles and his team compiled a 45-5-1 record.

In his five years at Huron, Fagan produced four winning seasons with one co-championship in that South Central Conference.

Fagan will be replacing Ralph Perillo, who set a 73-25-1 record in his 11 years. In turn, Fagan will be replaced, at least temporarily, by Larry Merx.

Merx played at Tecumseh for Fagan and has been his top assistant at Huron. According to co-athletic director John Nordlinger, Merx will most likely take over the head coaching position permanently.

Ternak and Rausch Win Doubles Title

Melinda Ternak of Tecumseh teamed with Dave Rausch Sunday to capture the doubles' title at the Adrian High tennis courts in the fourth annual open mixed doubles tournament sponsored by the Lenawee Tennis Club.

The two-day tournament drew 21 teams with Lynn Hollosy and Bea Briggs losing in the finals to Ternak and Rausch. Bob and Karen Parker captured third place.

Ternak and Rausch won their first match 6-4 but dropped the second one 3-6. They were up 5-2 in the final match when their opponents began to come back, but they fell short and the local squad won 7-5.

Football Workouts

Workouts begin at 7 p.m. and continue July 12, 17, 19, 24, 26, and 30. In August, 1, 2, 7, 8, and 9 will also be set aside for workouts.

Regular football practice starts Monday, August 13.

Ives, DST Nearly Post Softball Upsets

Women's Softball

Near upsets highlighted the Women's Softball League last Monday night.

The first game between Ives Body Shop and Airport Bowl started off looking like an upset when Ives Body Shop took a 10-3 lead after two innings. However, Airport Bowl got back in the game and held Ives scoreless for the next three innings while scoring 11 runs themselves.

Airport Bowl crossed the plate eight more times in the final inning to put a dent in Ives' hopes of a victory as they pulled out a 22-13 win.

Jan Hunt pounded four hits for Ives Body Shop. Betsy Owens had three hits for Airport Bowl.

The second game saw Doc's Frame & Axle run by Jerry's Pub 22-3 in five innings. Jerry's Pub could only manage six hits off Doc's pitching. Doc's bats delivered 12 hits, three of which were by Theresa Lauer.

The third game was a near upset between DST and Dundee Products. DST had a 10-7 lead with just two innings left to play.

Dundee wouldn't be beaten, so they pulled themselves together and pounded out five hits and scored six runs in the sixth inning. It was all they needed to hold off DST and win it 13-10.

Alice Haines had the hot bat as she pounded out three of DST's five hits, including a home run. Kim Gall and Ruth King each delivered two hits for Dundee Products.

The games scheduled for Monday of this week were rained out. They will be played Friday night at the same scheduled times.

Clinton Marks 150th Year July 4th

by Maxine Calhoun

CLINTON — Early settlers in Clinton might have found many similarities in the manner of celebrating the Fourth of July if they could have joined in the fun at the village's 150th anniversary celebration, Wednesday.

In 1831, just two years after the first settlers, New Yorkers Alpheus Kies, Colonel Daniel Hixon and George Lazell, had built log cabins in the clearing near the Great Sauk Trail, known as 'Oak Opening', pioneer historians record a July 4th celebration drew 100 persons to the fledgling community.

We can only speculate, but no doubt they had a picnic that day, perhaps a message from an itenerant preacher, some games for the children, and a square dance or reel or two before sundown.

We're told there was an explosion that day, and David Reed lost both his arms. Surely play with gunpowder was only a forerunner of this generations fireworks.

Wednesday, July 4, 1979 events were planned by the Historical Society of Clinton.

An all night rain left skies overcast until mid-morning, when they gave way to bright sunshine and a perfect 72 degree day.

Girl Scouts raised the flag at the Smith-Kimball Community Center signaling the start of events.

Because of the clouds, the planned outdoor community worship service was moved indoors at the United Church of Christ. The sermon was given by the Rev. Russell Cooper of the St. John's Episcopal Church.

The Rev. Thomas Kruchkow of the United Methodist Church gave the invocation and prayer, and the host church pastor, the Rev. Roy Wagner gave the benediction.

Music was by the church choir and a brass quartet was composed of the Hoover sisters, Lina Hanes of California; Bonnie Hoover and Anne Smith and Martin Scott.

The Clinton Area Jaycees had arranged the afternoon's games and they were pleased and surprised to see the crowd grow — over 100 children under 14 lined up to participate.

There was a balloon breaking contest and helium-filled 150th anniversary ballons may still be drifting about the state.

Youngsters and the adults, too, bobbed for apples, ran in the three-legged, wheelbarrow and sack races, dodged in the egg throwing contest and dried off after the tug-of-war, with a splashing fire hose marking the crossing line.

By mid-afternoon, more than 250 persons gathered on the center lawn to hear the community band, under the direction of Dale Marzewski. The brass quartet participated in the concert also.

Peg Geiger introduced the local vocalists and musicans who entertained during the afternoon hootenany.

Octogenarian Genevieve Reilly played her fiddle, accompanied by Sally Scheer at the piano.

Among the vocalists were Sally Scheer with a gospel song; Kim Greenfield sang "Amazing Grace"; Cindy Geiger sang a ballad; Janet Hilderly sang "I'm Just a Girl Who Can't Say No,"; Kim Rhoades sang "I'm Glad To Be Back Home Again" and he accompanied on the guitar as Terry Calhoun sang another John Denver ballad "Matthew."

The disciplined cadance of an earlier generation was recalled as the costumed Cobblestone Farm Country Dancers of Ann Arbor, performed a fanciful assortment of 19th century reels and quadrilles on the lawn. They were accompanied by Judy Wagner at the piano and fiddler David Cahn.

During the brief lull, folks trooped across the corner to partake of some 400 hot dogs, dozens of cakes, and many gallons of ice cream at the ice cream social hosted by the choir of the United Church of Christ.

Throughout the day, the Historical Society served coffee and tea in the center. They had also arranged a display of old photographs of the village, and of the 'over-80' pioneers who had attended a luncheon in their honor earlier this spring.

The day concluded with a square dance in the center parking lot. Five or six sets filled the area, while dads and their young daughters or spouses square danced until nearly dark. Calling was by Elwood Bush of Tecumseh and the fiddling was by Ray Shepherd of Onsted.

As the day closed, many folks were heard to remark, "I hope we can do this again next year."

And — just think of all the gas, Clinton folks saved by staying home on the Fourth!

A visitor from Germany, touring the USA, taking sound movie films of American small town life, just happened to be passing through Clinton, and he spent the day photographing all the day's activities.

He surely found a bit of Americana at its best.

Adams in Dairy Tour

CLINTON — Scott Adams of Clinton, a member of the North Franklin Hustlers 4-H Club, recently participated in the Michigan Milk Producers Dairy Tour.

The tour was organized especially for 4-H youth planning a career in dairy production or marketing.

Scott and delegates representing all the counties in Michigan visited the Michigan Milk Producers Association's state offices where they were welcomed by Jim Burnett of the MMPA.

The day-an-a-half tour included a slide-tape presentation on the dairy conference and guest speakers. Scott and the other delegates toured the Detroit Pure Food Plant where they were shown how milk was bottled and cottage cheese was made. A banquet and dance closed the evening.

The second day's activities included breaking into small groups for problem-solving sessions on dairy issues. The final event was a quiz testing what the delegates had earned on the tour.

The highest scorers on the quiz became eligible to attend National Dairy Days in Wisconsin.

Registration for Swimming Open

CLINTON — Registration for second session swimming lessons is now open at the VanTuyle Pool from 1:30-4:30 p.m.

Classes begin July 16 and end Aug. 10. There is a charge.

Prerequisite: No age requirement to take the class but must be at least 15 years of age for certification of Senior Lifesaving by Red Cross. Also, must have strong swimming skills.

Adult beginning swim, Tuesday and Thursday, 10-11 a.m. To begin skills to form coordinated strokes, survival floating, backfloating, crawl, individual instruction. Prerequisite: Nothing except a desire to learn. Age requirement: Over 18 years of age.

Hire Neville for Measuring

CLINTON — Clinton Township Board recently hired Larry Neville of Tecumseh to inspect and measure the physical dimensions of all real property in the township, which includes the village of Clinton.

Measurements of the interior and exterior of each building and a photograph of the front and back of the structure will be placed on a card file for each property.

Cards are filed with the township assessor for tax assessment purposes, as required by Michigan statute.

Neville carries proper credentials for identification.

He is authorized to go into all houses. If not permitted access, the assessor will have to make a guess on the interior appointments, supervisor Frank Gignac explained. Gignac may be contacted if a householder has any questions.

He will ask how many bathrooms, bedrooms, a recreation room, fireplaces, and such things as kitchen built-ins, dishwasher, etc.

He has already completed inspection of more than 60 homes, and there are a total of 1200 parcels including the vacant land in the township.

Accepted at Adrian

CLINTON — Lisa Cark, a 1979 all-league and all county basketball player from Clinton High School, has been accepted for admission to Adrian College for the school year beginning in August.

Cark, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Cark of Evans Trail, Tipton, will be a freshman majoring in physical education at Adrian.

She also has been awarded an Adrian College grant from the college for the upcoming year.

Before graduating from Clinton in 1979, Cark earned several honors in three years of participation in basketball and volleyball, including all-league distinction in volleyball.

In track, she also was named all-league for four years and, in state competition, ranked first in all classes in the discus event.

Fiddler Plays for Seniors

CLINTON — Genevieve Reilly, who entertained with her fiddle at the July 4th observance, will play for the meeting of the Shamrock Senior Citizens, July 12, when they meet at the Smith-Kimball Community Center.

There will be sewing, crafts and cards from 10 a.m. to noon and a bag lunch at noon.

Clinton Calling

Charles Cook was admitted to Herrick Hospital, last Wednesday and is expected to undergo surgery.

Agnes Geiger is a surgical patient at Herrick Hospital.

Gertrude Bertke has been released from Herrick Hospital and will be at her home in Water Wheel Estates, where her daughter is caring for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gibbard, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Proctor and Mr. and Mrs. James Welch, formerly of Clinton, now of Flint, have returned home after a 19-day tour of England, Scotland and Wales.

For a vocal duet at the United Church of Christ, Sunday morning, Jan Hansen was joined by her sister Karen Peterson, who is visiting from Tecumseh.

The annual church picnic of the United Church of Christ families will be Aug. 12 at the farm residence of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dicks.

Report Cards at Superintendents

CLINTON — Report cards may be picked up in the superintendent's office for those that did not pick them up at school before June 22.

Resurfacing Bid Accepted

CLINTON — Bid of Cunningham-Gooding in the amount of $37,847 was accepted by Clinton Village Council for resurfacing of streets. They include Clark, Tyrell, Washington and the alley south of Michigan Avenue.

2 on Dean's List

Two residents of the Tecumseh area have been named to the dean's list for the spring semester at Adrian College. They are:

Jane Faulkner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Wilfred Faulkner of Outer Dr., a junior majoring in elementary education.

Constable To Resign

CLINTON — Clinton Township Board has accepted with regret the resignition of constable Leo Smith, effective Aug. 1, for health reasons.

Board discussed the damage done by heavy trucks on McCombs Ct. and voted to ask Lenawee County Road Commission to set weight limits on the road for heavy truck traffic.

Township treasurer was authorized to transfer funds from the Perpetual Care Savings account as needed, to be replaced at the end of the year.

Building inspector Charles Wilson reported $27,800 in building permits that were approved.

Lettners Own Brick Walker Antiques

by Kathy Brown

In the 19th century, Brick Walker Tavern was a thriving hotel providing rest, food and entertainment for travelers along the Old Sauk Trail, US-12. It functioned as a "community center" for the countryside, with Sylvester Walker as the congenial innkeeper.

As the years rolled on, Brick Walker Tavern located at Cambridge Junction on US-12 and M-50, became an antique dealership.

Today new owners Tina and Terry Lettner, formerly of Detroit, are maintaining the tradition of hospitality, not as innkeepers but as antique dealers.

Together with their 3½-year-old son Akim, a full partner in the business, they have endeavored to restore the three-story brick tavern circa 1852 into a comfortable and inviting place for antique hunters.

At present there are seven dealers in the "antique cooperative". Each antique dealer is assigned a room or a space in the building to operate his or her own business.

The seven dealers are Semantob Trading Corporation, brass, copper and pewter; Madeline's Antiques, Victorian furniture; White Elephant Sales, general line; Bob's Place; Spin-A-Weave; specializing in the epitomy of weaver's supplies, imported wool and silk yarns; and Kevi's Korner, general line of antiques and free-lance graphics artist.

The Lettners plan to create a series of summer shops in the one time stagecoach stable behind their historic building. They also plan a country store inside the tavern featuring German sausages, fresh cheeses, imported candies and other goods.

The Lettners were antique dealers for 12 years and did a number of one-man and group shows when Terry was a buyer for Ford Motor Company.

About two years ago they decided to go into the business full time. They called themselves Indaria—reflecting Terry's Indian heritage and Tina's German ancestory (Bavaria).

Their customers have followed them from Detroit to Cambridge Junction. "In fact, they make a regular routine of it," said Terry. "They take off early, come down from the Grosse Pointes or Canada, spend the day and ask us where the good eating places are."

The Lettners save menus of local restaurants they recommend. "We believe in cooperation among merchants," said Terry.

The couple has an affinity for Tecumseh. They admire the homes on the boulevard and the energy of the people working to restore them. They say they prefer to do their shopping and errands in Tecumseh.

The only thing missing, said Tina, is a butcher shop where they can buy fresh meats daily as is the European custom.

Tina was born in Stuttgart, an industrial region where the names Mercedes and Porche are as important as the Big Three are to Detroit.

When the Lettners relocated to Cambridge Junction, it wasn't just a matter of moving in. The Lettners first had to "chase out the bats" and seal up the draft holes in the building. Gallons of paint were soaked up by the thirsty tavern wall.

Next the Lettners want to restore the third floor ballroom to its original grandeur for one-man shows and special events. They are looking for pictures or someone who remembers what it looked like originally.

"One couple told us they used to come here to the dances before they were married and hold hands," Tina related.

The Lettners themselves live in the "servants quarters" adjacent to the rear of the old brick hotel. Though seemingly small from the outside, the quarters provides a cozy three-bedroom apartment with family living area, dining and kitchenette.

While some people are interested in antiques and recycling older homes as an investment, Tina's viewpoint adds another dimension to understanding the trend:

"People are tired of the throw away society," she said. "Plastic and chrome are what people in the 40's and 50's grew up with. Plastics break and you can't do anything with them. I hate plastic."

Terry prefers the slower paced lifestyle of their new neighborhood. He said his dream is that in two years, travel by horse and buggy will again be acceptable for everyday transportation.

If his dream comes true, Brick Walker Tavern as an inn for travelers may be an idea whose time will come again.

Boysville Discusses Program

"Discussing responsibility to the community is an ongoing thing," said Boylan of the treatment program. Whenever a student is involved in an offense on or off campus, even accidents, he is expected under "normal circumstances" to become personally involved, meet the people and/or send a letter of apology and work to earn the money for restitution of damages. These are the "natural consequences," said Boylan.

Furthermore, the group is "equally accountable to help people who might have difficulties," said Overstreet. In one instance several years ago when a store was robbed, the entire group was responsible for replacing the money.

Regarding a recent statement by Clinton State Police on the number of Boysville youth linked to stolen vehicles, the Brothers said that they did not know the exact number that may have been involved. A case where a Boysville youth is reported missing and a vehicle is also missing may be related, but missing vehicles have not always been liked to Boysville youth they said.

Asked about rumors of a recent knifing of a Boysville staff member, Boylan replied that such activities, if it did occur, "was not to the point that the staff would bring it to my attention." He said that Boysville has procedures to make written reports of such instances.

Handley, his wife, Mortgagors, to National Bank of Detroit, a national bank association, Mortgagee, dated the 17th day of March, 1972, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds, for the County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, on the 23rd day of March, 1972, in Liber 737 of Lenawee County Records, on page 222, on which mortgage there is claimed to be due, at the date of this notice, for principal, interest, late charges, negotiation, escrow & title certification, the sum of Twenty Five Thousand, Two Hundred Fifty-Six and 84/100 ($25,256.84) Dollars;

And no suit or proceedings at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof. Now, Therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on Friday, the 27th day of July, 1979, at 10:00 a.m., Local Time, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction to the highest bidder, at the East Front Door entrance to the County Building in Adrian, Michigan (that being the building where the Circuit Court for the County of Lenawee is held), of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due, as aforesaid, on said mortgage, with the interest thereon at seven and one-half per cent (7½%) per annum and all legal costs, charges and expenses, including the attorney fees allowed by law, and also any sum or sums which may be paid by the undersigned, necessary to protect its interest in the premises. Which said premises are described as follows:

Property situate in the Township of Macon in the County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to-wit;

One square acre in the southwest corner of the west ½ of the east ½ of the southwest ¼ of Section 11, Town 5 South, Range 5 East, Macon Township, Lenawee County, Michigan.

Together with all hereditaments and appurtenances thereto.

During the six months immediately following the sale, the property may be redeemed.

MACON — The 14th birthday of Heather Swanston was celebrated July 1 at Bill Knapp's in Ann Arbor. The party for the daughter of Bill and Marilyn Swanston was attended by her parents, sisters Jacki and Mindy and both sets of grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Swanston of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. Don Ries of Britton.

Heather and Melinda Swanston are spending time with their great-grandmother Sally Jardine of Hillsdale.

Helen Thomas is home now, recuperating from a heart attack suffered a few weeks ago. She is feeling better, but unable to do much.

Mrs. Jean Shafer of Follansbee, W. Va. returned home Tuesday night after spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thomas.

The Fourth of July picnic-birthday party for Macon, held at the Eldredge Mill was a great success. "Old" families met "new" ones during the afternoon's activities, which included touring the Mill, ball playing, showing of genealogy charts of the Hendershot and related families and of the descendents of Even Thomas, who settled in Macon around 1850.

Later in the afternoon, groups of people went over to the Mills School Restoration Project to see what the Macon Historical Society has accomplished and plan to do in the future.

Sunday afternoon callers at the home of Jim and Phyllis Thomas were Harold and Louise Harris of Ypsilanti. They are former co-workers of Jim's at the Ford plant in Rawsonville.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

We are fortunate in this area, so very, very fortunate with our winter bird watching. Have you ever stopped to think how many of the birds who are around during the cold weather months are bird feeder birds? Cardinals, bluejays, tufted titmice and the rest of the gang are quite appreciative of our handouts when the wind blows and the snow falls.

Many of them are year-round residents and as such are year-round bird feeder patrons. They are not as frequently seen on the feed trays this time of year nor would we want them to be. It is fun to watch the kids learn their table manners but, on the other hand, they must learn to be independent, too.

I am not at all objecting to the behavior of our around the calendar birds. What frustrates me is that so few of the summer visitors are interested in our handouts. They don't even know about bird feeding stations.

Once in a while though it would be fun if their curiosity came to the fore and they dropped in just to see what was going on. Seldom, if ever, does it happen.

The catbirds are a good case in point. We know they are nesting nearby. We hear them, their catlike meowing is impossible to miss. It would be nice to see as well as hear.

Oh, occasionally one shows himself in the trees but we are spoiled. Our cold weather birds give us close-up viewing and watching them eat at the near-my-window feeders is a far cry from merely catching a glimpse as they flit through the trees.

Catbirds are well worth seeing. Sleek handsome birds, about nine inches long, both sexes are an all over dark gray with black caps and touches of reddish brown under the tails. They are exceedingly fond of thick shrubbery and jungly vines.

This, in fact, is exactly the kind of habitat in which they hide their nests. For such neat birds they build surprisingly un-neat nests. But if the outside is ragged, the inner cup is well made. They are apparently good parents. Two broods a year are usually raised.

Dietary preference is, of course, the main reason many of our summer birds completely ignore the food trays. They prefer fruits and insects. As Gertie T just said, "We are not about to provide that!"

There are people who experiment with foods. They try different things on their feeders and it is amazing the action they sometimes get.

According to A COMPLETE GUIDE TO BIRD FEEDING by John V. Dennis, catbirds have been caught nibbling at some rather exotic foods. He claims that these likable birds have shown a fondness for eggs, fried, scrambled or boiled.

They also eat raisins, oranges and even bananas. (Strawberries are high on the list, too, but since our neighbor had a beautiful strawberry patch, perhaps I should not mention who just might have gotten some of his choice berries.

Other things on the list are dry cereals, and one person reported that his catbirds liked milk on their puffed wheat. Mr. D. also says that plain milk, as well as fried fish, was tempting. Catbirds, fish, milk — really!

As much fun as it would be to have catbirds dining at the near-my-window feeders, I somehow can't quite see putting out fried eggs, fish or milk soaked puffed wheat.

If they were winter birds they might develop a taste for corn or sunflower seeds. When one watches her birds in such a restricted area as I do, there is much to be said in praise of those free loaders who eat a sane and sensible bird feeder diet.

Chicken Broil Is July 19

Summertime and July spell Charcoal Chicken Broil to Manchester Optimists and Jaycees, the civic clubs that sponsor the 26th Broil, July 19, at the Manchester Athletic Field.

Some 500 men and boys are prepared to serve over 11,000. Serving starts at 4 p.m. Profits are always for youth projects.

A first this year is the chance to have a buggy ride free. You can be transported from the parking areas at the high school by horse drawn stage coaches, wagons and buggies.

And the price? Gene Bentschneider, general chairman says they've held the line — same as last year. Dinner includes half a chicken, potato chips, cole slaw, radishes, buttered roll and coffee or milk. Table service is included.

The chefs in their white aprons and hats learned the art of outdoor broiling over hot coals and basting with country fresh butter from Howard Zindell of Michigan State. He personally supervises these dinners.

Loud speakers herald the names of visitors and there is special entertainment through the dinner hours. There is a special line for take-outs.

For more information concerning broil tickets call Broil Headquarters, (313) 428-8422.

Holloway Happenings

By Helen Smoll

HOLLOWAY — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Engel hosted the Friendly Neighbors Farm Bureau group Tuesday evening in their home.

Members discussed the "China Market", topic for the month.

The outlook for American agriculture trade with the People's Republic of China is promising. Developments have created a new air of optimism about the future trade.

Americans hope that China will be able to pay for grain purchased and not ask for extended credit. They may be able to hold imports down, as some acceleration is likely. Whether it will be sufficient remains to be seen.

The question was asked: What are some of the objections in trading with the People's Republic of China? The answer: we would like their trade, but not their socialistic government.

Plans were discussed for the July meeting, with no concrete plans made.

A carry-in lunch was served by the hostess.

Reader Writes

Letter to the Editor:

This afternoon my seven-year-old son was accidentally scalded by a cup of spilled coffee at the Tecumseh McDonald's and I only wish I could say thank you for the assistance we received by McDonald staff in a more adequate way.

As I tried to cool down my son's bright red legs with cold water, one of McDonald's employees came into the bathroom and said she would check to see what aid they could be.

In seconds, Pat Dulle entered the bathroom and spread prepared mustard across his legs, which stopped the pain and tears immediately. Then she applied ice water. His legs never blistered. Everyone was so nice and reassuring to him.

As a hairdresser for 14 years, I have owned and operated three salons, one in Northville and now serving you in two locations, the Village Hair Forum in Manchester and the Tecumseh Bidwell Exchange.

As a member of the American Hairdressers Association, I pride myself in keeping up with the latest in hair styles in the Detroit and Toledo areas. I have just returned from a seminar on the new techniques of hair removal with wax in Toledo. While on vacation recently in Phoenix, Ariz. area, I learned new techniques on nail extension, pedicures and manicures. After a skin care seminar in Akron, the shop will offer facials, skin care products, advice and make up for your individual skin problems.

I will answer your questions on hair waxing, manicures, pedicures, nail extension, problems with your hair such as over-processed perms, color problems and consumer tips on hair care products and curling irons, blow dryers, etc.

I invite you to write to me care of Village Hair Forum, 104 E. Main St., Manchester. Answers to most frequently asked questions will be published weekly in our new column.

Local Downtown Merchants Holding Annual Sidewalk Sale Here Friday

Tecumseh's annual Sidewalk Sale will be held here Friday, July 20th, with practically every downtown merchant participating. Many stores will have sale bargains both inside and outside their shops.

Other features of the event include a children's carnival behind the fire station on S. Evans St.; chicken barbecue by the Tecumseh Jaycees at the corner of E. Chicago Blvd. and Ottawa St., and clowns (including Wralph), popcorn and rides.

Auto dealers will be showing cars and the Tecumseh Players will have a publicity booth.

In the past, throngs of bargain hunters have packed the downtown section, especially during the first few hours. It is annually the merchants' biggest sale of the year.

Four Parachute Jump Teams Train Here for World Title

Parachuting Services at Al Meyers Airport in Tecumseh was selected the team training site by the United States Parachuting Association for the United States, Great Britain, New Zealand and Canadian parachuting teams in preparation for the world championships in Chateau Roux, France.

The 25-30 international visitors will be in town Aug. 6-17.

According to Harold Lange, owner of Parachuting Services and manager of Al Meyers Airport, Tecumseh was selected for the honor because of its closeness to the sky van aircraft at Detroit Metro Airport which carries about 20 jumpers.

Craig VanCamp of Tecumseh is a member of the 1978 defending world championship team, the Golden Knights parachute performance team for the 82nd airborne division of the United States.

Lange said that lodging will be needed for the international teams.

"We are asking some of our good neighbors and friends in the Tecumseh area if they can house a couple of the jumpers during the two weeks," Lange said. He stated that the United States team would be lodged at Boysville.

Lange added that the United States team is not supported by the government. The team must raise $25,000 of which it has raised $8,200 to date.

Lange also announced that Parachuting Services of Tecumseh plans to form its own parachuting team for competition. The team will be called the Blue Birds, named for the blue and white aircraft at Parachuting Services, and will be uniformed in blue and white.

Dave Sauve, who recently recorded his 4,000th jump, VanCamp and Jerry Marklin, who recently recorded his 2,900th jump, will be involved in training and performing with the local team.

Lange said tryouts will be held in Tecumseh. Four jumpers will be selected to compete in style and accuracy individual competition.

They will form one of the two four-way teams which will combine to become Tecumseh's eight-way team. The term "way" refers to a team composed of male and/or female jumpers.

Police Arrest Boy, 14, in B&E of O'Brien Home

A 14-year-old Tecumseh youth was apprehended by Clinton State Police shortly after householder C. Jerry O'Brien surprised him in his home, on Munger Rd., early Wednesday morning.

The O'Briens were awakened near midnight by their barking dog, and Mr. O'Brien found the juvenile in his living room. He tussled with the youth, who had a pocket knife, and in the ensuing struggle, the youth's sweat shirt ripped and he was cut under the eye.

The boy apparently went to a neighbor, whom he knew, and asked the woman to take him into town.

Clinton State Police stopped the vehicle on Munger Rd. near Matthews Hwy. and took the youth into custody. He was lodged at Maurice Speer Campus, pending arraignment Wednesday on charges of B&E of an occupied dwelling and felonious assault with a knife.

OK Care Unit

The proposed psychiatric care unit for Herrick Hospital gained the approval of the Michigan Mid-South Health Systems Agency Board July 11.

The non-binding recommendation of the board will be forwarded to the Michigan Department of Public Health which will determine whether or not to issue a certificate of need for the project to begin.

The Department of Health is not expected to take any action on the request for at least 90 days, said Hospital Administrator William Groover.

Faraday, Union Settle Strike

Members of striking local of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers #1246 at Faraday in Tecumseh, ratified a 30 month contract July 13.

Most of the 238 local members were expected back to work on Monday with some being called in on Tuesday, reported Lavere Brighton, vice-president of local #1246.

Contract includes a 12 percent increase the first 15 months and a 13 percent increase the second 15 months.

Substantial precent raises were made across the board with skilled help receiving some inequity raises.

In addition, the members gained an additional holiday, raising holidays to 11. Improvements were made in the insurance program and pension plan.

Explains Supervision of Boysville Youths

Brother Francis Boylan of Boysville, invited to Monday night's Council meeting, explained the supervision of youths to local officials and some 20 residents, who later met with him for almost two hours following the city meeting.

Relative to a June 4 assault of a Tecumsh housewife, he termed that it was "inappropriate for him to comment on it at this time." A 15-year-old Boysville youth is in custody in Adrian and has yet to be tried in court.

Brother Francis said that in the future a supervisor would accompany Boysville youths off the Macon campus and remain with them while in the community here. One supervisor would have no more than five or six youths at a time.

Last month, a supervisor reportedly took some Boysville residents to a local dental office and left them unsupervised while he conducted some business downtown. The 15-year-old is said to have left the office and attacked a local woman.

"We wanted reassurance that Boysville students would be supervised not only when they come to the local dentist, but also for other occasions," said Betty Kline, spokesperson for the group of local citizens that asked for a meeting to clear the air about programs and supervision at the privately operated juvenile treatment facility.

The group included faculty members from Boysville, Tecumseh and Macon residents

'Gov. Greg' Will Address State Legion Convention

by Kathy Brown

Greg Gadek, senior at Tecumseh High School, is one teen in a 1,000. He was elected governor during the American Legion sponsored Boys' State program in East Lansing at Michigan State University June 13-20.

Greg is the first delegate from Lenawee County to receive the honor in the 42 years of the program in Michigan.

He will address the state convention of the American Legion in Michigan at Grand Rapids Saturday, July 21.

The honor came as no surprise to Greg's teachers and friends. "He's quite a go-getter," commented Tecumseh High School principal Clarence Lacny.

But Greg's election was perhaps one of the best kept secrets. Word of his honor first came casually to the Herald July 13 in a conversation with the mother of another Boys' State delegate.

Jon Prettyman served as Governor Gadek's executive assistant. "I couldn't have kept my head straight without him," said Greg about his assistant who helped him keep track of a whirlwind schedule that included speeches, media conferences and a June 20 meeting with Michigan's Governor William G. Milliken.

Phil Conklin of Tecumseh was co-editor of the Boys' State newspaper. Steve Pope acted as a member of the board of regents of Michigan State University. Other boys that attended and held local offices during the weeklong exercise in government were Jeff Betzoldt, Dave Cubberly, Joe Royal and John Southard.

As soon as the boys arrived on campus, they were assigned to a city and to one of two mythical political parties of the 51st state they governed with mythical cities and counties. The basic laws of the State of Michigan and its Constitution formed the basis for political activities.

The convention system was used to nominate candidates. The boys were able to run for any office in the judicial, legislative and executive divisions of government in positions that correspond as nearly as possible to actual Michigan government.

Greg made the Governor's office his goal.

Greg said that he was the "dark horse" in the mock election conducted with 1,000 Michigan boys. He beat out a dozen other potential candidates in his own "Nationalist" party to win the nomination. He then beat his "Federalist" party opponent with 69 percent of the vote.

Residents Protest Zoning Change

Approximately 40 residents, most of them from Seminole Dr., protested a proposed change in zoning of 30 acres at Tuesday night's Planning Commission meeting.

A change in zoning from single family residences to multiple-family affects an area just south of Seminole and north of W. Chicago Blvd.

Many residents voiced objections at the public hearing. No action was taken by the Planning Commission, which will meet again Tuesday, July 31, on the proposed zoning change.

Ed Day, Clinton developer, has planned a five or six-story high rise complex of 70 units for senior citizens. In addition there would be 60 apartments and 52 townhouses.

Seminole Dr. would be extended south to W. Chicago Blvd. with entry between Adrian St. and Sunset Dr. Another street, west of Seminole's extension, is shown on the plan.

According to city officials, the first housing unit would be built about 500 feet south of Seminole, which is currently a dead end street.

Funding has yet to be determined but would involve the government, either state or federal, or both. Land involved is part of the Fuller farm property and is owned by Bill Powell, local real estate broker and developer.

In a somewhat similar senior citizen complex planned by the city south of W. Pottawatamie and one that involves government funding, federal officials are still reviewing the plans and funding, Paul Preston, assistant city manager, reports.

Trying Youth as Adult; Under $200,000 Bond

A 16-year-old Lansing youth, formerly a resident of Boysville and now held in custody in Adrian for an assault on a Tecumseh housewife, will be tried as an adult.

Under $200,000 bond, he will be arraigned in Circuit Court next Monday.

Judge Ralph Kohn of Probate Court waived him over to Circuit Court Tuesday afternoon.

The June 4th incident has resulted in community criticism of supervision provided by Boysville while its youths are in Tecumseh.

Enters Plea of 'No Contest'

Michael Connors, 30, Tecumseh-Clinton Rd., pled "no contest" Tuesday morning in Judge Kenneth Glaser's Circuit Court to charges of leaving the scene of a serious personal injury accident.

Pre-sentence investigation is now being conducted, according to Merlin Mowery, Tecumseh police chief. Sentencing date has not been scheduled.

MR. and MRS. MERLE KERR

MR. and MRS. CHARLES WINTERS

Celebrates 50th

July 1 was a festive occasion for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winters, formerly of Tecumseh and now of Adrian. They restated their wedding vows after 50 years of life together.

While they were renewing their vows, a great-granddaughter was born. The anniversary ceremony and reception took place on the lawn of the Winterses' home under a large tent decorated with wedding bells, streamers and flowers.

Musical selections included flute quartet that played their original arrangement of "Because," a saxophone duet of "An Old Fashioned Love Song" and organ accompaniment by Mrs. A.R. Clay.

Florence Parish handled the guest book which was signed by over 200 guests that attended the ceremony and reception that followed.

An elaborate buffet was prepared by the children and their immediate families and served with the assistance of Mrs. DeEtta Clugston and Mrs. Gayle McKinney.

The children presented their mother and father with a golden jeweled plaque of the Winters Family Tree. Guests and family spent several hours reminiscing the past 50 years.

The immediate family includes Donald Winters and wife Heather of Arizona, Milton Winters and wife Faye of Hillsdale, Dolores Becker and husband Jerry of Oregon, Nadene Burman and husband Donald from Waterford, Sylvia Bice and husband Robert, Craig Winters and wife Enid, Dorinda Tidswell and husband Michael, all of Adrian.

The Winterses have 21 grandchildren and four great-granchildren. They resided in Tecumseh for five years and are lifelong residents of Lenawee County. Mr. Winters works for Charles Winters and Son Excavating.

Kerr's Observe 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Merle L. Kerr of Holloway, will observe their 50th wedding anniversary July 22 from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Holloway Presbyterian Church in Holloway.

Friends and relatives are invited to a reception given in their honor by their children, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kerr of Holloway and Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Kerr of Franklin. Mr. and Mrs. Kerr are grandparents of six grandchildren.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Kerr are retired teachers. Mr. Kerr retired as a principal in the Detroit Public Schools System and Mrs. Kerr from the Farmington Public School System.

The couple requests that gifts be omitted.

"We Felt The Price Was Most Reasonable."

It's typical for families we serve to tell us that our prices are most reasonable. That's because our prices . . . like our service . . . are intended for families from all walks of life. We're proud of our prices and will be pleased to discuss them with you without obligation, at any time.

JOHN E. ANDERSON

Services were June 12 in the First Presbyterian Church, Jackson for John E. Anderson, 74, of 3923 Kathmar, Jackson, retired senior member of a Jackson law firm and former Tecumsehite.

He died June 9. He was a senior partner in the Anderson, Patch, Rosenfeld, Potter and Grover law firm, 404 S. Jackson.

He was born in Tecumseh, the son of Albert and Vevia (Waters) Anderson. They preceded him in death. He graduated from Tecumseh High School. His grandfather, John Anderson, had a role in founding Tecumseh. The family owned the Anderson Grocery Store during the 1940's with other relatives in Tecumseh.

Mr. Anderson came to Jackson in 1930 after graduation from the University of Michigan Law School and continued his practice in Jackson for 45 years.

He was a member and past president of the Jackson County Bar Association and a member of the Michigan and American Bar Associations.

He was a board officer for various Jackson businesses including the board of directors of City Bank and Trust Co. and was an honorary member of the board at the time of his death.

He was also a former member and past chairman of the board of directors for First Federal Savings and Loan.

For several years, he served as legal counsel for the Jackson Public School system.

Survivors are his wife Helena C.; three daughters, Nancy Lou Anderson of Chicago, Susan Ryan of Newark, Ohio and Julia Sayers of Sterling Heights; a son Jeffrey Anderson of Clark Lake and three grandchildren.

Burial was in Woodland Cemetery.

FRANK LABUN JR.

Services were July 14 at St. Dominic's Catholic Church in Clinton for Frank J. Laburn Jr., 59, of 700 Waskin Dr. He died July 11 at Herrick Hospital where he had been admitted earlier in the day.

He was born Nov. 30, 1919 in Ottawa Lake to Frank and Clara (Trutt) Labun Sr. He married Hazel Bordine June 7, 1947.

Mr. Labun worked at the Tecumseh Products for 38 years. He resided in Tecumseh for the past four years coming from Clinton where he had resided since 1961. He was a veteran of World War II serving in the U.S. Army.

Survivors are two daughters, Roxann of Tecumseh and Suzann of Plymouth; one brother, Donald of Dundee; five sisters Marie Peters of Tecumseh, Mrs. L.C. (Elizabeth) Norman and Mrs. Robert (Jane) Keinath, both of Dundee, Mrs. Glenn (Jeanette) Valentine of Dearborn and Judith Labun of Monroe.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a son Frank III in 1963.

Fr. Chester Tomaszewski officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery. Rosary was recited at the Proctor Funeral Home in Clinton, which made the arrangements.

RUTH McKENDRY

Services were July 13 at the Purse Funeral Home for Ruth G. McKendry, 72, of Royal Oak. She died July 11 in William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak.

She was born March 19, 1907 in Tecumseh to William and Gertrude (Tilton) McKendry.

Survivors are three sisters, Helen Powers of Plymouth, Mrs. Clarence (Ann) McClure of Southfield and Wilma Davis of Royal Oak; and one brother, John McKendry of Adrian.

She was preceded in death by two sisters and one brother.

Burial was in Brookside Cemetery. The Rev. Albert Raloff officiated.

ERYL RAINEY

Services were July 16 at the Garden of Memories in Tampa, Fla. for Eryl W. Rainey, 77, of that city. He died after a short illness July 13 at Tampa General Hospital.

He was born July 13, 1902 in Holloway to William and Bertha Rainey.

An Adrian College graduate, Class of 1925, Mr. Rainey taught school for 30 years in Detroit and later operated the Dunn-Rainey Company there.

He was a member of the Detroit Rotary Club, Holloway Presbyterian Church and the Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity.

Survivors include his wife, Margaret; one daughter, Barbara Armstrong of Los Angeles, Calif.; and a sister, Mrs. Matt (Marjorie) Lunn of Tamps. Also surviving are cousins in Michigan, including this area.

Receives Medal

Spec. 4 John P. Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Schmidt, 8610 Mills Macon Hwy., recently was presented the Good Conduct Medal in Idar-Oberstein, Germany.

The medal, established in 1941, is awarded on a selective basis for those who distinguish themselves from among their fellow military personnel through exemplary conduct, efficiency and fidelity during their active military service.

Schmidt received the award while assigned as a mechanic with the 8lst Field Artillery in Idar-Oberstein.

He entered the Army in May 1976.

The specialist is a 1972 Tecumseh graduate.

Talking It Out

Make No Hasty Decisions About Retirement

Unlike a Frank Sinatra, you will probably only retire once, so you'll want to be super-intelligent about how you go about retiring.

Don't burn your bridges behind you, such as selling your home and running off to the sunnier climes the day you retire. Your home may be the best investment you have at any price. Going to Florida or Hawaii for the winter may be retirement enough as a "getaway." Hasty decisions are frequently costly and irreversible.

Easy does it. It's better to retire slowly and gradually. Begin early. Think and plan about where to live, what you'll do and when. Gather FACTS about your decisions -- not emotions.

Estimate income at retirement and how you will supplement that income if it is too low; also how to use it to your best advantage if it is ample.

Mistakes are costly

Remember that at retirement you cannot afford to make too many little mistakes and ANY big mistakes. Plan in advance. Make lists of the pros and cons. Get expert help whenever it's needed. And here's where we may be of some assistance. We may be able to direct you to sources of expertise in some retirement matters, such as Social Security benefits, union pensions and veteran's benefits. Stop by and see us. We'll help if we can.

Announcing
A Major Breakthrough in Banking:

"All the money you used to keep in your checking account now can earn 5% daily interest."

SAVINGS CHECKING
AUTOMATIC TRANSFER ACCOUNT

Commercial Savings Bank announces the Automatic Transfer Account. It's a plan that combines the 5% daily interest of savings, and the convenience of checking.

From now on, all the money you had tied up in a checking account balance can be put into a CSB Automatic Transfer Savings Account. You'll still keep your checking account, and you'll still write checks as usual. But the exact amount needed to cover each check will be transferred automatically from your savings.

And, if you keep a minimum monthly savings account balance of $1,250, you can write as many checks as you want with no service charge.*

With an ATA you'll earn more interest. Because now all the money you deposit at CSB will earn 5% daily interest.

It adds up to more money for you. No wonder we call it a Major Breakthrough in Banking.

*When minimum balance is less than $1,250, monthly service charge will be $4.00 plus 20¢ per check.

Kennan-Kessler Married in Noon Ceremony

Jane M. Kennan and Paul Donald Kessler were married in a noon ceremony by the Rev. Joseph Morin at St. Brigid's Catholic Church in Midland, June 16.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Keenan of Midland and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Kessler of Tecumseh.

Lois McIntosh of Midland was the matron of honor and Bridget Keenan, cousin of the bride, was a bridesmaid.

Barney Kessler of Canton, Ohio was the best man and Mark Kessler, the groom's brother of Tecumseh, was the groomsman.

The bride graduated from Central Michigan University with a bachelor of science degree in business administration.

The groom is a 1975 Tecumseh graduate and a graduate of Northwood Institute, Midland, with a bachelor of business administration degree. He is employed at Monroe Auto Equipment, Division of Tennaco, Inc. as a capital account.

The couple resides in Toledo, Ohio.

Explain Supervision

present asked Boysville officials, for "a more active communication of what is happening at Boysville. We'd like to know the problems, too, to remove the mystery," said Kline.

The citizens asked how many felons are treated at Boysville, how walk-a-ways are handled and what the qualifications of staff are.

"While it is possible that a student may be felon," said Boylan, "we don't use the criminal labels and prefer to diagnose the student's situation and respond with an individual treatment plan."

About walk-a-ways, Boylan stated, "We are trying everything possible to provide the best treatment program we can. We have increased staff over the years and we review and improve the programs. We feel that if the kids are being helped, they won't try to walk away." He added that Boysville prefers staff dealing with the youth to have a bachelors degree.

"We are most appreciative of council members Carlton Cook, Mary Bowers and Mayor Aden Mead for being present for the discussion after the council meeting, for their concern, interest and questions and also to the Boysville staff," said Kline. She added that the group had the opportunity to ask questions that it wanted to ask.

Final Days Approach for Pre-School Clinic

The final days of the Pre-School Vision and Hearing Screening Clinics will be held Monday, July 30, Thursday, August 2, and Monday, August 6, at the Lenawee County Health department.

The hours will be 8:45 to 11:45 a.m. and from 1 to 4 p.m.

These are the final clinic dates for children entering kindergarten this fall to have their vision and hearing screening by the Lenawee County Health Department's Clinic.

Anyone who has missed an appointment or did not receive an appointment may come to the Clinic on one of the above days.

Good vision and hearing are most important in learning, give your child every possible advantage have his/her vision and hearing checked.

Extra Immunization Clinics To Be Held

The Lenawee County Health Department Immunization Clinic is regularly open each Wednesday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. for immunizations.

Because of the large numbers of people attending these clinics, it has been decided to hold some extra clinics during the balance of the summer.

In addition to the regular Wednesday clinics, the Immunization Clinic will also be open on Thursday for the balance of July and the month of August.

The hours for these clinics will be from 10:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.

In September, extra clinics will be held from 10:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. on September 7, 14 and 21. The dates for the extra clinics in July and August will be July 19 and 26, and August 2, 9, 16, 23, and 30.

Couple Marry at Friends Church

Tecumseh Friends Church was the setting for the marriage of Renata Szymanski and Eric Halberstadt July 7, 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. Allen Richardson officiated the ceremony for the daughter of Ronald and Frieda Szymanski of 5293 Macon Rd. and the son of the late George and Evalyn Halberstadt.

A Juliet cap with lace and seed pearls secured her cathedral length mantilla veil of illusion, edged with lace. A diamond necklace and earrings completed her attire. She carried carnations, cymbidium orchids and star flowers in a cascade bouquet.

She wore a matching hat and carried a bouquet similar to the bride's.

Bridesmaids were Tina Geissler of Adrian and Gwen Wild of Munith. Renee Wyatt was junior bridesmaid. She wore an apricot chiffon gown over apricot satin with brown and white. Heath Wyatt was flower girl.

Ushers were Bruce Meck of Holland, Gene Halberstadt, the groom's brother of Clovis, N.M. and Jim Martin of Tecumseh. Christopher Halberstadt, the groom's nephew of Clovis, N.M., was ring bearer.

A buffet dinner was held at the United Products Workers Union Hall.

Reorganizational Meeting Is Held

BRITTON — The reorganizational meeting of the Britton-Macon Board of Education was held July 9 with new board member, Kenneth Bortel, being sworn in by the superintendent.

The board will meet on the second Tuesday of each month in the superintendent's office. During the months of November through April they will meet at 7 p.m. and at 8 p.m. for the months of May through October.

The United Savings Bank of Tecumseh will be the depository bank for all school monies with the exception of the 1975 debt retirment fund which will be deposited in the Deerfield State Bank.

The employees dishonesty bond was set at $5,000.

The board discussed school bus policies and expressed dissatisfaction with the general behavior of some students who ride the school bus.

The board will support the bus drivers in an attempt to crack down on some of the unruly students who disregard the rules.

Students will be given a warning for the first offense. The second offense will result in the student being suspended from riding the bus for a period of time as designated by the principal and the bus driver.

Property Taxes Due Aug. 31

BRITTON — All property owners of the Village of Britton are reminded that village taxes are due and payable no later than Aug. 31.

Due to a billing error the collection fee will only be charged on the property and personal tax.

There will be no collection fee on the sewer assessment.

If mailing payments please make the adjustment before sending. Village treasurer, Elizabeth Osterhout, will collect Thursdays for 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. and on Saturdays from 9 a.m. until 12 noon.

After Sept. 1, a penalty will be added, and taxes will be payable at the county treasurer's office, at the court house in Adrian.

Well Check Is Finished

BRITTON — Lane Northern and well engineers have recently checked all of the Britton wells. They now are waiting for a report.

Britton's south well has been shut down since late May due to a sample showing methane gas.

Residents are still prohibited excessive use of water; a second well is providing water for Britton.

Solar Crop

Adrian College may be producting a sizeable vegetable crop this winter, the result of a solar greenhouse being constructed on campus.

According to Dr. K.S. Xavier, professor of biology at Adrian, the structure will measure 32 x 40 feet and is located adjacent to the plant building in the southwest corner of the campus.

Cundiff Reunion

BRITTON — The 23rd annual Cundiff Reunion was held July 15, at the home of John and Iris Slick in Ridgeway. The 1:30 p.m. potluck dinner was enjoyed by 27 persons.

The business meeting was conducted by president Allen Bower. Secretary-treasurer reports were given by Nina Bower.

Officers for 1980 will be: president, Bill Gibbs; vice-president, Mike Shoemaker; and secretary-treasurer, Iris Slick.

The 1980 reunion will be held the third Sunday in July at the home of Bill and Nancy Gibbs in Britton.

Receives Award

BRITTON — Gordon Cook, Jeff Butler and Carl Kempf were recently awarded the Arrow of Light.

This award is the highest that a cub scout can earn. All three boys are members of the Britton Webelos.

Cyclist Injured

CLINTON — Motorcyclist Robert Presnell, 23, of Grass Lake, received serious leg injuries, in a collision with an automobile driven by Steven Sadler, 18, of Dearborn Heights, on M-52 just east of Munger Rd.

Mishap occurred at 1:35 a.m. Monday.

Presnell told Clinton State Police he was southbound on M-52, when the lights on his cycle quit working. He was trying to fix them when he crossed the center line, striking the Sadler vehicle, which was northbound on M-52.

Sadler and a passenger, Terry Konarske, 18, of Dearborn Heights, sought their own treatment for minor cuts and bruises.

Two other passengers, Gary Konarske, 24 of Detroit and Todd Felt, 19, of Dearborn Heights were not injured.

Auto-Cycle Collide

CLINTON — Motorcyclist Philip Zeigler, 20, of Livonia, was treated and released from Saline Hospital, following a collision with an automobile driven by Rhonda Holler, 28, of Trenton.

The accident occurred at 10:15 a.m. Sunday on US-12, near the Clinton Belle Party Store, east of Clinton.

Traffic was apparently slowing for a vehicle to make a turn into the business place, when the collision occurred.

Clinton State Police investigated and no charges were made.

Trash Pickup

BRITTON — Britton Village will have a trash pickup on Aug. 6 and 7.

Agricultural Engineers Visit Area Farms

RIDGEWAY — A busload of international agriculture engineers and experts visited two Tecumseh area farms July 13 as part of the ninth International Congress of International Engineers, held last week at Michigan State University.

It was the first time that the conference, held every five years, was held in the United States. Some 500 delegates, representing over 40 nations, attended the congress in East Lansing.

Their Lenawee County visit to the Jim Squires dairy farm at 8447 Ridge Rd. and the Bob Bush cash grain farm at 8867 Pennington Rd. was arranged with help of Norman Bless, Lenawee County Cooperative Extension agent in cooperation with Massey Ferguson farm implement manufacturer.

Delegates on the local farm tour hailed from the U.S.S.R., Brazil, Japan, Netherlands, Hungary, Scotland and France, to name a few countries.

At the Squires farm, they met Jim and Ann's family including their son and partner Jim and four daughters Janine, Joann, Jill and Jeryl. The family farms 600 acres and milk 165 dairy cows.

A professor from the Netherlands made a comment that summarized the feelings of the delegates: the American farmer works longer and harder for less money than his international counterpart.

The visitors were impressed with the family committment to farming, including the women.

A highlight of the tour for Mrs. Squires was that she was able to speak with two Czechoslovakian delegates who could not speak English. Her ancestory is Czech.

Bob Bush and wife Myra farm 1,000 acres with their sons and partners Larry, 29 and Lynn, 25. They grow wheat, soybeans and corn.

There the international visitors observed the Bush self-designed method for applying anhydrous ammonia simultaneously with the fall planting. The method saves fuel and money by decreasing the number of passes through the field. The Bushes are another family with a lifelong committment to farming. They are the sole workers on the farm and all the buildings on their operation were built by them.

Included in the Japanese delegation was a publisher of an agricultural engineering magazine. He stated that about 80 percent of the farmers in his country maintain outside jobs, similar to the trend among some farmers in the United States. However, in Japan, the farms are only 2.47 acres.

He had made several trips to the United States in the past 10 years and was impressed with the size of machinery as well as technology over the years.

Onsted Wins Tournament

Onsted Building Center won the Tory Athletic Boosters-Coaches Tourney held last weekend at the Britton athletic fields.

The tourney was a 16 team, double elimination event for class B, C, and D men's slow pitch softball teams.

Onsted beat Hartman Insurance from Saline in the championship final 7-6 by scoring two runs in the bottom of the seventh with two outs.

Hartman was awarded the second place trophy and EDP Keypunch of Adrian took home third place honors.

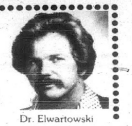
News From The Tecumseh Chiropractic Life Center

101 S. Pearl Tecumseh



Dr. Elwartowski

Dear Doctor,

I've heard a lot of talk about chiropractors being 'health doctors" instead of the ordinary "treat-the-symptoms doctor." What does this mean?

Health is ever-present in every human. Nature has provided man with good health and with the knowledge to maintain that good health.

The controlling force in man is his instinct or innate intelligence. Man's brain transmits nerve energy impulses to all body structures through the spinal cord, the spinal nerves and millions of tiny nerve fibers.

So long as man's nervous system functions properly and transmits the brain's messages through the body, good health abounds. When nerve pressure or impingement in the spinal column interferes with the efficient flow of nerve energy, disorder and disease result. Sickness is the result.

However, scienitific and gentle chiropractic adjustments at the hands of a competent chiropractor free the nerves to perform their proper duties, and nature restores the affected body parts to normal. Healthy, happy living once again becomes a part of life.

Healing and good health do not come through the elimination of or covering-up of symptoms. The cause for the disorder must be located and corrected.

When the cause has been eliminated, nature effects the cure by restoring the affected body organs to normal, efficient operation. Through chiropractic adjustments, nature is able to perform her natural duty of health maintenance.

For furthet information on this question, or if you have other related questions, feel free to write Dr. Elwartowski at 101 S. Pearl St., Tecumseh, MI 49286.

Dr. W. C. Elwartowski
Director

Seniors Finish Season, Blissfield Undefeated

The Senior Softball League closed out its season last Tuesday night. Blissfield kept their perfect record intact as they downed Tecumseh 14-4. Tecumseh's defensive fell apart in the third inning allowing Blissfield to score 12 runs.

Tecumseh was only able to get three hits off of Debbie Thomas' pitching. Lisa Lapham and Kathy Stuewe combined for the Tecumseh hits. Lapham also showed some excellent base running.

Tecumseh finished the season in second place with a 4-2 record.

Britton and Deerfield squared off in the other contest to finish their season. Deerfield defeated Britton 5-2 in spite of Jill Smith's three hits for Britton.

Sharon Gilson was the winning pitcher. Both teams finished the season with 1-5 records.

Junior Softball

The Junior Softball League has seen a lot of action in the last week. Last Wednesday staged undefeated Blissfield against undefeated Tecumseh #2. Tecumseh got off to a slow start and could never catch up.

Blissfield got the victory to remain on top 21-10. Paula Pavelka was the winning pitcher and delivered two hits, including a three-run homer. For Tecumseh, Christi Miller had two hits

Manchester #1 upped their record to 2-3 by getting by Clinton 19-8 in five innings. Clinton dropped to 2-4. Leanne Goodwin pounded out five hits for Manchester. Dawn Sourbeck and Theresa Trojowski each had two hits for Clinton.

In other games, Britton won over Deerfield 16-9 and Tecumseh #3 got by Tecumseh #1, 20-4.

In Thursday's game, all three Tecumseh teams were victorious. Blissfield clobbered Deerfield 24-8 in five innings.

Tecumseh #3 edged Britton 10-6, to up their record to 5-2. Britton fell to 4-2. Cheryl Salters had two hits for Tecumseh.

Tecumseh #1 got to taste victory as they out slugged Manchester #2, 14-4. Carrie Hite had two hits for Tecumseh.

Tecumseh #2 came from behind in the seventh inning to pull out a win over Clinton 11-8. Kim Creswell was the winning pitcher.

Monday night left Blissfield on top of the league and three teams tied for second place. Britton won over Tecumseh #2, 18-12 to slide into second place. Kristi Miller had a home run for Tecumseh

Deerfield came from behind to beat Tecumseh #1, 16-3. Lisa Gregg, Janet Humphries, and Carrie Hite all had key hits driving in runs for the Tecumseh team.

Blissfield had no trouble handling Manchest. #1 as they remained unbeaten. The score was 14-0 and Paula Pavelka gave up only one hit in her pitching effort.

Tecumseh #2 climbed back into second place with Tecumseh #2 and Britton as they got by Manchester #2, 14-7.

Plan Junior Golf Tourney

The TJAGA is sponsoring its second tournament of the season July 23 at the Tecumseh Country Club.

The Tecumseh Junior Amateur Golf Association tournament is set to begin at 9 a.m. and will feature a 18 hole scramble of two-man teams. After each player hits a drive in this tourney, the best shot is select and both players play second shot from there, and so on through the hole.

Each team will consist of two players whose total age is 32 years or less. In the event of an unforeseen interest in the tournament, two age classifications may be utilized. Size of the field is limited and players who do not choose partners ahead of time will be assigned July 23.

Two trophies will be awarded to the top five place finishes in the tourney. The 10 trophies are donated by Erb Chevrolet.

The $5 entry fee includes greens fees, lunch and a souvenir bag tag. A $6 entry fee is levied for players signing up the day of the tournament.

Mail checks for registration with your name, age, address, phone numbers and partner's information to TJAGA, Box 1, Tecumseh.

Youth Compounds Problems

An Adrian youth compounded his problems with police here last Wednesday when he attempted to avoid being arrested.

Dale R. Johnston, 21, Adrian was first observed speeding on Russell Rd. and refused to stop for the Tecumseh police, who chased his motorcycle on Adrian St. at over 80 mph.

Police then followed him west on M-50 at speeds of 95 mph before finally forcing him onto the shoulder near Carson Hwy.

Johnston was charged with reckless driving, fleeing and eluding, and driving on a revoked license. He told officers that the reason he didn't stop originally is because of the revoked license.

Other police investigations the past week were:

July 12 — A gas tank, coil wire and oil cap were taken from a garden tractor at Whelan Implement, N. Occidental Rd.

July 12 — Larry J. Denman, 23, Dundee, was cited for having open intoxicants in a vehicle.

July 13 — Michael H. Jones, 23, Clayton, was arrested for driving while license was suspended.

July 13 — Alan A. Loughrige, 36, of 314 W. Kilbuck, was observed weaving on W. Pottawatamie. He was stopped and charged with driving while under the influence.

July 14 — Jeffrey S. Walczak, 23, Toledo, was picked up on a traffic warrant from the Erie Post of the state police.

July 17 — Douglas A. Fountain, 19, Rockwood was arrested for transporting open intoxicants in his vehicle. Passengers, Gregory H. Hoonshell, 19, and Daniel Alexander, 19, both of Newport, were cited for having open intoxicants in the vehicle.

'Hiding Place' Is Feature at Friends

The true-life story of Corrie ten Boom, a former Nazi prisoner, will be presented through the motion picture, "The Hiding Place" July 28 and 29 at 8 p.m. and 7 p.m. at the Tecumseh Friends Church.

This remarkable story of tragedy and victory shares the experiences of a family who was willing to risk all for others.

The ten Booms became involved in the Dutch Underground during the German occupation of World War II by hiding Jews in a secret room built in their house, thereby aiding them in their escape from the Nazis.

As a result of a raid by soldiers, Corrie's family was taken prisoner and Corrie was sent to the dreaded concentration camp, "Ravensbruck."

The engagement of Joyce Leona Jeffrey to Johnny Lopez is announced by her parents Wayne and Elsie Jeffrey of 9110 Holloway Rd., Britton. She is a 1979 Britton-Macon graduate, employed at Arbor Distributors in Ann Arbor. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Antanacio Lopez, 9251 Monroe Rd., Ridgeway. A 1977 Tecumseh graduate, he is employed at Chrysler Proving Grounds in Chelsea. A July 16, 1980 wedding is planned.

The engagement of Cheryl Lynne McKenzie to Rainey Lopez is announced by her mother Joyce McKenzie of 6781 Gove. She is also the daughter of the late Everett McKenzie. A 1978 Tecumseh graduate, Miss McKenzie attends Ferris State College. Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Antanacio Lopez, 6251 Monroe Rd., Ridgeway. He is a 1978 Tecumseh graduate, employed at Peerless Gear in Clinton. An Aug 1980 wedding is planned.

SUMMER SOFTBALL

The Tipton PTO Summer Softball League came to a successful close Friday night.

After much discussion under rain drops, the supper was held in the fellowship hall at Tipton Church.

League chairperson Mrs. Pat Jordon thanked all the parents, refreshment committee and Janice Slick for all their concern and help.

Mrs. Gordon also thanked coaches for their cooperation.

After some suggestions for the next year and the shower, the coaches and players took on the parents in a softball game.

The game was called after three innings, with the kids leaving as champs.

Every Thursday night at 6 p.m., weather permitting, the families of Tipton area will play unofficial ball games to finish out the summer vacation. Readers are invited to join.

"I didn't make any promises," Greg said about his campaign strategy which reflects his unassuming but determined leadership style.

"I told them that we'd get a screening committee and appoint the most qualified individuals in government." He cited the wastefulness in the campaigns of his opponents and asked, "How will they cut government spending?".

Gadek was inaugurated by Michigan Supreme Court Justice G. Mennen Williams.

In governing the mythical 51st state, the Boys' State leaders grappled with some of the same issues that are today's political hot potatoes.

The Boys' State delegates went on record as opposing nuclear energy, capital punishment and welfare fraud.

To handle the unemployment situation, and boost tourism in the urban part of the state, they seriously considered legalizing casino gambling. While no fault insurance system is a pet peeve of Governor Gadek, there was not enough time in the session to take action.

Alas, the mortal dangers of political life are real even for a Boys' State Governor, Greg learned. His team of bodyguards helped him successfully avoid the traditional kidnapping.

Since the students slept with open doors, elaborate traps were set in the doorways to forewarn of an impending raid.

But even Greg admits that it was an unanticipated official visit to Girls' State that saved him from political treachery.

"I learned more about getting along with people than anything else," Gadek said about his experience. "They were some of the greatest people you'd probably meet."

Greg has no problem getting along with people back home either. He was selected student council member of the year, served as president of the sophomore class, school board representative, winter carnival and sponge week chairman and in an actual political campaign did legwork for a candidate that beat an incumbent.

"I'd like to go back to Boys' State as a counselor," commented Greg. His long range career goals have narrowed to three choices.

"Being self-employed is my main goal. I'd also like to get into politics, but you have to have something to fall back on." Criminal justice is a third possible career choice

Four Accidents

Although Tecumseh police investigated just four accidents the past week, two involved personal injury, both of which could have been serious.

Monday, George W. Hart, 35, Rogers, Ark., was making a right turn off S. Maumee St. into E. Chicago Blvd. when his tractor-trailer rig struck a bicycle.

Mike Marty, 16, of 3828 Boyd St. was not aware the truck was making a turn and fortunately jumped off his bike before it was hit. He suffered only minor injuries.

Tuesday evening, Richard D. Rice, 18, of 10610 Wisner Hwy., was northbound on N. Ottawa when he told police that the throttle on his motorcycle stuck. He told offices that he was traveling about 60 mph when he passed a semi-trailer at the curve and slammed into the guard rail there.

His injuries were minor. Police cited him for careless driving.

Other mishaps were:

July 10 — Mary H. Wilson, 41, Clinton and Carl L. Bassett, 75, of 609 W. Cummins collided on W. Chicago at Union St. Both claim a green light.

July 11 — Coreen Y. Pool, 39, of 407 Herrick Park Dr., was backing out of a drive on Herrick Park Dr. when she struck Arthur A. Ludlow, 53, of Mississauga, Ontario.

Class of '24 Holds Reunion at Geiger's

The occasion was marked by attendance of all 13 of the remaining members of the class, which numbered 23 at graduation.

Along with spouses and guests there were 23 persons for the catered dinner and afternoon of socializing.

Class members attending were Leroy Williams, Elwin Witherell, Imogene Miller, all of Clinton; Ethel Whitehead of Jasper; Isabell Hand of Manchester; Elsie Wolf, Chelsea; Lucille Harrington, Simsbury, Conn.; Herbert Tag, Storrs, Conn.; Russell Steffens, St. Johns; Lillie Matthews, Leesburg, Fla.; Charles Parker and Fred Geiger, and Esther Schmidt, of Clinton.

Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson of Florida; and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wells, nee Arvilla Fabrique, of Vineyard Lake, who had attended school with the class.

A teacher of the class, while they were in fifth and sixth grade, Margaret Halladay, of Clinton attended the reunion, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Matthews, of Florida and Herbert Tag of Connecticut were houseguests of Mr. Geiger.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE — Clinton's Fall Festival '79 drawing, Sept. 30, will have an added fillup this year. Winner may choose one of three autos, GM's Citation, Ford Fairmont wagon, or Plymouth TC3-Horizon, and 1,000 gallons of gas goes with the automobile. Second prize is Las Vegas trip for two for three days. Third prize is AM-FM combination 40-channel CB. Seller of winning ticket wins trip for two, 7 days in Honolulu. Shown are Hugh McGill, ticket chairman and George L. Lancaster, Festival chairman. Tickets are available from more than 20 Clinton and Tecumseh area organizations, which receive half the proceeds of the tickets they sell.

CLINTON — Lenawee County Circuit Court jury deliberated four hours Friday, and found Deborah L. Miller, 29, of Manchester, guilty of embezzlement.

In the two-day trial before Judge Kenneth B. Glaser, the defendant was accused of embezzling more than $20,000 from June until November of 1977 from Atlas Feed and Grain in Clinton, where she had been employed as a bookkeeper for nine years.

Defense attorney Richard Snyder attempted to convince the jury that the woman was under intense pressure from her husband.

Witnesses referred to her being beaten and threatened for money.

Ann Arbor psychiatrist Ames Robey testified for the defense, that Miller's husband had extensive spending habits, while the defendant's spending habits were moderate.

Prosecuting attorney William Kenyon noted that the embezzlement took place over several months, and that her capacity to form the intent to take money could not have diminished to the extent claimed by the defense.

Mrs. Miller remains free on bond pending sentencing. No date for the sentencing had been set.

Pressure Checks

CLINTON — Shamrock Senior Citizens will meet July 19 for blood pressure checks from 10-11 a.m. and for a salad lunch at noon.

Herman Daldin will play a record of poet Edgar Guest.

PHILLIP REISER

Joining Staff

CLINTON — Phillip Reiser from Clinton is now joining the real estate staff of Louie Newman Real Estate, 128 E. Main St., Milan.

Phillip is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Reiser also of Clinton. He and his wife Linda Young Reiser have a four-month-old son Casidy. Phillip and Linda reside at 202 Bartlett St., in Clinton.

Second Da-Els Is Opening

CLINTON — Elsie Davison, of Tipton, owner of Da-Els's queen size fashion shop in Clinton for the past two years, has opened a second Da-El's shop in Ann Arbor, on W. Stadium Blvd., near the new Farmer Jack's market.

Carol VanDeusen and Mary Forgacs will operate the Clinton Da-El's.

Cyclist Injured

CLINTON — Claude Shelton, of Carleton, was admitted to St. Joseph Hospital, following an accident on his motorcycle on Britton Hwy., near 210 E. Hack Rd.

Clinton State Police investigated and accident which occurred at 3:05 p.m. July 10.

James Wilson Elected President

Monthly meetings will be on the second Wednesday of each month, except the July meeting, which will be held on the second Monday of July, 8 p.m. in the Board of Education office, 341 E. Michigan Ave.

With President Wilson presiding, Ed Aluk, vocal instructor asked for board's permission to try to raise enough funds to participate in a vocal festival in Hawaii.

In order to qualify for the festival, tapes must be made and sent to the festival committee, which will determine who will become participants.

Suggestions for fund raisers, submitted by Aluk are rummage sale, Lenawee County Fair raffle, Saline Fair raffle. Fall Festival booth, dance, benefit concert with Friars and community and individual donations.

Approximate cost of the trip is $20,000, including air fare, hotel, food, etc. The dates are April 1-10, 1980. It is anticipated 35-40 students could go.

Aluk has asked that each student raise $100 of the individual trip fare of $500 by Sept. 1979. If the total sum cannot be reached, the immediate funds collected will be used to compete in a program closer to home.

Another presentation of later information will be given the board in October.

Bid was accepted from Selders Excavating for $5,704 for the entrance drive and $3,288 for the option bid.

Board accepted the resignation of Dale Marzewski, instrumental music instructor, who has accepted another job in Howell, which offers him advancement in his field of work.

Negotiations were held July 10 with all hourly personnel representatives and union representative Bob Inman. An offer was made to all three groups of six percent increase with no counter proposal made. An exchange of proposals was made at the last CEA meeting, with nothing productive accomplished.

Board agreed to hire Judy Daniels for the one semester position in general science-biology beginning Sept. 5 and terminating Jan. 25. This position is normally filled by Karol Feldkamp, who is on a one semester maternity leave.

Mrs. Daniels has a BA from Eastern Michigan University with a major in general science. She completed her student teaching at Clinton High School.

A meeting was planned with Jim Fielder, contractor, on Monday, to get a firm bid on ramps, which must be installed in all buildings to accomodate handicapped students.

Information will be sought on possible conversion of oil burning boiler to natural gas at the elementary building.

Board is concerned about the roofing job on the elementary building, which is not holding up. A large amount of water is building up on the roof, which can lead to major problems.

Gadek, Sprague Attend Leadership Workshop

Greg Gadek, president of Tecumseh High School student council, and Lisa Sprague, vice-president, were two of more than 100 student government representatives from 48 Michigan schools that recently attended a University of Michigan Student Leadership Training Workshop at VanBuren County Youth Camp near Paw Paw.

The week-long experience for juniors and seniors in high school was held June 24-29.

It was designed to teach principles of effective leadership and to provide practical opportunities in applying the newly learned leadership principles.

Program was sponsored by the University of Michigan Extension Service.

Lisa is the daughter of Donald Sprague and Margaret Rowley, both of Tecumseh. Greg's parents are Joseph and Helen Gadek of Tecumseh.

The Tecumseh student officers said they learned some good ideas to implement at the local high school.

"We need to find projects we can do without needing a lot of money," Greg stated. "I would also like to see a few student councils work with other student councils." He said that Addison school representatives also attended from Lenawee County. Greg suggested a bloodmobile drive as one possible area of coordinated effort.

Sometimes its worth doing a project if it catches the interest and participation of people who usually don't participate in student council activities, the pair agreed.

After meeting with other student council representatives, the Tecumseh youth concluded "A lot of schools are a lot worse off, than Tecumseh," in terms of student interest.

The campers managed to cope with rustic cabins and the absence of radio, newspapers and blow dryers during the week.

They also learned to exercise their leadership ability in camp. Greg was opinion reporter for the camp newspaper and Lisa was a camp student council representative.

Their camp fee was paid for by the student council funds.

By Phyllis Thomas

MACON — Mills and Verna Swick have returned home from their cottage at Curtis. Sunday dinner guests were Verna's son and wife Mr. and Mrs. Beverley Meyers of Jackson.

Everett Gilbert of Conesus, N.Y. arrived Friday afternoon, spending several days in the home of his daughter and family Jim and Phyllis Thomas. He has called on several friends and family in the area while here, including his parents Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gilbert of Saline.

The 29th annual Ernest and Pearle Gilbert reunion was held Sunday at the Park in Britton. Sixty-seven members and guests from Conesus, N.Y.; Fremont, Ind.; and the Michigan towns of Mancelona, Shelby, Shepherd, Grass Lake, Lansing, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Saline, Milan, Britton and Macon enjoyed the potluck dinner.

The 92nd birthday of the patriarch of the family Ernest M. Gilbert was observed. The youngest child present was one of Ernest and Pearle's 17 great-great-grandchildren, 11-month-old Shanna Sally, daughter of Russell and Maxine Sally of Ypsilanti.

One marriage and six births were reported at the business meeting, bringing the total direct descendants to a grand total of 132 and total family members to 196.

Ballgame, playground equipment, visiting and getting wet in the creek were the pastimes before ice cream was served and departure for respective homes.

The group will meet next year at the same place on the third Sunday of July with the Thomas children in charge.

Bob and Brenda Miller, Lisa, Lori, Lene and Luke have returned home from several weeks spent at the cottage on Clear Lake near Gaylord.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Collins and family, Melissa, Mike and John have returned to their home in Somerset Center after spending a few weeks with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Russell Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams of Tecumseh called on Kenneth and Marie Frost last week, also visited with Al's sister and husband Carl and Helen Thomas.

A complete sound system including microphones and speakers, were presented and dedicated to the Macon United Methodist Church during Sunday's worship service. They are in memory of Margaret McClue Hall, a member for 54 years in the Macon Church.

Completes Course

Robert J. Cojeen, supply supervisor for General Telephone Company, recently completed the company's "pre-assembler" course held at its state headquarters training center in Muskegon.

Cojeen began his career with General Telephone in 1978. He has held the positions of supply assistant and his current status. Cojeen resides at 404 Center St.

Jaycees Raise $1,000 for MD

Margie Cunningham brought in the most pledges at $131.50. Marge Ball brought pledges of $113 and Wendy Cunningham raised $102 in pledges.

The Jaycees considered the event successful despite the small turnout the first year. They plan to have the walk-a-thon again next year, perhaps on a different date.

A special mention was given to Bob's Market, Fred's Market, George's Market, the Party Shop, Pepsi Cola, The Tecumseh Herald and Kay Russell for donations of food, beverage and publicity.

Alice Is Surprised

Mrs. Robert (Alice) Matts was surprised Saturday evening when her parents Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smoll entertained at a birthday party in her honor.

They were assisted by Dr. and Mrs. Gerald VanBuren. Mr. and Mrs. Matts, Bonnie and Brian spent the weekend at her parents' home.

While they were at a restaurant, some 30 relatives and close friends came from Perrysburg and Metamora, Ohio, Adrian, Tecumseh, Blissfield, Weston, Ogden, Jasper.

ORDINANCE NO. 3.400

An ordinance to adopt an amendment to the Uniform Traffic Code for Michigan cities, townships and villages.

Regular meeting of the City Council for the City of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan held on the 16th day of July, 1979 at 7:30 p.m. in Council chambers at 309 E. Chicago Boulevard.

PRESENT: Mayor Mead, Councilwoman Bowers, Councilman Cook, DeMoss, Easton, Palmer and Tressler.

ABSENT: None.

WHEREAS Act 510, P.A. 1978 that amends the Michigan Vehicle Code to prohibit local enactment or enforcement of a conflicting municipal ordinance and voids any municipal provision which imposes a criminal penalty for a civil infraction under Act 510, P.A. 1978.

THE CITY OF TECUMSEH ORDAINS:

That Section 9.3 of the Uniform Traffic Code for Michigan cities, townships and villages is hereby amended as follows:

Sec. 9.3 Penalties

Penalties. Any provision of this ordinance which describes an act or omission which constitutes a civil infraction under the terms of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being 1949 P.A. 300 as amended, shall be processed as a civil infraction and any person found to have committed a civil infraction may be ordered to pay a civil fine of not more than $100 and costs in accordance with Section 907 of the Michigan Vehicle Code.

Violation of any other provision of this ordinance not constituting a civil infraction, as herein provided, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment for not more than 90 days or by both such fine and imprisonment.

The City Clerk shall publish this Ordinance in the manner required by law and shall, at the same time, publish supplementary notice setting forth the purpose of the Uniform Traffic Code and the fact that the complete copies of the Code as hereby amended are available at the office of the Clerk for inspection by and distributed to the public at all times.

This Ordinance will take effect on August 1, 1979 and after publication thereof.

The foregoing preamble and ordinance was offered by Councilman Easton and supported by Palmer.

NO: None

Raloff Leads County Program

The Rev. Albert Raloff, who served as minister five years in the Macon United Methodist Church, will be program director for a new ecumenical county program for the ministry to the aging, announced the Rev. Jack Warner and Christ Episcopal Church of Adrian.

The Rev. Raloff has had special training in guidance and counseling. He was pastor of the Church of the Nazarene for 17 years and a Methodist minister since 1962.

He will institute training and inspirational programs and call for assistance from many local citizens to carry out the mission.

Funding to begin this new ministry is being supplied by the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan as well as the Christ Church in Adrian.

An advisory board representing different denominations and institutions will advise Christ Church people in this program.

Roses Honor Two Newborns

Roses were placed on the altar of the Tecumseh United Methodist Church in honor of Kierstin Ann Curth, born June 22 to John W. and Janet Curth and Bryan Arthur Jenkins, born July 6 to Larry and Helen Schooley Jenkins.

Baptisms were held during the worship service for Amanda Palmer, daughter of the Ernest Palmers and Joshua James Ketola, son of the Kenneth Ketolas.

Honor Dickersons

Mr and Mrs. Donald Dickerson, satellite franchise managers of the Tecumseh H&R Block office, were recently awarded a National Public Relations Award by H&R Block, Inc.

District and satellite managers are recognized with this award for excelling in various promotional activities.

Both officers are part of an 18 office franchise complex in southeastern Michigan and northwestern Ohio.

'Godspell' at Croswell

"Godspell — the musical adaptation of the Gospel according to St. Matthew that was a three-year-long stage hit in New York in 1971-1974 — will be presented at the Croswell Opera House for 10 nights beginning July 18.

Acclaimed by clergy, critics, educators and audiences in the U.S. and other countries for its joyful message, loving spirit, youthful exuberance and simple sincerity, this rock musical ran as long in London as in New York and was presented in 17 other cities during the first year of its epoch-making New York run.

The musical is a rag-bag of bright shreds and patches. On a stage that is almost bare, a cast of 11 young people use pantomime, slapstick, song and dance to act out such parables as the Prodigal Son. Mike Wells will portray the Christ role.

Mills has appreared in Croswell Summer Theater in "Bye Bye Birdie", in the Croswell Players production of Hot L Baltimore" and in "Adaptation" at Judson College.

Each of the participants has a musical number and, now and again, one plays a specific character. Most often they work as an ensemble.

An ever-smiling Jesus tells his followers about love and morals in the manner of a kindergarten teacher, and the others responded like kindergarteners, ooh-ing and ah-ing and playing out their parts.

Basically, "Godspell" is an agape — (a love-feast) — dedicated to light and joy and love.

All this may, in print, sound kind of childish, and the show is indeed much on the child side. But it's not childishness. It's "childlikeness" — the best part of children: energy gaiety, honesty, spirit.

Which in this case is quite the opposite of blasphemy, for "Godspell" is a work that believes in God — and people — and possibility.

Cyndi Goll is musical director of the ensemble which includes Bill Boley, Jim Price and Chuck Braun.

FLOWER SHOW WORKSHOP — Members of the Little Garden Club were hosted by Joan Kettleman (center) July 12 for a workshop in preparation for the Aug. 3 and 4 flower show. Flower Show Is August 3, 4

by Kathy Brown

Everybody's got something to say about OPEC these days, some of it unprintable.

One Tecumseh group will make a statement about the international oil producing cartel and other social issues of the "infuriating seventies" in an unusual way, one generally reserved for expressing more wistful feelings such as love, friendship and sentimentality:

They'll say it with flowers.

"Our World Today" is the theme for the 1979 judged flower show sponsored by the Little Garden Club of Tecumseh — the first juried show for its members in five years.

Show will be held Aug. 3 and 4 at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church center.

The public will be welcome to view the flower entries for a donation between 2-6 p.m. Aug. 3 and between 10-3 Aug. 4.

The public can save 50 cents on purchase of advance tickets available from Little Garden Club members and at the August Company and Schmidt's Pharmacy.

There will also be 12 entries in the junior garden club exhibit, prepared by school aged children.

Jewell House Is Ransacked

Gertrude Jewell, 6135 Billmyer Hwy., reported to Clinton State Police, that her house had been ransacked between 6 and 11 p.m., July 7.

She had locked the house and left with her daughter. When they returned the rear door had been pried open.

Inside drawers had been pulled out, clothes strewn all over and kitchen cupboards opened.

4-H'ers Sponsor Disco Dance

A teen disco dance is being sponsored by the Onsted Sweet Clovers at The Place in Brooklyn for all 4-H members in Lenawee County and their parents and guests.

Admission will be charged Dance will be from 7-11 p.m. Members may stay longer with parents' permission.

Refreshments will be available.

At the July 11 meeting, the Sweet Clovers prepared for the fair and filled out entry blanks.

What's worse than having your $45,000 house burn to the ground?

Having an insurance policy that only pays $25,000.

Every year, inflation and rising property values increase the value of your home. And make it that much more expensive to replace should something happen to make it a total loss.

But if you have an Auto-Owners homeowners policy with Adjusted Value Endorsement, you're protected. Because this modern Auto-Owners policy is designed to keep pace with rising values automatically.

If you aren't covered by Auto-Owners . . . well, maybe you should be replacing your present insurance. Let us fill you in. Before you have to replace your home.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

Finally the high pressure area, which had kept the skies blue but the temperatures low, moved east and, as it did so, the clockwise circulation of air brought warmer weather. By mid-afternoon it was warm enough for some porch living.

Ordinarily we would have hesitated to go out for just a few hours. This, however, has been a far from ordinary summer and we have logged so little porch time that even a short stay could not be passed up.

As Mom rolled the bed out of the porch we were both 'assaulted' by the noise. From a quiet room to a loud outdoors was quite startling. It hit us like a blow. But what fun.

The shift in weather had dumped some rain on the area and the creek was high. High, muddy and fast. As it rushed along it told us tales of where it had been. All this noise though was merely background for the birds.

The first sounds to be heard were kingfishers. And yes, the plural is correct. The loud raucous rattle of these birds is one of the joys of porch living.

This day there were two or three such calls. They were all jumbled together and much harsher than usual, if such a thing is possible. They sounded close so both Mom and I started looking.

Indeed they were close. The limb overhanging the creek was just opposite the bed and probably not 20 feet away. The noise was coming from a large 'jumble' of blue and white tails, wings and big heads.

Three kingfisher kids! As they squawked they clambered over each other and acted unsteady on the porch.

Soon the perching on the bare limb became just too precarious — actually, of course, there is no sure-fire way of knowing exactly why the birds decided to leave. They did not act comfortable though and that is as good a reason as any. They left one at a time and oh, my, but they were young.

An adult kingfisher is a superb flyer. His wingbeats are strong and he travels fast. The kids all flailed the air with their wings, using far too much energy. Even their flying posture left much to be desired.

Instead of presenting a streamlined flat position, their short stubby tails were down almost in a breaking or landing altitude. They just barely maintained altitude.

Colorwise, kingfishers are a nice blend of blues and whites. They wear many shades of blue ranging from almost a blackish blue in their oversized shaggy headcrests to a slate-like blue in their oversized shaggy headcrests to a slate-like blue on their backs.

In a way and at a first glance, there is a similiarity between the blue and white of the kingfishers and the bluejays.

However, the jays lack the kingfishers' impeccable white collar and, of course, those marvelous oversized heads, bills and Indian headresses. The female kingfishers also sport pretty russet vests.

This must have been not the first but one of the first days the kids were out. They looked and acted bewildered and not quite sure of themsleves.

What a world they come out into — from a dark hollowed out nest area at the end of a tunnel, which the adults excavate with their feet and bills, the youngsters pop out and fly into a world of sunshine, blue skies, tall trees and fish filled creeks.

Let's not get carried away, Marda — seldom if ever, is your beloved Evans Creek full of fish and, bowing once again to the truth, on the day of this particular kingfisher adventure the water was so high, the current so strong that I doubt if any of the kids could have successfully fished.

Besides, it was so muddy that even the adults must have had trouble seeing who was swimming by.

Reader Writes

To the Editor:

My name is Kelly Hartley, I am a nine-year-old girls' softball player and I would like to know why the girls' softball league pays $3.50 to join the league and boys pay the same. I really don't think it is fair because the boys' league has 14 games a year, girls play six.

I would also like to know why boys make up all of their rain dates and girls make up none. And boys have perfect fields compared to the girls. And why do boys get to keep their T-shirts and the girls don't.

Why do boys and girls pay the same amount of money but don't get the same things.

Sincerely,
Kelly Hartley

Police Nab B&E Suspect with 2 Stolen Shotguns

Although Tecumseh police arrested Paul W. Palmer, 25, of 2799 Munger Rd., Monday and charged him with possession of stolen property, this charge may be dropped in favor of more serious charges to be filed by the State Police.

The Clinton post is charging Palmer with B&E of the Larry Stalls residence at 5561 Allen Rd., where two shotguns and two boxes of shells were stolen.

Local officers arrested Palmer after his vehicle ran out of gas here. Police then discovered the shotguns in his pickup. Both guns were uncased and one was loaded. Some shells apparently had been fired as one box was partially emptied.

According to the State Police, Palmer was with Stalls, his brother-in-law, at the Allen Rd. home when they left for Palmer's residence on Munger Rd. Shortly afterwards, Palmer made an excuse to leave.

Stalls told officers that he became suspicious and returned to his home where he discovered entry had been made through a rear door and the guns gone. About this time, Tecumseh police arrested him. Trooper Gail West of the Clinton Post identified the guns, valued at $708, as those taken from the Stalls residence.

Palmer is currently being held in the county jail.

Last Friday, police here arrested a Detroit youth and a young woman from Adrian on charges of stealing a pickup in Detroit. In the county jail and under $25,000 bond each are Victor F. Lively, 23, Detroit, and Elaine M. Rogers, 20, of Adrian.

Officers arrested the two behind the Party Shop after a check showed Lively was wanted in Garden City on a traffic violation. Further investigation provided information that the vehicle had been stolen the day before in Detroit.

Examinations in court for both are scheduled for Friday in Adrian.

Other complaints recorded by police here the past week are:

July 19 - James J. Moore, 22, of 211 Chippewa, was charged with being a disorderly person behind the Party Shop.

July 20 - Gerald W. Johnstone, 17, of 1203 Willow St., was charged with being a minor in possession of liquor. He was arrested in the parking lot of the Russell Square Apartments.

July 20 - Christino M. Lopez, about two, of 210-1/2 E. Kilbuck, suffered a dog bite to the face.

July 22 - Carl Joe Brighton, 30, of 1980 Taylor Rd., was cited as a disorderly person after refusing to leave the Wrong Way Pub.

July 22 - Terry G. Ford, 18, of 202 N. Maumee, and Ronald A. Birchfield, 19, of 211 S. Democrat, were arrested as minors in possession of alcohol. They were charged with drinking beer at the Community Center.

July 22 - Sany Yennor, 305 N. Maiden Lane, reported a stolen bicycle.

July 22 - The Rev. Herbert Nation reported $15 in bills and change taken at the Church of Nazarene.

July 22 - Police are continuing their investigation of a B&E at 210 Cairns where four rifles were taken from a gun cabinet. Entry was gained by cutting a screen and breaking a rear window. A youth was seen leaving the area.

July 23 - Richard T. Bradmon Jr., 22, Clinton was arrested for drunk driving. He was stopped on N. Ottawa for erratic driving.

Chamber To Discuss 'Moonlight Madness'

Next regular meeting of the Tecumseh Area Chamber of Commerce will be held Aug. 2, 7:30 a.m., at Don's Beef Buffet.

Some of the topics to be discussed include the Moonlight Madness Sale planned for Sept. 7, and membership dues structure.

ONE OF THE BIGGEST AND BEST — Most merchants claim Friday's Sidewalk Sale was about the best ever. Shoppers clogged the sidewalks, checking bargains offered by the stores there, and many found equal bargains inside the shops. Joining the downtown merchants and offering a refreshing pause were some Tecumseh youngsters. Kira Williams, 12, of Coventry Village reaches for a glass of ice cold lemonade being sold by Melonee Smith, 11 and Brenda Lawson, 10, both of Tecumseh. Masons Moving to New Home

by Kathy Brown

Despite a slow start due to cold weather and delays on subcontracted work, the new Masonic Temple is progressing toward completion at Bishop Reed Drive, north of Brown Street.

Cornerstone and dedication will be Nov. 9. However, the lodge plans to hold its first meeting there in September.

The new half million dollar project is "right down to the end" of construction, said Blue Lodge and association secretary Wilmer Kiser.

There are just "housekeeping chores" to be done before the building can be put into use.

Carpet was put down this week. Dining room is complete but kitchen appliances had not arrived as of early this week.

Street and parking lot construction has also begun this week.

The new lodge will make its first move to a new facility in 85 years.

The Tecumseh Lodge #69 F. & A. M., chartered in 1854, met in the Union Hall Building, its first lodge home for nine years. Consider A. Stacy, first worhipful master, was co-owner fo the building.

In 1863, the group began meeting at the third floor of the Bidwell building. Thirty-one years later, in Dec. 1894, the group moved to the James block. In their move to a fourth meeting place in 1979, the lodge will be joined by the R.A.M. #42, chartered in 1866 and the O.E.S. #51, chartered in 1888.

July 11 was "moving day" for the Masonic Temple. An agile crew of seven moved a piano, two solid wood, throne-like officers' side chairs and a massive, three seat officers' bench—alone weighing 500 lbs.—with the help of a crane.

The furniture was then lowered by crane into waiting pickup trucks and taxied to the new temple.

Moving the officers' chairs created quite a stir in downtown Tecumseh last week. Before the crane had arrived, the train was temporarily "held up" by Dean Moore's pickup truck as it blocked the North Evans tracks.

The largest chair took six men to lift. "It looked as if they were built up there," said Kiser about the massive wooden chairs. He said no one was certain if the furniture was ever moved from the top floor of the James Block before.

Robert Glascock, Russell Liddell, Jeff and Jack Baker and Master Dean Moore and son, Perry were among the moving day crew.

Expect Decision Tuesday on Re-zoning Proposal

The Tecumseh Planning Commission will have a special meeting Tuesday, July 31 beginning at 7:30 p.m. at Tecumseh city hall to consider the request to rezone 30 acres of land north of W. Chicago Blvd. from single family residence to multiple family.

The planning commission is expected to decide what to recommend to city council.

July 17, approximately 40 residents from Seminole Dr. protested a proposed change in zoning for the parcel known as the Fuller farm property.

Ed Day, Clinton developer, plans a five or six story highrise complex of 70 units for senior citizens and 60 apartments and 52 townhouses

The first housing unit would be built about 500 feet south of Seminole, now a dead end street. If the plans are approved by the city and completed, Seminole Dr. would be extended south to West Chicago Blvd. with entry between Adrian St. and Sunset Dr. Another street, west of Seminole's extension, is shown on the plan.

Ahead of Schedule at Athletic Field

Folks who have been watching the construction at the high school athletic field are certain to notice day-by-day changes.

On June 28th, sodding of the football field was completed nearly two weeks ahead of schedule. A new retaining wall is currently under construction, and paving for the all-weather metric track also is scheduled to begin this week.

Paving, besides the track, also is scheduled for the long jump at the south end of the field and likewise at the north end for the pole vault and high jump.

Officials have not yet decided whether to place shot put area next to the long jump or to continue it at its present location, just west of the north section of the field. Discus events will be held in the north field, near the swimming pool.

After the paving is completed, a rubber-base cap will be installed over the paving. The cap will include permanent markings for the track's lanes.

Entire $135,000 program — $75,000 was given the schools as a gift — is scheduled for completion by September 1st.

Victim Dies from Burns

Clyde "Leroy" Burleson, 39, of 515 S. Occidental died Sunday at University of Michigan Hospital, Ann Arbor, as a result of burns suffered in an industrial accident at Ford Motor Company in Saline on July 5.

In that accident, Burleson slipped and fell into a tank of etching acid reported at 155 degrees in temperature.

He was covered with acid to his shoulders. He was in critical condition at the University Burn Center for over two weeks.

His obituary is on page two in this week's Tecumseh Herald.

Complete Street in Two Weeks

Unless there's the unexpected, the long delayed opening of the Russell Rd. street extension to Rogers Hwy. should be completed and opened in about two weeks.

City officials expect it to be open to traffic on or about Aug. 10.

Remaining work consists of an eight-inch base of gravel and blacktopping. Construction of shoulders will complete the job. All seeding and sodding are done.

The $500,000 project was originally scheduled for completion last year, but delays resulted from changes in construction of the bridge and the usual government red tape.

INDUSTRIAL NEIGHBOR — Wes Haeussler's industrial building, immediately north of B&H Manufacturing in the Tecumseh Industrial Park is the city's second manufacturing tenant there. Adrian Manufacturing owned by Bill and Robert Plate, plan to move in by Aug. 1 and share the 10,000 square foot building with Haeussler.

Firm Moving into Plant

Adrian Manufacturing, one of the occupants of Wes Haeussler's building in the Tecumseh Industrial Park, may be moved and ready to operate here the first of August, according to Bill and Robert Plate, owners of Adrian Manufacturing.

The Adrian business will share the 10,000 square-foot building constructed and owned by Haeussler of Tecumseh. It marks the second industrial park tenant for the city to join B&H Manufacturing which moved here in March.

According to the original plans for the building, about 7,500 square feet will be used for manufacturing and 2,500 square feet for non-manufacturing use. The building is similar to B&H Manufacturing but is smaller.

Adrian Manufacturing, which employs about 10 people, manufactures tools, dies, and stampings. They also make the Erect-a-line, used in curb and gutter construction, for Haeussler's business.

Services were July 25 at the Braun Brothers Funeral Home in Adrian for Mary C. Lighthall, 65, a former Adrian resident. She died July 22 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lynford Beard at 506 E. Logan St.

She was born April 29, 1914 in Toronto, Canada to William and Katherine (Craib) Ross.

She married George Lighthall in 1929 and he died Sept. 26, 1976.

Mrs. Lighthall was a member of the First Baptist Church in Adrian.

Survivors include a son Ronald of Adrian; a daughter, Gloria Beard of Tecumseh; four grandchildren, one great-grandchild; one suster, Mrs. Winifred Barnett of Garden City; and two brothers, Norman and Reginald Ross, both of Onsted.

She was preceded in death by two brothers, Hector and Wilford.

The Rev. Herbert Cottrell officiated. Burial was in Ridgeway Cemetery.

MRS. VERA E. VALLAD

Services were July 21 at the Dunn Chapel Brown VanHemert Funeral Home in Onsted for Vera E. Vallad, 79, of 6864 Close Dr. in Tecumseh. She died July 19 at Harrison, after a brief illness.

She was born Feb. 1, 1900 in Mt. Pleasant to Royal and Marv Bacon Landon. She married Edward Vallad July 22, 1918 in Marion. He died July 5, 1946.

She lived in the Onsted area from 1928 to 1960, then at North Adams before moving to Harrison and more recently she lived in Tecumseh.

She was a member of the World War II Mothers of the North Rome area.

Her survivors are one daughter, Miss Onole Vallad of Tecumseh; three sons Len of North Adams, Marvin of Tecumseh and Oren of Tipton; one brother Harold Landon of Evart; 11 grandchildren 20 great-grandchildren.

Two grandchildren preceded her in death.

To Present Workshop

Whether you are a dedicated, experienced genealogist or a novice who would like to find out how to trace your roots, the cool confines of the Tecumseh Library's community rooms and Clara Waldron Historical Room will be the place to be Saturday, Aug. 11, from 9:20 a.m.-4 p.m.

The Lenawee County Family Researchers will present a Genealogical Workshop that will be open to the public.

Speakers will address themselves to all areas of exploration: Wayne Carpenter is to tell how to use military records and census records.

Cemetery researching will be detailed by Thelma Frayer. A representative from the Abi Evans Chapter of the DAR will demonstrate how to gather information from patriotic society membership.

Researchers extraordinaire, Doris Trowbridge will outline beginning searches, record keeping, types of resources and problem areas. More speakers will be announced soon.

Displays will be set up for your enjoyment during the registration time 9:30-10 a.m.

Advanced reservations are a must so that adequate supplies may be furnished. A small fee to cover supplies will be collected upon "checking in" Aug. 11 or with mail-in reservations.

To reserve a place, call or write Doris Trowbridge, 3745 Woerner Rd., Manitou Beach, MI. 49221, (517) 268-7266 or Betty Kline, 511 W. Chicago Blvd., Tecumseh, MI 49286, (517) 423-4226.

Bring a brown bag lunch. There will be a half hour break beginning at noon.

Tax Proposal On Ballot

Oct. 1 is the date set for the county-wide one mill charter millage tax proposal for special education. It is expected to be the only question on a county-wide referendum.

Millage is being requested to expand the Milton C. Porter Education Center, expand programming for handicapped students in the county and compensate for the effects of inflation on existing programs.

Ronald Pontious was reelected at the ISD board reorganizational meeting held that night. Harvey Warrick is vice-president. Robert Mason is treasurer and Superintendent Bill Ross will serve as secretary.

Board decided to hold its meetings the first Monday of each month. Meetings will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the winter starting in October and return to the 8 p.m. meeting time starting in May. Meetings are at the Intermediate School District office, 4107 N. Adrian Hwy. in Birdsall.

In other action, the board approved four local rooms for the special education program. ISD will rent a room in local districts of Addison and Tecumseh and two in Adrian. A room for learning disabled students will be selected in Tecumseh in cooperation with the Tecumseh district.

A lot at Arrowhead Subdivision at Sutton and Occidental Rds. was purchased for $8,040, to be used by the building trades program at Vo-Tech.

4 Accidents

Only four accidents occurred on city streets the past week, and all were minor.

Friday, Kelly F. Henkel, 18, of 411 W. Kilbuck, was charged with failure to yield after turning in front of Randall S. MacGeorge, 17, of 5487 Centennial R., at W. Chicago Blvd. and Union St.

Also Friday, Paul C. Hohenstein, 64, of 915 Red Mill Dr., pulled out of a city parking lot on W. Logan St. and struck a westbound vehicle driven by Opal L. Houghton, 50, of S. Maiden Lane.

James Boxrud, 78, Brooklyn, was cited Saturday for an improper turn after a mishap with Guadalupe Saenz, 2244 Valley Rd. Accident occurred at Occidental and W. Chicago.

Emotional Stages for the Survivors

In her widely-read books on the subject of death-and-dying, noted psychiatrist Dr. Elisabeth Kubler-Ross discusses from the point of view of the patient, the medical professionals and the families involved.

Her studies indicate that the stages of denial, anger, bargaining, depression, and acceptance of death are common to most terminally ill patients.

Some of these stages are common, too, with the survivors of the deceased. They, too, may experience a denial of the death of a loved one. They may also experience angar, depression and, finally, acceptance . . . and then begin rebuilding the pieces of family life without the deceased.

This adjustment period is of variable duration, depending on the person's psychological make-up. The widow (or widower) children, and relatives all interact and find strength in sharing each other's strong points, thus making the adjustment less difficult and prolonged.

For more information on how to cope with the stages to which we refer, stop by for suggested reading materials.

This is one of a series of brief articles we hope will be helpful. You may ask questions privately or publicly through this newspaper.

"Why should my husband and I waste our time learning about funeral planning?"

Actually, the worst time to ask questions about funeral arrangements is when you are forced to plan one. So, by learning about funerals now, you can create for yourself the freedom to choose. Later you may not have the time or clearness of mind for the decisions you'll have to make.

The facts you need to know are in an unbiased booklet, "A Helpful Guide to Funeral Planning." We'd like you to have a free copy, because we believe a funeral is no place for on-the-job training.

What's worse than having your $45,000 house burn to the ground?
Having an insurance policy that only pays $25,000.

Every year, inflation and rising property values increase the value of your home. And make it that much more expensive to replace should something happen to make it a total loss.

But if you have an Auto-Owners homeowners policy with Adjusted Value Endorsement, you're protected. Because this modern Auto-Owners policy is designed to keep pace with rising values automatically.

If you aren't covered by Auto-Owners . . . well, maybe you should be replacing your present insurance. Let us fill you in. Before you have to replace your home.

Dear Doctor

News From The Tecumseh Chiropractic Life Center

101 S. Pearl Tecumseh

Dear Doctor,

What causes sinus infections, and what is sinusitis?

When the aches and pains of a sinus infection hit, the victim knows without a shadow of a doubt what is wrong.

The difficulty is that, in most cases, the victim does not know what to do to relieve the excruciating pain which accompanies the attack.

Sufferers from the sinus infections know the aches and pains result when the tiny passages which connect the sinuses with the nose and throat become obstructed and the membranes lining the sinuses become inflamed.

It is true, as in so many instances, that the nervous system plays an important part in the proper operation of the sinuses and the channels through which the sinuses drain.

The chiropractor, through his knowledge and understanding of the nervous system, is in a position to provide fast and lasting relief for stubborn cases of sinusitis. He provides the scientific adjustment which will allow the body to cure itself.

For further information on this question, or if you have other related questions, feel free to write Dr. Elwartowski at 101 S. Pearl St., Tecumseh, MI 49286.

MRS. JOHN RUHL

Brenda Wilson, John Ruhl Wed

CLINTON - Nuptial vows were exchanged July 14 by Brenda Ann Wilson and John Michael Ruhl. The afternoon ceremony was performed by the Rev. Russell Cooper in St. John's Episcopal Church, Clinton.

The bride wore a white silk organza gown styled with lace appliqued yoke and ruffled cap sleeves. Her chapel veil was held by a lace trimmed cap. White roses, miniature carnations and blue silk flowers formed the bridal bouquet.

Attired alike in blue floral print gowns, made by the groom's mother, the attendants were maid of honor, Mrs. Jeffrey Miller, sister of the bride; and bridesmaids, Elizabeth Wolf and Julie Wilson, sister of the bride, both of Clinton; and Mrs. Gary Fairbanks of Tecumseh, cousin of the groom.

Best man was Thomas Busch. Groomsmen were Kevin Bowman, Steve Bowman, all of Clinton; and Robert Simpson of Tecumseh, cousin of groom.

Reception at Peerless Gear Union Hall was attended by 300 guests. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ruhl of Macon; Sandra Simpson and Gary Fairbanks of Tecumseh.

Cake was cut by Mrs. Helene Beckett of Inkster and Mrs. Daneil Simpson of Tecumseh. Mrs. Marion Taylor of Britton served punch and Mrs. Jack Gibson Jr. of Clinton passed the guest book.

Among the honored guests were the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson of Tipton; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ruhl of Tecumseh; and Mrs. and Mrs. Alex Shields of Toronto, Ont.

Bride is a 1976 graduate of Clinton High School. Groom is a 1975 graduate of Clinton High School and also a graduate of Western Michigan University.

After a trip to Virginia Beach, Va., the couple will make their home in Cincinnati, Ohio, where Mr. Ruhl is employed in a supervisory training program by the Ford Motor Co.

Pence, Higgins Recite Nuptial Vows

Lori Pence and Jesse Higgins were married June 23, 7:30 p.m. at the First United Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Edmond Watkins officiated the ceremony for the daughter of Lois Hammack of Tecumseh and Cecil Pence of Maumee, Ohio and the son of Wilma Higgins and Marvin Higgins, both of Tecumseh.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Rich Keenan, the bride's sister of Anamosa, Iowa and Mrs. Chris Davis of Batavia, Iowa, the bride's cousin.

They wore gowns made by the bride's mother.

Roger Rutherford of Tecumseh was best man. Bob Horky of Tecumseh and Joe Kukral of Tipton were ushers.

Clarence and Gladys Burgpus of Naubinway were special guests.

The bride is a 1976 Tecumseh graduate, employed at Tecumseh Products. The groom, also a 1976 Tecumseh graduate, is employed by Budd Company Clinton.

The couple resides at 1308 Shepherd Rd.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's mother.

Dear Total Image,
Would you please help me with my tangled ends! After washing I have tried creme rinses but they leave my hair oily.
Thanks,
L.S., Manchester, MI

Dear L.S.,

Hair tangles when the small ends of each hair shaft fray and become entwined with neighboring hairs. And obviously leads to something worse - hair breakage. Yanking and combing through tangled hair just adds to the damage. The solution is to form a barrier between each individual hair strand.

But, be careful with your choice of creme rinses! Some leave a very waxy buildup and other oil free rinses leave harsh alkali traces. Make sure your creme rinse is an acid balanced creme rinse that restores the natural acid balance back to both hair and scalp.

There are two on the market I can safely recommend. One for normal or oily Pheral Phase, put out by Redken Co. and the other for damaged hair, called Regenal by the Wella Co. Both products should be available at your local hair salon or one of my two salons nearest you!

Thank you for writing Total Image with your problem. If you have a problem with your hair, skin or nails, write Total Image, In Care of Village Hair Forum, 104 E. Main, Manchester, MI.

United Savings Bank is people.

Like Eloise Adams,
Herrick Park Teller

Eloise Adams likes people. Which is a good thing because she has come into contact with thousands of people in the five years she has been a teller at our Herrick Park Office. She strongly believes that the customer always comes first. And she proves it, every day by treating each individual like a person, not a number.

Eloise is an involved member of the Tecumseh Community too. She and her husband Bill (a local dentist) have raised three children and seen them all graduate from Tecumseh High School. She is a member of the Hospital Auxiliary and the First United Presbyterian Church. She likes to keep busy . . . usually doing something for someone else.

So, the next time you stop at the Herrick Park Office, look for Eloise Adams. She almost always has a smile on her face because she believes a smile says a lot. So do we. Eloise is just one of the hard-working people at USB who cares about you.

Dundee, Doc's, DST All Win

Dundee Products, Doc's Frame & Axle and DST were all victorious in the Women's Monday Night League.

Dundee Products rolled out a 14-8 win over Ives' Body Shop after only leading by two runs in the first half of the game. Walks and base hits were the key to letting Dundee pull away to remain undefeated.

Ruth King and winning pitcher Linda Whittkopf had four hits apiece for Dundee. Nancy Howard had three hits, including a home run for Ives' Body Shop.

Fourth place Doc's Frame & Axle rolled over second place Airport Bowl 5-1. Both teams had few hits, but Doc's managed to score their baserunners. Airport Bowl left 14 runners stranded on the bases.

DST outscored Jerry's Pub 17-13. Jerry's tried to catch up in the last inning by scoring four runs, but it wasn't enough.

Kim Adams had four hits, including a home run for DST. Vicki Conrad pounded out five base hits for Jerry's Pub.

VFW Beats Ottawa

VFW scored three runs in the third inning and the played excellent defense as they coasted to a 6-1 victory over Ottawa Machine.

Cabose was the winning pitcher as he allowed only two hits in seven innings of work. Hyatt, Losey, and Rafael had two hits apiece for VFW.

Gastons played very tough against a strong Milan Red team, and came out on the winning end 7-6. Gaston's jumped off to a two run lead in the first but Milan tied it up in the third at two all.

Both teams scored three runs in the fourth and Gaston's scored two runs in the sixth to claim a 7-6 victory.

VFW easily defeated second place UPW 16-1. Hyatt had five hits in five trips to the plate and he also pitched an excellent game as he struck out 16 and only gave up three hits. John Walper had two hits in two trips for VFW.

In the first half play off, Gaston's scored a run in each inning except the second to claim a 5-1 victory over Milan Red. Tim Smith was the winning pitcher as he allowed only two hits in six innings of work. Ken Kurzyniec had two hits to pace Gaston's.

Junior Softball

The Junior Softball League finished the regular season last Wednesday night. Blissfield took home the first place trophy after getting by a much improved Clinton team 14-1.

Tecumseh #2 handled Tecumseh #1 easily to remain in a tie for second with Tecumseh #3. The score was 16-6 in five innings.

Manchester #1 knocked Britton out of the second place tie with three runs in each of the last two innings. Britton could only manage to get one across the plate in each of the innings to take the loss 12-10.

Manchester #2 almost upset Deerfield in the final game. They came up one run short as they lost 17-16.

Tecumseh #1 and #2 square off Wednesday afternoon to determine the second place trophy winner.

GOOD PLAY — VFW's John Kitson makes a good play at first to get one of Gaston's runners out at first, but it just wasn't quite enough as Gaston's won the Pony championship game by a 2-1 margin Tuesday night. (PHOTO BY JOHN SEAY)

Promoted

Milovan J. Galovich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Krsto Galovich, 3778 Kiser Rd. recently was promoted to Army private first class while serving as a clerk with the 553rd Supply and Service Battalion at Fort Hood, Texas.

He entered the Army in June 1978.

He attended Central Texas College, Killeen.

His wife, Cynthia, is with him near the fort.

Players at Sale

Tecumseh Players were in costume July 20, not to perform in a play, but to participate in the Tecumseh sidewalk sale.

Helium balloons with "Tecumseh Players" printed on them were given out to all interested persons with a free will offering being accepted.

Donations totaling $67.00 went toward material to be used for costumes for their fall musical, "Kiss Me Kate", and other shows to follow.

The costume committee purchased $45.00 worth of material at the sale at Tecumseh's Kitchen Fabric Centre.

First place finishers Scott McNitt and Craig Keller.

Keller, McNitt Win Tourney

Craig Keller and Scott McNitt Shot a 69 together Monday to take first place in the TJAGA 18-hole golf scramble at the Tecumseh Country Club.

Grant Bruce and Tom Dutoit teamed up to take second place at 71. Greg Scheuerman and John Faulkner hit 72.

Fourth place went to Brad Smith and Andy Eidson with a 74. Dan Scheuerman and Charlie Lytle carded a 75. Steve Behnke and Mike Zettel and David Manning and Brad Saltzman tied for sixth place with scores of 77.

Thirty-six golfers joined in the scramble.

HUMAN CROQUET RACE — Young Jason Corey slids under and away as fast as he can in the human croquet race Friday in the Tecumseh playground's annual Olympics. Debbie Hamilton was happy enough to pretend to be a croquet ring.

CAUGHT THIS TIME — Blain Dunlap absorbs as much of the throw as possible above in the water balloon toss and he caught the balloon without breaking it . . . this time. Blaine joined about 35 other Tecumseh youth in the Recreation Department sponsored playground Olympics Friday. Some of the more well received events included the javelin throw with toothpicks, shot put with cotton balls, pudding eating, human croquet contest and, of course, the ever popular watermelon seed spitting contest. UPW, Orioles Top Leagues

Minor League

Matt Misterka, John Foster, Allen Slocum, and Steve Martin had two hits apiece to lead the first place Orioles to a 9-4 victory over the second place Royals

The Orioles scored three runs in the first and then added five more in the second, which was all they needed behind the pitching of Ron Montbriand and Dan Spahr.

The Yankees were victorious three times last week to take over third place in the standings. They defeated the Braves 19-8 behind the pitching of T. Clark and J. Hartley. C. Paine had two hits including a home run.

M. Conway was the winning pitcher as he shut down the Athletics 8-2. The Yankees scored four runs in the fourth inning to take the lead and claimed a 13-0 victory over the Tigers.

J. Hartley was the winning pitcher while C. Paine added two hits. Randy Jordan and Mike Carter had two hits for the Tigers.

The Tigers and Angels went into extra innings after being deadlocked at six runs apiece. In the top of the seventh, the Tigers scored two runs and then held on to claim an 8-6 victory. Marc Jones had two hits, while Dan Brackney had a home run.

The Twins held a 6-1 lead over the first place Orioles going into the last inning and an upset could be seen. The first place Orioles were not to go out without a fight and they put together a rally that pushed six runs across the plate to take a 7-6 lead.

The Twins were absolutely shocked and couldn't manage to score a run in their half of that inning as they went down 7-6. Steve Martin had two hits while John Foster had a home run. Brian Kursyniec had three hits to pace the Twins.

Major League

UPW proved themselves last week as they handed the Police a 19-13 setback. The Police held a 10-2 lead after two innings but that didn't last long.

UPW picked up four runs in the third and then took the lead when they scored six more in the fourth. The Police came back with the lead in the fifth but UPW put the game away with a seven run rally.

Phil Marvin and Tom Foster had three hits apiece for UPW. Gregg Knight had three hits for the Police.

UPW scored seven runs in their third inning rally and went on to defeat the second place Lions 18-7. Jamie Michelson, Scott Klingensmith, and John Huggler had three hits apiece to pace UPW while Gary Richardson pitched a strong game.

Plywood blasted Kiwanis 14-2 behind the pitching of Jamie Baty and hitting of Stacy Vallad, Pat Russ, and Kenny Kingston. Jamie Baty also proved he could hit as he blasted two home runs, a double and a single.

The J. C.'s defeated Plywood 10-3 behind the pitching of Chad Anschuetz and hitting of Sean Murphy and Chad.

Scoring six runs in the third inning, the J.C.'s held an 8-7 lead over the Police. In the sixth, the Police rallied for five runs to hold a 12-11 lead going into the last of the sixth, but the J.C.'s pushed two runs across to claim a 13-12 lead.

Chad Anscheuetz and Tim Winzeler lead the hitting attack while Gregg Ives had a home run and a triple for Police.

Thursday League

Dundee Products blanked Tecumseh Fence for five innings and only committed one error as they downed the Fence 13-1. Dundee scored three runs in the first, added five more in the third, four in the fourth, and then one in the sixth.

SWIM-A-CROSS — About 16 young people from Tecumseh participated in the county-wide Swim-A-Cross for the Lenawee County chapter of the Red Cross last weekend. They returned $178 in pledges so far with $100 more expected to come in by July 31. A few of the participants at the Tecumseh Joyce Andrews Memorial pool were l-r, Gay Lee Smith, Maureen, Kim, Keith and Cathy Kidner. Local winners and total pledges will be released at end of July. Baxters Host Japanese Child

CLINTON — The Leonard Baxter Family of Clinton will be one of the hosts to six Japanese children this summer in Lenawee County through the Japanese LABO—4-H Teen Exchange.

The LABO—4-H Teen Exchange, initiated in Michigan in 1974, is coordinated jointly by the LABO International Exchange Foundation and the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service.

The Lenawee County visitors are among 72 Japanese youngsters arriving in Michigan July 23 for a month-long stay with families. All are members of Japan's Language Education LABO Party Program.

"The LABO Party Program is designed to create, through language, an awakening of international understanding and awareness among Japanese children," explained Dyle Henning, Lenawee County 4-H Extension Agent.

More than 60,000 youngsters are tutored by 3,500 instructors through the LABO Teaching Information Center in Tokyo.

Starting at an early age, the children listen to tape-recorded English and Japanese stories and then dramatize the characters in English.

Japanese youth visiting Michigan have been paired with 4-H members of the same sex and age. Host families are encouraged not to change their daily routines, because the intent of the LABO Program is for youths to experience daily life as it really is in the American home.

Many of the children may experience such tasks as vacuuming, dishwashing, or gardening for the first time.

In Japan, the children are expected to spend most of their time in school or studying and they rarely help with household chores. Their stay is not all work, of course, and the youth take trips with their families to local parks, historical attractions, and events. Some even participate in their family's vacation to other states.

Hobby Club Holds Picnic

CLINTON — A picnic and afternoon of cards were shared by members of the Clinton Hobby Club, when they met July 18 with Mrs. Dwight Service at her Washington Lake cottage.

Next meeting will be a dessert luncheon Aug. 15 at 1 p.m. at the Community Center, with co-hotesses, Mrs. Dan Reilly and Mary Scully.

Car Overturns

CLINTON — Donald L. Heistand, 22, of 3831 Monroe Rd., Tipton, was treated for cuts and bruises to his leg, and was treated at Herrick Hospital, for injuries received when his vehicle hit a deer, then rolled over.

Mishap occurred Sunday on Milwaukee Rd., just east of Stone Hwy.

Clinton State Police were unable to find a sign of the deer or tracks could not be located.

Going to Hawaii

CLINTON — Vicki L. Kunkel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry W. Kunkel of 319 Sunset Dr., Clinton, recently joined the United States Army Delayed Entry Program.

She was recruited by staff Sergeant Edd Harris of the United States Army Recruiting Station in Adrian.

Kunkel who will graduate from Tecumseh High School in January will go on active duty Feb. 8, 1980. She will take her basic training at Fort McClellan, Ala. Kunkel will also take her training of choice which is 95B military police at Fort McClellan, Ala.

After her training she will then go to her station of choice, Scholfield Barracks in Hawaii, where she will work as a military police.

Three Cars Crash, Harvel Is Cited

CLINTON — Three cars were involved in a collision on US-12, Sunday, 300 ft. E. of N. Adrian Hwy.

Mary R. Dapprich, 33, of 12363 Ford Hwy., Clinton, was westbound, when a car following, driven by Jerry R. Harvel, 27, of Jackson, apparently had the brakes go out, and, when he swerved right, he struck the Dapprich vehicle.

The third vehicle was driven by Matthew Vincent, 17, of Ann Arbor, who was following Harvel, and was unable to avoid striking the Dapprich vehicle, when Harvel swerved.

A passenger in the Harvel vehicle, Jola Starlanne Harvel, 25, sought her own treatment for minor injuries.

CHS Schedules Athletic Physicals

CLINTON — Clinton High School has scheduled all athletic physicals for all grades, boys and girls, for Aug. 6 at 6 p.m. at the high school gym.

Cost is $1.

Cue Reports Tools Stolen

CLINTON — Gary Cue, 6111 Hack Rd., Clinton, reported a laceny to Clinton State Police.

He told officers he had gone to a ball game in Tecumseh July 19, between 5:30 and 9:30 p.m., leaving his dog in the house attached to the garage.

Next day he discovered his tools missing. Taken were a tool box, jack, torque, wrench, socket sets and assorted tools.

There was no apparent forced entry.

Hodgson Presents Slide Program

Tom Hodgson, naturalist at the Waterloo Recreation Area, presented a slide program to the members of the Abi Evans Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution July 13.

It features some of the most scenic land in southern Michigan.

Its forested, glacial hills surround many lakes, streams and marshes. Nearly every wildlife species native to southern lower Michigan calls Waterloo home.

The Waterloo Interpretive Center opened in late 1977. Since that time over 36,000 people have come through its doors. The center overlooks Mill Lake, one of the few remaining lakes in southern Michigan with a totally undeveloped shoreline.

Visitors entering the parking lot may follow a scenic, hard-surfaced walkway to the Interpretive Center.

They will see exhibits on glacial geology, native fish and other wildlife. One of the most popular displays in the center is a working beehive.

In the auditorium, visitors may view an audio-visual program which tells the park story.

Visitor's will also want to walk the foot trails that radiate from the building.

The Waterloo Interpretive Center is open to the public from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday. Beginning April 1, Sunday hours will be from noon to 7 p.m. For group tours call 313-475-8069.

There is no charge for visiting the Interpretive Center. However, because it is a state park facility, all vehicles entering the Center's parking lot must have a State Park Motor Vehicle Permit.

To reach the Interpretive Center, take I-94 to exit 156 (Kalmbach Road), and follow the park signs to the Interpretive Center.

WATER, WATER, EVERYWHERE — But it's not always where it's needed most. Clinton had to draw water from the River Raisin to extinguish the blaze at the Zebbie Henderson mobile home on N. Adrian Hwy., Wednesday. Tecumseh firemen gave assistance for several hours on the scene.

(PHOTO BY JOHN SEAY)

Fire Destroys Two Mobile Homes

CLINTON — Clinton Fire Department, with the assistance of Tecumseh Fire Dept., fought a blaze for several hours at the Zebbie Henderson mobile home residence on Townline Rd., southwest of Clinton, Wednesday.

According to Clinton Fire Chief Harlon Ruhl the fire apparently started in faulty extension cord from a burned out former residence at the site, to a well pit.

Fire spread to the family's mobile home, and to a second mobile home, which was unoccupied.

The fire caused a total loss of the mobile homes, and finished during the remaining parts of the former house, which had previously been damaged by fire, about a year ago.

The family was building a new house on the property, and that structure was not damaged.

Order Boiler

CLINTON — The commissioners of the Michigan South Central Power Agency voted to accept the recommendation of their engineers, Campbell, DeBoe and Associates of Toledo, Ohio and directed their secretary to issue a letter of intent to the Babcock and Wilcox Co. of North Canton, Ohio for a steam generating unit (boiler).

The boiler will be used to provide steam for operation of the 55 MW turbine - generator unit to be located at the Agency's facility which will be built at Litchfield, Michigan.

The boiler will be capable of delivering 500,000 pounds of steam per hour at a pressure of 1250 psi and temperature of 956° F. It will be fueled with pulverized coal with oil backup.

The unit will be equipped with an electrostatic precipitator for particulate removal and with a lime / limestone scrubber for flue gas desulphurization.

Cost of the equipment to the Agency will be $13,793,662.

The equipment is part of a multi-million dollar expansion program to provide electrical service to the communities of Clinton, Coldwater, Hillsdale, Marshall and Union City.

The Agency, which is comprised of the above communities, was formed in 1978 to develop a common low cost and reliable source of electrical power to its members and the customers they serve.

42 Booths Reserved

CLINTON — Booth chairman Jeni Harris, reports that 42 booths have already been reserved for Fall Festival '79, Sept. 28, 29 and 30.

In other reports at the recent meeting of the Festival committee, Car Ticket chairman Hugh McGill reported that $750 has been turned in from ticket sales.

Anyone who wishes to turn in money from tickets sold may leave it at Court's Pharmacy or with Amy Haft at Woodward's Village Gift Shoppe.

Tickets are now available from all Clinton merchants and at the State Savings Bank in Clinton.

Parade chairman Jim Pittman requests that many volunteers are needed to help with the parade on Sunday, Sept. 30. Call him at 456-4761 if you will be available to help at that time.

Following is a complete list of committees: Car ticket sales, Hugh McGill, chairman, Joe O'Donnell and Donald Geiger; special events, Peg Geiger and Pam McGahey; booths, Jeni Harris and Pat Kwapis.

Tuning Up for Fest

CLINTON — Director Peg Geiger announces that the Clinton Community Choir will resume rehearsals in preparation for appearance at the Fall Festival '79.

This week only rehearsal will be at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the United Methodist Church basement.

Future rehearsal dates will be determined by those who attend.

Anyone who cannot attend this first rehearsal, but who intends to later is asked to call Mrs. Geiger, 456-4045.

Wayside Shrine To Be Dedicated

CLINTON — Bishop Kenneth J. Povish of the Lansing Diocese will conduct a memorial service at noon Aug. 4 in the St. Francis Borgia Cemetery to commemorate the 140th anniversary of the establishment of the German Catholic community in that section of Washtenaw County.

The visible evidence of the existence of this Catholic settlement is the second cemetery, which is located on Bethel Church Rd., west of Schneider Rd., one half mile.

The first church and cemetery were located two miles north of the Bethel Church on the southwest corner of Schneider and Heber Rds. The date of the establishment of the first church was in 1839.

The second church was built on the site of the cemetery in 1858 and was dismantled in 1931.

Maynard Kidd of Austin Rd., was six years old then and remembers well the project of taking down the church.

The memorial service in Freedom Township is in conjunction with the 126th anniversary of St. Dominic's parish in Clinton.

Descendents of the original settlers have been notified of the events scheduled for Aug. 4 at Freedom Cemetery and at St. Dominic's parish, Clinton.

Class of '69 Holds Reunion

CLINTON — Clinton High School Class of 1969 held its 10th anniversary reunion, July 21 at the Local 1284 Union Hall, Chelsea.

Attending were 62 persons, including 38 members of the class which had graduated with 69 members.

The evening featured a buffet dinner and music for dancing by the Researchers.

Among the class members who came the farthest were Joanne (Sharpe) Cunningham and husband, Daniel, of Racine, Wisc.; John Steffens, W. Palm Beach Fla.; Melody (Miller) Marion, of South Bend, Ind., and Gala (Redman) Bellmore, of Texas.

Committee which made the arrangements included Jackie (Weasel) Findley, of Tecumseh; Sharon (Brelish) Davis, Susan McDermott, Karen (Hull) Faust, John Steffens, Gala Bellmore, Jan Callison, Dick Tirb, and Bonnie Hoover.

Special Meetings Planned Thursday

CLINTON — Riverside Cemetery Board will meet at 7 p.m. July 26 at the Clinton Township Board office.

Immediately after that meeting is concluded, the Clinton Township Board will meet for the purpose of appointing a new constable to complete the term of Leo Smith, who has resigned.

Newcomers

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fordyce and children, Leslie 15, Glen 14, Jerry 11, Laura 8, and Ivan 9, have recently moved to 119 E. Church St. Clinton, from Saline.

Mr. Fordyce is employed at Ford Motor Co., Rawsonville, and Mrs. Fordyce is employed in the office at Saline Community Hospital.

Extend Contract

CLINTON — Village Council voted a resolution to extend the expiration date of the new sewer plant construction contract for another six months.

Present contract expires Jan. 1, 1980, and it appears that the buildings will be completed by then. However, the facility cannot become operational until driveways and grounds are completed, which will probably have to wait until next spring.

Council granted permission to the Clinton Area Jaycees and the Clinton Rotary Club for operation of a beer tent during Friday and Saturday only of the Fall Festival in September.

St. Dominic's Marks 126 Years

CLINTON — St. Dominic's Catholic Church will observe an 126th anniversary mass, to be celebrated by Bishop Kenneth Povish, Aug. 4 at 5 p.m. on the lawn of the church. A potluck supper and social will follow the mass.

A memorial service will take place at 3 p.m. the same day in St. Dominic's Cemetery, across the street from the 106 year-old church.

Earlier in the day, Bishop Povish, Bishop of Lansing will conduct a memorial service at the Freedom Township Cemetery, at noon, where he will dedicate a wayside shrine to commemorate the founding of that Catholic community 140 years ago.

The establishment of St. Dominic's Church goes back to 1853, when Fr. Peter Kindikens of St. Mary's, Adrian, administered the needs of the Clinton Catholics.

A church building was purchased from the Baptist congregation and moved to the site of the old section of St. Dominic's Cemetery.

The first resident pastor came Nov. 14, 1863. He was Fr. Edward Van Lauwe. Attached to his pastorate were Milan, Tecumseh, Irish Hills, Freedom, Manchester and Sharon.

The parish records indicate Fr. Ferdinand Aligayer as succeeding Fr. Van Lauwe in 1867. During his administration the present church was built and dedicated in 1872-73.

After the second pastor administration of the parish was assumed by priests in Adrian, Manchester, Freedom, Deerfield, and as far away as Hillsdale.

The Freedom Township Church, Washtenaw County, was organized in 1839.

It was known as St. Francis Borgia and it served the German Catholic community of that area until 1931, at which time the parish merged with St. Mary's in Manchester.

On the site of the second church built in 1858, there still exists the cemetery and there are burials of the descendants of the original pioneer families.

St. Dominic's members will remember Fr. Edward F. Kalinowski who worked here for 10 years. During his pastorate, the centennial of the parish was observed.

Fr. Joseph B. Noelke served for the next two years, and was responsible for implementing the second Vatican's constitution of the liturgy.

Fr. Leon O. Kennedy and Fr. James Lee both served the community for four years. During their pastorates many improvements were realized, not only in parish property but in parish life.

The impetus of Vatican II council documents have been realized in the parish council formation and the ecumenical dimensions of inter-faith cooperation between all the churches and St. Dominic's is a reality.

To commemorate the anniversary of the founding of St. Dominic's, a new wood carving of the 'Risen Savior' has been purchased to adorn the sanctuary area. This is a fitting tribute to the founding fathers of this church, who endured oppression in their native Ireland before coming to pursue the "American Dream."

The 'Risen Savior' is also a tribute to the Second Vatican Council, which will be remembered by emphasizing the entire mystery of Christ, his death, burial and resurrection.

Presently serving as pastor is Fr. Chester Tomaszewski, who came to St. Dominic's in the fall of 1977.

Researchers Have Busy Summer

Lenawee County Family Researchers are having a busy summer. They made a recent trip to the library at Fort Wayne and made two cemetery tours conducted by Thelma Frayer.

Well researched and documented, the cemetery tours included visiting Howe Cemetery, sites of former grave yards in Ogden Township, various historic crossroad settlements, scenic roads and several restored neighborhoods such as the Pennington area near Macon.

Elizabeth Chandler's grave in Raisin Township was visited. She was a Lenawee County poet during the Civil War era. The group visited Brookside Cemetery in Tecumseh and viewed the restored fences, a project of the local historical society. Other small cemeteries in nearby townships were also visited.

Joe O'Donnell, sexton of the Clinton cemetery, told the history of the cemetery chapel and explained the methods used to identify names and burial spots of early Clinton Township residents, to supplement sketchy records.

Aug. 11 the Researchers will present an all day genealogical workshop for the public at the Tecumseh Public Library. Tecumseh Historical Society members will be the hospitality committee.

No date has been set, but also in August the Family Researchers will hold a work meet at the Croswell House of the Lucy Wolcott Barnum Chapter. Tentatively, a speaker from the Michigan Genealogical Council of the state library will be present. The county group is a member of the council.

The September "first Tuesday" meeting will be at the Evans Lake Cottage of Thelma Frayer for late afternoon swimming, followed by a potluck supper.

The evening will be devoted to sharing genealogical data and resources, also a discussion of individual achievements of summertime "climbing the family tree."

TEACHERS STUDY PUBLIC RELATIONS — Four Tecumseh teachers participated in an Adrian College seminar last week on school community public relations. L-r are Jeff Noe, sixth grade teacher at Sutton School; Ruth Prettyman, business education and Gary Lovett, psychology and senior social studies both instructors at the high school and Joan Tucker, fifth grade teacher at Herrick Park. Lt. Hill Graduates from Basic School

The basic school is located at the Marine Corps Development and Education Command in Quantico, Va. It is designed to prepare newly-commissioned officers for assignment to the Fleet Marine Force and emphasizes the duties and responsibilities of a rifle platoon commander.

A 1974 graduate of Morenci Area High School and a 1978 graduate of Michigan State University, East Lansing, with a bachelor of arts degree. He joined the Marine Corps in Dec. 1978.

Offer Cards, Sewing Crafts

CLINTON — Sewing crafts and cards will be the activity at the Smith-Kimball Community Center July 26 from 10 a.m. to noon for the Shamrock Senior Citizens. Bag lunch will be at noon, followed by grocery bingo.

Public Relations Is Seminar Topic

Better public relations between schools and community was the topic of a week long seminar which four Tecumseh teachers participated in last week at Adrian College.

Dr. Paul Kimmelman, school public relations specialist and newly appointed assistant superintendent of Norton Public Schools, Norton, Ohio was the instructor.

Tecumseh teachers participating were Joan Tucker, fifth grade teacher at Herrick Park; Ruth Prettyman, business education instructor and Gary Lovett, psychology and senior social studies instructor, both at Tecumseh High School and Jeff Noe, sixth grade teacher at Sutton School, previously at Herrick Park.

The teachers received tips in preparing press releases, planning publicity and dealing with the media for better communication.

A survey was one class project used to help the participants understand what the community knows about the schools and how they perceive school performance.

The class also visited the Toledo Board of Education where it learned about that school system's model school-community survey that resulted in $1.5 million state funding for school programs.

Deny Tap

A request to tap into the city's water system by Charles and Irene Hyatt, 6711 Mill Hwy., was denied by Council Monday evening. They are residents of Raisin Township.

It has been city policy in the past to deny requests from out-of-town residents, unless arrangements similar to those made between the city and Big Boy restaurant are made.

Cal Zorn, City manager, said it would probably be cheaper for the Hyatts to drill a new well.

The lookout tower was scarcely visible, and five miles ahead, straight up the mountain. With the whole afternoon ahead of me, I began the climb. It was a hot day, and the dry, winding road made the climb twice as difficult.

Then something wonderful happened. Sitting by the roadside in the shade of some friendly pine trees were an older couple and their grandchildren. They, too, were on the way to the lookout and were resting. I joined the group and continued the hike, chatting the whole way about families, places we had been, our home towns.

Before we knew it the fatigue was forgotten and two hours had flown by. We had arrived at the tower.

Life, too, sometimes feels like a difficult climb on a hot, dry day. Its demands and burdens can drain us of energy and the will to continue. God knows this, so He gave us His Church, a fellowship of believers to strengthen and encourage us along life's road.

Cards of Thanks

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation for the many acts of kindness that were expressed during our time of sorrow. We are especially grateful to the EMT for their prompt actions, and the doctors, nurses, and aides at Herrick Memorial Hospital, who so willingly provided immediate care. Special thanks to Fr. Chester Tomaszewski and Msgr. Vincent J. Howard for their comforting words, the Proctor Funeral Home for their great kindness and understanding, the pallbearers, and all those who sent the beautiful floral arrangements, cards and food, and helped in any way.

ORDINANCE NO. 3.400

An ordinance to adopt an amendment to the Uniform Traffic Code for Michigan cities, townships and villages.

Regular meeting of the City Council for the City of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan held on the 16th day of July, 1979 at 7:30 p.m. in Council chambers at 309 E. Chicago Boulevard.

PRESENT: Mayor Mead, Councilwoman Bowers, Councilman Cook, DeMoss, Easton, Palmer and Tressler.

ABSENT: None.

WHEREAS Act 510, P.A. 1978 that amends the Michigan Vehicle Code to prohibit local enactment or enforcement of a conflicting municipal ordinance and voids any municipal provision which imposes a criminal penalty for a civil infraction under Act 510, P.A. 1978.

THE CITY OF TECUMSEH ORDAINS:

That Section 9.3 of the Uniform Traffic Code for Michigan cities, townships and villages is hereby amended as follows:

Sec. 9.3 Penalties

Penalties. Any provision of this ordinance which describes an act or omission which constitutes a civil infraction under the terms of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being 1949 P.A. 300 as amended, shall be processed as a civil infraction and any person found to have committed a civil infraction may be ordered to pay a civil fine of not more than $100 and costs in accordance with Section 907 of the Michigan Vehicle Code.

Violation of any other provision of this ordinance not constituting a civil infraction, as herein provided, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment for not more than 90 days or by both such fine and imprisonment.

The City Clerk shall publish this Ordinance in the manner required by law and shall, at the same time, publish supplementary notice setting forth the purpose of the Uniform Traffic Code and the fact that the complete copies of the Code as hereby amended are available at the office of the Clerk for inspection by and distributed to the public at all times.

This Ordinance will take effect on August 1, 1979 and after publication thereof.

The foregoing preamble and ordinance was offered by Councilman Easton and supported by Palmer.

NO: None

ORDINANCE DECLARED ADOPTED.

NOTICE OF AMENDMENT TO THE UNIFORM TRAFFIC CODE

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the provisions of Act 62 of the Public Acts of 1966, State of Michigan, an amendment to the Uniform Traffic Code for Cities, Townships and Villages was adopted by the Council for the City of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 16th day of July, 1979.

The purpose of such Code and amendment is to regulate the operation of vehicles, to provide for the regulation and use of streets, highways and alleys and other public and semi-public places within the City of Tecumseh and to provide penalties for the violation of said Code.

Complete copies of the Uniform Traffic Code and amendments are available at the office of the City Clerk for inspection by and distribution to the public at all times.

No further or additional publication of the Uniform Traffic Code and amendments is required or contemplated.

Two at Camp

CLINTON — Two Clinton students participated in the Football FUNdamentals Camp July 8-13 on the Tri-State University campus in Angola, Ind.

They were Jeff Bowman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bowman, 412 Burton St., Clinton and Bobby Zimmerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Zimmerman, 11924 Matthews, Clinton.

The five day camp features sessions instructed by the Pittsburgh Steelers' Jim Smith and Tony Dungy as well as Jim Young, head football coach at Purdue University.

Camp director was Tom Saylor, head coach at Angola High School. Purpose of the camp was to teach the boys self-discipline, teamwork, and strengthen their fundamental football skills.

Macon News

MACON — July is a busy month for the THomas family. Following is a direct quote from a newspaper article dated July 18, 1927:

WILLIAMS - THOMAS

"Carl A. Thomas, son of Mrs. Frank Thomas and the late Mr. Thomas, and Miss Helen M. Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Williams, were united in marriage Monday at high noon at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt in Pittsford. The uncle, the Rev. Fred Williams, read the marriage ceremony.

Mrs. Thomas has been a very efficient operator in the office of the Macon Telephone Co. Mr. Thomas has for several years been a coworker with his father with the Thomas Threshing outfit. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will live with Mrs. Etta Thomas."

Carl and Helen celebrated their 52nd anniversary by being dinner guests of Helen's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams of Tecumseh.

The 18th also marked the first birthday of their great-grandson, Joshua James, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Thomas II, of Macon and Grass Lake.

Jim and Phyllis Thomas waited until July 20th to celebrate their 24th wedding anniversary, which occurred on the 9th. Their children surprised them with tickets to attend the Moonlight Cruise to Bob-Lo.

The boats were chartered for the evening by the Detroit #1 Chapter of the S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A., with four choruses and barbershop quartettes galore. Many Sweet Adelines were on the program as well as the male Barbershoppers.

Nancy Andrews and family, John Thomas and Bob Parks and his family all traveled to Cedar Point Saturday, returning early the next morning.

Mrs. Roger Gillespie is home from St. Joseph Hospital after major surgery.

2 Are Delegates

BRITTON — Clarence Schroeder, lay delegate from Britton, and the Rev. Ronald Zender, clergy delegate from Ann Arbor, were among the 1,000 voting delegates in sessions at the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod convention July 6-13 in St. Louis.

Sessions were held in Cervantes Convention Center in the church's headquarters city. With 6,000 North American congregations having 2.7 million members, the synod is the second largest Lutheran body on the continent.

Each pair of elected delegates represented an average of 10 local LCMS congregations. The Synod meets every two years.

The 1979 Missouri Synod convention, with the theme "God Opens Doors..." acted on 185 resolutions, most directed at church programs and activities for the next two years and beyond.

Many observed that the atmosphere of this convention was much calmer than others in recent years, when the Synod underwent a doctrinal controversy over interpretation of the Bible.

A missions thrust was evident throughout the convention, with more than 20 resolutions passed which would dramatically increase the Synod's mission activity and awareness during the 1980's.

Among other major actions, the Synod convention took a strong stand against abortion on demand, adopted a new hymn book and extended for the next two years its "fellowship in protest" with The American Lutheran Church.

The abortion resolution labels that practice a "heinous crime against the will of God," and calls for a human life amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

The hymn book, which will be a revised edition fo the Lutheran Book of Worship, (LBW) is designated as "an official hymnal" of the Synod. It will be available from the church's Concordia Publishing House in mid-1980. Adoption of the revised book came after a study pointing to doctrinal and other problems with the LBW, which is used by three other Lutheran bodies.

By an overwhelming majority of 861 to 147, the delegates approved continuation of "fellowship in protest" with The American Lutheran Church. Two earlier attempts failed which would have amended the resolution to specify suspension of fellowship.

The LCMS and ALC have had fellowhip allowing pastors to exhange pulpits and members to commune in each others churches since 1969.

Since then, however, doctrinal disagreements have surfaced between the LCMS and ALC (respectively the second and third largest Lutheran bodies on the continent) leading to declaration of "Fellowship in protest" at the Synod's 1977 convention.

Among other action, delegates approved a $40 million fund raising campaign, authorized a new deaconess training program, gave "partner church" status to its Brazil District, and called for increased ministry to Native Americans, Hispanics, Blacks and older people.

In elections, 115 persons were chosen to serve on 27 national church committees.

Chairing most convetion sessions was LCMS Presdient Dr. J.A.O. Preus, who is midway through his third four-year term.

Class Meets For Picnic

BRITTON — The Dorcas Class of the Britton Congregational Christian Church met July 19 in the shady yard of Helen Osterhout for a picnic dinner.

After the dinner a business meeting was conducted by Helen Osterhout, president.

Routine business was transacted. Cards were signed to be sent to three memberss who were unable to attend.

For the program Mrs. Theo Willis read poems including "Prayer for the Fourth of July" by Marjorie Homes. The remainder of the time was spent visiting.

Mae Willis and Iva Hotrum are to be hostesses for the August meeting.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

Oh, my, this bird watching from the porch is super great. Actually the bird listening can be just as much fun. A good example is the kid kingfishers of last week's column. I mentioned that they were young and noisy but, shortly after the article was dictated, they showed us just how young and noisy they really were.

Ordinarily kingfishers fly up or down the creek, reasonably low if they are fishing and higher if they are moving from one spot to another. We seldom see them fly cross-lots.

However, on this particular day two of the youngsters suddenly veered from the creek route, took a slight detour and flew right by the porch. I could hardly believe it.

When they were just opposite my ears, I believed it all right. They both started rattling and I'm not sure my hearing will ever be quite the same.

Blue jays are contributing to our noisy porch world, too. The mulberries are ripe and the much overworked parents are bringing their young to the trees. In ear piercing and nerve shattering high pitched screaming these jay kids are demanding food.

So insistent are they that sometimes you can hear a fat juicy berry being crammed into a begging mouth. the hollering continues but there is a slight strangulation type of gurgling as the berry goes down the throat.

The soft and gentle cooing of the mourning doves is in sharp contrast to both the king fishers and bluejays' yelling. It can be loud but not shrill or harsh.

Not long ago I watched two doves on the near-my-window feeders. As one dove talked to the other his upper breast swelled and the base of his long slender neck throbbed.

There was just enough movement so that the sunshine made the iridescent pink and gold of his neck and breast shimmer.

These days, whenever I hear what the Audubon Bird Guide calls "A monotonously repeated series of long and short cooing notes...doleful in character.", in my mind's eye I see those birds on the food tray.

Finally the wrens have completed building their nest in the bluebird box. What a back breaking job. When they were working the hardest, the serenading was almost continuous. Now we hear shorter but equally energetic bursts of their bubbling song.

One day a tiny wren perched on the corner of an open window and sounded off. Mom and I about jumped out of our skin — it was a surprise and it sounded so much as though the wren were in the room. Birds are fine outside but we certainly do not need any of them inside.

Other familiar sounds we hear on the porch are the pretty whistles of the cardinals, the not so pretty chattering of the pesky little red squirrels, the nasal honking of the nuthatches, the laughter of the flickers, and I mustn't forget the unpleasant rusty hinge squeaking of the grackles, although I would like to.

There is also a myriad of unidentified cheeps, squawks, peeps, whistles et cetera. I can't worry about them. Then there were the two 'hearings' which led to exciting sightings.

A meowing sound and my mind clicked catbirds. Soon out from under the black raspberry bushes along the top of the creek bank, popped first one of these delightful birds and then another.

After giving me a good look they flew to the cherry tree. A clear pure whistle was equally easy to identify but a bit more difficult to see. Finally at the very top of the cherry tree I saw them, a pair of orioles. Lovely.

Can you see why I say that the bird watching from the porch is super great and then add that the listening is too?

Surprise Mrs. Gibbs

Among those present were Mrs. Louis Donaldson and sons Chuck, Danny and Jim from Tampa, Fla.

Others observing July birthdays and being remembered were Mrs. David Cook of Tecumseh and Kent and Kevin Benham.

I know three promising fields for young people.

Right now, the Army has special needs in three specific areas. If you qualify, I'll guarantee your training in advance.

The first need is for Food Service Specialists, young men and women who like to prepare and serve food as well as eat it.

Another field of opportunity is medicine. As a Medical Specialist, you'll learn how to care for and treat hospital patients.

If you want to learn modern police techniques, we need good people in the field of law enforcement.

You get $419 per month to start. Plus housing, meals, medical and dental care, and 30 days paid vacation a year.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

SERVING TECUMSEH AND AREA SINCE 1850

VOL. 129 OUR 130th YEAR—NO. 1 | THURSDAY, AUG. 2, 1979 | TWELVE PAGES—25c

ENDS CAREER — Gene Skinner is wrapping up a 27-year career as a Tecumseh police officer this month, the first officer ever to retire here. He started under the late George Kilbourn and then served for three other chiefs — Murell Clark, Ray Walton and Merlin Mowery. Although his retirement won't be effective until Sept. 5th, his last day on the job will be Aug. 11. (PHOTO BY KATHY BROWN)

SGT. GENE SKINNER RETIRING

Department Won't Be the Same

by Kathy Brown

"It seemed to be the farthest thing from my mind when I left school," said Sgt. E. Eugene Skinner, reflecting back on a decision he made 27 years ago to enter police work.

"I was born and raised in Tecumseh. I knew just about everybody. I just thought it would be a good way to help the people."

In his 27 years as a Tecumseh officer, Skinner has seen the village grow into a city, he's seen the department develop from a four to a 15-man force and has seen nearly 80 officers and six police chiefs come and go.

He's also seen the job of police officer evolve from a "night watchman's role" to "real police work," as it has been shaped by court decisions.

Effective Sept. 5, Sgt. E. Eugene Skinner will be the first police officer to retire from the Tecumseh police department.

He will take advantage of some well deserved vacation days and leave the department about Aug. 11 for some rest and relaxation at Rice Lake in Ontario, Canada with his wife, Doris.

Then they'll head for Ruskin, Fla. where they purchased a mobile home — just about a mile from the Gulf Coast — for their winters ahead.

As far as Skinner is concerned, his wife has played an important role in his 27 years on the force. "You've got to have a good, understanding wife," he said in giving Doris credit. "Sometimes you'll be gone all day. Sometimes you can't even call home," he said about the demands of the job.

There have been changes in the role of the police officer. "The job we performed used to be similar to a night watchman's job. We used to go downtown and check all the locks, shake every door in town. (A walking beat) wasn't a bad job. Of course today, we have the alarms monitored in the station. And today we do real police work.

"On a small force you pick up a complaint and follow it right on through. Everybody's his own detective, his own juvenile officer. On a larger department, each job is separate."

There have been changes in the education requirements for officers.

Back then, said Skinner, "They swore me in, handed me a ticket book and the keys to the car and said, 'You're on your way'." Today officers are required to attend 280 college hours. Over the course of his career, Skinner has taken such law enforcement classes at Michigan State University and through the FBI.

There were also different attitudes toward law enforcement when he became an officer, Skinner reflected.

"Back then, it seemed people kind of respected a police officer more. It's not like that today. Times have changed now. An officer used to be able to talk to a kid. I always seemed to get along good with the kids. I cleaned up a lot of shoplifting rings," he reminisced.

"An officer can make it as hard or as easy as he wants," said Skinner about attitude on the job. "When you stop someone and give him a ticket. You can either leave him laughing or to a point where he'd want to kill you."

"I've seen a lot of them come and go in 27 years. I must have seen about 80 officers leave here. Some of them go on to bigger departments. Some of 'em get a stomach full of police work."

"I've had a lot of funny experiences and a lot of sad ones. One of the funniest that happened to me was just after they made Evans Street one way.

"There was an old farmer and his wife going along in a pickup truck. He wanted to make a turn up the wrong way of the street. I told him that if he turned there he'd get himself killed.

"He rolled down the window, looked at me and said, 'Sonny, I've been turning here for 40 years,' and he kept right on a goin'."

Skinner said the part of the police work he dreaded most was being on the scene of a bad accident, particularly when children were involved.

Skinner said that in his years on the force, he's used his gun for warning shots only. The first time he used it was to get the attention of a runaway youth. He shot up into the air, "but she just kept on running," Skinner said with a shrug.

Reflecting on how the courts have defined the law, Skinner commented, "It used to be that I could pick up anyone and hold him

Ballots Ready for Recall Vote

Application for absentee ballots for the Aug. 21 special recall election in Raisin Township are now available at the Township hall during regular business hours, 9-1 Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday.

The last day to apply for an absentee ballot is Saturday, Aug. 18 at 2 p.m. The township office will be open that day from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., said Lenawee County Clerk Pat Johnston, election official.

Absentee ballots must be returned by 8 p.m. Aug. 21 to be counted, she added.

Training Sessions Start for World's Top Jumpers

by Kathy Brown

The British have landed. And so will the Canadians and the Americans for the international parachuters training session at Parachuting Service Inc. at Al Meyers Airport in Tecumseh now through Aug. 9.

Britain's four man team, Symbiosis, and eight man team have arrived, as have one of the American teams as of Tuesday afternoon. The remainder will arrive by Thursday. The New Zealand team was expected in town, but had a one stop around the world ticket which was scheduled for California and could not be changed.

The teams are preparing for the world championship sport parachute jumping competition to be held Aug. 22 through Sept. 2 at Chateau Roux, France.

"People in the area have just been great," said Harold Lange. The teams are being housed in the homes of Tecumseh area residents. "They (the teams) are just overwhelmed by the generousity of the people of the Tecumseh area."

The teams will jump from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. at the Tecumseh airport with maximum viewing time for grounded observers after noon.

A special aircraft called the Sky Van was expected to arrive in Tecumseh from Detroit Metro Airport Wednesday morning. Twenty jumpers at one time can go up in the craft.

When it is not carrying a capacity of parachuters, onlookers may join them for a ride in the Sky Van. A fee will be charged.

Observers will wear parachutes while in the Sky Van, but will not be allowed to jump — unless of an emergency, explained Judy Lange. A jumper must be experienced, with a minimum of 50 jumps to use a Sky Van, she said. Jumpers exit with a running leap through a back door. The jump can set the inexperienced jumper into a series of spins and tumbles, she explained.

The international teams will jump from 12,000 feet and free fall for 90 seconds, during which time they attempt to execute as many maneuvers as possible, such as diamonds, circles, stars, etc. They separate between each pattern.

Mirror Image, of San Francisco, Calif. area, won the 1979 United States championship with a record of 10 different maneuvers in 50 seconds. They are in Tecumseh training for the world championship.

During the competition, high power, video movie cameras are used to record the maneuvers for judging.

Parachute lessons for neophytes will continue on Saturdays and Sundays despite the international training session. Students receive three hours instruction on safety and handling equipment and three hours on how to exit the plane and land as well as using the reserve chute.

Parachuting Services was founded by Harold and Judy Lange about 16 years ago. About 5,000 jumpers were trained in the sport here since that time. This year to date, about 600 students have trained. Bill VanTuyle of Clinton and Bob Simpson, 18, of Tecumseh made their first jumps this last week.

Prior to owning the business, Lange was a jump master in the United States 82nd airborne. He also formed the first National Guard sport parachuting team in Michigan before leaping into his own business.

The couple has two chidren, Becky, 11 and Jenny, 9. While the girls have flown several times and indicate an interest in the sport, their mom revealed she has never jumped. She said it's just a case of "no desire."

PC Turns Down Zoning Proposal

A request to re-zone approximately 30 acres of the former Fuller farm property from a single family to multiple family was turned down by the Planning Commission at a special meeting Tuesday night.

Ed Day, Clinton builder, had planned a senior citizen complex in the area, which lies between W. Chicago Blvd. and Seminole Dr. His plans called for a five or six-story high rise plus 60 apartments and 52 townhouses.

The Commission's reasons not to recommend the zoning change were potential hazards of vehicle traffic in egress and ingress to the area from W. Chicago Blvd. and non-conformity to the city's land use plan, adopted September 1977.

Commission's action, however, is not final. It will be reviewed and acted upon by Council.

At the July 17th meeting, approximately 40 residents, mostly from Seminole Dr., attended and protested chaning the zoning. Tuesday evening about 20 attended the meeting.

In other Commission business, members approved several zoning changes involving senior citizen housing.

These changes would allow a structure of five stores and a maximum height of 55 feet, a setback from lot line of 60 feet, and setback of 100 feet from single family property.

Need 3 Teachers To Fill Staff for School Year

Only three teaching positions remain to be filled for the 1979-80 school year, Supt. Robert Duhan reports. All are in the elementary schools.

A learning disability teacher has yet to be employed at Patterson, and Pearl Osburn, first grade teacher there, is taking a year's leave of absence.

All high school and junior high teaching posts are filled.

JUNIOR FLORAL EXHIBIT — Little Garden Club hosted a workshop July 23 for its junior entrants for the upcoming show Aug. 3 and 4 at St. Elizabeth's Church parish center. L-r are Letty Worley, 11, Michelle Rapin, 12, Stephanie and Chris Preston, both 13. Entries are expected in three artistic divisions including "Disco Fever" and "Star Wars" and three horticulture categories including terrariums, water grown plants and foliage and flowering plants. The women will have 36 entries. Admission is only $1. (PHOTO BY KATHY BROWN)

Club Holding Flower Show

The Little Garden Club of Tecumseh invites the public to its flower show entitled "Our World Today", Aug. 3 and 4 at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church parish hall.

Show hours are 2-6 p.m. Friday and 10-3 p.m. Saturday. A donation of $1 for admission is requested. Tickets are available at the door.

There will be 32 artistic entries by the women and the junior garden club will feature 12 artistic entries by school aged children. Horticulture will be included in the displays as well as the standard flower show.

Entries will be judged before the show opens Friday.

Carol Wisner is general coordinator for the show.

Plan Physicals for THS Students

All Tecumseh High School students, boys and girls, who will be participating in sports during the 1979-80 school year, are asked to report for physical examinations at the high school gym on Thursday, Aug. 9th, at 9 a.m.

Local physicians will be in charge of the examinations which are for senior high students only.

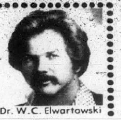
Dear Doctor

News From The Tecumseh Chiropractic Life Center

101 S. Pearl Tecumseh



Dr. W. C. Elwartowski

Dear Doctor, Can chiropractic help stomach disorders?

Nothing can knock the smile from a face and take the joy out of living faster or more completely than stomach distress.

Poor digestion probably causes more human discomfort and actual suffering than any other single ailment.

But the stomach, like the rest of the human body, depends on a proper flow of nerve energy from the brain to keep it functioning properly. When anything interferes with the pipeline from the brain to stomach, upset can result. If neglected too long, serious stomach disorders can develop.

The chiropractor, with his knowledge of the nervous system and the spinal column, which is the trunk-line for the flow of nervous energy throughout the body, locates and corrects misalignments of the spine and frees vital nerve energy to do its proper task.

When the spinal column is properly aligned and the nervous system is functioning properly, through competent, gentle chiropractic adjustments, the vital nerve energy -- nature's own healing force -- maintains normal activity in the digestive system.

For further information on this question, or if you have other related questions, feel free to write Dr. Elwartowski at 101 S. Pearl St., Tecumseh, MI 49286.

Skinner Is Retiring

for 72 hours for investigation. Well that wasn't right. But now it seems I can't pick you up for anything. It has swung too far the other way. It's got to get back to a happy medium. I don't know when it will."

On the subject of plea bargaining, Skinner commented he didn't think it was entirely right, but he said he never got hostile if he lost a case in court.

"I've always figured 'more power to you if you beat me in court.' I figured that there was something that officer did wrong," if he lost the case or the charge was reduced."

If Skinner had never gone into police work, he might have continued in the plumbing and heating business or worked at the Tecumseh Products where he served a short stint before becoming an officer.

He was promoted to sergeant in 1958 by George Kilburn.

The Skinners have three children. A son, Doug of Pennsylvania, works for that state's attorney general's office in narcotics as an undercover officer.

Two daughters live in the area, Diane Smith resides on North Adrian Highway in Clinton and Donna McCarley lives in Manitou Beach. The Skinners have five grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Sgt. Skinner's mother, Louise Skinner, resides in Tecumseh.

Would he have done it again? "I probably would have. I'm sure that I would have," said Sgt. Skinner adding, "I've really enjoyed working with the people."

3 Accidents

Police handled only three traffic accidents the past week, but in each incident citations were issued.

Last Friday, Eugene C. Currier, 34, Adrian, struck a parked car on S. Evans St. Officers charged him with failure to have his vehicle under control. Currier also suffered minor injuries and sought his own treatment.

Monday, Gregg E. Hensen, 27, Clayton, was making a turn at N. Evans St. at Macon Rd. when he was struck by Ethel E. Houtz, 47, of 2985 Gady Rd. Su... was cited for failure to have her car under control.

Also Monday, police charged Alice F. Mackey, 34, of 301 Miami Court, with failure to exercise due care after a mishap with Everett L. Homan, 33, of Mancelona. Both were making right turns off W. Chicago Blvd. into S. Evans St., when Homan's truck scraped the Mackey car, which was turning from the parking lane.

"Why do I need a VIP Box?"

Everyone in town needs a safe place to keep "Very Important Papers", or, as I call it, a VIP Box.

Fortunately, our town has some mighty fine banks, and most have a variety of types and sizes of safety deposit boxes. You are able to store safely, without fear of fire, or theft, your insurance policies, property titles, mortgage papers, confidential documents, jewels, and other precious possessions not used frequently.

The VIP Box is really one single collection point for your most valuable records, possessions -- and instructions to the next of kin in case of your death. It is a good place to store a copy of your pre-planned funeral arrangements along with your will and other one-of-a-kind papers, -- and the cost is minimal.

You own VIP Box is the safest place I know to store your life's records of success and security. If you don't have such a box, get one. You'll heave a sigh of relief when it's done -- but don't procrastinate, do it soon. We constantly witness the problem of families who did not have such a storage place.

Pat Patten was organist.

She wore miniature roses in her hair and carried three long stemmed roses with baby's breath and velvet ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Lori Sherwood, the bride's cousin of Toledo, Ohio; Peggy Albaugh, the bride's sister-in-law of Britton; Renee Bouwkamp, the bride's sister from Jappatowne, Md.; Cindy Griewahn, of Adrian; and Carolyn Mayers of Colorado.

Best man was Edward Schiller of Garden City.

Ushers were Troy and Charles Albaugh, the bride's brothers; Todd Wolfe, the groom's cousin of Warren and Alan McDermit and Craig Gabler, both of Garden City.

A dinner was held at the United Products Workers Union Hall.

Centerpieces of roses and carnations in blue and pink decorated the tables.

The bride is a 1976 Tecumseh graduate and the groom is a 1975 - Clinton graduate, employed with Associated Spring Co. in Plymouth.

After a two week wedding trip to Mackinac Island and Canada, the couple will reside in Garden City.

The rehearsal dinner was catered by the groom's mother at the home of his parents, Mrs. and Mrs. I. E. Wolfe.

MR. and MRS. DAVID WOLFE

Nuptials For Wilson and Bunge

Jan A. Wilson and David A. Bunge were married July 21, 6 p.m. at St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

The Rev. W. Douglas Lowery officiated the ceremony for the daughter of Doris Wilson of 310 Adrian St. and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Bunge of Lake Orion.

Judy McVay of Tecumseh was maid of honor wearing an aqua gown with blouson style bodice of imported crocheted lace and scoop neckline.

Kimberly Geno, the bride's cousin of Daytona Beach, Fla. was flower girl. She wore a yellow print gown of silesta jersey with spaghetti straps and ruffled bodice. She wore a wreath of daisies and baby's breath in her hair and carried a basket of matching flowers.

Best man was Steve Brown of Rochester. Ushers were Brian, Kurt and Eric Bunge, the groom's brothers of Lake Orion.

Gail Schilling of Brooklyn and Patsy DaPoe of Flushing helped cut and serve cake. Robert Irwin of Farmington Hills served refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Gale Spohr and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cardelli greeted guests.

Special guests included Lily Houston of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, the bride's great aunt; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Geno and daughter, Kim of Daytona Beach, Fla., the bride's cousins.

After a wedding trip to Wisconsin and Chicago, Ill., the couple will reside in Clarkston.

The new Mrs. Bunge has a bachelor's degree in accounting from Michigan State University. Mr. Bunge is a graduate of Oakland Community College Mechanic School, employed at Atwood Lawn Spray at Sterling Heights. Both are 1975 Tecumseh graduates.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted at the Country House restaurant by Mr. and Mrs. Duane Bunge, the groom's parents.

MR. and MRS. DAVID BUNGE

MR. and MRS. SHERMAN HOWARD

Graham-Howard Take Vows

Mary Jo Graham and Sherman D. Howard were married July 21, 3 p.m. at St. Joseph Catholic Shrine in the Irish Hills.

Fr. William McKeon officiated the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Graham of 406 W. Logan and son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Howard of Onsted.

The bride wore a white, dacron polyester gown with silk Venice lace. It was styled with an empire silhouette and full, flowing skirt. The hemline ended in a triple flounce with an attached chapel train.

She wore a single pearl pendant necklace, a gift from the groom. Her fingertip veil was secured with a cluster of silk stephanotis. She carried a cascade of white bridal orchids and stephanotis.

In her hair, she wore a cluster of flowers that matched her bouquet of mid-century lilies, green chrysanthemums and yellow daisies.

Bridesmaids were Cindy Murphy, the bride's sister of Tecumseh; Julie Murphy of Ypsilanti; Susan Brown of Tecumseh and Ann Forrister of Adrian.

Bill Kirschke of Onsted served as best man. Ushers were Bill Howard, the groom's brother of Hudson; Ross Howard, the groom's brother of Clio; Charlie Watson of Manitou Beach and Kevin Forrister of Adrian.

Peggy Wisney, the bride's cousin of Grand Rapids, was flower girl.

A reception for 250 guests was held at the Peerless Gear Union Hall in Clinton.

Arrangements of yellow, green and orange silk flowers with candles were arranged by the bride's mother.

The bride is a 1975 Tecumseh graduate. She graduated from Eastern Michigan University this year and is employed with Lenawee Intermediate Schools. The groom is a 1975 Onsted graduate, employed at Faraday Inc. in Tecumseh.

After a wedding trip to northern Michigan, the couple will live at 13689 Rome Rd., Manitou Beach, Mich.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

Birds came from all over and zoomed into the backyard walnut tree. It was not a friendly casual get-together. They were screaming as loud as they could. It was a noisy multi-lingual jumble of angry sounds. Something was drastically wrong in the bird world and they were telling everybody about it.

And believe me, when bluejays, grackies, starlings, robins, cardinals, and the rest of the gang all get together to complain, everybody within earshot does know about it.

Cats? That was our first thought but then we decided that no, there must be something else. We have seen and heard bluejays sound the alarm for cats but never has the whole neighborhood come trooping to the rescue.

Something else was amiss and our curiosity grew as the volume of the birds' screaming increased. They were absolutely incensed about what was happening.

Finally Gertie T. took a little walk. She left the porch, walked over to the walnut tree and looked up. Immediately she saw the problem.

Two crows were perched near the top of the tree. Apparently just their presence was enough to trigger the general alarm which brought help from all directions.

Most birds do not like crows. Gertie T said these two were black and oh, so big. Finally they gave up and flew away.

Their parting words were loud, harsh caws. As they flew I had a good look and yes, they were BIG and they were BLACK.

When Gertie T came back up the ramp she was grinning. Earlier in the day we had seen two young white-breasted nuthatches. One of them was in the walnut tree helping drive the enemy away.

Nuthatches have funny voices but they are not loud; however, this little character knew he was as big as anyone and his voice was even louder and more ferocious than the others.

Mom missed the crow chasing but later she had a bird experience of her very own. For several days we had seen a young robin in the back yard. From our vantage point on the porch it was fun to watch him stay close to the top of the creek bank and dash to safety under the nearby bushes.

We wondered if he were on of those precocious baby birds who somethimes get carried away with themselves and hop out of the nest before they should.

He had no tail at all, his heavily speckled breast was white, his neck was scrawny, and his ability to fly left much to be desired. Both parents seemed to be taking care of him, he was well fed.

Then came the day I looked out and saw him trying to climb the cyclone fence. He was fluttering his wings and sort of hopping from one link to another, using them as steps.

Suddenly his 'climbing' stopped but his wing fluttering became more frantic. The little guy was stuck.

After waiting a few minutes to see whether he could free himself, Mom and I decided that he was making no progress and desperately needed some help.

Carefully she walked to the fence, rescued the robin, and put him under a bush. He immediately ran back towards the fence but to a section we could not see. the adult robins were not at all happy with Mom.

They did not know she was helping their kid. They saw her as a non-robin who was after their baby. They squawked at her and dive bombed her almost back to the porch. They might better have spend their time keeping their wayward youngster away from the fence.

I was surprised at how quickly Mom freed the bird. We were afraid he might be in serious trouble but, as it happened, he had merely stuck his head through the fence and did not know enough to pull it back out. He will never win honors for the brightest bird in the class.

Herald Employee Vacations in Europe

James L. Lincoln, 18, of Tecumseh left for Munich, Germany July 19 to visit Sabina Rauleder, an exchange student that spent her "senior" year at Tecumseh High School.

Jim and Sabina graduated from Tecumseh High School with the class of 1979. They will join a group of about 20 young people and tour the Yugoslavian islands in the Adriatic Sea.

Jim telephoned his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Lincoln, 499 Seminole, Tuesday. The trans-Atlantic call was timed at just a minute. Jim reported that the weather is beautiful and everything is going well. He is the grandson of Dorothy Lander, also of Tecumseh.

If your brand new car is 'totaled' will your insurance company pay you for a brand new car?

Some insurance companies think a new car is a used car the minute you use it to drive out of the dealership. Not Auto-Owners.

With Auto-Owners, if you have an accident anytime within 90 days and your new car is a total loss, we'll pay you the total cost of your new car. And with Auto-Owners, your new car is covered immediately, automatically, under your previous policy.

So if you're about to get a new car, talk to us at Auto-Owners. Maybe you should get a new insurance company, too.

Retires From Library

One of the cheerful faces among the stacks of books at Tecumseh Public Library has been missing since June 30. Marge Boynton has retired as library assistant.

Marge worked at the library since 1957, first as a volunteer from time to time and then on a regular basis since 1966.

Delivering books to the homebound was a job that Marge said she especially liked. She said she enjoyed picking out books and tried to keep a recrod of an individual's favorite subjects.

"I like to keep busy," Marge said. "I have a huge garden (and) golf is my love."

She and her husband, Erwin, live at 4171 Allen Rd. They have three daughters and three grandchildren.

In about two weeks, there is some traveling in Marge's future as she will leave for Colorado to visit their children.

Barb of Washington state has a masters' degree in library science. Her three children are Marcy, 14, Rusty, 12 and David, 10. Marge hasn't seen them for six years.

Daughter Dorie of Los Angeles, Calif. has a masters degree in education. She works on developing education programs in the southwest region. Previously, she taught English as a second language in the Peace Corps in Ethiopia.

Mary, who will be the hostess for the family reunion in Greeley, Colo., has her A.B.D. — "all but dissertation" degree toward a doctorate. She is involved with rehabilitation counseling and research and statistical analysis for social programs.

All three daughters are Tecumseh graduates.

Hazlett Promoted to Lance Cpl.

Marine Lance Cpl. Elisabeth J. Hazlett, daughter of Raymond J. Shelton of 110½ E. Chicago Blvd., has been promoted to her present rank while serving at Marine Corps Air Ground Combat Center, Twentynine Palms, Calif.

A 1974 Tecumseh graduate, she joined the Marine Corps in October 1977.

Jaycees and Auxiliary Post Busy Summer

The Tecumseh Jaycees and Auxiliary have accomplished several programs last month and plan several other projects and meetings for the month of August.

Beginning the list of August activities will be a camp out and weiner roast for their children. Ronald McDonald House T shirts will be sold.

A trip to Michigan International Speedway is planned. The auxiliary will have its annual picnic meeting at the home of Pat Hoover on Vineyard Lake.

Another August highlight is an eat-a-thon with Jaycee president Harold Petee and auxiliary president Marge Ball competing in the contest to see who can eat the most ice cream.

Jobs for Teens is an ongoing summer project sponsored by the auxiliary.

Light bulbs will be sold for fund raising.

So far this summer, the Jaycees and Auxiliary raised over $800 for Muscular Dystrophy in the July 4th walk-a-thon.

A pizza party was held for new members. A chicken barbecue was sponsored during the sidewalk sale day in Tecumseh.

Pat Van Wormer, external executive vice-president for the Michigan Jaycee Auxiliary spoke to the auxiliary about how to be a successful project chairperson.

The group was also in Southfield studios of WXYZ TV to see Kelly and Company.

A concession stand was operated at Michigan International Speedway to raise money for local community service projects.

Three children from the Milton C. Porter Education center were sponsored to attend a special camp.

A joint board meeting was held for both clubs.

Twenty jobs were already filled through the summer jobs for Teens program.

Any young man or woman in the community that would like to join the Jaycees and Auxiliary may contact Harold Petee, 423-4723 for the Jaycees or Marge Ball, 423-4724 or Laure Foust, 423-8185 for the Auxiliary.

Enrollment Deadline

Aug. 8 is the deadline for enrollment in a day camp being planned by the "Irish Hills Girl Scout Council".

Camp date is Aug. 17 at the Beardsley Woods. It is open to all girls in the Tecumseh-Clinton area, both scouts and non-scouts.

For more information, readers may call the Irish Hills Girl Scout Council, 784-8548. Mary Ann Chellman is camp director, 456-7369.

Pastry Chef Reveals Cheesecake Recipe

Pat Kessler of Long Island and Barb McCann of Tecumseh had a sweet visit July 22-25 in town. Pat is a prize winning pastry chef of a fine Long Island restaurant.

She and Barb, owner of The Cake Shoppe and prize winner herself, had just returned from teaching at a cake decorating seminar at Fort Wayne, Ind.

"Pat makes a dessert cart that will knock your socks off," said Barb about her guest. Pat has received top honors at the Societe Culinaire Philantropique culinary arts show in New York.

Besides her delectable dessert repertoire, she is also skilled in gourmet dinners.

And about her hostess, Pat revealed, "People in this town have no idea how much in demand Barb is. While in Indiana, she taught classes (from morning to night). Everyone wanted to be in her classes."

Fortunate for Herald readers, Pat shared her cheesecake recipe. The 2-Cann family knows that it tastes as good as it sounds.

Pat Kessler's cheesecake

4 eggs
1 cup granulated sugar
1 tablespoon cornstarch
1¾ pounds cream cheese
½ cup heavy cream
2 cups sour cream
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
½ teaspoon almond or lemon extract
Sugar cookie dough or graham cracker crust

1. In mixing bowl, beat eggs until thick, then add granulated sugar and cornstarch, mixing well.

2. Break up cream cheese and add to eggs, together with heavy cream and sour cream. Add extracts, mixing well.

3. Line 9-inch springform pan with sugar cookie dough or graham cracker crust.

4. Pour cheese cake mixture into the crust, then bake in 375 degree oven for 45 minutes or until middle is set. Remove to cake rack to cool competely.

Completes Training

Robert L. Cojeen, supply supervisor for General Telephone Company, recently completed the company's "Management Process" course held at its state headquarters training center in Muskegon.

The three-day course is designed to improve a supervisor's or manager's ability to plan, organize, direct and control.

Cojeen began his career with General Telephone in 1978. He has held the positions of supply assistant and his current position.

Seniors Get Tax Break

A new federal income tax provison now allows many older Americans to sell their homes without paying stiff capital gains taxes, according to Rex Glover, president of Glover Real Estate One in Adrian.

The tax provision allows home owners 55 and older a once-in-a-lifetime captial gains tax exemption of up to $100,000 on the sale of their home.

Glover Real Estate One is offering a free brochure entitled "55 or Older? Here's Some Great News For You." The brochure explains the capital gains tax exemption and the advantages it offers to older Americans.

La Leche Meets Aug. 8

Mothers and babies are welcome to the Aug. 8 meeting of the LaLeche League of Lenawee County beginning at 8 p.m. at the home of Mary Ann Camron, 411 S. Pearl in Tecumseh.

Joyce Jubenville, 423-7752 is the leader. Molly Phillips, 456-4308 is another area leader. Both are available for telephone counseling.

Nutrition and Weaning is the discussion topic. Discussions are informal. A bake sale will be held after the meeting.

Bick, Strack, Bird Win

The tennis classes sponsored by the Parks & Recreation Department wrapped it up last week with a tournament for all class members.

Andy Bick defeated Sarah Williams 6-1 in the finals of the Youth Beginners Class. Andy won other matches over Letty Worley, 6-4, and Ann Novesky, 10-8.

Sarah won over Ann Wann, 8-6, in the first round to get to the finals.

The only other participant was Jeff Frost, who lost to Ann Novesky 6-1 in the first round.

In the Housewife Special Class, Denise Strack stroked past Pam Cromer to win the finals. Denise had 6-0 wins over Veronica Ottinger and Karen LeVeck before meeting Pam. Pam had a 6-3 win over Sandy Purcell and won 6-1 over Debbie Hissong to get to the final match.

Other participants were Sharon Meredith who lost to Hissong 6-3 in the first round and Marian Williams, who bowed to Karen LeVeck 6-3.

The Adult Class saw Rochelle Bird beat Erika Pemberton to come out the victor. Rochelle first had to get past Suzanne Labun 6-0 and Sharon Curtiss before meeting Erika. Erika beat Marilyn Stevens 6-1 in the first round to advance to the finals.

Roxanne Labun, the only other participant fell to Sharon Curtiss 7-5 in the first round of action.

Ives, Doc's and Airport Tied for 2nd

In the Women's Softball League, Dundee Products clobbered Airport Bowl 11-0 to remain undefeated. Dundee held Airport to just two hits, both by Judy Rothfuss. Lori Monigin had three hits for Dundee. Airport Bowl's record dropped to 4-3.

The second game found Ives Body shop romping over Jerry's Pub 22-6. Ives has now moved into a second place tie with Airport Bowl & Doc's Frame and Axle.

Melanie Caggiano led the hitting for Ives with four. Barb Richardson had two hits for the winless Jerry's Pub team.

The final game of the evening between Doc's Frame & Axle & DST put Doc's in the second place tie. DST went down in a close 6-2 game. Doc's scored all six runs in the first inning, but DST couldn't get around the bases.

Kim Adams had three hits in as many trips to the plate for DST. Theresa Lauer had three hits for Doc's to head the hitting attack. DST dropped to 2-5.

Hold 25th Reunion

The Tecumseh High School Class of 1954 held its 25th anniversary class reunion July 14 at Leutheuser's in Saline.

The reunion was attended by 47 of the original 82 class graduates plus 44 guests.

Honored guests included Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brazee, who had been the junior and senior class advisors and accompanied the class of '54 on their senior trip to New York City.

Other honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Standen of St. Joseph. Mr. Standen had been class advisor for the group for grades eight through sophomore year.

Former teachers Elven Duvall, Ina Baily and Mrs. Irene Boltz, accompanied by Mr. Boltz, also attended.

Russell Hyatt gave the invocation.

Master of ceremonies Alroy Vanderpool offered a silent prayer for two deceased classmates and deceased teachers.

Mr. Brazee and Mr. Standen recalled a number of fond memories, which they shared with the group.

Ardyth Eaton Schroeder read a number of responses from classmates and former teachers who were unable to attend.

An interesting fact was discovered in locating class members, is that the majority of the class members reside within a 1-1/2 - 2 hour or less drive of Tecumseh.

The door prize was won by Annette Nichols; farthest traveled by Nancy Randall Will of Texas; most children, eight, by Arnold Withrow; most grandchildren, three, by Barbara Folk Ashford.

The event was arranged by Edna Freshcorn Gilpin and Ardyth Eaton Schroeder, assisted by Alroy Vanderpool, Marilou Burleson Bale and Nancy Randall Will.

The group decided to have another reunion in five years. Class members are requested to keep current information and addresses available to Ardyth Eaton Schroeder.

Conference

The Sand Lake, Raisin and Tecumseh fire departments participated in the 104th Michigan State Firemen's Association conference in Kalamazoo recently, helping to make Lenawee County's participation the highest in the state.

Sand Lake firefighters won third place in the men's hose exchange and fire chief Ken Koons won a second place award in the golf competition.

Men on the hose exchange team were Ken Koons, George Settles, James VanDoren and Steve Hause.

Raisin Township brought home three trophies including a second place trophy for the hose exchange and a first place individual trophy in golf for Harry Withrow. About nine Raisin Township firefighters participated.

Tecumseh participants were Greg Long, Kent Naugle, John Wotring and Dave Purkey and wives.

Besides the competitions, the firefighters heard such speakers as Michigan's Lt. Governor. Topics included energy, agricultural hazards, dealing with plastics as well as new products and fire fighting equipment.

Back at home, the Sand Lake department recently received its new fire engine. It holds 1,500 gallons of water. It replaces a 1958 pumper. The $55,000 truck was the result of donations and interest of private citizens and businesses in the Franklin township area.

Senior News

The Lenawee County Department on Aging with support from the Region II Area Agency on Aging, is sponsoring extended meal service for Senior Citizens.

The Adrian Friendly Center and the Addison Senior Citizens Center will be open and serving dinners on Saturdays and Sundays starting Aug. 4. Home delivered meals will also be served on weekends. Call 263-8831, ext. 361 for information.

Lenawee Percussion Ensemble

Six Percussionists Present Original Pratt Composition

The Lenawee County Percussion Ensemble - including six young Tecumseh area percussionists - presented the world premier of an original composition of Mike Pratt July 25 during the Adrian City Band Concert at the Adrian Mall.

Included in the ensemble are Tim Kittle, Darlene Elwartowski, Carey Tuckey and Kathy Bick, all of Tecumseh and Ena Ekin of Clinton and Jeff Walters of Blissfield.

Their mentor is Don Dobrosky of Tecumseh and Mike Pratt, composer, is director of music at Onsted High School. Both men are members of the Adrian City Band.

Pratt's original composition is an arrangment for percussion, "Dirge and Street Dance". It portrays the New Orleans funeral with funeral dirge in the first part and jazz rendition in the second, a New Orleans folk traditon.

Tympany, bells, xylophone, marimba, cymbals and drums all percussion instruments - are used in the unusual composition.

Dobrosky explained, "Today there is a lot of room to express new musical ideas. What we try to do is musically express an idea through rhythm."

Their performance also included "Warsaw 1939", a composition that conveys the mood of the German troops progressing through the city.

Liar's Club at Fair

The Liar's Club will be making a return appearance at the Lenawee County Fair this year, Aug. 22 at 7 p.m. in the Bandshell.

County residents are asked to get involved by bringing items they think would make appropriate Liar's Club material to the fair office on Dean Street.

For each item selected to be used in the show, a free ticket will be given for the Bobby Goldsboro Show.

So start scrounging around in your basements and attics and see if you can't win yourself a free ticket and the honor of contributing to a show where our own Lenawee County Circuit, District and Probate Judges will provide fair goers with an hilarious time.

6 Area Students Attend Girls State

Six students from the Tecumseh area participated in the 29th American Legion Auxiliary Girls State Program held June 16-24 on the Olivet College Campus in Olivet.

The six participants are Joann Squires, Julie Clark, Lisa M. Smith, Sandy Judkins, Janine Marie Bakucz, and Darlene Sue Williams.

Joann Squires of Britton is active in F.A.A., student council, and N.H.S. at Britton-Macon Area School. She resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Squires of 8447 Ridge Road.

Ms. Squires was elected to the city council during her stay at Girls State.

Julie Clark of Tecumseh is active in the student council and Pep Club at Tecumseh High School. She resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Clark of 2813 Heritage Dr.

Ms. Clark was elected to the director of parks and recreation during her stay at Girls State.

Lisa M. Smith of Tecumseh is active in gymnastics, student council, N.H.S., and is on the yearbook staff at Tecumseh High School. She resides with her parents, John and Eva Smith of 6876 Plantation Dr.

Ms. Smith was elected to the county board of commissioners during her stay at Girls State.

Sandy Judkins of Britton is active in baseball, volleyball, and softball at Britton-Macon Area High School. She resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Judkins, at 10423 Pocklington Road.

Ms. Judkins was appointed director of parks and recreation during her stay at Girls State.

Janine Marie Bakucz of 6885 Coach Lite Dr. and Darlene Sue Williams of 2505 Russell Road, Tecumseh, also participated.

Upon arrival at Girls State, each girl is assigned to a mythical political party, a county and a city. The citizens nominate, elect and appoint girls to various city, county and state offices.

Girls State is designed to emphasize the importance of government through actual participation in the political and governmental process.

Sesquicentennial for Macon

by Phyllis Thomas

Since 1979 is Macon's Sesquicentennial Year, in this and further issues this correspondent will give a little of the history of the township and its people. Most of the information will come from the Album of Lenawee County, the 1888 issue. Some will be from private papers saved by the various families.

(Quote - with some deletions)

J.F. Gilmore. No man whose name appears in the "Biographical Album of Lenawee County" is more worthy of representation...than the subject of this sketch, who is serving as Supervisor of Macon Township.

He is a native of this State...born in York Township, Washtenaw County, April 17, 1841, and came with his father in the spring of 1857, settling on a good farm of 110 acres, desirably located on section 15.

He comes of an excellent family, being the son of Lyman Gilmore, who was born in Vermont and was of a New England ancestry for several generations.

Lyman removed with his parents to Steuben County, N.Y. during its early settlement, and there he remained until 1832.

His father, Robert Gilmore, now determined to proceed still further westward, and accordingly made his way to the Territory of Michigan, settling in the woods of York Township, Washtenaw County.

The first day's work which Lyman did upon his arrival was for their nearest neighbor, six miles distant, and for which service, instead of being paid in hard cash, was given a water jug.

To this, however, he did not in the least object, as it was something which was needed in the family, and which the father of our subject used for many a day afterward.

Robert Gilmore, the paternal grandfather of our subject, upon coming to Michigan, purchased eighty acres of Government land, and had the honor of being the first man to secure a home from Uncle Sam in York Township, Washtenaw Co.

Lyman Gilmore...returned to the Empire State and was married to one of this childhood friends, Miss Almeda Herendeen...They had four children: Mary, now the widow of Dr. N.A. Darling, who died of blood poisoning contracted in the dissecting room of his Alma Mater, the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor; Jane, married to William Ambrose; Edwin, who died at nine years of age; and J.F. Gilmore.

He served in the Civil War, was honorably discharged and in January, 1867 was united in marriage to Miss Julia A. Bradley of Monroe County.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore are the parents of the following children, all at home excepting Frank, who is attending school in Tecumseh: Clarence, Frank, Lulu, Alta, Julia E. and Ray.

Mr. Gilmore takes an active interest in local politics, and has been a life-long Republican. He was first elected as supervisor in 1884.

He also served as township clerk and treasurer, discharging the duties of his various offices in a manner creditable to himself and satisfactory to all concerned." End of sketch: further notes on the family:

Ray settled on the family farm, married Rose Collins of Macon Township and had two sons, Herbert and Millard.

Herbert married Beatrice Cross, worked the farm and became the parents of Rosemary and Wesley. Rosemary taught school (in fact, was this correspoondant's 7th and 8th grade teacher in the Hammond School District of Saline-a one-room country school) and is currently 4th grade teacher in the Britton-Macon School. She was married to Stewart Niblack and is the mother of three children, Wm. Scott, Denise and Shawn. Wesley married Eileen Carrothers and they have three children, also: Carolyn, Steve and Mark.

All live east of Macon, with Rosemary living on the Centennial Homestead. Ray died several years ago, still serving in Macon's government and Millard is a resident of Tecumseh, known by most of the downtown people.

Macon News

MACON — Mills and Verna Swick hosted a family dinner Sunday for 18 people.

Those present were Verna's sons and families, Jack and Margarita Meyers, Michael and Eugene from Orange Park, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Meyers of Jackson; grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Long and Ryan of Scotts, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Judd and Jim of Tecumseh and Verna's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt of Britton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meyers are in Michigan visiting for a while, returning to Florida Thursday.

Saturday, July 21 marked the arrival of Brian Keith Kuder, son of Harold, Jr. and Linda Kuder. His weight was 7 lbs. 8 oz.; grandparents are Harold, Sr. and Lina Kuder of Saline.

Fog Cause of Collision

CLINTON — Clinton State Police investigated a minor rear end collision on M-52 just south of US-12, at 7 a.m. July 27.

Jerome L. Epstein, 45, of Ann Arbor, told officers he was driving in thick fog, watching the centerline, and did not see the vehicle stopped in front of him, which was driven by Michael Shourds, 30, of 1103 Shady Lane, Tecumseh.

There were no injuries or charge in the mishap.

Receives Degree

CLINTON — Donna L. Freeburn, a former Clinton resident, recently graduated from Michigan State University with a degree in elementary education with an emphasis on deaf education.

Ms. Freeburn will move to Fort Valley, Ga. where she will teach hearing impaired children.

Andersons Have Girl

CLINTON — A daughter, Christa Jo, was born July 24 to Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Anderson of Dundee. There is a big brother, John, two years old, at home.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Herkey of Dundee and Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Anderson, E. Church St. Clinton.

Macon Methodist Calendar

Aug. 11 — Work day at the Parsonage, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Help is needed all day on the following projects: renail all siding, caulk all windows and apply the sealer to the siding.

Tools that will be needed are paint brushes, hammers, nail aprons, ladders and caulking guns. A picnic dinner will be held at noon for all workers.

Volunteers are needed to help choose the colors for paint on the church classroom walls. If you are interested, please contact Hallie Jane Mehler as soon as possible.

Shamrocks Meet

CLINTON - Shamrock Senior citizens will meet Aug. 2 at the Smith Kimball Community Center beginning at 10 a.m. for cards, crafts and games. At noon, there will be a birthday potluck and afterward, Liz Mackie and John Norcross will present "This is my life."

Good Words for America

by Kathy Brown

Gary Lovett of Tecumseh is way ahead of President Jimmy Carter's request to "say something good about our country."

Over the past three years, the Tecumseh High School political science teacher has developed summer seminars in Washington D. C. and New York City for teachers.

According to Lovett, the week long intensive seminars build patriotism in teachers so that they can foster it in their students.

Each participant becomes a resource of enthusiasm and pride in America's national heritage and system, Lovett explained.

Entitled the American Heritage Series, the graduate courses are designed to help teachers upgrade their skills and knowledge in teaching about American society and related courses.

The seminars provide an expanded understanding of the major role these cities play in the American business and government systems.

Conducted under the auspices of Adrian College, the program is partially funded by a private grant.

The classes have attracted a cross-section of teachers from elementary grade and high school levels. Thirty-six teachers, the majority from Lenawee County, have gone through the program in two years. Lovett estimated "about 2,800 students will be touched by the program by 1980."

Each teacher is required to design a unit of study usable in his or her classroom. Thirty-six slide presentations were also developed, suitable for classroom or service organization programs.

Each program is different, from one that shows careers in business to one that explains Roman and Greek influence on the art and architecture in federal buildings.

Furthermore, as a result of the fellowship provided by the course, one school coordinated its programs in American Heritage for grades on through eight.

The participating teachers may in turn be utilized by their schools as in-service speakers to assist their colleagues in developing and coordinating American heritage studies.

The possibilities are exciting to Lovett. He said he now has demand to continue the seminars and possibly expand them.

Lovett firmly believes that first hand experience by the teacher can create excitement in the classroom.

"When you develop in the teacher a first hand sense of pride and enthusiasm for the quality of our American culture, government and history, it can't help but spill out onto their students."

"I've seen this happen with my own students. When I'm enthusiastic, they're enthusiasm grows. When I talk about the New York Stock Exchange, I can talk with enthusiasm if I've been there," Lovett said.

The American Heritage seminar is a highly concentrated week of activity with 18 hour days that provide detailed insights into the operations of such institutions as Wall Street or the CIA. There are also cultural opportunities such as visits to the Smithsonian in Washington or a Broadway play or art galleries in New York.

Lovett, who has visited both cities numerous times, personally conducts the tours.

What a tourist normally covers in one day, Lovett covers in a few hours.

Participants from Tecumseh this year were Ruth Prettyman and Frank Graham, business department instructors at the high school and Sue Ellis.

JOHN VAN VALKENBURG

Valkenburg Receives Commendation

EN3 John Van Valkenburg has been on a European cruise on a U.S. Minesweeper, the Illusive with a NATO squadron. He has been in seven different countries and over 20 differient ports.

At an award ceremony at the pier side in Roto, Spain, John was one of the 15 men who received a letter of commendation for the outstanding work done during this deployment.

He will return to Charleston, S.C. Aug. 6 after a year's tour, and the families are asked to come down to surprise the men. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Van Valkenburg, 115 S. Maumee.

John is a 1977 graduate of Tecumseh High School.

BACK AT PIONEER PARK — Mildred Saksewski of the historical society stands beside one of the historical fences located at Pioneer Park on North Evans. The fences were preserved as a project by the Tecumseh Area Historical Society in cooperation with the city and community. A similar fence was restored at Brookside Cemetery. (PHOTO BY KATHY BROWN)

Historical Society Honors Beardsley, Views Fence

About 31 persons made the Pat Connors guided bicycle tour of historic Tecumseh Sunday, July 15, sponsored by the Tecumseh Area Historical Society.

As many persons later joined the festivities at Pioneer Park to honor Jim Beardsley, one of the founders of the historical society and donor of local history films and documents.

Eighteen of the bicycle tourists rode cycles, some with young cildren strapped to rear fender seats. Three cars carried about 10 other persons.

One of the highlights of the bike tour was viewing the newly refurbished fences at the park and at Brookside Cemetery.

Ralph Sherman of Shamrock Sandblasting and John Kosirnik of Hay Creek Blacksmith Shop in Clinton collaborated on the masterful restoration. The $3,800 job was financed through community effort in cooperation with the historical society.

The city of Tecumseh contributed $800 toward the restoration work. Private contributions amounted to $650. The Tecumseh Area Historical Society paid $2,000 from its proceeds from Promenade the Past and $350 raised through its March 1979 antique show at the community center.

Millie Saksewski of 508 W. Chicago Blvd. is the historical society member that suggested the project.

"I'm glad it was done," she told the Herald recently. "So many people worked so hard for it."

Mrs. Saksewski noticed that the fence was deteriorating as she passed it while walking to church. "I noticed the medalions that were twisted and bent. One section of the fence was in Evans Creek, I thought it was a shame."

"They (the craftsmen) did such a good job with it. I think it was worthwhile.

Three Tecumseh area residents were named to the Board of Associates, a new group of advisors for Adrian College. The new organization, named by President Donald S. Stanton, will meet periodically to develop better communication between leaders at the college and various people concerned about Adrian's educational programs, goals and philosophy.

Tecumseh area residents named include Don Fruitt, plant manager of Chevrolet Motor Division, Adrian; Henry Newlin, attorney, Tecumseh; and Robert Sage, president of the Sage Foundation, Tecumseh.

She looks like a seaworthy little craft and soon Tim and his father will put her to the test. They will discover whether she is properly balanced, whether her sails are straight, whether she will take to the water proudly, or flounder and capsize.

A boat has to be right, and she has to be ready. So do we, as individuals. We need good guidelines, a right sense of direction, and the church of our choice can help us toward finding both.

The Church, remember, has been "ready" for a long, long time.

Hamden- Webster - Shroud Reunion Held

Fifty-one family members were present for a potluck dinner at Bachmeyer Park in Blissfield July 8th for their 12th reunion.

Events of the past year were presented and discussed, pictured of past members and previous reunions were shown.

Gifts were presented to Homer Webster of Constantine for traveling the farthest to be present; LeAnn Charland, six months old, youngest member present; Linnie and Arthur Shutte, oldest couple present; Harvey Hamden - 84, and Charles Shourds - 81, oldest family members present.

A variety of games and bingo were played throughout the afternoon. A family history of the three families being compiled by Mrs. Lloyd Stites was updated.

New officers elected for 1980 are LaVern C. Stites, presdient; Thomas R. Ruff, vice-president; Diana Ruff, secretary; James Hargrave, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hamden and family of Petersburg were appointed to the games committee and Lloyd and Margaret Stites of Tecumseh were appointed to the gift committee.

The 1980 reunion will be July 13, 1980 at Bachmeyer park with Verne and Jane Stites making the arrangements for a potluck dinner at 12:30 p.m.

Communion Service Held

A mid-summer Communion service will be held in the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church Aug. 5 at 9:30 a.m.

Participants will be Dee Colson, reader; Cindy Wright, soloist; Sandy Dunn, organist. "What is compassion"? is the sermon-topic.

After the service, in a private ceremony Elyse Marie, infant daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Peterson of Frostburg, Md., will be baptized. In absence of godparents, Professor and Mrs. Ralph Peterson will present the baby for baptism.

Frontier Show at Walker

The sixth annual "Frontier Entertainment in Michigan" festival will be presented Aug. 4-5 from 1 to 5 p.m., each afternoon at historic Walker Tavern in Cambridge State Historic Park at Cambridge Junction.

Highlighting the two days of historical fun will be a group of fiddlers and dulcimer players who play the authentic folk music of the American frontier.

Other features include folk dancing, a quilting bee, rug hooking, silhouette painting, theorem painting, and children's games popular in the 19th century.

Historic Walker Tavern, built in the late 1830's features period rooms showing the parlor and barroom and exhibits on Sylvester and Lucy Walker who operated the tavern as a stagecoach stop on the old Detroit-Chicago road.

A visitor's center has been opened with an audio-visual presentation on the history of the Detroit-Chicago Road and an expanded series of exhibits on the settlement of Michigan's southern frontier.

The Tavern is located at the intersection of U.S. 12 and M-50 in Lenawee County. It is accessible via Cambridge State Historic Park, through the entrance located on M-50, one quarter mile north of U.S. 12. There is no admission charge.

YOUNG PLAYERS DREAM — While a large crowd enjoyed Tecumseh's sidewalk sale recently, Chad Swift, left, joined many area children and adults that Friday to get Mickey Stanley's autograph. Mickey, right, filled many young and old ballplayers dreams by signing baseballs, gloves, and even some tennis shoes. The Tiger superstar was on hand from 1-3 p.m. as part of a George Underwood Ford, Erb Chevrolet promotion tent sale at the Tecumseh Nazarene Church on W. Chicago Blvd. The GM, Ford promotion was reportedly the first and largest combined transportation sale in the county.

On July 8, 1979 the Tecumseh Shawnee Marchers completed another season of competition marching.

If it wasn't for the help of many fine people this season, it could not have happened.

We would like to thank Joan Roberts for organizing the sewing of our new flags and other accessories. With the help of Eileen Reamsnyder, Lucy Smith, Nancy Pape and Sherri Hand, Mrs. Roberts put together a flag which brought us many compliments.

The Band Boosters planned a competition here in Tecumseh. Through the help of Bob Bagdon, Howard Furry, Wilma Silberhorn, Barb McCann, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barritt and Betty German, the show should have been a success, but the weather didn't cooperate.

We would also like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allen for the use of their pick-up on our trips.

The chaperones of our trips should not be overlooked for their dedication to the program.

They were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dehring, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Slick, Priscilla Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pape and Wilma Silberhorn.

Letter to the Editor:

This summer, has seen a continued growth in Tecumseh baseball. For the second year in a row, Tecumseh McDonalds won the Lenawee County Senior Boys League.

The league is made up of 16-17 year old young men from all over Lenawee County. They come from Blissfield, Hudson, Sand Creek, Adrian, Adrian Madison and Tecumseh High Schools.

Our young men have shown great pride in their accomplishment, of being League Champs with a record of 10-2, and two ties caused by a time curfew.

All the games were played at Riverside Park in Adrian. This field is laid out to the same dimensions of Tiger Stadium. Playing double headers every week since school has been out, our young men played hard with extra effort to keep their togetherness!

The Tecumseh team is made up of 18 of the finest young men in our community. "We" the image of Tecumseh baseball was carried out by the whole team this season. The team had no superstars, just a group of "Doers" and no matter what the challenge the "We" image came through.

I am proud to have been part of a rewarding fulfillment like this. I thank all the moms and dads who supported us faithfully all season.

Most of all, I wish to thank each and every young man who played on this team for you have shown that not all 16 and 17 year old young men are involved in wrong doing or trouble, but that "We", the majority are still the silent, but best group.

Thank you, 'Tecumseh McDonald's' for sponsoring our team and hello Tecumseh Baseball is Back!!

Thank You

Dear Mr. Lincoln:

Many of us wondered what happened to the 3 million men who served in the Civilain Conservation Corps from 1933 to 1942. So . . . last summer, some 500 former members of the CCC, from 39 states, met at the VFW Hall, in West Sacramento, Calif., and organized the National Association of Civilian Conservation Corps Alumni. (NACCCA).

Anyone who served in the CCC, in any capacity, is eligible to join NACCCA. For details please write me. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Jack Vincent

GROUND REHEARSALS — World championship jump teams practice their maneuvers on ground before executing them in the air after leaving the big Skyvan, seen here just prior to another trip above Tecumseh. Jumping Exhibition Friday

A parachuting exhibition will be held Friday from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. at Al Meyers Airport, weather permitting.

Show is in acknowledgement for donations received from the community, particularly the $250 from the Tecumseh Area Chamber of Commerce and the $100 donation from Tecumseh Parachuting Service, Inc.

The chamber donated its profits from last year's drawing for training expenses of the United States Parachuting Team, which has been training at Al Meyers Airport this past week for the world sport parachute championships in Chateau Roux, France, later this month.

The Tecumseh Area Chamber of Commerce will accept donations during the month of August on behalf of the U.S. Parachuting Team.

Anyone interested in supporting the team may send their check, made out to the United States Parachuting Team, directly to the Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 265, or to United Savings Bank, 101 W. Chicago Blvd.

Tecumseh businesses have had a noticeable increase in business this past week, attributable to parachutists training for the international championships at Al Meyers Airport, the Herald was told in a hasty survey of downtown businesses.

Meanwhile, not everyone is happy about the increased activity at the airport. Ray Puffer of Tecumseh told City Council Monday night he was concerened about the increase in noises due to "power dives" of the Sky Van special training aircraft and the possibility of an air accident over the city.

Puffer stated he did not object to "regular air traffic" but objected to the "parachute jumping every day in summer." "Are we going to have to put up with this the rest of our lives?" Puffer questioned.

A couple of Council members and the city manager received calls related to use of city fire-rescue to aid parachutists stranded in trees.

Council member Carlton Cook volunteered to speak to Harold Lange, owner of Parachuting Service relative to the citizens concerns.

Judy Lange at Parachuting Service commented that fire-rescue calls for the stranded parachutists were not made by the local business.

"I'm the official that does that and we did not make those calls. They were probably made by a local, concerned resident who wanted to help out," she stated.

Regarding the Sky Van flight pattern, she said the craft is "turning in much quicker" to avoid a pass over town as of Tuesday.

Jump Teams Work Hard in Training for World Title

by Deane Erts

The landing field lies green and serene under the hot August sun, the sporadic clicking of billiard balls wafts gently from the jumper's "ready room" where the next team awaits its time aloft. The unclouded blue canopy of sky is suddenly interrupted by eight bursts of color that appear to bloom miracuously overhead and glide to earth with the ease and grace of thistledown.

This scene has been repeated many times daily at Al Meyers airport this week as the American, Canadian and British skydiving teams practice for the World Team Parachuting finals which will be held in France from August 22 to September 3.

The center of operations for the practice sessions is Harold Lange's Tecumseh Parachuting Service. It is from this point that each team departs together aboard the Skyvan and to this point that each team member returns after executing the aerial maneuver.

While on the ground the teams alternately practice their routines, lounge about in the sun and join in the marathon billiard game in the Parachuting Services headquarters.

The ground practice, or "dirt diving" as it is called, is crucial to the teams' performances in the air. Every member must know every move without a second thought, for a miscue during free fall causes precious seconds to be lost.

Teams are judged on the number of formations they can execute in a specified time during freefall. Each country is represented by two teams, an eight-man team and a four-man team. The eight-man teams have fifty seconds in which to perform, and the four-man teams have thirty-five seconds. After performing, the members separate and pull their rip cords. Although they are not rated for the accuracy of their return, the chutists demonstrate an uncanny ability to return to earth with pinpoint accuracy and the aplomb of an angel.

One point is designated for each formation. The average number of formations achieved is between five and seven. At the last world competition the American team set a new world record of ten points for ten executed formations, bettering the former record set by a German team by two points.

There are over a dozen different formations possible with names that generally reflect the shape of their namesake - snowflake, diamond, donut, etc., and all requiring carefully choreographed transitional moves.

World class skydivers as a rule are a rather freewheeling lot. When pressed for details regarding their training regimen, they are likely to confess to a good deal of partying and irregular hours.

Despite this consideration, on the whole they appear extremely fit, and it is unanimously agreed that fitness is an asset not only for the obvious athletic requirements

Supervisor Explains Reasons for Hiring Township Assessor

In a statement received Monday from Robert D. Moore, the Raisin Township supervisor has explained his position in employing a certified assessor to handle the township's 1979 tax assessment rolls.

Some township residents have charged Moore with not assuming all of the duties of a supervisor and have been critical of his hiring Lynn C. Hedges, a certified assessor with a level three certificate. She also is an employee of the City of Ann Arbor.

Moore, along with Marjorie Comfort, township clerk, and Dr. Robert Murray, trustee, face a township recall vote on Aug. 21.

In the supervisor's statement, he says the preparation of assessment rolls by professionals is long overdue. He cites the rapid residential growth of the township and its changing complexity from rural to urban.

In comparing his position today with that of Jim Mitchell, long time Raisin Township supervisor, Moore said that Mitchell could do the "rolls with the back of his hand. He had lived with them that long."

Moore, who was encouraged to run for supervisor by the late Jim Mitchell, says rapid growth in the township now warrants professional guidance. He says that he's not ducking responsibilities, but attempting to bring Raisin Township into the same category that many other townships are currently in — and that's employing professional assessors.

Hedges' report on Raisin Township will be presented at the board's meeting next week.

Segments of her findings, according to Moore, are:

Weak assessment administration, some property omitted in the past and not on the rolls until 1979.

Unfinished record keeping and field work in 1977 and 1978, that resulted in 1,200-man hours to complete the 1979 rolls.

An omission of over $900,000 of property from the 1978 assessment rolls. This has been added to the 1979 rolls and means a total tax revenue gain for the township of $18,400.

An additional $100,000 in personal property values also were added to the 1979 rolls because of past errors or low statements from taxpayers.

Errors, under assessments and omitted properties total $2,027,000, or in tax revenue, $41,400.

These descrepancies coupled with appraised valuations and new construction for 1978 will increase the township's tax revenue by $85,700 for 1979.

Without complete record cards, the township is in a weak position to defend an assessment before the Board of Review or before the Michigan Tax Tribunal.

In summation of the report, Moore says:

"I believe the Hedges report underscores the need for separation of the supervisory and assessor functions in Raisin Township. To say that $41,400 was lost in the township in 1978 would be a misstatement, since we never had it. To say we gained thousands in new revenues, which were otherwise overlooked in the past, is a more accurate statement."

Four Injured in Accidents

Four persons were injured here the past week in traffic accidents on Tecumseh streets. Police cited five drivers for violations.

Saturday, Edna F. Maynard, 58, of 302 W Kilbuck, was charged with failure to yield after she pulled out of Patterson St. and into the path of a motorcycle driven by Jacklyn S. Newsom, 27, of Tipton, on S. Evans.

According to the police report, Maynard stopped for other traffic and apparently did not see the approaching motorcycle. Newson suffered a factured arm, three ribs and possible internal injuries. She was taken to Bixby Hospital.

Karlene I. Fogelson, 35, Adrian, ran a stop sign on W. Logan at N. Ottawa and was struck by a car driven by Amy Jo Costello, 16, of 4545 Green Hwy. Fogelson, cited for failure to yield, was taken to Herrick Hospital for treatment.

Miss Costello sought her own treatment.

In a third personal injury mishap, Daniel W. Miller, 17, Britton, ran a traffic light Thursday on W. Chicago Blvd. at Occidental and struck Mossie I. Kleinschmidt, 70, of 919 N. Occidental Rd.

She was taken to Herrick Hospital for treatment by her husband. Miller was charged with failure to stop within an assured clear distance.

Other accidents were:

Aug. 2 — Randy L. Kane, 17, Tipton was cited for improper lane usage after an accident with John A. Brunett, 66, of 1003 Murray Dr., on W. Chicago at Union St.

Aug. 2 — Timothy R. Viers, 26, Blissfield, was cited for improper backing. He backed his truck into a car driven by Ruth I. VanVleet, 65, of 7306 E. Monroe Rd., on S. Ottawa St.

Chamber Sets Dues Structure

Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce set a new dues structure at its Aug. 2 meeting to try and be more equitable for the small business.

Retail and service businesses will pay $60; financial institutions and industries with 50 or less employees will pay $125 and industries with more than 50 employees will pay $250 in dues.

A new category, associate membership, was created. For $25, a retiree, sole employed or people not in business may become a chamber booster.

The chamber's board president will appoint a director to represent the associate members, but that appointee will not have voting powers.

In other action, Mike Volpi of Gaston's Jewelry was unanimously appointed to serve the unexpired term of Henry Newlin, who resigned from the board.

Holding Court at City Hall

As soon as the arrangements are complete, a magistrate will hear contested traffic violations for Tecumseh, Clinton and Britton areas in Tecumseh city hall.

City Council approved use of the city hall twice monthly for two half days during Monday night's council meeting.

The decison will save the city some travel and court time for officers.

Chamber Meeting

Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce will meet Aug. 16 at 7:30 a.m. at Don's Contented Sole to discuss the Christmas and Moonlight Madness events.

7-Member Board Will Manage City Auditorium

A debate on the powers of a proposed board to manage Tecumseh's gift of a civic center took up the major portion of Tecumseh City Council's meeting Monday night.

The proposed board will consist of seven members, all residents of the city. They will be appointed by the Tecumseh City Council for full terms of three years.

Initially, two members will be appointed for one year terms and two for two year terms so that the terms do not expire in the same year, assuring some continuity.

Membership will be named by council with one member each from Tecumseh City Council, Tecumseh School Board, Tecumseh Players Theater Group and four members from the city at large.

Members may be reappointed to serve no more than two full terms.

Speaking about the board's composition, Assistant City Manager Paul Preston stated, "I think that this would be the kind of board people would want to serve on, one you'd get fresh ideas from."

Council member Jay Tressler questioned whether the city charter enabled the council to create a board with more than advisory powers. In particular, he cited the proposed board's ability to hire and fire a manager.

The question of charter revision by amendment surfaced again. Foreseeing a possible violation of the city charter in the creation of such a board, Tressler said, "If there's any doubt, I'd just as soon go for a charter amendment and include this board."

City Attorney Greg Forsthoefel seemed convinced that there would be no charter violation. He said its powers were modeled after the Tecumseh Hospital Board which was created in like manner by city ordinance.

About the hiring and firing powers of the board, Mayor Aden Mead suggested adding "with the advice and consent of Tecumseh City Council."

"It seems to me we should have some input on this thing," said Mead.

Other council members pointed out that giving the board less power might render it impotent in managing the civic center.

"I think it gets down to who you're going to appoint for that board," advised attorney Forsthoefel.

Preston pointed out council's control over the budget as another safeguard.

Other questions by council regarded the $5,000 limit of expenditures the board would be allowed without council approval.

Currently, Tecumseh City Council is limited by charter to seek bids on services over $500. However, such a limit may be unrealistic for the civic center board if it had to advance several thousand dollars as a guarantee for a name performer, stated Preston. This section will be studied further by attorney and assistant city manager.

Council also stipulated the board will meet once a month, unless otherwise specified by Tecumseh City Council.

In a related matter, Council authorized the city manager to invest the $600,000 funds for the civic center, made an anonymous gift to the city by a foundation in March.

Hearing Sept. 17th

A public hearing is scheduled for Sept. 17 at 8 p.m. at Tecumseh City Hall, to hear comments on rezoning the corner property at Herrick Park and North Evans to allow drive-in type restaurants, thus making the Frosty Boy a conforming use on that corner.

TWO INJURED — Two people were injured when westbound driver Karlene Fogelsong, 35, of Adrian failed to yield at a stop sign on E. Logan and collided with northbound Amy Jo Costello, 16, of Green Hwy., according to Tecumseh Police reports. Fogelsong was cited for failure to yield. Costello's truck jumped the curb and nearly clipped the apartment buildings at 201 N. Ottawa. (PHOTO BY KATHY BROWN)

Thefts, Arrest Made

Although most complaints routine, a couple involved handled the past week by theft. In once case, two youths Tecumseh police were were arrested and in the other, a suspect is under investigation.

Monday night, James J. Heiden, 17, of 12650 Monroe Rd., and Paul R. Albring, 17, of 10592 Pocklington Rd., were arrested near the Town and Country Apartments, S. Occidental Rd., after a tenant there observed them going through cars in a parking lot there.

Police arrived and arrested Albring at the scene. Heiden ran but was apprehended shortly afterwards by two State Police troopers. Both have been charged with larceny and Albring also with possession of marijuana.

Last Thursday, police questioned a suspect in the Russell Square Apartment area and found a radio had been taken from a car owned by Victoria Rodriquez, Adrian. Two other vehicles there had been entered, and in one another radio had been tampered with.

Resume of other complaints is:

Aug 1 - Dennis Irelan, 209 E. Patterson, reported four batteries stolen at the Tecumseh Auto Sales. Three of the batteries were later found on the property.

Aug. 2 - Laura Akens, 1101 Murray Dr., reported a bicycle stolen.

Aug. 3 - Stanley R. Stevens, 34, Adrian was cited for drunk driving after erratic driving on N. Evans St.

Aug. 3 - Donald J. Menominee, 22, of 416 W. Logan, was cited for open alcohol in a vehicle.

Aug. 3 - Todd Miller, Russell Square Apartments, reported a bike stolen.

Aug. 4 - Michael A. Barrett, 20, of 601 Brook St., was observed speeding on N. Evans St. He was stopped and charged with driving while license suspended.

Aug. 4 - A plastic plate was pried off a dollar bill changer at the Sudsy-Duz-It car wash.

Aug. 5 - Steven P. Capetillo, 24, Adrian, was cited for open alcohol in a vehicle.

RUSSELL O. SCHULTZ

Services are Saturday, 1 p.m. at Grace United Methodist Church in Britton for Russell O. Schultz, 65. He died Aug. 7 in a chain saw accident at Grand Marais.

He was born April 8, 1914 in Dearborn to August J. and Mary Schultz.

Mr. Schultz served as a Raisin Township board trustee for several years. He moved to that township in 1948 and farmed there for 20 years before retiring to Grand Marais.

He and his wife built a home there a year ago in October. He married the former Eleanor V. Ackley June 16, 1939. They marked their 40th wedding anniversary this year. She survives. She taught school in Tecumseh.

Survivors are his mother, Mary Schultz of Plymouth; two daughters, Mrs. Don (Kay E.) Dobrosky of Tecumseh and Judith L. Eaton of Sparta; seven grandchildren; three brothers, Elmer of Tecumseh, Roy of Plymouth and Melvin of Rochester, N.Y.; two sisters, Estella Heidt of Ann Arbor and Ester Balko of Greenville.

Mr. Schultz was preceded in death by one brother, one grandson and his father.

Visitation will be at the Spencer Funeral Home in Britton from 3 p.m. Thursday until 9 p.m. Friday and again after 9 a.m. Saturday at the church.

MERL E. CROSS

Sister City Invites All to Corn Festival

You can have an international mini-vacation in Tecumseh this year — in Tecumseh, Ontario, Canada, that is.

Tecumseh, Mich. residents are invited to join their Canadian neighbors for that city's fifth annual Tecumseh Corn Festival Aug. 24,25 and 26.

Anyone interested in attending may join the convoy that will leave the Tecumseh Community center at 7 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 25. Or they may strike out on their own.

Ward Eardley, director of Tecumseh (Mich.) Parks and Recreation said that there are three routes folks may travel to the Ontario city once on Canadian shores.

Usual route is I-94 to the Ambassador Bridge or Detroit-Windsor tunnel then drive east to Tecumseh via either Riverside Drive for a leisurely, scenic route along the Detroit River for a view of Detroit's Renaissance; or follow Tecumseh Rd. or take Queens Hwy.

The Tecumseh Mich. Parks and Recreation Department has selected seven teams to go to the corn festival for some good old fashioned baseball games. They will begin at 1 p.m. and continue through 8 p.m. Saturday. A final game will be played Sunday at 2 p.m.

Ball players are responsible for their own transportation.

Teams participating are the Royals and Orioles of the minors; J.C.'s and UPW of the majors and Gaston's VFW and Ottawa Machine of the pony teams. About 120 Michigan youth and their coaches are hoping to make the trip.

Besides plenty of hot, buttered corn on the cob, visitors can expect a variety of refreshments or may plan a picnic.

Center of activities will be Lacasse Park. As long as the park is open, there will be a carnival, LaBatt's Air balloon, arts and crafts, games, souvenirs, a garage sale and bingo.

Friday night will be a beauty contest and dancing. park opens at 6 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Saturday offers a parade beginning at 11 a.m., starting from St. Annes High School, north on Shawnee St., east on Tecumseh, north on Lesperance and east on Clapp St. to the park.

Park opens Saturday from noon to 1 a.m. Saturday with ethnic dancing, fire fighters contest, all day horse show, skydiving and dancing.

Sunday the park opens at noon with bed races at 2 p.m. Pony pull follows and dancing and entertainment will be featured until the park closes at 8 p.m.

Proceeds from the weekend will be used for senior citizens, minor sports and Cystic Fibrosis.

Sponsors for the annual event are the Kinsmen Club of Tecumseh, Ontario.

For the campers, camp grounds at Bert Lacasse Center will be provided on a first come, first serve basis. No hydro (electricity) or water will be provided. The area is not a camp grounds, only a temporary service provided by the Tecumseh, Ont. neighbors for this occasion. There is a swimming pool in the park.

There are motels and hotels in and around the Windsor area. Reservations are suggested.

Tecumseh, Ontario is 90 minutes from Tecumseh, Mich. It is recommended that visitors bring proof of U.S. citizenship for crossing into Canada.

Science Receives Grant

Siena Heights College has received a $110,000 grant from a local foundation for the start of the new fiscal year, which began July 1, a college official has announced.

Of the grant, $100,000 was designated for the general fund and $10,000 for scholarships.

"This recent grant of $110,000 is appreciated all the more because the giving foundation has once again demonstrated its confidence in the quality of our programs and students," said Siena President Dr. Louis C. Vacarro.

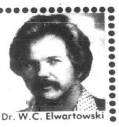
Dear Doctor
News From The Tecumseh Chiropractic Life Center
101 S. Pearl Tecumseh



Dr. W.C. Elwartowski

Dear Doctor,
What are stomach ulcers, and can they be cured?

Ulcers are nothing more than open sores on the lining of the stomach or the upper part of the small intestine.

Pain is, by far, the most common sign of ulcers. This pain may vary from a mild discomfort to a sharp, severe, and sometimes penetrating pain. It generally is of the same type, and recurs in the same location. It tends to maintain a rhythm of recurrence and has a tendency of regular periods of remission and later becomes chronic.

Other symptoms of ulcers include constipation, heartburn, swelling, nausea, vomiting and weight loss.

The science of chiropractic, in most cases of ulcers, provides the safest, surest, and most effective pathway to relief. Skilled chiropractors can locate and correct the cause of the nerve interference which results in lowered resistance in some parts of the body.

The competent hands of the chiropractor can make gentle adjustments to correct vertebral misalignments which result in pressure on the spinal cord and spinal nerves and provide one of the primary factors in the development of peptic ulcers.

For further information on this question, or if you have other related questions, feel free to write Dr. Elwartowski at 101 S. Pearl St., Tecumseh, MI 49286.

"Can we tour your funeral home?"

As professionals dealing with death and bereavement, we funeral directors feel a close kinship with the clergy. We work closely with them before, during and after the funeral services.

It is for this reason we extend an invitation to members of the clergy in Tecumseh to visit with us, view our facilities, and become better acquainted with our funeral home, our staff and directors. It also becomes an opportunity to discuss how we can serve more appropriately your congregation from a religious viewpoint.

This invitation is also extended without reservation to those who professional or personal interests would be served or benefitted by our "open house" visit. Please phone in advance so we can personally spend this time with you.

To further indicate our desire to share our common concern with the clergy, we offer the use of our Library of professional reference books on death and dying. These are likewise available to other interested persons.

Jana Upell and Neal Davis Marry in Alumni Chapel

MRS. NEAL C. DAVIS

Jana L. Upell and Neal C. Davis were married Aug. 4, at the Alumni Memorial Chapel on the campus of Michigan State University, E. Lansing.

Reo Schramm of East Lansing officiated the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald M. Upell of Tecumseh and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel B. Davis of Stow, Ohio.

The organist was Kristy Wiggert, East Lansing.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white Qiana gown with a blouson bodice, pleated skirt and a train accented with scalloped lace at the hem.

On her wide-brimmed hat, she wore a single peach rose with blue stephanotis and baby's breath. Her bouquet was composed of white roses and peach rosebuds with blue stephanotis and baby's breath.

Joan Upell, twin sister of the bride from Kalamazoo, was maid of honor. She wore an ice blue Qiana gown with blouson bodice and full skirt. She carried a long stemmed peach rose accented with blue stephanotis and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Margaret Upell, of East Lansing, sister of the bride, Julie Davis, of Stow, Ohio, the groom's sister; Margaret Lane of Caxton; and Holli Carl of Bloomfield Hills. They were gowned identical to the maid of honor.

Jill Anne Smith, the bride's niece of Tecumseh was junior bridesmaid, wearing a long white sun dress with tiny blue rosebuds, designed by her mother, Mrs. Kay Smith. She carried a small peach rose and wore a peach rosebud in her hair.

Martin Masterson of Lansing served as best man. Groomsmen and ushers were David White of Pontiac; Jim Upell, the bride's brother, of Manitou Beach; Mike Lane of Canton, and Edward Sadilek of Chesaning.

A reception for 125 guests was held at the Michigan State Union in East Lansing. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schwede, the bride's aunt and uncle, were hosts.

Special guests were Mrs. Frances Goldman, the groom's great-aunt of South Carolina and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roth, the groom's sister and family of Minnesota.

The bride is a 1975 Tecumseh graduate. The groom is a 1974 graduate of Ann Arbor Pioneer High School. Both are 1979 MSU graduates with bachelor's degrees in elementary education.

After a wedding trip to Mackinac Island, the couple will move to Cincinnati, Ohio, to teach this fall.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at Alex's in Lansing.

MR. and MRS. JAMES FURGASON

Wedding Nuptials for Miller - Furgason

Marjorie Jean Miller and James Lavern Furgason were married July 27, 7 p.m. at Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Britton.

The Rev. Thomas H. Trapp officiated the ceremony for the daughter of Dora M. Miller of 1251 Evans Lake in Tipton and the late Edward C. Miller and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gaylon Furgason of 9040 Shaw Hwy. in Britton.

Mrs. Wesley Gilmore was organist and Carolyn Gilmore, soloist.

William Skillman, the bride's uncle from Battle Creek, gave the bride in marriage.

Her lace edged veil was held by a small lace cap. She carried a cascade of white daisies, yellow roses and baby's breath.

Marilyn Bartenslager, the bride's sister of Tecumseh, was matron of honor, wearing a yellow sleveless gown with sheer green jacket. She wore baby's breath and yellow daisies in her hair and carried the same flowers with roses in her bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Melodie Marion, the bride's sister of South Bend, Ind.; Sandra Furgason, the groom's sister of Britton; and Melinda Sears, the bride's sister of Tecumseh.

Floyd Miller of Britton was best man. Ushers were Roger Furgason, the groom's brother of Britton; Doug Shiels of Britton and Jerry Hale of Tecumseh.

A reception with buffet and dance was held at the United Products Workers Union Hall.

Cheryl Coury cut cake. Judy Marcus, Carrie Willett and Florence Dvorsky served. Mary Furgason and Luann Miller helped with refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Miller of Tecumseh were hosts.

The bride is a 1973 Clinton graduate. She is a 1977 Grand Valley State College graduate and a reporter at the Daily Telegram.

The groom is a 1974 Britton graduate. He is employed at Peerless Gear and Machine in Clinton.

After a week in Virginia, the couple will reside at 108 W. Pottawatamie, Apt. 2 in Tecumseh.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Country House restaurant.

Bids 'Save' City Money

Tecumseh City Council accepted three bids Monday night. Two came under City Manager Cal Zorn's budget estimates, creating a "savings" to the city of about $9,000.

Bid from Pittsburg Tank and Tower Co. for $12,100 was accepted for painting the interior and exterior of the water tanks. City had a maintenance contract with Pittsburg Tank for the last nine years. Its bid included a four-year guarantee.

Bid of Great Lakes Tank and Steel Inc. at $14,574 was rejected. Manager estimated the work at $15,000 for the 1979-80 budget.

Dave Black Masonry Inc. of Milan received the city's business for tuckpointing and water proofing the brick portion of the Tecumseh Community Center. Milan firm, which has done work for others in the city, bid $6,000 less than cost estimated in city budget.

William H. Kelly Co. of East Lansing bid $21,423 and was rejected by the city.

Low bid of Quinn Concrete Construction in Toledo, Ohio was accepted for sidewalk behind the stores on the N. Ottawa St. parking lot. Cost will be assessed to the owners who have agreed to the assessments from Ken-Ray up to Lawson's.

Quinn bid $2.08 per square foot on 2,421 square feet concrete sidewalk compared with $4 square foot by Doan Construction and local contractor Hauessler and Son Enterprises at $3.88 square foot. Scoring and brick wall will also be done by the company for a total bid won at $6,836.

In a related decision, city agreed to contract with county to prepare summer and winter tax statements for a cost of about $3,000 per year.

City was notified cost of statements have increased from .35 cents to .65 cents for winter statements and from .15 cents to .40 cents for summer statements.

City manager Cal Zorn indicated that other services, such as voter registration records may be available through the county computer system.

Zorn notified Council the city was authorized to spend up to $5,000 toward the cost of meeting barrier-free and health department requirements for the restrooms at the Community Center.

He said the funds must be spent or obligated by Sept. 30 or be returned to the state. Zorn said he will have more information for Council at a future meeting.

Council also authorized the city manager to order city police car for 1980 through the state Michigan Department of Management and Budget.

TECUMSEH MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH CELEBRATES 25th ANNIVERSARY

Missionary Baptist Church Celebrates 25th Anniversary

Tecumseh Missionary Baptist Church will observe its 25th anniversary Aug. 12, reported Pastor James Pope.

The congregation started meeting under the leadership of the Rev. Edgar Owens in the Odd Fellows Hall and later in the Pythian Hall in 1954.

The congregation moved to its present location at the corner of Sunset and Cairns in 1957.

Many improvememtns have been made to the facilities over the years.

The Rev. Pope said that 550 persons have been members of the church over the 25 years, plus 113 persons were members of missions in Dundee, Hillsdale and Ypsilanti that have now become strong congregations.

Special commemorative services are scheduled at 11 a.m. and 1:45 p.m.

The Rev. Damon Patterson from Knoxville, Tenn. and the Rev. Robert Wilson, executive director of the Baptist State Convention of Michigan will speak.

'Think Children' Is Globel Rally

Have any Tecumseh area organizations been motivated to sponsor any programs in celebration or recognition of the International Year of the Child?

Seven months of 1979 have passed, a year designated as the International Year of the Child (IYC) by the United Nations, as a global rally for all to "think children" in one's personal, volunteer and economic life.

While some readers may not agree with the mission of the United Nations, still the goal can be adopted with supportive action for children right in the Tecumseh area.

Such programs might consider enlarging knowledge about attitudes and conditions affecting children or advocacy for children's rights.

In conjunction with the IYC, there was also a declaration of the rights of the child which includes the rights to love and understanding, adequate nutrition and medical care, education, opportunity for recreation, a name and nationality, a right to special care if handicapped, a right to receive relief in times of disaster, to be useful in society and develop abilities, to be brought up in a spirit of peace and brotherhood and to enjoy these rights regardless of race, sex, religion or national or economic origin.

Readers who are acting on projects inspired by the goal of the IYC may contact the Herald.

Deny All Requests

Tecumseh City Council moved that all future requests for city water from Charles Hyatt of Mill Hwy. in Raisin Township be denied.

Council made the decision after hearing a report from City Manager Cal Zorn that Hyatt informed him that at least four property owners would request water connections and taps on Mill Hwy. at $7.20 per front foot water assessment, $250 for the tap and 150 percent of the city water rate.

Hyatt's lone request was denied by council at a July 16 meeting as well.

Most rustproofers won't touch used cars. We rustproof them twice.

Tuff-Kote's exclusive 2-Step System.

At Tuff-Kote, we think we rustproof used cars better than anyone else in the world. That's because we rustproof every used car twice with our exclusive 2-Step System.

Step 1. Penetrant.

Tuff-Kote's unique penetrant creeps down to the bare metal to help stop existing rust. And that's important. Especially in used cars where rust has been forming for some time.

Step 2. Sealant.

Second, Tuff-Kote applies a special sealant. It locks out salt, moisture, and corrosive elements to keep new rust from starting.

Used car warranty.

Tuff-Kote's 2-Step System is so effective at fighting rust, we guarantee our work on most used cars with a 2-year, limited warranty. See your dealer for complete details.

MR. and MRS. PAUL A. TOMAN

Henning and Toman Recite Nuptial Vows

First Presbyterian Church of Tecumseh was the setting for the July 28, 1:30 p.m. wedding of Barbara Jean Henning and Paul Andrew Toman.

The Rev. Edmond Watkins officiated the ceremony for the daughter of Paul and Jean Henning of 909 River Acres Dr. and the son of Bill and Gerri Toman of Muskegon.

Ardath Oberlin was organist. The bride's father surprised her with his singing "Because," before she walked down the aisle.

Yellow and white daisies, carnations and roses decorated the altar.

The nuptials were recited during a worship service. The choir for the service was composed of friends of the couple from InterVarsity Christian Fellowship.

Arlona Toman, the groom's sister, played a piano-organ duet as a prelude. Diane Schulz, the groom's sister, played oboe for the processional music, Handel's Water Music.

The full A-line skirt was tiered and had a chapel length train. The gown was accented with reembroidered Alencon lace trim.

She wore a gold necklace, a gift from her maternal grandparents, and gold earrings, a gift from her parents.

Her double tiered veil with blusher was made by her mother and secured with a crown accented with azalea blossoms.

The bride carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses, daisies, carnations, stephanotis, cathea leaves and baby's breath.

Carol Henning of Tecumseh was her sister's maid of honor wearing a white eyelet A-line princess styled gown made by the bride's mother. The gown was accented with yellow daisies.

She wore a crown of yellow azalea blossoms and carried a basket of daisies and baby's breath, made by the bride's friend, Kathy Morse.

Bridesmaid was Susan Toman, the groom's sister of Muskegon. She was attired as the honor attendant with a crown of white azalea blossoms in her hair.

Craig Utley of Boston, Mass. was best man. Ushers were Bruce Draper of Boston, Mass.; Jim Toman, the groom's brother of Muskegon, Hank Hoelscher of Indianapolis, Ind., the bride's cousin and Mark Soderstrom of Muskegon.

A dessert reception followed the ceremony at the fellowship center of the church.

The groom's aunt Arlona McCallum baked the wedding cake, groom's cake and three doll cakes, decorated as a bride and two bridesmaids. Adah McCallum also assisted with serving.

Assisting at the reception were Adah McCallum, Wendy Fields of Grand Rapids; Gwen DeGraaf of Lansing and Peg Burns of Tecumseh.

Special guests attended from Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Tennessee, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Ohio and the Upper Peninsula.

The bride is a communications graduate from Michigan State University. She was a four-year member of InterVarsity Christian Fellowship.

The groom is now employed at Dart Medical Equipment Co. as a marketing administrator, Lansing. He is a MSU alumnus.

After an extended wedding trip to the Upper Peninsula and Canada, the couple will reside at 724 N. Pennsylvania, #9, Lansing, Mich. 48906.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at Don's Beef Buffet.

Marry at Van Hoosen Hall

CLINTON — Ruth Vincent and James Dombrowski exchanged marriage vows in an afternoon ceremony in Van Hoosen Hall, Michigan State University, East Lansing, the afternoon of July 28.

Pastor Michael Tardy of United Church of Christ, East Lansing officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John F. Vincent of 4567 U.S.-12, Tipton, and Mr. and Mrs. William Dombrowski of Dearborn.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of candlelight Qiana styled with an old English lace vest. She carried a bouquet of long stemmed white roses. Baby's breath adorned her hair.

Bill Dombroski of Detroit, brother of the groom was the best man.

Ushers were the brother of the bride, John Vincent Jr., of Frankfort, Ind., and Brian Becker of Farmington.

The bride attended Michigan State Univesity, where she was employed.

The groom is employed at Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit.

Upon their return from a week at Caseville, the couple will reside in Dearborn.

MR. and MRS. JAMES DOMBROWSKI

The engagement of Melinda Lee Scott to E-4 Robert C. Stevens is announced by her parents, Ssg. and Mrs. Norman D. Scott of Furth, Germany. Melinda's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Scott and Mrs. Goldie M. Smith, all of Tecumseh. An early fall wedding is planned.

Saline Rodeo

Saline Area Jaycees will present their 14th annual Rodeo at Washtenaw Farm Council Grounds, Saline-Ann Arbor Rd., Aug. 10 and 11 at 8 p.m. and Aug. 12 at 2 p.m.

The IRA Championship Rodeo will have top cowboys competing in Brahma bull riding, steer wrestling, girls' barrel race, calf roping.

MR. and MRS. HARRY W. SCHUCH

Couple Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Schuch, 320 W. Patterson, will observe their 50th wedding anniversary, Sunday, Aug. 19 from 1 to 4 p.m. at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Tecumseh.

Harry W. Schuch and Beatrice Jacobs were married in Mt. Pleasant Aug. 31, 1929.

Friends, neighbors and relatives are invited to an open house being given in their honor by their children and grandchildren.

They are the parents of two sons, Robert Schuch of Yosen; Jon Schuch of Germfask; and a daughter, Mrs. David Jedele (Janice) of Tecumseh. They have 18 grandchildren, two step-grandsons, and four great grandchildren.

They have lived in Tecumseh for 49 years, 33 in the present home.

Mr. Schuch was service manager for the former Charles Butler Ford Motor Sales of Tecumseh for 40 years. He retired in 1976 from George Underwood Ford Motor Sales, Clinton.

The couple requests gifts be omitted.

If your brand new car is 'totaled' will your insurance company pay you for a brand new car?

Some insurance companies think a new car is a used car the minute you use it to drive out of the dealership. Not Auto-Owners.

With Auto-Owners, if you have an accident anytime within 90 days and your new car is a total loss, we'll pay you the total cost of your new car. And with Auto-Owners, your new car is covered immediately, automatically, under your previous policy.

So if you're about to get a new car, talk to us at Auto-Owners. Maybe you should get a new insurance company, too.

British, Canadian, American Teams Work Toward World Title of the sport but also for a reason peculiar to this sport alone.

With all due apologies to Mr. da Vinci and his leaning tower of Pisa experiment, two freely falling skydivers of greatly differing weights do not behave in the same manner as two freely falling iron balls of differing weight. In other words, the heavier skydiver tends to fall faster. It is for this reason that it is to a team's advantage to have members of fairly uniform weight.

Most of the 'chutists participate in other athletic pursuits during the off season to maintain muscle tone. Others jog year 'round, and still others, the British in particular, can be seen practicing soccer between flights.

The type of parachute used by all three teams practicing in this area is a type that has evolved from the conventional "umbrella" type. In principle, it works much like the wing of an airplane affording the user maneuverability undreamed of before its development. One of the characteristics inherent in its design is a phenomenon known as lift. This property enables the user to actually gain altitude.

Under normal conditions lift can be used to great advantage but last Saturday it almost proved the undoing of the British team when an unexpected thunderstorm blew into the area. Summer thunderstorms are notorious among pilots and jumpers alike for the freakish and unpredictable winds they can generate.

It was reported that the British team was making its jump as the storm approached. After using the allotted time for "airobatics" the team opened their parachutes at approximately fifteen hundred feet.

They were suddenly struck by an updraft air current and lofted to four thousand feet, an event that might panic a less experienced jumper. The updraft scattered the teammates, but all landed without mishap.

Several of the buffeted jumpers alighted on the country club golf course.

If you have a hankering to tumble out of a plane and see the ground rushing up to meet you at 120 miles per hour or better, then this sport could well be your cup of tea. If you prove that you are particularly adept at it by winning a national championship, then you are well on your way to becoming a member of a world class team.

As for this reporter, I manage enough sprains and contusions in a simple game of frisbee to discourage me from testing my luck in the sky.

US TEAM MEMBER TIM FLORIA FLOATS TO GROUND

Exhibition

A sudden cold front Saturday around 5 p.m. caught several parachuters by surprise and blew them off target, causing them to land as far away as Billmyer Hwy. and resulting in minor injuries.

One of Britian's parachutists, training for the championships, received a sore ankle and arm, according to Harold Lange. Another parachutist, Dale Maddox of Adrian, suffered a broken ankle, said Judy Lange.

She explained that what ordinarily would have been a three-minute jump turned out to be a 10 to 15 minute ride for the parachutists.

Some of the golfers at the Tecumseh Country Club were equally taken by surprise by their aerial visitors.

Because the international teams arrived a week early, not as many parachutists have joined the teams to jump from the Sky Van as were anticipated, Lange commented.

About 60 enthusiasts jumped last weekend. Eighty first time jumpers made their landings with Parchuting Service Saturday and Sunday.

Saltzman Wins Macon Tourney

Adrian's Brad Saltzman captured first place honors Friday after the final round of the Seventh Annual Macon Junior Open at the Macon Golf Club.

Saltzman shot a final round of 74 Friday to better his earlier Wednesday and Thursday scores of 81 and 80. His total 235 bettered second place Scott Rentschler of Saline by four strokes.

Rentschler shot 79-78-82 golf for his 239. Tecumseh's Mike Zettle, who led after the first two round finished in a tie for third with Brad Smith of Britton at 241.

Other finishers in that Championship Flight included Mike Entinger at 249, Greg Kurtz at 255 and Andy Eidson at 257.

Steve Beck took first place in the first flight with a 79 round Friday and three day total of 252. Tim Smith finished Friday at 86 for second place. He carded a 267 for the tournament.

Gary Richardson and Greg Rentschler each posted 269's. Four golfers finished at 271, two at 273 and one at 276. In order, they were Kurt Martek, Paul Dodd, Craig Rudolph and Dean Aleshire.

Tom Heckert took top on second flight honors after shooting a hot 88 Friday. His total of 277 beat second place Chris Hill's score by four strokes. Hill shot a 93 Friday.

Mike Muncie finished at 293. Glen Bruce and Jeff Kimpel tied at 295. They were followed by Kevin Grady with a 301, Christopher Struk at 340, Mike Bucholz at 414 and Christopher Andrews at 437.

Flave Vescelius and Wendy Reum were in charge of the three day tournament.

Dundee in 1st, Airport and Doc's Tied in 2nd

Dundee Products locked up first place and Airport Bowl and Doc's Frame & Axle remain tied for second this week in women's softball.

Dundee shut out DST 9-0 in the first game Monday night. They scored seven runs in the first inning and that's all they needed. DST left 13 runners stranded on the bases which turned out to be the key to the game.

DST outhit Dundee 12-8 with Kim Adams and Mary Jo Griewahn leading the way with two hits apiece.

The second game found Airport Bowl pushing Ives Body Shop out of second place. Airport scored three runs in the first inning to two runs for Ives and held on to win 9-4.

Beth Haines of Airport and Melanie Caggiano of Ives led their respective teams with three hits apiece.

The final game between Doc's Frame & Axle and Jerry's Pub left Doc's tied for second place with Airport.

Jerry's Pub jumped out to an early 2-1 lead, but couldn't hold on in spite of Doc's 15 errors. Jerry's rallied with five runs in the seventh inning but it wasn't enough as they went down 21-14.

Vicki Crafts had four hits including a home run to pace Doc's.

Kidner, Kitson Attend Athletic Training Camp

Wally Kidner and John Kitson, both of Tecumseh, attended athletic training camp at the Grand Valley State College last week.

The camp, co-sponsored by Grand Valley and Cramer Products, is designed to offer high school students a background in first aid, along with preventative wrapping, taping, and care of athletic injuries. The camp prepares students to assist high school coaches in handling athletic injuries.

Coordinator of the camp is Grand Valley's head athletic trainer, Doug Woods, who is assisted by other college trainers from the area. This camp is one of 19 Cramer is sponsoring with colleges throughout the United States this year.

Women's Tourney

Britton coaches and Tory Athletic Boosters are sponsoring a women's slowpitch softball tournament August 17, 18 and 19.

The double elimination tourney for class B, C, and D teams will be held at the Britton athletic fields. There is an entry fee.

Trophies will be awarded to the top three teams and individual trophies go to the first place team members. Each team must furnish one ball per game.

For more information, call Randy Salisbury at 451-8216 or Lori Monagin at 451-8118.

Siena Plans Two Runs

Siena Heights College athletic department will be hosting an end of summer run for boys, girls, men and women Sept. 1 at 11 a.m. at the college.

Distances will be 10,000 and 5,000 meters.

Plaques will be awarded to the top male and female finishers in the following age categories: 12 and under, 13-17, 18-23, 24-29, 30-39, 40-49 and 50 years and older.

A $3.00 registration fee should be in by August 24, but a $5.00 post-entry fee will be accepted until August 31.

For entry forms and further information contact the Siena Heights College athletic department at the Siena Activities Center or by calling (517) 263-0731 Ext. 233.

Return Uniforms

The Recreation Department requests that all baseball uniforms be returned within the next two weeks. All deposits that were paid will be returned when uniforms are turned in.

Adrian Police Eliminates Local Squad

Tecumseh's lone entry in the Adrian Fraternal Order of Police 13 and 14 year old baseball tournement was eliminated Saturday afternoon by the Adrian Police team 13-8.

It was Tecumseh's second loss in the double elimination tournament. They were beaten earlier in the day by tournament favorites ASCO 10-2, but did end up in third place out of 10 teams in the tournament.

Tecumseh drew a bye in the first round, and then won their first game on a forfeit when the Addison team failed to show up. Tecumseh won their second game beating City Cartage of Adrian 16-9.

Mark Rosenberg was the winning pitcher in relief of Tim Smith. After two innings Tecumseh held a 3 to 1 lead, but in the bottom of the third, City Cartage knocked Smith from the mound scoring seven times.

However, the local boys came back in their half of the fourth and scored ten times. The big blows in the inning were doubles by Jim Hite and Mickey Hyatt.

Rosenberg gave up four hits and one run the rest of the way to secure the victory. Mickey Hyatt, Jim Hite, Mark Harter and Steve Eardley each had two hits to lead the offense.

In their third outing, ASCO of Adrian, tourney favorites, demolished the Tecumseh lads 10-2. Ken Kurzyniec was the losing pitcher. Tim Smith, Jim Hite, and Mark Harter got the only Tecumseh hits, all singles.

Tecumseh was eliminated the very next game by the Adrian Police team 13-8. Mickey Hyatt took the loss in relief of Mark Harter and Ken Kurzyniec.

The Police jumped off to an eight run lead, scoring once in the first inning and seven times in the second, knocking Harter and Kurzyniec from the mound.

Tecumseh came back with four runs in the third inning, the big blow of the rally a two run homer by Mickey Hyatt. Tecumseh scored one more in the fourth on a solo home run by Mike Barnhart, and two more in the fourth on walks to Kurzyniec and Hite and a single by Andy Heglin.

The All Star team was made up of players from the Tecumseh Pony League teams: Mark Harter, Mike Keller, Tim Smith, Bruce Cattell, Mark Sackett, and Steve Eardley from league champ Gaston's; Mickey Hyatt, Mike Barnhart, Dave Williams and John Kitson from second place VFW.

John Walper, Andy Heglin, Mark Rosenberg, and Jim Hite from UPW; Jeff Day, and Charlie Lytle from Ottawa Machine, and Gary Rendel from LaVoy were also on the squad.

The three coaches were John Day of Ottawa Machine, Richard Heglin of UPW and Russ Hyatt, VFW. The coaching staff thanks the parents and friends who supported the team, and saw that they had transportation to Adrian for the games.

40th for Ruhls

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ruhl Sr. spent an evening at the Golden Nugget Restaurant in the Irish Hills recently with family and friends.

The occasion was to celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary. They were married July 29, 1939 at the country home of her parents, the Walter Birds Sr., by the Rev. O.V. Robinson.

The Ruhls are parents of four sons and grandparents of three grandsons, along with four "wonderful" daughters-in-law, said the couple.

Mr. Ruhl was a former employee of the Ford Motor Company Rouge plant and a recent retiree of the Tecumseh Products Company.

Mrs. Ruhl is head cashier at the Kroger Store in Tecumseh. After living in the Britton area for more than 30 years, they have sold their home and are now in residence at Silver Lake, Irish Hills.

Those attending the anniversary dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ruhl Jr. and grandson, Lee Shannon, Colorado Springs, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ruhl and grandsons, Jeffrey and Mark Allen of Macon; Mr. and Mrs. Austin Robison of Cement City and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Karn, Silver Lake, Irish Hills.

Hosts Dinner

BRITTON — A reunion for the RMTC Teachers Club was held Aug. 6 at the Evans Lake cottage of Thelma Frayer. Twenty guests participated in the potluck supper from Macon, Tecumseh, Holloway, Britton, Saginaw, Tipton and Ridgeway.

Mrs. Frayer also opened her cottage for the rehearsal dinner for D.J. Frayer and Connie Mead who will marry Aug. 17.

The dinner was held Aug. 15 with a beef barbecue served to family members and guests from Stockbridge and Coldwater, Britton and Blissfield.

Church Fair

BRITTON — A meeting of all committees met last week to make the final arrangements for the "Church Fair" to be held at the Britton Congregational Christian Church Aug. 17 from 2 to 9:30 p.m.

A variety of entertainment and refreshments will be there including baked goods, homemade ice cream and homemade carmel corn.

The public is invited.

Holds Meeting

BRITTON — The Baraca-Philathea Class of the Britton Congregational Christian Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hoagland July 29.

A co-operative ham dinner was served to 21 members.

The Rev. Case read "Devotions" and then talked about the Summer Festival that will be held at the church Aug. 17.

Margaret Lewis gave a program on "The Good Old Days".

Next meeting date will be announced in the Britton area calendar of events.

Surprise for Don

BRITTON — Donald Ries came home from golfing recently to find his yard decorated with signs proclaiming, "59 Better than 79."

The occasion marked his 59th birthday, and his children, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Plank and three children, and Mr. and Mrs. William Swanston and three children, of Macon, has arranged a surprise birthday party for him.

Streamers decorated the house, where a buffet supper with birthday cake and punch was served to friends.

Youth Attend Church Camp

BRITTON — Boys and girls from the Grace United Methodist Church attending Christian Youth Training Camp at Bull Lake during June and July were:

Lana Wagner, Annette Linn, Brian Evers, Tonia Cook, Andrea Bower, Nicole Cook, Shelley Pickell and Jeff Butler.

Those attending the closing program Friday evening were: Connie Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bower with Todd and Scott, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cook.

Double Bridal Shower for Cheryl and Laurie

BRITTON — The fellowship hall of the Grace United Methodist Church was the setting for a double bridal shower Aug. 2.

Honored guests were Cheryl Long and Laurie Hall.

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Howard Haas Jr., Mrs. Allen Bower and Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield.

Games were played with prizes presented to both winners and honored guests.

Each guest brought a favorite recipe and they were placed in recipe file boxes for the honored guests.

Each of the women drew a recipe from her file to designate who won the door prizes, which were Mrs. Julian Strong and Mrs. Joe Hall.

The 32 guests were served refreshments from a table covered with a brown table cloth and centered with a crock of wooden spoons, a green plant and recipe box.

Britton Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Crutchfield, Kelly and Kirk, Mrs. Allen Bower, Todd and Scott and Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield enjoyed an outing at the Toledo Zoo, Wednesday.

Saturday afternoon Richard Luce of Newark, Ohio was a surprise visitor at Mr. and Mrs. Albert DeJonghe of Ridgeway, Mr. and Mrs. John Moody of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. John Moody of Ridgeway. Richard is the great-nephew of Rose DeJonghe and Agnes Moody.

Rummage and Bake Sale

BRITTON — Grace United Methodist Women will sponsor a rummage and bake sale, Aug. 10 from 9:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the church on M-50 in Britton.

Virginia Crutchfield is chairman, and Jane Bird is assisting with the project. Proceeds will benefit the Appalachia Project of the Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Car Rolls, Youth Pinned

CLINTON — Clinton State Police investigated a single car accident Tuesday noon, in which Karl Heinz, 18, 5724 Holloway Rd., Britton, was injured.

He was admitted to Bixby Hospital with broken legs and other injuries.

Heinz was apparently traveling at a high rate of speed on US-12 at Neblo Rd., four miles east of Clinton, when he lost control and overturned four times, said State Police.

The driver was thrown out and the automobile landed on top of him. He was driving a Fiat owned by a friend.

Heinz is an employee at MasterKraft, Tecumseh.

Reunion for Class of '54

CLINTON — Clinton High School Class of 1954 marked the 25th anniversary of their graduation with a reunion hosted by Bill Dean Heimerdinger, Saturday afternoon, at his home on Tecumseh-Clinton Rd.

The reunion was attended by 24 members of the class and their spouses. Originally the class was composed of 37, with two now deceased.

Photographs of the class were taken around the Clinton Belle which had been decked out with a "Welcome Home Class of '54" sign.

Margaret Halladay, who had taught 10 members of the class in the first and second grades, joined the group for a visit in the afternoon.

A buffet supper, planned for outdoors, was moved inside when the rains came.

The evening was spent with disco dancing.

Among those who came from a distance, were Mary Hertler Tirb, of Miami, Fla.; Jerry Goldsmith, N.Y.; Beth Adrion Aldrich, Ariz.; Dick Dersham, Texas; Robert Chase, Calif.; Tom Judge, Conn.; Doris Hartman Horan of Ohio; Katherine Halley Valencia, Ohio; Larry Hartman, Kalamazoo; and Mary Jane Gard Skinner, Alpena, and others came from Jackson, Detroit and surrounding communities.

The class had met for reunions on their 17th and 20th anniversaries, and plan to meet again for the 30th in 1984, at the same location.

Committee in charge of the reunion was Barbara Lloyd VanTuyle, Lucy Jedele Miller, Ellen Schmidt O'Donnell and the host, Bill Heimerdinger.

Increasing Costs Concern Board

CLINTON — Clinton Township Board was concerned at Monday's meeting with the increasing cost of computerized tax service, contracted with the Lenawee County Board of Commissioners.

Initially the service cost 17.5 cents per parcel. The second year the service cost 35 cents per parcel.

Now the new two-year contract will cost 65 cents per parcel, for an estimated 1,300 parcels in the township.

In response to an inquiry from County Clerk Pat Johnson, board indicated it was interested in being placed on a voter registration computer list, and would like an estimate of the cost.

Lenawee Drain Commissioner Don Mitchell advised there will be a determination hearing for the Norcross drain, Monday, Aug. 13, 2 p.m., at the drain on Pennington Rd.

Larry Neville reported that he has completed card assessments on about 100 properties, and is receiving good response from property owners.

Application for agricultural tax designtion P.A.116 for the property of Clare and Imogene Rhoades, was approved by the board.

Board voted to charge for copies of all township business, agendas, etc., at the rate of 10 cents per page if picked up from the clerk and 25 cents if mailed. All fees must be paid before copies are made or mailed.

A concerned property owner inquired about the progress on closing of the Spina Nursery and the placing of a load limit sign on Eccles Rd.

Board advised that the load limits on Eccles Rd. will be enforced effective Sept. 1; nursery sales must cease by Dec. 1 and business must be ended by May 1980, as per the township ordinance.

Responding to a request from George H. Lancaster, co-chairman of the Fall Festival '79, $300 was approved to pay for the township share of the services of an air show scheduled for the Festival instead of fireworks this year. Village and Chamber of Commerce will be asked to contribute like amounts to the event.

Charles Wilson reported building permit amounting to $5,000 which was approved.

Two New Members for Clinton Jaycees

CLINTON — Clinton Area Jaycees planned a busy month of activities at their meeting Monday and welcomed two new members, Ron Walker and John Basinger.

A MIS race day chicken barbecue will be held Sunday, Aug. 19, with chairman Barry Schelland and Mike Harris in charge of arrangements.

The Jaycee Fall Festival committee will meet at 8 p.m. Aug. 13 at the home of Jerry Bradish.

There will be a softball social Aug. 12 at 1 p.m. at Brooklyn. This will be a challenge double header game. For information call Warren Starks, daytimes.

The State Jaycee Board meeting will be Aug. 17, 18, 19 at Muskegon.

Jaycee Board meeting will be Aug. 20 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Paul VanKirk, Edward Dr.

New Pet Shop Opens in Clinton

CLINTON — A hobby just grew and grew and now it has become a new business for Andrew "Skip" VanderMolen, a professor of computer systems at Eastern Michigan University.

Clinton Aquarium and Pet Supply is located at 108 Tecumseh St., Clinton, in the rear of the Clinton Local building.

The shop has selection of fresh and salt water fish, aquariums, fish supplies, and pet supplies. There will soon be added a selection of birds and small animals, not dogs or cats.

Monday through Thursdays, the shop is open from 5 to 8 p.m. and Friday and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The professor and wife, Trudy, reside on Tyrrell St. She is a registrar in the Natural Resources Dept., EMU.

They'll have an exchange student arriving from the Nethelands Aug. 15 to attend Clinton High School.

Council Allocates Funds

CLINTON — Village Council voted the allocation of Federal Revenue Sharing Funds at the meeting Monday night, following a public hearing.

Police department was allocated $13,000, and $2,000 to parking enforcement.

Bids will be opened for work on the new park, at 2 p.m. Aug. 15.

Council voted that the village would give a strip of land to Riverside Cemetery. Land is the westerly 25 ft. of the old railroad right of way from Coman St. north to the north boundary of the cemetery. Land may only be used for gravesites.

Due to neighbors complaints about disorderly conduct in the parking lot at the State Savings Bank, during the evening hours, council has obtained permission from the bank to enforce the village ordinances on the private property involved.

Small Business Has A Voice at Conference

CLINTON — Ed Day of Day Construction Company, will be among the representatives of 15 small Michigan businesses who will be in Chicago Aug. 9 to tell the federal government and business officials about their special needs and concern, according to State Commerce Director William F. McLaughlin.

They will attend one of 12 regional conferences being held in preparation for the White House Conference on Small Business, which President Carter has called for January 1980.

Participants in the Chicago meeting will elect delegates to the White House conference and discuss issues which affect their role in the American market place.

Martin Halleys Have Visitors

CLINTON — Pablo and Katherine Valencia and their sons, Miguel and Pablo, and daughter, Marguerita, are visiting for a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Halley.

Mr. Valencia is a professor of linguistic and Spanish and Italian at the College of Wooster, Wooster, Ohio.

The family has spent a year in Spain and Italy, where Mr. Valencia was on sabbatical leave from the College of Wooster.

Miguel will enter College of Wooster this fall; Pablo will enter Michigan State University.

Marguerita has gone on to Chicago, Ill., where she will enter Loyola University. She studied in Salamanca, Spain for the past year.

En route home, the family vacationed in England, and arrived here in time to attend Mrs. Valencia's reunion of the CHS class of '54, at the Bill Heimerdinger home, Saturday.

Returning to College

Are you interested in returning to college? Beginning a college education? Exploring adult educational opportunities?

Siena Heights College will be presenting a special college information night for men and women Thursday, Aug. 16 in Archangelus Lounge on the Siena campus.

The evening seminar, beginning at 7 p.m. with wine and cheese refreshments, will feature discussions on the issues of adjustment and transition for adults returning to college, information on financial aid for adults, career planning, and credit for life-experience.

Featured speakers will include Dr. Louis Vaccaro, president of the college, and James Ebben, dean of the college. Also featured will be a panel of men and women who have returned to college and will share their experiences as non-traditional students.

Make reservations by calling (517) 263-0731 ext. 244 between 8 a.m.-5 p.m. weekdays. There is no charge.

Bible School Begins Monday

Missionary Baptist Church of Tecumseh will conduct a Vacation Bible School for the communities children during the week of Aug. 13.

Sessions will be held daily between 9 a.m. to noon for children in school grades K-9.

For more information call 423-8050.

'Funny Girl' Set To Open August 8th

The Broadway musical comedy hit, "Funny Girl," will open at the Croswell Opera House Aug. 8 for a 10 night stand, Wednesday through Sunday for two weeks, ending on Aug. 19. It will star Alice Mott as the young Fanny Brice, a role that brought stardom to Barbra Streisand when she appeared in the New York and London productions of the show.

A bumper crop of Tecumseh residents will also be seen in the Croswell's August production.

"Funny Girl" is the musicalized biography of one of the greatest stars to walk down Florenz Ziegfeld's shimmering stage stairways in the famed revues that were dedicated to "Glorifying the American Girl." But Fanny Brice was no beauty. She was gawky, clumsy and gauche — as well as being the funniest girl of her time and the singer of such songs as "My Man" and "Rose of Washington Square."

The score that Jule Styne and Bob Merrill fashioned for "Funny Girl" doesn't contain any of Fanny Brice's old numbers. Instead, they have created a new raft of favorites — notably "People" — that will be sung for as many years as the Fanny Brice songs are parallel in the show.

Isobel Lennart's book for "Funny Girl" tells of the comedienne's early days in the theatre and of her career during and after World War I as star of the Ziegfeld Follies.

Early on in the musical Fanny sings "I'm The Greatest Star," but it is only to convince herself, since she has just been fired from the chorus of a lower East Side music hall.

In the end she proves that talent, determination and blazing self-confidence can carry an ugly duckling to a glamorous and unique life.

Heartbeak also figures in her early life, resulting from her love for a notorious gamble. Richard Egli of Tecumseh (Nicky) will be see as Nicky Arnstein, the man she loved and lost.

Alice Horen (Mrs. Brice) will have the comic role of the star's mother "Who Taught Her Everything" as she sings to her neighbors in New York's Henry Street.

Chief among these early fans of the aspiring entertainer will be Kathi Johnstone of Tecumseh (Mrs. Strakosh), who joins Fanny's mother and Reavis L. Graham (Eddie Ryan) as her earliest professional admirer, to advise Fanny, "Find Youself A Man."

Robert Soller (Florenz Ziegfeld) will be seen as the master showman of the time. To recreate the spirit of the famous Follies, choreographer Laura Sturniolo will stage two sumptuous spectacles that poke affectionate fun at the lavishness of Ziegfeld's stage conceptions. One is a tribute to the bride accompanied by a spoofing rendition of the kind of song that was used, "His Love Makes Me Beautif" The other Follies s' number is a World Wa extravaganza with doughboys and doughgirls tapping out a rousing "Rat-Tat-Tat-Tat."

Eve Weiher will be the director of the Croswell Summer Theatre production of "Funny Girl," and the settings that range from the streets of New York to the stages where Fanny Brice held forth will be designed by Douglas J. Miller.

The costumes of the colorful World War I and 1920's periods will be coordinated by Sally Wentz, and Dr. Art Jones will serve as musical director. Producer of Croswell Musical Summer Theatre '79 is Robert A. Soller.

The large cast of "Funny Girl" also includes, from Tecumseh: Margaret Cook, Heather Beatty, David Bauman, Lance Tucker, Jo Ann Dalgard. Also known to the Tecumseh area is Milt Schoch of Sand Creek.

The summer of '79 marks Eve Weiher's third season with the Croswell Summer Theatre. During the Summer of '78, Ms. Weiher performed in a dual capacity, as director of "The Fantasticks" and as guest artist in the title role of "Mame."

Her introduction to the Croswell stage was as director for the record-setting production of "My Fair Lady" during the summer of '77.

A Toledo resident, Ms. Weiher's most recent performance as an Equity actress was in the role of Golda in the long-running Westgate Dinner Theatre production of "Fiddler on The Roof."

Curtain is at 8 p.m. Reservations can be made through the box office at (517) 263-5674, Monday through Saturday 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., and show nights 5 to 9 p.m.

Goldsboro Tickets Starting to Move

Advanced tickets for the Bobby Goldsboro show are starting to move.

Last year the reserved tickets sold out in advance of the Fair.

This year's Grandstand attraction should prove to be something for everyone as it will feature Bobby Goldsboro, a well known and popular singer that appeals to a wide age group.

Also appearing will be Glenn Jaspering and Glen Mahana, a couple of outstanding impressionists and sound effects masters. Also appearing will be comedian Eddie Jay along with his crow.

Advanced tickets save the buyer $1. Tickets available at the fair office or the Tecumseh Herald.

COUPLES: HOW TO CONFRONT PROBLEMS AND MAINTAIN LOVING RELATIONSHIPS deals with common and not-so-common topics and problems faced by married couples and couples who live together.

Dr. Carlfred Broderick, codirector of one of the world's foremost marriage counselor training centers at the University of Southern California, includes actual discussions from counseling sessions.

Dr. Broderick notes that his experience has come from 20 years of professional practice as a marriage counselor and 25 years of private practice as a marriage partner.

He is convinced that most people can make marriage the "joyful partnership" they hoped for, with proper guidance.

Although most divorces occur in the first few years of marriage, there is a powerful tendency for communication to decrease, interests to divurge, and criticism to increase in the over 20-year marriage.

The key to solving any problem, he writes, is to look at it from a new perspective. His discussions are aimed at helping couples find the right perspective for themselves.

Readers will find no easy, pat answers because not everyone's problem can be solved with the same solution.

The topics and problems Dr. Broderick discusses include "emotional space", becoming less dependent, listening creatively, sharing responsibilities, and communicating effectively.

He also discusses divorce and remarriage, how children affect relationships, sex, mixed marriage, long-distance romances, and finances. Two other sections are coping with role reversal and marriage resulting from computer dates.

Also included is "A Consumer's Guide to Marital and Sexual Counselors," just in case the couples can't find the correct perspective themselves.

Eighteen million children live in one-parent families today, according to Dr. Richard A. Gardner. His first book, THE BOYS AND GIRLS BOOK ABOUT DIVORCE, helped children through the emotional and psychological changes of divorce.

His new book, THE BOYS AND GIRLS BOOK ABOUT ONE-PARENT FAMILIES, talks to children whose parents are divorced, those whose parents never married, and those who have lost a parent through death.

Dr. Gardner talks directly to the children, explaining the facts and feelings of what is going on in simple terms. He used examples to make sure all readers will understand.

Although written mainly for children, the book will help parents, teachers, and mental health professionals deal with these situations and problems.

In fact, children would probably only want to read small sections at a time since there are over 230 pages.

Such problems as money, missing the parent, jealousy of a parent's date and date's family, discomfort when the parent has a sleep-over date, and why a parent may become overdependent on a child.

Above all, Dr. Gardner stresses that children should speak up and be open and honest with both parents.

Dear Total Image
I have long hair and would like to keep it. But I have bad split ends. Is there anything I can do for them at home, I have tried conditioners and creme rinses. Nothing seems to work.
Sue
Tecumseh Mich.

Dear Sue,
Your problem is a very common one among young girls who want long hair.
A good at home recipe for split ends can be made right out of your own kitchen.
Mix ¼ cup soy sauce with ½ cup mayonnaise and the yolks of two eggs. Apply to hair and leave on 30 min. To keep moist, wrap it in plastic. Shampoo and rinse well.
As a final rinse, use fresh lemon to restore acid balance.
Thank you for writing Total Image with your problem. If you have a Question to do with hair skin or nails, write Village Hair Forum 104 E. Main Manchester MI or call us at either one of our locations.
Thank You
Sandy

Renovation Uncovers Zeal For History

by Kathy Brown

"I had absolutely no use for history," Barb McCann confessed. "But when we stripped six layers of wallpaper and got down to one dated 1896, I got excited.

"Then we found the wooden pegs they used instead of nails. I started thinking about all the people who had done business in there, working to support their families."

Barb McCann told how recycling the Union Building converted her to a zeal for history.

Those that catch it know that it is an unquenchable thirst for details from the past. It compulses one to cull historical tidbits from old newspapers, cling to memorabilia and talk to any one who remembers when.

Strong kidneys and a resistance to dust are an asset to detectives of history.

Barb's pet research project, "Union Building: This Is Your Life," is the result of 200 research hours on the oldest business block in Tecumseh.

Barb and Jim McCann purchased it 18 months ago from the Glenn Kohlers.

"This has been the frosting on the cake for me," the "Cake Lady" said after she enthusiastically called the roll of the professionals and merchants that occupied the 129-year-old building.

The McCanns spent the summer days and nights by flashlight in 1977 working to expanding their then five-year-old business The Cake Shoppe into the east section vacated by Fern's Diner.

Though businesses have come and gone, the east half of the building has usually attracted retailers; the west half has attracted the professional or service businesses.

The third floor ballroom, accessible by a common stairway, was used for social functions until 1970.

As for the outside appearance, an octagonal cupola was removed in 1970. "It was the town joke that you could go up there to look out for Indians," Barb related.

The Union Building was twice threatened by fire Nov. 4, 1858 and in 1974 when its far west neighbor, the Witherall Building, caught fire. It was the former Chicago Blvd. home of Grey Fox Floral.

For over 60 years, the Union Building was home for a succession of small banks until the last one closed in 1929. One of the most colorful characters to emerge from that era was banker Lucius Lilley, described as both a genius and a scoundrel.

In 1910, the building was remodeled with English walnut, Italian white marble and maghogany. Today it is preserved.

Coincidentally, the safe from the Bills, Lilley Bank 1873 is now owned by Eggleston's Jewelry.

When United Savings Bank moved across the street to temporary headquarters at the Union Building after a 1940 fire at the Chieftan Hotel, the renters found they preferred the door on the Lilley State Bank safe and swapped.

Doctors and lawyers found the Union Building an ideal location. Some of the earliest barristers were Stacy and Woods 1851, Benjamin S. Baxter and Pearly Bills, C. A. and S. C. Stacy, real estate, patent agency and attorneys.

In 1922 Dr. Hammel, world traveler, rented an office in the Union Hall. He was credited with stemming a typhoid epidemic in Tecumseh.

In more recent times, the Tecumseh Community Health Study was located there in 1965. At least two chiropractors and seven M.D.'s had offices there.

Real estate agents Elmer Eberhardt, Glenn Kohler and since mid-February, Whatley Real Estate, have claimed an office in the W. Chicago Blvd. building.

Three barbers and three beauty shops were located there, including the Radio Beauty Shop 1928-29, where Anna Blessing once worked.

Insurance agents were among the occupants as well as specialty shops such as Savior's High Quality Boots and Shoes 1869, a harness shop 1904 and two flower shops, Braun's and Leslie Merilat in the 1920's.

Eateries in the Union Building were Leland Kirby's Hamburgers 1949; Fern Cutlers's 1964; Bon-Do's 1975 and Fern's again in 1977.

Among the retailers were several clothiers including a dry goods and grocery in 1850, George Heeson's clothing store 1853-66; J. E. Rentschler tailor shop 1902-04; McCann and Son 1938 and more recently, Rushia Coscarelli's Beeline Fashions in 1971.

Dolph Heeson, George's son, started a foundry behind the Union Building in 1898. The McCanns found a polished brass patent stencil dated 1869, owned by Heeson and proceeded to find out what ol' George was doing in the basement.

It is little known that the Union Building housed the Tecumseh Post Office 1859; village office 1933; YMCA 1905; and services for local Catholics prior to 1913.

The Union Building served as a meeting place for fraternal, political and religious groups of all persuations and ages including: F & AM 1850-63; Odd Fellows sponsored lectures 1850-69; S. Chadwick music school 1853; McClellan Club 1864; NLSS 1866; Masons 1878; Tecumseh Library Association 1883; GAR; Knights of Pythias; Catholic bingo parties; Tecumseh Business Men's Association 1923; Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce 1948 and 1958-62; Tecumseh Players 1962-70; Teen Club 1960; plays, elections, fairs and graduations.

AAA Holds Safety Seminar

The Tecumseh Police and Lenawee County Sheriff's departments will be among 49 law enforcement agencies attending a school crossing guard workshop Aug. 9 sponsored by Automobile Club of Michigan and the Michigan Department of Education.

The half-day seminar, one of eight held throughout the state this month, takes place at the Jackson Holiday Inn, 2000 Holiday Inn Dr., starting at 9 a.m.

The program is designed to help police comply with state requirements that all adult school crossing guards receive four hours of training and two hours of annual review from local officers in traffic control, first aid and other areas.

Persons attending also will review formulas to determine where guards are most needed and will receive new federally mandated reflectorized handheld stop signs and highly visible orange-and-white-striped guard vests.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

The July issue of the National Geographic magazine was special. They are all good, but this was just a bit more so. It was devoted to the National Park service and the parks, recreation areas, monuments and sections that are under its jurisdiction. It is a huge responsibility and, of course, there are many, many problems. People are at the root of most of them. Too many people demanding too many things.

The statistics about the National Park Service and its land are absolutely mind-reeling. Millions and millions of people, acres, birds, animals, etcetera.

Some of our wilderness parks are barely visited whereas other parks are almost 'peopled' to death. In Yosemite, for example, they are instituting a program which will limit the number of people and cars permitted into the park each day.

In this same park they have also had to build a jail which will hold 16 people. People often leave their manners at home when they go on vacation — on the other hand, some of them don't bother to leave home.

Although we do not seem them often [illegible] we have had a [illegible] burn-marked [illegible] Settlers of [illegible] the [illegible] with [illegible] these [illegible]

[illegible] the flower [illegible] south [illegible] ing window of my room. I have seen them [illegible] the same kind of curiosity and look in the window of [illegible]

A quick glance at all they ever take and then away they go. We would like them to stay — some of them are pretty and interesting.

Speaking of [illegible] lakes or [illegible] close up [illegible] window viewing [illegible] the hummingbirds, in their colorful zest. For them, I really look bejeweled they need bright sunshine.

When these come from the flower gardens, the trees, we see them, in all their resplendent glory. Then the ruby-throated hummingbird lives up to his name, his throat is truly a shining iridescent ruby color.

The same sunshine turns his back wings iridescent green, sometimes with metallic sparkles of gold.

To Maria singing the words National Parks conger up wonderful memories of the awesome beauty of the Grand Canyon, the impressive and inspiring snow-capped mountains in Glacier, the comfortable feeling of the Smokies and the strange yet familiar geysers and animals of Yellowstone.

Congress in the National Park Service created to preserve outstanding 'pieces' of scenery. Lately there has been an emphasis of bringing parks to the people; New York City has its Gateway National Recreation Area and San Francisco boasts of its Golden Gate National Recreation Area.

Both are a far cry from what we loved in the Everglades and Acadia; however, with our ever increasing population there is a great need for such different parks.

There are critics, of course, and there are problems, but apparently the new urban parks are working.

One ranger in the New York park said that they have kids who think crickets are cockroaches and that witchcraft makes the mallard ducks' heads green.

A man from the west coast is quoted as explaining that they have children, coming from the most crime riddled areas of San Francisco, who are terrified of the mountains of the majestic redwoods.

Late the other afternoon I heard a cardinal whistling as though his heart would burst with joy. It was a beautiful serenade.

After much searching, I finally found him. He was perched on the top of Cameron's tallest pine tree.

He was facing west and the almost horizontal sun rays magically turned his breast into the brightest and most brilliant red imaginable. All that against a background of perfectly clear blue sky.

Do any of us fully appreciate how blest we are to be living in Tecumseh?

3 Raisin Township Officials Challenged in Recall Election

ROBERT D. MOORE
Supervisor

MARJORIE COMFORT
Clerk

DR. ROBERT MURRAY
Trustee

Raisin Township voters will go to the polls next Tuesday in what is probably the first recall vote in the township's history.

Petitions were filed in June for the recall of Robert D. Moore, supervisor; Marjorie Comfort, clerk, and Dr. Robert Murray, trustee.

Moore was elected to the township's top position for the first time last fall. Comfort, treasurer at the time, ran last fall for clerk and was elected. Murray has been a trustee for the past three years.

Statements from the three officials follow this article. The Herald attempted to obtain statements from circulators of the petitions but was not successful.

It was the newspaper's aim to clarify the accusations against the officials and print specific charges. Vague and general charges have been filed but nothing specific.

Such vague charges are:

Have not acted in best interest of the township.

Lack intestinal fortitude.

Biased stand on township matters.

Fail to be responsive to the needs of the people, mainly excessive spending.

So far, none of the charges has been publicly substantiated by the circulators, although they have been contacted relative to such information. Whether they intend to make a late announcement just prior to the election, also is not known.

Election will be held Tuesday from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the two township polls, Precinct 1 at Holloway Rd. fire hall and Precinct 2 at the township hall on Gady and Occidental Rds.

Election will be conducted under the supervision of Lenawee County Clerk Pat Johnston.

If one or two of the township officials are recalled, then the board (composed of five members) will still have a quorum and will be required to appoint someone, not the recalled official, to fill the vacancy.

However, if all three officials are recalled, the governor of the state "may" select someone to fill the vacancies until an election to fill the vacancies is held, according to Howard McCowan, election division of the Michigan Department of Secretary of State.

Issue Statements

Statement of Robert D. Moore, Supervisor, Raisin Township. (Editor's note: Edited due to length)

As far as I'm personally concerned I took on a job that has a two-year term, during which many problems must be faced which will demand actions and decisions that must take into consideration all of the people of Raisin Township, not a few who have put self-interest above all else.

The allegations attempt to portray that nothing is being done, that the smallest request is being denied.

One of these requests is the improvement of Ives Road. It is not a new request.

Early this year, in recognition of the neglect of (a request) nearly nine years ago, and the desires of those who live on Ives Road, we put the Ives Road improvement as this years road project.

Though there was only sufficient money to underwrite 50 percent of the improvements, we felt a half a loaf was better than none.

The request for an immediate start was made of the Lenawee County Road Commission last March, accompanied by the allocation of funds to get the work done.

We have a commitment that the start of the project will be sometime this year. Beyond that, there is little that we as a township can do.

Another overstated allegation of these self serving people has to do with a personal as well as a board policy of getting bids in purchasing products or services for the township.

There have only been two occasions where judgement calls where made where a bid might be considered. One had to do with the acquisition of a photocopy machine to replace one that was undesirable and was not functioning properly.

Marjorie Comfort, Raisin Township Clerk:

I wonder what is meant by the charge that I "mislead the public about intentions to serve as clerk," since I spend up to 30 hours a week in the township office.

The board authorized me to attend a class in records management to help in organizing the files and records of the township. The supervisor and I spent one of our first weeks in office sorting through accumulations of records, filing, packaging and, where permitted, discarding those no longer needed. Some township records are permanent. Others may be scrapped after 10, seven or two years, according to a schedule set up by the state.

The separate and random files of several officers and boards were combined and alphabetized. Separate correspondence and invoice files were started, and cross-filing was done with copies where needed to make it easier to find information.

In response to the charges of being "biased:"

Always open to suggestions from township residents, I take what I believe to be the interests of the majority of citizens as a ruling force in my decisions.

Surely we as a board must pay heed to the legitimate concerns of individuals and small groups. But our responsibility is to all the people in the township. It also is our duty to be far-sighted, to protect the future interests of the township.

In response to the charge of "overspending:"

The minutes of the last six years will show me consistent for balanced budgets and against increases in taxes. The budget prepared by Mr. Moore is the tightest I've seen. It gets us out of Statement of Robert Murray, Trustee, Raisin Township.

Robert Murray, appointed trustee to the Raisin Township Board three years ago, said he does not know what the underlying reasons the petitioners may have for seeking his recall.

He was elected to his first term in 1978, which expires in 1980. He has served the township board of appeals for 10 years and is currently the township board representative on the appeals board.

In his formal reply to the recall petition, which will be placed on the ballot, Murray said the statements given as reasons for the recall were "vague."

He said he felt he is "efficiently addressing the many problems of a rapidly growing and changing township," including an updated zoning ordinance and nuisance ordinance, responsible budgeting, improved fire protection, park development, road improvement, improved building permit procedures and a new land fill site.

In an interview, Murray said he respects the right of others to differ with his views of township government and decisions affecting it.

"The most important thing to me is to get people out to vote. Either way it goes, it's fine with me, but we've got to get a good representation of voters."

He discussed recent township decisions that have been unpopular.

Murray said that when 50 people of one viewpoint attend a township meeting, "it is hard for them to realize that we represent those that are there and those that are not there. We have to vote on what is good for the whole township.

One of the recent unpopular decisions was made by the Appeal Boad to grant the Humane Society

OUR OPINION

Recall Smells of 'Sour Grapes'

A recall vote of three Raisin Township officials will be held next Tuesday in what is probably the first recall vote in the township's history.

Challenged at the polls are Robert D. Moore, supervisor; Marjorie Comfort, clerk, and Dr. Robert Murray, trustee for the past three years. Moore elected to public office for the first time last fall, and Comfort, former township treasurer, was elected to the clerk's position, also last fall.

Vague and general charges have been filed against the three, and as far as The Herald has been able to find out, nothing specific is actually involved. Such vague charges could be filed against any incumbent at any level of government.

Why then, the recall vote?

A "hunch," and one substantiated, we believe, is that next Tuesday's vote resulted from differences in personalities, and also "sour grapes," if you'll excuse the cliche.

Circulators of the recall petitions have had opportunities to make known specific charges. Voters should have more information than "not acted in the best interest of the township" and "lacked intestinal fortitude," two vague charges, for example, that really mean little, if anything.

If the township voters wish to remove the three from office, the time to do it is at the regular township election, not through a recall vote that is not only costly but apparently not justified.

WARRANTS OUT FOR OTHERS

Arrest 10 in Tecumseh, Area on Drug Charges

An early Wednesday morning drug raid, largest in Lenawee County since the June 1977 raid, resulted in the arrest of 27, including 10 from Tecumseh and the immediate area.

There are warrants out for others, and the total number involved could reach 40, Harvey Koselka, prosecuting attorney, stated in explaining the operation Wednesday morning at the Sheriff's Department.

Tecumseh and area residents arrested were:

Sonny Joe Loftin, 1403 Shepherd Rd., sale of PCP.

Dennis H. Bordner, 9764 Matthews Hwy., sale of marijuana.

Teresa G. Gerhart, 8170 Elton Hwy., sale of marijuana.

Allen A. Parkhurst, 138½ W. Chicago Blvd., sale of PCP.

Lawrence O. Meier, 6810 Munger Rd., sale of marijuana.

Robert M. McKee, 2631 E. Monroe Rd., sale of cocaine.

Robert L. Gerhart, 8170 Elton Hwy., sale of marijuana.

Patrick A. Marion, 9764 Matthews Hwy., sale of cocaine. He has not been apprehended yet but a warrant has been issued for his arrest.

Koselka said the amount of monies involved in the raid amounted to several thousands of dollars. The severity of the drugs — no herion, for example — was less than the 1977 raid. Number of persons involved is about the same, he explained.

The prosecuting attorney, Sheriff Richard Germond and Robert Cheshire, Adrian police chief, explained that the raid culminated an investigation started by undercover agents earlier this year.

They said that about 50 officers were organized for the raid. They represented the Metro Squad — officers for the Jackson and Lenawee County area — sheriff deputies and police from Tecumseh, Adrian, Hudson and Morenci. They assembled about 4:30 a.m. with arrests beginning shortly after 5 a.m.

All were taken to the county jail and were arraigned later in the morning before Judge John Timms of District Court.

Police chief Merlin Mowery said that four officers of the Tecumseh department participated. Warrants are also out for other arrests in this area, he announced.

Proctor, Schmidt To Head Fund Drive for $94,745

The board of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation, Inc. met at Fisher Body Aug. 14 in a special meeting for allocation of funds to the member agencies for 1980.

The approved budget provides for approximately 85 percent to be retained in the county of Lenawee, 10 percent to go to the United Way of Michigan for it's member agencies and the remaining five percent to be used for administration and fund raising expenses.

The board announced the appointment of Roger Proctor as drive chairperson and Harvey Schmidt as co-drive chairperson.

Quota for the 1979-1980 drive is set at $94,745. Next regular scheduled meeting will be held Sept. 11, at which time election of officers will be held for the upcoming year.

Opinion Clears Township Clerk of Illegality

An opinion from the Lenawee County Prosecutor's office states that there was "no criminal responsibility involved" in the allegation that Raisin Township clerk Marjorie Comfort illegally received dog license collection fees as part of her salary while she was treasurer of Raisin Township.

The amount in question was less than $464 received over a period of time from 1973 to 1978.

Comfort said that as part of her duties as treasurer, she collected dog license fees for the county and was instructed that a portion was to be retained as part of her salary.

In the first four years, that amount was .15 cents per license and was eventually raised to .50 cents a license when the county raised its dog license fees.

At the urging of Mrs. Comfort, the Raisin Township board acted in March 1978 to receive those collection fees in the general fund.

The complaint was filed by a Raisin Township resident against Mrs. Comfort based on a 1957 opinion of the attorney general of Michigan that collection fees should be remitted to the township general fund if the officer is paid on a salary basis rather than a collection fee basis.

The prosecutor's report indicated there was no evidence that any of the township board members serving with Mrs. Comfort attempted in those seven years to find out whether the practice was illegal.

Draws Sentence from Accident

Michael J. Connors, 30, of Tecumseh-Clinton Rd., was sentenced last week for leaving the scene of a serious personal injury accident, one which occurred here on June 4th.

According to Merlin Mowery, Tecumseh police chief, Connors was sentenced to 15 days in the county jail, placed on probation for two years and was assessed court costs of $1,000.

David Guild, 8, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Guild, remains in a coma at Motts Children's Hospital in Ann Arbor. He and a friend, who was not seriously injured, were struck by Connors' pickup after riding their bicycles out of a private drive and into Red Mill Dr.

Connors left the scene, went home briefly and was on his way to the local police station to report the accident when he was stopped by Mowery.

Tecumseh, Area Obituaries

CLARENCE AVERY

Clarence Avery, 89, described by a Tecumseh friend as a "self-made man, lover of animals and birds" and person interested in Tecumseh, died July 31 in Cashier, N.C.

He made his summer home there with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Avery. They survive as do several distant relatives in the Tecumseh area.

Mr. Avery was born in Tecumseh to Charles and Sara Cole Avery. The family farmed. Mr. Avery's Tecumseh home was just east of the airport.

He had just an eighth grade education at country school, but he parlayed it into a career as a member of the New York Stock Exchange. Prior to that, he was a telegraph operator. He lived all over the country, a friend told the Herald.

A news article in the hometown paper jogged his memory about things he did as a boy in Tecumseh. He corresponded with the Herald and his reminicences were published by the Herald, years ago. He was also preceded in death by two sisters and one brother.

He was buried in Ft. Myers, Fla. where he made his winter home.

GEORGE BISHOP

Services were Aug. 13 at the Farley Funeral Home in Lehigh Acres, Fla. for George Frederick Bishop, 74, of 18 Aicala Ave. Lehigh Acres, Fla. He had been ill for a month. He died Aug. 9 at Fort Myers Community Hospital in that city.

Mr. Bishop was born in Piper City, Ill., July 28, 1905 to Herbert and Carrie Little Bishop.

May 4, 1929 he married Irene Imre. She survives.

He retired after many years as a machinist at the Tecumseh Products, refrigeration division.

He was a member of the Loyal Order of Moose Lodge, Veterans of Foreign Wars Dad's Club and First Presbyterian Church in Lehigh Acres.

Survivors are hs wife; one son, Richard H. of Marlton, N.J.; two brothers, Nilwen of Ridgeway, Harry of Mesa, Ariz.; two sisters, Marvethel Vickers of Chelsea, Lucille Richards of Cadillac and four grandchildren.

Burial was in Lee Memorial Park in Lehigh Acres, Fla.

The Rev. J. H. Wade officiated.

Moose services were Aug. 12 at the funeral home.

HAROLD MILLER

Services were Aug. 11 in Lyons, Ohio for Harold A. Miller, 65, formerly of Adrian. He died Aug. 9 in Elk Rapids following an extended illness.

Among the survivors are three nieces, Mrs. Joseph (Marilyn) Bartenslager, Mrs. James (Marjorie) Furgason and Mrs. Scott (Melinda) Sears, all of Tecumseh.

GEORGE BROOKS

Services were Aug. 14 at 1:30 p.m. at the Proctor Funeral Home in Clinton for George L. Brooks, 77, of 14885 Ely Rd., Manchester. He died Aug. 13 at Herrick Hospital after being hospitalized since June.

Mr. Brooks was born Nov. 3, 1901 in Manchester Township to Lester and Anna Mae (Service) Brooks.

March 4, 1929 he married Elnora Walkers. She survives.

This past winter, where they have wintered for the past seven years, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in DeFuniak Springs, Fla.

Mr. Brooks lived at his current address all of his married life, was an associate member of the Faith Community Church in Manchester, a former member of the Norvell Senior Citizens and Hillman Senior Citizens and a member of the 50 Plus Senior Citizens of DeFuniak Springs, Fla.

He retired from farming n 1970, previously working for over 30 years as a salesman in the Detroit Stockyards and later as a buyer for the Wolverine Packing Company of Detroit.

Approve Transfer of School Property

At a special meeting Aug. 6 between the Lenawee Intermediate School District Board and Washtenaw Intermediate Board, the boards agreed to transfer the property of Paul Quick family from the Manchester School District to the Clinton Community School District.

The Paul Quick property is located on Bowens Rd., immediately west of M-52, contiguous to the Clinton School District, said Supt. Richard Wegner.

Neither board contested the transfer.

At the regular meeting of the Lenawee ISD board, several persons from the Tecumseh and Britton areas were approved to serve on the Family Planning and Reproductive Health program advisory committee at the Porter Center for the 1979-80 school year.

Those persons from the Tecumseh area included Virginia Clark and Louise Fairbanks of Britton; Dee Colson, Joni Slick, Gladys Tilton, the Rev. Edmond Watkins and Cal Poppink of Tecumseh. Appointment is for one year term.

Not Hurt

Leatrice Joy Miller, 50, 6224 N. Adrian Hwy., escaped injury, Aug. 7, when she apparently lost control of her vehicle on chuck holes on Ely Rd., and her automobile struck large rocks. Miller and a passenger were not injured.

Clinton State Police issued Miller a summons for careless driving.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bairo and Ryan of Blackburg, Va., are visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baird of 114 W. Patterson St., until Friday night.

Mrs. Ivan Bidle and daughter, Lori, along with Mrs. Bidle's sister, Wanda Hartman and Sue Prielipp, spent a week with Mrs. Bidle's son, Max, in Kingston, N.Y. The women flew there by plane. They said they enjoyed their visit and did sightseeing in the area.

A few pointers from a pro...

Throughout life, we all occasionally need the guidance of someone who knows the ropes . . . someone who has the experience to give sound advice.

We've helped many families in this area through a trying time . . . and we put our experience to work each time another family turns to us.

MR. and MRS. NATHAN SMITH

Canadian Trip for Smiths

Cheryl Lynne Furgason, the daughter of Laura Furgason of Onsted and Harry Furgason of Tipton, married Nathan David Smith, the son of Kathleen (Smith) Keeney of Tipton.

The Aug. 4 ceremony was held at the First United Presbyterian Church with Pastor Edmond Watkins officiating.

Laurie Lister was soloist.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white gown of chantilly lace and organza. It featured a Queen Anne collar, keyhole neckline with a bodice overlay of chantilly lace, accented with seed pearls. The bishop sleeves had fitted cuffs. The skirt featured a lace overlay with Paris pleating insert from the empire waist which flowed to a chapel train.

She wore a china heart pendant necklace on a silver chain. Her waltz length veil was secured with a Camelot cap of chantilly lace with seed pearls.

She carried a colonial bouquet of miniature white carnations, pink and red sweetheart roses and burgundy star flowers.

She carried miniature pink carnations with variegated pittosporum.

Bridesmaids were Laurie Parkhurst of Onsted, Gloria Ramos of Jackson and Gigi Croker of Onsted.

Tom Gouldsberry of Onsted was best man. Doug Williams of Blissfield, Bill Bailey of Onsted, and Terry Furgason of Tipton, the bride's brother of Tipton, served as ushers.

A reception was held at the United Products Workers Union Hall.

An arrangement of white and pink carnations, red sweetheart roses and candles decorated the bride's table. Kay Osborn assisted at the reception.

The bride is a laboratory technician at SWS Silicones, a graduate of Onsted High School and attended Jackson Business School.

After a Canadian vacation, the couple resides at 128 S. Charles St., Adrian.

Mrs. Keeney, the groom's mother hosted the rehearsal dinner at her Tipton home.

Teachers Take Vows

The Tecumseh United Methodist Church was the setting for the July 28, 4:30 p.m. wedding of Jeanette Carol Mannino and Thomas Henry Meyer.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mannino of 114 Park St. and Mrs. Henry W. Meyer of 4550 N. Adrian Hwy., Adrian and the late Henry Meyer.

The Rev. Allan Gray officiated the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Dale Chryst of Raisin Valley Friends, Adrian.

Mrs. Donald Bush was organist and Mrs. Douglas Schedeler was soloist.

The church was decorated with candelabra, trimmed with foliage and altar bouquets of mixed flowers. Aisle candelabra were trimmed with matching foliage and pale blue bows.

For her wedding, the bride chose a Victorian styled gown fashioned with a high lace collar and full crystal pleated sleeves. Her gown was of white silk chiffon and rose point lace. Chiffon ruffles accented the bodice and full sweeping train.

Her illusion veil was held in place with a matching lace Camelot cap. The bouffant fingertip veil was bordered in lace.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white Japhet orchids and stephanotis, accented with pink roses.

MR. and MRS. THOMAS MEYER

Patricia Mannino, the bride's sister of Tecumseh, was maid of honor wearing a powder blue sheer, floral print gown over taffeta. The gown had a scoop neckline with a blouson bodice and split sleeves at the shoulder. The ribbon waist accented the circular skirt.

She carried a small wicker basket of daisies, roses, ivy and silk forget-me-nots in a rainbow of color and wore matching pink roses in her hair.

Diane Noack of Ann Arbor, the bride's sister, was a bridesmaid as were Nancy Hudson, the groom's cousin of Brooklyn, Lucille Norello, the bride's cousin of Mt. Clemens and Amy Young, the groom's niece of Tecumseh.

Gary Harper of Tecumseh was best man. Ushers were Bob Pardee of Onsted, Jeffrey Young, the groom's nephew of Tecumseh; David Noack, the bride's brother-in-law of Ann Arbor; Richard Northrup of Tecumseh; Bryan Schultz, the groom's nephew of Adrian and Jeffrey Corley of Tecumseh.

The reception was held at Roma's of Ann Arbor.

A centerpiece of daisies, pink carnations, ivy and silk forget-me-nots and three candles decorated the bride's table.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Staples of Tecumseh were hosts. Elizabeth Schultz, the groom's niece, tended the guest book.

The bride is a graudate of Eastern Michigan University and teaches fourth grade at Ridgeway Elementary School. The groom is an Adrian College graduate and teaches fifth grade at Ridgeway Elementary School.

After a week in Williamsburg, the couple will live at 2729 Coachlite Dr.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's mother at Bauer Manor.

Aug. 29 Vows in Adrian

The forth coming marriage of Michele Rene Bovee and Duncan Aubrey Judson is announced by her mother, Patricia J. Bovee, 508 Seneca.

A civil ceremony is planned for Aug. 29, 11 a.m. at the Courthouse in Adrian.

Miss Bovee is a senior at Tecumseh High School. Mr. Judson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Judson, 724 Ternes. He is a 1978 Tecumseh graduate, employed at Bohn Aluminum and Brass, Adrian.

Features Morgans

Tecumseh area residents who have been viewing the Walt Disney film "Justin Morgan Had a Horse," seen locally on channel 4, can see and hear more about Morgan horses first hand at an "open barn" being hosted Aug. 19, 1-5 p.m. at Lenawee Morgans, 8850 Billmyer Hwy.

Kay and Ken Zornow are the owners of Lenawee Morgans, the largest Morgan breeders in Lenawee County and one of the largest in the state.

The couple has 35 head. Currently, five are breeding studs. They show their Morgans in class A shows across the country competing with 300-400 horses in a show. They are members of the American Morgan Horses Association.

The Morgan is the true American bred horse, known for its versatility and as a family horse, said Zornow.

Area residents are invited to visit Lenawee Morgans Sunday afternoon.

MR. and MRS. RANDALL L. BAKER

Kiersey - Baker Vows Spoken

Suzanne A. Kiersey and Randall L. Baker were married Aug. 11, 7:30 p.m. at the First Christian Church in Adrian.

The Rev. Toby Stadden, pastor of the Cadillac-Manton First Christian Church, officiated the ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Kiersey of Adrian and Mrs. Carol Spycher of 6136 Townline How., Adrian and Phillip Baker of Mesa, Ariz.

Eleanor Roesch was organist and Stephen F. Kersey, the bride's brother was soloist.

White mums and pink carnations decorated the altar for the ceremony.

The bride chose a white gown of nylon acetate for her wedding. It was designed with a lace bodice, cap sleeves and empire waistline with overskirt effect. Flower appliques accented the bodice, skirt and full length veil. She wore a diamond necklace, a gift from the groom.

She carried white mums, pink sweetheart roses in a cascade arrangement.

Kimberley Blohm of Mt. Pleasant was maid of honor wearing a pink gown with pink floral butterfly sleeved jacket. She carried white mums, pink carnations and roses with accents of green star flowers and wore a pink carnation and roses in her hair.

Bridesmaids were Deborah Benson of Bloomfield Hills, Melissa Westol of Adrian and Nancy Rose of Adrian.

Timothy Hubbard of Onsted was best man. Ushers were Daniel Baker, the groom's brother of Adrian; Ronald Baker, the groom's brother of Hamburg and Terry Furgason of Tipton.

A buffet dinner for 250 guests was held at the Eagles in Adrian. An arrangement of pink and white flowers decorated the bride's table.

The bride is an Adrian High School graduate. She received a degree from Michigan State University in 1978. She is a secretary-receptionist for Dr. Rick Snow, Adrian.

The groom is an Onsted graduate, attended Ferris State College and is a salesman for John Underwood Chevrolet, Clinton.

After a tour of the Western United States, the couple will live at 1387 W. Maple Ave., Adrian.

The groom's mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. John Spycher, hosted the rehearsal dinner at the County House Restaurant.

Sharon MacGeorge Weds Tony Barber

Gloria Dei Luthean Church was the setting for the Aug. 11, 7 p.m. marriage of Sharon Marie MacGeorge and Tony Michael Barber.

Pastor Laszlo Gero officiated the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace MacGeorge of 216 Park St. and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Barber of Rapid City.

Sandra Dunn was organist and Sheila Brake was soloist.

Bouquets of daisies and yellow carnations decorated the altar. Candelabra lighted the aisle.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white, knit gown. The V-neckline had an insert of reembroidered Alencon lace with accents of lace on the cap sleeves and empire waistline. Tiny pearls accented the bodice. The pleated skirt fell softly into a chapel train, edged in lace.

Her headpiece was a white picture hat, edged in Venice lace and adorned with a cascade of white veil.

She carried a cascade bouquet styled with white daisies, stephanotis, yellow roses and ivy.

Gay Petroff of Clarkston was maid of honor wearing an ice mint, knit gown with matching crochet lace yoke that tied at the neckline. The waist had a soft blouson style, the sleeves were elbow length.

She wore a single daisy with baby's breath in her hair and carried a matching nosegay with daisies, miniature carnations, yellow roses and purple statice.

Bridesmaids were Sandy MacGeorge, the bride's sister of Tecumseh, Phyllis Roberts of Ypsilanti, and Terri Barber, the groom's sister of Berkley, attired the same as the maid of honor.

David Spencer of Kalkaska was best man. The groom's father also acted as best man. Jim Dewey of Bellaire and Jay Barber, the groom's cousin of Rapid City, were ushers.

Groomsmen were Rick Knust of Kalkaska, Mike Henderson of Rapid City and Bob Short of Kalkaska.

A reception was held at Peerless Gear Union Hall.

A centerpiece of daisies, yellow carnations and baby's breath decorated the bride's table.

Lisa Maki, the bride's niece, passed the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Exelby, the bride's aunt and uncle, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gentry Jr., the groom's sister and brother-in-law, hosted the recepition.

The bride is a graduate of Central Michigan University and special education teacher. The groom attended Central Michigan University and is employed by Charn of Lakes Construction in Bellaire.

After a week at Virginia Beach, the couple will reside at 9600 Pine Circle Dr., Rapid City, Mich. 49676.

Township Officials Issue Statements Relative to Recall Election

Robert D. Moore

In considering a new machine, the township clerk made inquiries of several businesses locally as to price, performance and service. The prices for new machines ranged from $4,000 to $5,000. During the process, one dealer offered a used machine in serviceable condition for $600.

By taking advantage of the offer between $3,400 and $4,400 was saved by the township for use in effecting other projects. The machine purchased is in the township hall and is producing highly satisfactory results.

The other instance was in entering into an agreement with an outside assessor to complete work started by the previous administration. Just because the proper foresight wasn't used to include a contingency clause to provide for completion of the work.

Had we started all over again and ignored the knowledge gained in the first phase would have ignored good business judgement.

These two instances haven't in any way changed the policy of the board in getting bids on major purchases or services.

The policy also extends to departments and commissions under the jurisdiction of the board.

With regard to budget preparation in following accepted procedures, a line budget was drawn in no way different than that of previous administrations and other townships. This seems to be a bone of contention, which, when rationalized would appear to be ridiculous. A budget is just what the dictionary implies and has to be viewed in its proper context.

The variate came in the allocations to the budget because of past misconceptions of the budget's purpose. For example, previous budgets had no provision for office expenses and supplies.

Yet monies were spent for supplies, telephone, etc. and then hidden from scrutiny by charging it to the supervisor clerk or another township official, even though that official had no responsibility for the direct use or purchase of the items involved. Such a practice encourages loose bookkeeping and accounting.

Raisin Township has a set procedure for the conduct of board meetings. It is a procedure followed by almost every governmental body and most boards and commissions in the private sector.

That procedure is to establish an agenda to insure an orderly conduct of business and to acquaint members beforehand with matters to be taken under consideration.

Every citizen has the privilege of requesting that his or her request to be heard or that a matter of interest be included on the agenda. The request has to be made within a reasonable time before a meeting.

Unfortunately, there has been an instance or two where attempts were made to ignore an orderly conduct of business. Our attempt to maintain equal time was interpreted as a display of abrasiveness.

In making this judgement, we favored an orderly conduct rather than a stampede for personal aggradizement beneficial to self-appointed, special interest critics.

Another privilege of citizens, particularly those who own property, is the recourse of appeal. In the area of tax assessments, the first recourse is the Board of Review.

Lacking satisfaction at this level, a property owner has the right to appeal to the State Tax Tribunal.

Many taxpayers have taken advantage of the appeal process, among them is myself. Last April, a District Court referee from Lansing agreed with me that my property assessment was too high when compared to assessments of comparable property. It resulted in a lower assessment.

With regard to assessments on property by this administration, all are subject to review. Any property owner can exercise the same right I enjoy.

In summary, allegations that have been leveled at me and other members of the board fail in producing little more than falsehoods or personal misconceptions.

Every official, regardless of the level of government, should welcome constructive criticism. Destructive criticism or effort designed only for personal gain are unwelcome.

Marjorie Comfort

debt. Mr. Moore is, after all, a recognized business leader with experience in money management.

Several changes in bookkeeping procedures were made to make expenses easier to understand and follow. For instance, we removed expenses such as heat, light and telephone from the Fire Department.

Now, although there are fewer total dollars in the Fire Department account, there are more — not less — actual dollars to spend on salaries and equipment.

As for the charge of "overstepping authority," the attorney for the Michigan Township Association writes this about the clerk:

"His statuatory duties are numerous, technical and legally essential to the proper operation of municipal government."

I'm just doing my job.

In response to the charge "cannot get along with others:"

The citizens of Raisin Township have given me their support in every primary and general election since 1972. I thank them for their continued support and this evidence that they like what I'm doing for them in township government.

In response to the charge "lacks intestinal fortitude:"

Raisin residents know I stand behind them. They also know I stand between them and anyone giving them a hard time, whether it's a mortgage company, a report they need help filling out or another government office.

And I stand beside them to keep Raisin Township the place where they want to live.

Two controversial decisions have been made in Raisin Township in the past eight months. One was made by the Township Board of Appeals, the other by the Township Board.

On advice from the township attorney, the town board asked the Board of Appeals to decide whether the Lenawee County Humane Society should be allowed to build an animal shelter on land which Raisin Township residents wished to sell them for that purpose.

The Board of Appeals approved the usage, with strings attached which would prevent any noise, odors or other annoyance from affecting any neighbors. The closest residents, other than the owners of the property, are about a quarter mile away.

A visiting judge ruled that this decision should have been up to the Planning Commission, not the Board of Appeals, because of recent changes in the state law. This ruling is being appealed to a higher court, — (because it may affect other townships as well) — but at no cost to the township.

Another controversy arose over hiring assessing help for the supervisor. This is the third time help has been asked (by a Raisin Township supervisor) in the last five years, and the first time a question has been raised about it.

Five years ago the late Supervisor James Mitchell discovered that although he had walked every parcel of land and visited nearly every home in the township, he could not defend his assessments against appeal before the State Tax Tribunal because he could not show the tribunal a card file of property assessments.

Mr. Mitchell asked and received authority from the township board for outside help to prepare this card file. Cost was about $7,000 directly to township funds, and another $40,000 paid by county and federal C.E.T.A. grants.

In 1977, Richard Gallaway, then supervisor, asked and received board permission to hire Lynn Hedges to do all the commercial assessments in Raisin Township. Cost of this was $2,500.

Last January the township board, faced by the change of administration and the suddenly discovered need to perform a full year's assessment program in six weeks, voted to hire Miss Hedges to do the job for $7,200, and to aim toward a goal of having a professional assessor in the township.

This was a unanimous decision from the five persons on the board.

This keeps us one step ahead of the State, which is moving surely to a goal of removing all assessing function from elected officers and combining local governments into larger taxing units.

Many townships in Lenawee County and throughout the state hire professional assessors. Others contract with the state or county to do the work.

The only way to fight against state control over this assessing function is to make sure that the local tax roll is fair to all parcels and classes of property. Residences, farms, business and industry all must be fairly assessed.

The township board is trying to prevent a state take-over by doing the job correctly at home.

Dr. Robert Murray

a variance to build an animal shelter on M-52, across from Centerview Golf Course.

"I heard evidence on both sides. Everything was well presented," said Murray. "And it came down to a question of do you believe the promises. I did. I think it (the Humane Society) is being well run and doing an excellent job, a different job from what they have done a few years ago."

He said he felt the location for the shelter was "acceptable." "You can't say no to every county function. Every area has some responsibility to take some of those service locations," said Murray expressing his view of township cooperation with county services.

On the township board's adoption of the 1979-80 budget, Murray said he approved it.

"We had sort of a primitive system before this was introduced. In the past, the board tried to allocate utilities, insurance expenses to each trustee or department. It was hard to understand. Supervisor Moore grouped some of these in a common listing. Once you reasoned it out, the dollars were the same and it worked out fine. The bookkeeping was just a little different."

On the board's decison to hire an accessor, Murray stated: "(Lynne Hedges) did an excellent job for the township on some assessing the previous year. Supervisor Moore reported we had some serious needs for assessing and I was 100 percent for doing that."

"Previously, agriculture was (assessed) low, which meant residential people were picking up a lot. A factor is not a bad thing when everyone is equal to start with. But a factor would not have been good in our township."

"We are the same size as Tecumseh. Our population is over 6,000 and assessed valuation is about $45 million. I think people would like to see it (the assessors' job) go back to being in someone's home, but if we did that, we'd be very vulnerable on any outside factor."

On the subject of Raisin Township's charter township status, approved by the township electorate last November, Murray stated he felt it was good because it will result in a larger board, from five to seven members beginning in 1980, and will give the township broader based representation.

It will enable the township to levy up to five mills for operation to meet the growing needs of a growing township, he added. Now the township levies one mill, for fire protection, Murray said.

But Murray said he also has reservations about charter status. Referring to township board he said, "I'd much rather eliminate all the salaries and have staff people give us information to make decisions."

Murray said he does not understand what the petitioners mean by the statement that he "lacks intestinal fortitude" when it comes to representing the best interests of the township.

An an example of the opposite, he cited his interest in cleaning junk from the township.

I've been encouraging us to have vigorous enforcement of our nuisance ordinance and keep the township clean so we don't become a collection of junk autos and litter for the entire county.

"If we allow litter to accumulate, property values go down and assessments look too high." He said there are some signs of this in the Osburn Subdivision.

"We've taken steps to eliminate the junk. We have constables get the junk cars out of the area. I believe if there is an ordinance, it should be enforced.

"Two years ago, we toured the township and took notes. A few weeks ago, six or seven of the township officials made a tour again. We compared our notes with two years ago and feel the situation is much improved."

Regarding the charge that he has used his office "to benefit himself and his friends," Murray replied, "If I had a fire truck in my backyard or something to that effect, that might apply. I'm sort of a loner, not a very good group worker," Murray said about the allegations that he noted in conspiracy with the other townsihp officials being recalled.

"I'm more concerned with getting the people out to vote. We've got to get a good representation," Murray emphasized.

Sorry, Pat

NIGHT and DAY

In mills and factories across the country, they never stop working. By night as well as by day, the wheels of commerce grind out the goods we need as a nation.

It's a twenty-four hour job, this business of production, and it's a vital job — to you, your family, your town, our whole country. Like most vital jobs, it can't be stopped.

Faith is a vital job, too. It isn't simply something that God gives you, free of charge, on Christmas and at Easter. You have to work for real faith. You have to earn it. You have to keep at it.

Fortunately, to help you gain and sustain this vital faith, you have the Church to guide you. Start attending every Sunday and there absorb the wonders of God's teachings.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

It all started many weeks ago. In fact, according to our embarrassingly sketchy bird calendar, it began the same afternoon that we had such fun with the catbirds. And just as we heard the pretty gray catbirds before we saw them, so it was with the orioles. That clean pure whistle could not be mistaken. As soon as we heard the song we started looking.

He was easy to spot. His singing perch was in the back yard walnut tree. He was handsome as are all male orioles — his head, wings and tail were black and his body was a brilliant orange.

It took us longer to locate the female but finally we saw her near the top of the neighbor's cherry tree. She was unusually colorful for a female, her head was brownish and her body was a surprisingly bright orange-yellow. Lovely birds.

Several days later there were three orioles around. A closer look showed them to be kids. At first glance they looked much like the female but when they came closer to the porch, it was easy to see that their throats were light, not dark.

Oh yes, we were on the porch and they did come near. They were in what we call the mulberry tree-bush.

Perhaps it is a male plant, it does not grow into a tall tree form as do other mulberries nor does it bear the heavy crop of messy black fruit that they do. However, orioles have always shown a great fondness for it.

Apparently there are tasty, wriggly and crawly creatures to be found on the branches and leaves, and these kids were giving it a thorough examination.

When they ventured on the limb which grows towards the porch, we had ample opportunity to see the white bars on their dark wings.

As they flew from one branch to another we could not help but notice that these kids, too, were brighter than usual. Two had lemony-yellow throats, breasts, tummies and undertails. The third had more of an orange cast on his brilliant yellow front.

Often in the spring, when the birds are gathering, nesting material, we have watched the female orioles work ever so hard in this tree-bush. Apparently some of the bark comes off in long strips, exactly what they need to weave those long hanging-basket nests.

We have laughed as they struggle to do two things at once, the fibers to be pulled off grow on the long supple branches and to maintain balance while working hard at the bark is quite a struggle.

And speaking of orioles' nests brings to mind a little blurb in the book I was reading the other day. According to the new Reader's Digest book about birds, there are orioles living in the jungle areas of this hemisphere, who cluster their hanging-basket nests near wasp nests.

The nests are similiar in appearance — the wasps don't seem to bother the birds but they do keep marauding monkeys away. These are brilliantly colored orioles and imagine, they are about the size of crows!

The latest, and perhaps the best, oriole experience which Mom and I enjoyed was their two day session of mud puddle bathing. Many heavy rains had kept the long low spot in the road full of dirty muddy water.

First one, then two, and then three youngsters spent the better part of both days playing in the puddle. Ducking and splashing and just having great times. Water flew everywhere.

After each thorough ducking they would fly to nearby trees, preen their feathers and then go back for more water splashing. Sometimes they were joined by young cardinals and bluejays, other times they were by themselves.

The irony of the situation is that the puddle was muddy and dirty whereas, just a few feet away, was spic and span bird birdbath full of fresh, clear and sparkling water.

Much further away was Evans Creek; however, it was near flood stage and we could see why the birds did not use it. But a mud puddle in preference to a birdbath — well, as they say, to each his own.

Senior Citizen Day at County Fair

Senior citizens day at the Lenawee County Fair will be Aug. 23. Seniors 65 years and those with identification badges will be admitted free until 6 p.m.

Beginning at 3 p.m., at the bandstand, Walter McCallum, director of the Department on Aging will be the master of ceremonies for the variety show presented by seniors.

Trophies will be awarded to those 60 years and older in seven categories:

The person that drove the farthest to get there; the oldest Lenawee County residents (man and woman); the couple married the most years; the shortest time; the couple married the most recent great-great-grandparent; and the baldest gentleman present.

The Civitans and HUSTLE will again aid the Lenawee County Department on Aging with transportation throughout the day. Contact your local senior center by Aug. 13 if you wish transportation. The Tecumseh number to call is 423-5939.

Appoint Anschuetz

Walter W. McCallum, director of the Lenawee County Department on Aging, announced the appointment of Diann Anschuetz of Tecumseh as the director of program development and supportive services.

Anschuetz assumes the responsibilities for developing new programs and supportive services, the continuation of traditional programs and services and staff leadership and coordination for the volunteer and outreach program, senior center directors, special projects and the efforts of the department's resource workers.

McCallum noted, "the programs and services provided by the Lenawee County Department on Aging through the Adiran, Addison, Blissfield, Deerfield, Hudson, Morenci, Onsted and Tecumseh Senior Citizen Centers and the Kiwanis Riverview Terrace apartments are provided to all persons 60 years and older and spouse regardless of age. We welcome senior citizens regardless of race, religious or political belief and economic status.

If your brand new car is 'totaled' will your insurance company pay you for a brand new car?

Some insurance companies think a new car is a used car the minute you use it to drive out of the dealership. Not Auto-Owners.

With Auto-Owners, if you have an accident anytime within 90 days and your new car is a total loss, we'll pay you the total cost of your new car. And with Auto-Owners, your new car is covered immediately, automatically, under your previous policy.

So if you're about to get a new car, talk to us at Auto-Owners. Maybe you should get a new insurance company, too.

Lieus Make Home in Tecumseh

by Kathy Brown

Lieu Thuy Hien and his family may be broke when it comes to material possessions, but they are not broken.

The family of seven is understandably weary after traveling halfway around the world, but the Lieus are grateful to be alive and together. They are gracious to their visitors and trusting of their sponsors. Most of all, they are hopeful.

"We hope we can start work again to make money," Mr. Lieu, 58, stated. His oldest son, Dan, interpreted. "We will be good citizens in the United States. We do not want to have to leave our home again."

Mr. Lieu's statement that he wanted nothing to do with the Communists, did not need translation. He emphatically shook his head "No" and laughed nervously. Chances are he does not want much boat travel either.

The Chinese family of seven are among the thousands of boat people of Malaysia that seek refuge from Communist Vietnam.

A little more then a year ago, they surrendered all their property to the Communists "in exchange" for a chance to leave the country, explained Dan, oldest of the five children aged 12-18. Those refugees without property had to pay to leave — in effect a ransom.

Together with 165 other people, the Lieus bought a boat and literally cast their fate to the sea, hoping that a passing vessel from a friendly country would pick them up and take them to a new place to start — anyplace where they would not have to run from the Communists again.

This was Lieu Thuy Hien's second escape from Communism. His first brush with it was when he left his native China for Vietnam in 1947.

This time, the exodus for him and his family ended happily three weeks ago when they arrived in Tecumseh, sponsored by the Tecumseh United Methodist Church.

The family includes his wife, Lam Quoc Anh, 41, and children, sons Dan, 18 and Quan, 17 and daughters Muoi, 18; Mu, 15 and Binh, 12.

They live at 616 W. Kilbuck St., a home the church rents for them. Love gifts of food from the congregation and attention to their immediate medical needs is quite a change for them from the year they spent in an overcrowded refugee camp in Malaysia where the police filled out applications for who should receive medical treatment at a hospital on the nearest island.

It is hard to imagine for those of us who take our property for granted, what it is like to leave everything behind and seek a new start, not knowing whether those dreams of freedom will be an epitaph at sea or be successfully played out in storybook style as they seem to be for the Lieus.

The Lieu family considered itself more fortunate than others living in Vietnam. They owned a garage. Their father is skilled in repairing diesel and small explosion engines. He also worked as a scrap contractor. Their lifestyle could have been called "middle class."

When the Communists took over Vietnam in 1975, bigger businesses were confiscated by the Communists and the owners jailed.

Smaller businesses like Lieu's were not considered a threat, Dan explained. Besides, the government slowly milked money from the small business owners.

"Slowly they were taking money and we thought the garage would be lost to the government," Dan explained.

So the family "exchanged" its property for a chance to leave the country.

Fortunately for the Lieus, they were on the water only two nights and one day before an American commercial vessel, which Dan said was looking for oil off the Malaysian coast, picked up the passengers on their boat.

They were taken to Pulah Tengah, one of six United Nations refugee camps in Malaysia. "We did not feel safe in the camp because there was illness, not enough medicine. People died there. The police filled out applications for those who could leave for hospital treatment on another island," Dan told.

The family stayed there for about a year. They do not have relatives in the United States.

About Easter time this year, the Tecumseh United Methodist Church membership voted to sponsor a refugee family, said social concerns chairperson Joan Miller. "Within a week, we had their name. July 23 they arrived in Detroit."

The church has set out to meet the family's needs. The father started work Aug. 13 at Meyers Industries in Blissfield, the 7 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. shift. Until a regular ride can be found, church members are driving the ather. Eventually, the family will need a car.

Part-time jobs are being sought for the oldest sons.

"We think they may attend Vo-Tec so that they can learn and work, said Mrs. Miller. "We feel that they came here to give a good life to their children. We want them to get their diplomas."

Muoi, the oldest daughter, can sew. Mrs. Lieu may be able to put her homemaker skills to work in a local restaurant.

A washer and dryer are also needed by the family.

Dental needs are another hurdle for the family and sponsors.

They are getting help learning English from Michael Cain, of Jackson Community College, coordinator for the IndoChinese relief project in southeastern Michigan.

Dan speaks English and Vietnamese well and speaks Mandarin and Cantonese fluently. He was educated in a Taiwanese school, privately operated. His brother attended a French school. The sisters attended FouKien school, Dan said. The family speaks FouKien (Phuoc Kien), a Chinese dialect, at home.

The Tecumseh United Methodist Church is working through its Board of Global Ministries of the United Methodist Committee on Relief.

The Church World Service, an interdenominational organization, provided a no interest loan to the family for their air flight from Maylasia to Detroit and also a $700 grant to the church, $100 per person, to help the sponsors get the family started.

Governmental aid such as welfare is being avoided at this time, said Mrs. Miller, echoing the father's own desire for economic self-maintenance as soon as possible.

Mrs. Miller commented that the mission project has been one the church members have been able to get involved with. "It has been a good experience for the church," she summarized.

St. Elizabeth Catholic Church has sponsored 37 Vietnamese people since 1975 and has helped them become self-reliant.

Readers who wish to assist the new immigrants may contact the Methodist Church in Tecumseh.

Allens Celebrate 50th

MR. and MRS. ROBERT ALLEN

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen, 109 Wisner Hwy., will observe their 50th wedding anniversary at a reception, Aug. 19, at 4 p.m. in the Seventh Day Adventist Church, Hunt Rd., Adrian.

Wilma Wellnitz and Robert Allen were married, Aug. 18, 1929 in Milan.

The reception is being arranged by their children, Rosemond Hoag, of Costa Mesa, Calif., and Mrs. Carl (Anita) Piekarek, Tecumseh.

The couple has five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Y's Young Scholars Nursery School

Applications are being accepted for the 1979-80 school year for the Lenawee County YMCA pre-school Y's Young Scholars.

Ann Basham serves as teacher and director with Jackie Nickoloff serving as her assistant.

The YMCA is completing its sixth year with the program which offers social, physical and intellectual development. Skills in language development is also a part of the program.

Each child will have a period in the gymnium each week learning the proper use of much of the apparatus and playing in the controlled environment.

Also under the direction of the qualified staff at the 'Y' is a swimming program held each week in conjunction with the nursery.

Field trips are scheduled periodically with experiences varied to stimulate the child's awareness and interest in the world around him.

Dr. W.C. Elwartowski

Dear Doctor, What is neuritis?

Neuritis is one of a number of diseases of the nerves or the nervous system.

There are many causes; and there are a number of symptoms, some of which could be misleading. Among those symptoms are tingling or numbness in the hands or feet or the areas supplied by the nerves, muscular weakness absent or reduced muscle reflexes, loss of sensation in the affected areas, pain and sweating in the area supplied by the diseased nerve or nerves.

Whatever the cause, among the many, it is certain that a nerve, a group of nerves, or a master nerve trunk is affected.

The chiropractor is an authority of the spinal column and of the body's entire nervous system. He is the expert mechanic whose gentle, competent hands can make the adjustments necessary to restore the nervous system to its proper order, thus allowing the body to function normally and bring immeasurable, lasting relief.

For further information on this question, or if you have other related questions, feel free to write Dr. Elwartowski at 101 S. Pearl St., Tecumseh, MI 49286.

4-H Members at Horse Show

Eleven Lenawee County youths will take their horses to Michigan State University for the annual State 4-H Horse Show Aug. 21.

Participating Tecumsehites are Kelly Tilton, Karla Daly, Linda Lacny and Teresa Boring. Tipton participants are Rita Burinda, Lisa Gregory and Brenda Joliff.

They will be among nearly 500 4-H members from all over Michigan who will participate in the daylong event featuring 13 rings with different competitions taking place simultaneously.

More than 200 classes range from hunter equitation and dressage to western pleasure and barrel racing.

A new event this year is trail riding, in which contestants will ride through a course with obstacles commonly encountered on a trail ride.

"The show gives the youngsters an opportunity to assess their abilities by observing and competing against 4-H'ers from counties other than their own," says Elva Lovell, Lenawee County 4-H program assistant.

"They can also share ideas with members with similar interests."

In addition to the various competitions, the show stresses learning horse show management. Nearly all of the 75 horse show officials are volunteer leaders from 4-H clubs throughout the state.

One or two kids from each county participate in the judging experience program. They will spend the day with one of the judges, observing how a horse show is run.

The 4-H horse project is one of the most popular 4-H programs in Michigan.

"Besides encouraging horsemanship for recreation, the program emphasizes responsibility in horse care, sportsmanship and safety, Mrs. Lovell explained.

The show will begin at 9 a.m. at the grounds at Farm Lane and Mt. Hope Road. Seating and parking facilities will be available. The public is welcome at no charge.

The horse show is one of several 4-H activities which will be held at MSU Aug. 20-23. The first Michigan 4-H Livestock Expo, Aug. 20-23, will feature competitions in beef cattle, swine and sheep production. Contests range from livestock judging and meat identification to livestock photography and public speaking.

For further information, contact your county Cooperative Extension Service office. (263-8831, ext. 298.)

Promoted

Kent B. Herrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Todd W. Herrick of 216 Wildwood, has been promoted to the rank of Sergeant First Class at Howe Military School Summer Camp. Kent's promotion was recently announced by William S. Hicks, Camp Director.

Operated since 1921 at Cedar Lake, three and one-half miles from Howe Military School Campus, the six-week camp offers complete athletic, recreational and academic (mathematics and English) programs for boys, aged eight through fourteen, and credit academic programs in Mathematics and English for boys fifteen through seventeen.

Etta Adams Turns 80

Etta Adams, 80, of Hillsdale was the surprise guest of honor Aug. 5 at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bethel, 6123 Woodland Dr.

Eighty-six friends and relatives joined the family for an early afternoon dinner. Tables were decorated in yellow and white with a large cake and corsage in the color theme presented to Mrs. Adams from her daughter and her husband.

Guests came from Pioneer and Kunkle, Ohio; Camden, Moscow, Reading, Montgomery, Lake City, Hudson, Kalamazoo, Chicago, Alma, Lansing, Cadillac and St. Joseph.

A four generation picture was taken of Mrs. Adams, her daughter, Mrs. Bethel; her grandson, Brad Hamilton; her great-granddaughter, Bridgette.

Mrs. Adams opened gifts and the rest of the day was spent socially with games and visiting. Mrs. Adams' grandchildren from Tucson, Ariz., made a surprise call.

Investigate 5 Accidents

Only five traffic accidents occurred here the past week, but one involved personal injury for a Dundee driver.

Friday, Wanda E. Moore, 62, of Dundee, was unable to stop in time before running into the rear of a vehicle driven by Shanavas O. Thrackandathil, 38, Adrian, on W. Chicago at Rogers.

Moore was cited by police for failure to stop within an assured clear distance. She was taken to Herrick Hospital for treatment of injuries.

Other mishaps were:

Aug. 8 — Cletus J. Lafollette, 38, Blissfield, was attempting to turn right off S. Maumee when his tractor-trailer outfit scraped a vehicle operated by Gerald M. Petry, 43, of 9299 Tonnerberger Dr.

Aug. 13 — Paul F. Rohlan, 35, Adrian, was cited for improper backing after backing out of a private drive on Herrick Park Dr. Joy Ann Derousha, 31, of 701 Center Dr., was passing at the time and was struck by the Rohlan vehicle.

Aug. 14 — James A. Clement, 19, of 5732 Centennial, was attempting to turn off W. Chicago into N. VanBuren St., when his car struck a curb there and did minor lawn damage. He was charged with failure to have his vehicle under control.

Aug. 14 — Ricky L. Bacon, 26, Tipton, backed into Joseph Murphy of Tecumsh at the Cheker service station.

Rescue Youth

An eighteen year old Saline youth was rescued by his two young companions Aug. 3 in a reported "near drowning" in a backyard pond at 11281 Ford Hwy., according to the marine division of the Lenawee County Sheriff's Department.

Ronald Gilreath, 18, of 7405 Hack Rd., Saline was swimming and apparently went under. His two young companions Michael Keller, 14, of the Ford Rd. address and Kurt Hudgins of Clinton jumped in the water and pulled Gilreath to shore, stated a sheriff's department spokesman.

Gilreath was conscious and gasping, the report continued. He was taken by EMT ambulance to Herrick Hospital and released the same day.

Smiths Hosting

Tri-County Mothers of Twins Club will hold its annual family picnic, Aug. 26 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, 10045 Tecumseh-Clinton Rd.

Each family is to bring two dishes to pass and own meat, tables service and beverages.

B&E at Handy Residence

Most police complaints were routine the past week except for a breaking and entering of the Max L. Handy home at 203 Pine St.

Two juveniles are suspected in the B&E that occurred Saturday. Entry was gained by breaking a rear door window. Several rooms in the house were victimized.

Items stolen include a metal and mineral detector, $21 in cash, camera and numerous miscellaneous items, which were apparently dropped in the Handy's backyard and recovered.

Ralph R. Wolfe, 31, of 103 S. Occidental, had the dubious distinction of being arrested twice for drunk driving on consecutive days. He was arrested Friday on E. Evans after police stopped him for speeding, and again Saturday on W. Pottawatamie.

Other complaints were:

Aug. 8 — Susan E. Mason, 816 Waskins Dr., reported hood and grill damage to her vehicle.

Aug. 9 — Milissa Goins, 121 W. Chicago, told police her bike was stolen while parked behind a downtown store.

Aug. 9 — Greg Long, of Long Motor Sales, reported a canvas top from a Jeep stolen.

Aug. 10 — Marie C. Brown, 719 Ternes, had a billfold with a small amount of money taken from her vehicle.

Aug. 10 — Ricardo and Roger Calzada, 907 Murray, were arrested at the Second Wind and charged with being disorderly persons.

Aug. 11 — Richard D. Flores, 38, Brooklyn, was arrested for driving while license was suspended.

Aug. 11 — Donald J. Barron Jr., Tipton, reported the plastic top on his Jeep cut and two speakers damaged while the vehicle was in the Kroger parking lot.

Aug. 12 — Karen Vance, 509 Center Dr., reported a stolen bicycle.

Aug. 12 — William Silberhorn, 21, of 3701 Rogers Hwy., told police that a set of keys to the Tecumseh Park building was stolen there along with his wallet, containing $15 and personal papers. Officers have a suspect.

Aug. 13 — Marion Webb, 106 Hiawatha, reported a jig saw, battery charger and some dishes and bowls taken from the garage and residence there.

Aug. 13 — Dennis Bowman, 302 N. Van Buren, reported a broken mirror on his vehicle.

Aug. 14 — Susan Goins, 121 W. Chicago, had her car scratched on both sides and across the trunk.

Aug. 14 — Mike Francisco, 406 N. Union, reported a bike stolen at the high school while he was taking drivers training.

Aug. 15 — Bradley S. Hoffman, 29, of 206 S. Democrat, was arrested outside the Embers as a disorderly person.

4-H Horse Project

Lenawee County 4-H teenagers, 15 or older, are eligible to receive a free harness horse to raise and sell at auction for profit next fall.

But time is running out to register for the offer. The deadline is Aug. 24. Contact must be made with the Lenawee County Cooperative Extension Service office before that date, says Elva Lowry, [illegible] 4-H Program Assistant.

This is how the project will work. From all of the candidates who apply for the offer, 15 teenagers in the state will be selected. Finalists will be chosen by state 4-H officials in early September.

In October, each participant will receive a foal from the Michigan Standardbred Breeders' Association (SBA). Each participant will raise the horse until Oct. 1980, and sell it at a standardbred auction.

The 4-H'ers will receive the year's expenses required to raise the horse, plus one-third of the auction sale price. The remainder of the sale price will go to the SBA.

"The project gives the kids a chance to learn the responsibility which comes with caring for a horse," Mrs. Lovell says. "A unique aspect of the standardbred project is that it gives the kids a rare opportunity to learn about the economics and career possibilities in the harness racing industry.

The youngsters will participate in a number of programs throughout the year through the cooperation of the Michigan Harness Horsemen's Association.

They will attend a meeting on care of the standardbred foal, visit breeding and training facilities, show the horses in halter and driving classes, and attend a workshop on preparing a yearling for sale.

Any 4-H member who is at least 15 years old and is currently involved in the horse project is eligible for the program. Members must have written permission from their parents or guardians; have recommendations from their 4-H leaders and county youth agents; demonstrate experience with horses; and have proper facilities.

For further information and applications, contact the county Cooperative Extension Service office. 199 N. Broad St., Adrian, MI, 263-8831, ext. 298.

VILLAGE OF BRITTON, COUNTY OF LENAWEE ORDINANCE NO. 3.985

An ordinance to adopt an amendment to the Uniform Traffic Code for Michigan cities, townships and villages.

At a regular meeting of the Village Council for the Village of Britton, Lenawee County, Michigan, held on the 6th day of August, 1979, at 7:30 p.m., at Council Chambers, 118 Main Street, Britton, Michigan.

PRESENT: Nelle Denny, Phyllis Below, Kermit Pickell, Elmer Bryan, Jerry Dicks, Dorothy Hindes, John Keran.

ABSENT: Janet Furgason

WHEREAS: Act 510, of the Public Acts of 1978 that amends the Michgian Vehicle Code to prohibit local enactment or enforcement of a conflicting municipal ordinance and void any municipal provision which imposes a criminal penalty for a civil infraction under Act 510, P.A. 1978.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Village of Britton ordains:

That Section 9.3 of the Uniform Traffic Code for Michigan cities, townships, and villages is hereby amended as follows:

Sec. 9.3: Penalties

PENALTIES: Any provision of this ordinance which describes an act or omission which consistitutes a civil infraction under the terms of the Michigan Vehicle Code, being 1949 P.A. 300 as amended, shall be processed as a civil infraction and any person found to have committed a civil infraction may be ordered to pay a civil fine of not more than $100 and costs in accordance with Sec. 907 of the Michigan Vehicle Code.

Violation of any other provision of this ordinance not constituting a civil infraction, as herein provided, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment for not more than 90 days or by both such fine and such imprisonment.

The Village Clerk shall publish this ordinance in the manner required by law and shall, at the same time, publish supplementary notice setting forth the purpose of the Uniform Traffic Code and the fact that the complete copies of the code as hereby amended are available at the office of the Clerk for inspection by the public at all times.

This ordinance will take effect on August 22, 1979, and after publication thereof.

The foregoing preamble and ordinance was offered by Nelle Denny and supported by Elmer Bryan.

AYES: Nelle Denny, Phyllis Below, Kermit Pickell, Elmer Bryan, Jerry Dicks, John Keran.

NAYS: None.

ORDINANCE DECLARED ADOPTED.

Kermit Pickell,
Village President.
Dorothy Hindes,
Village Clerk.

NOTICE OF AMENDMENT TO THE UNIFORM TRAFFIC CODE

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the provision of Act 62 of the Public Acts of 1956, State of Michigan, an amendment to the Uniform Traffic Code for cities, townships and villages was adopted by the Council for the Village of Britton, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 6th day of August, 1979.

The purpose of such code and amendment is to regulate the operation of vehicles, to provide for the regulation and use of streets, highways and alleys and other public and semi-public places within the Village of Britton and to provide penalty for violation of said code.

Complete copies of the Uniform Traffic Code and amendments are available at the Office of the Village Clerk for inspection by the public at all times.

No further or additional publication of the Uniform Traffic Code and amendments is required or contemplated.

Dated: August 6, 1979
Dorothy Hindes,
Village Clerk

OK Bonds for Sewer

BRITTON — Last Wednesday the County Board of Commissioners approved the issuance of more than $1 million in bonds through the Farmer's Home Administration for the Britton-Ridgeway sewer project.

Don Mitchell, county drain commissioner, said the FmHA backed bonds only required the general obligation of the people being served.

The FmHA was used because the county is no longer able to place its full faith and credit behind bonds due to the Headlee Amendment.

Mitchell said the bonds are being used at a five percent interest rate and that bonds for a similar amount on the market would cost approximately seven percent.

However, because the bonds are being issued for a 40 year period as opposed to a more conventional 30 years, the cost to residents will be about the same.

Planned construction should begin this year, said Mitchell, as construction contracts for the project have been tentatively awarded. All that is needed is final approval from several state and federal agencies.

For more than 10 years, the sanitary sewer project has been in the works. About 500 property units have been assessed for the service. Collection on the assessments began last year.

Honor Kirk on Birthday

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Keith Crutchfield and Kelley entertained Aug. 9 in observance of the first birthday of their son, Kirk Andrew.

Supper guests were Mrs. Claude Crutchfield, Adrian; Mr. and Mrs. Rex Loomis, Linda, Jane, Judy and Jayce Loomis; Mrs. Art Erickson and Julie; Donna Loomis and Debbie; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bower, Todd, Andrea and Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Loomis and Angie, Dundee; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Loomis and Bobby and David of Tecumseh, and Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Loomis and Jenny Kay.

A decorated puppy dog birthday cake, baked by Kirk's aunt Joyce Loomis, was served with ice cream.

Need Leader

BRITTON — School will soon be in session again and the Camp Fire program will resume.

A second grade Blue Leader is needed.

Anyone who is interested may call Nina Bower, 451-8240.

Plan Dance

A little disco and a little rock will equal a lot of fun Aug. 24 at the end of summer, back to school dance at Tecumseh High School gym, sponsored by A Place for Teens.

Tecumseh area junior and senior high students and their guests are welcome. Tickets are $1.50 per persons, to pay for expenses. Hours of the dance are from 9 p.m. to midnight.

Fred North of WABJ radio will be at the controls.

The dance will give students an opportunity to see all of their friends that they've lost track of all summer. Dances are chaperoned.

This is the only dance that A Place for Teens is sponsoring this summer due to the activity of local discos.

The board of directors plans to become more active in the fall. New teen directors will be elected. Goal of the group is still to provide a permanent place for teens.

Over $1,000 is now in the treasury, a special account for the group at the United Savings Bank.

One thoughtful senior citizen, who is interested in Tecumseh teens, makes anonymous monthly donations to the cause.

Teens or adults interested adults may work with A Place for Teens by calling Pat Tressler, 423-7874; Donna Roe, 423-3313 or Martha Poppink, 423-8018.

Why give up comfort and luxury for the whole family by settling for anything less than Dodge St. Regis?

St. Regis has a trim exterior that allows maximum use of interior space. In fact, this six-passenger car has somewhat more total room inside than its Olds, Pontiac or Buick competition. And, St. Regis delivers solid mileage for a full-size car with its standard two barrel 3.7 litre engine.

In the area of plushness and comfort, St. Regis offers many luxurious standard features. Consider:

● Individually adjustable 60-40 front seats with passenger recliner ● TorqueFlite automatic transmission ● Power steering ● Power front disc/rear drum brakes ● Cut-pile carpeting ● And more!

FLOOD ELEVATION STUDY - PUBLIC NOTICE

The Federal Insurance Administration of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development is conducting a detailed study of the flood hazard areas in the City of Tecumseh.

The purpose of this study is to examine and evaluate the flood hazard areas in sections of the community which are developed or which are likely to be developed. The flood elevations for those areas will also be determined. Flood elevations will be used by the community to carry out the flood plain management objectives of the National Flood Insurance Program. They will also be used as the basis for determining the appropriate flood insurance premium rates applicable for new buildings and their contents as well as determining the rates to be used for the second layer of insurance on existing buildings and contents.

All interested persons are encouraged to bring any relevant facts and technical data concerning local flood hazards to the attention of the Federal Administration for consideration in the course of this study. Such information should be furnished to Calvin Zorn, City Manager, for forwarding to FIA.

This study is being conducted by Williams & Works, Corp of Engineers under contract to the Department of Housing and Urban Development. Funds for this program are authorized under the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 (P.L. 93-234).

City Tournament

Tecumseh Recreation Department will be holding their City League Tournaments for both Men and Women which will commence the week of August 20th.

The women end their regular league play on August 20th and then start tournament play on the 21st with the finals at 8:45 p.m. on the 22nd.

The men have one game on the 21st and then continue play on the 23rd.

United Savings Bank scored eight times in the third, five more in the fourth, two in the fifth and then three more in the sixth before the game was halted due to the 15 run rule. Blaisdell's just couldn't get things going as they went down 18-3.

Cooley and Durkee led the USB 19 hit attack with three hits apiece. The victory left USB one game out of first with a 6-3 record.

American Van Stand scored two times in the first inning and then added five more in the fourth to hold a 7-4 lead after four innings. In the sixth, Margie's Restaurant scored three times to tie the game at seven apiece. Margie's put the pressure on when they scored the go ahead run in the top of the seventh, but VanStand tied it at eight apiece.

Margie's scored again in the eighth and then managed to get VanStand out after they had tied the game again in the bottom of the eighth. Margie's came back and rallied for three runs in the top of the ninth and held on to claim a 12-9 victory.

Slusher had four hits in four trips and LaSavage had three hits.

Betsy Holes Out!

A novice golfer, Betsy Lewis, 5551 Allen Rd., who has only been golfing for two months, using a three wood, slammed 135 yards to a hole-in-one, Tuesday morning at the Silver Lake Golf Course.

Husband Doug, sounded a bit in awe as he told us he had been golfing for three years and couldn't match that.

What good is insurance that pays for accidents, if it takes you 6 months to get paid?

When you purchase car insurance from Auto-Owners, you get more than just protection. You get a commitment. A commitment from us to provide the most efficient claims service anywhere.

Because when you get in an accident, you need the money.

Not next month. But now. And that's just when you get it from Auto-Owners. After all, our reputation was built on fast, fair claim service. But don't just take our word for it. Talk to anyone who's ever had a claim through Auto-Owners. Then, talk to us.

Association Plans Final Golf Tourney

Tecumseh Junior Amateur Golf Association will sponsor its third and final junior tournament of the 1979 season.

The Raisin Valley Golf Club is the site of the tournament which will run Aug. 21, 22 and 23. Cost to players will be either $8 for six boys 12 years of age and younger, and all girls, or $14, boys 13 through 18 years of age.

There will be five divisions:

Boys — 17-18, 15-16, 13-14 and 12 and under.

Girls — all ages.

Boys 13 through 18 years of age will play 18 holes each day, while the others will compete in nine holes per day. Three trophies will be awarded in each division.

Interested players are to be at the golf club no later than 8:30 a.m. on Aug. 21. Each day's play will count toward the total score. The winners will be based on the fewest strokes for the three days. Competition will be limited to 100 players.

Please telephone 423-4053 if you have any questions.

Eliminating Many School Bus Trips

Tecumseh School Board reported Monday night that Standard Oil Company, its supplier for the past five or six years, has set their 1979-80 allocation at 70 percent of Tecumseh's base year gasoline use.

Administratively, the board reported that it planned to cut consumption accordingly in four areas.

First, all elementary field trips have been suspended. Athletic schedules are also being scheduled together in order that teams may travel on the same bus.

Spectator buses will be eliminated for school athletic functions, and the board will also cut the use of school autos for scouting athletic games.

A reserve factor has been built into the allocation if gasoline runs low, but emergency allocation is available for busing students to and from school only.

Board Sets Millage

Because of the Headlee Amendment approved by state voters last fall, Tecumseh School Board set total millage for the coming year at 30.644 mills - a decrease of .196 mills.

According to the Headlee Amendment, which affects operational millage only, increased revenue from property taxes cannot exceed 7.7 percent. This limitation means that the schools can not realize the full increase of district property valuations for tax purposes. Valuations have increased from $102,000,000 to $118,000,000 for the district in the past year.

Two years ago, voters approved 20.5 mills for operation. Last year the board levied only 20 mills, and with the county allocation of 8.5 mills, the schools collected tax dollars from 28.5 mills.

Because the Headlee Amendment affects both the voted millage and the county allocation, the schools will levy 28.304 mills for operation - and not 29 mills which would have been possible.

Although the amendment lessens the amount the board could have collected, some $23,000, the schools will actually receive more tax dollars because of the valuation increase.

Boy, 8, in Coma Transferred Here

David Guild, 8-year-old June accident victim who remains in a coma, has been transferred to Herrick Hospital from Motts Children's Hospital in Ann Arbor.

His father, Dr. Gordon Guild, said Wednesday morning that there have been some slight encouraging signs, although his son remains in a coma.

Club Organizes for Season

With the opening of the football season just three weeks away, the Indian Fan Club has started its annual solicitation of businesses, industry and professional people for donations.

During the past year, the club through its fund raising projects has helped sponsor and provide various team summer camps, concession stand equipment, indoor baseball batting cage, weight lifting equipment, football kicking and passing machine, and gymnasium and athletic, field scoreboards.

Club officers are Bob Robinson, president; Jack Duncan, vice president; Shirley Wallich, secretary; and John Ruggirello, treasurer.

Trustees are Ron Wisner, Buck Smith, Tom Walters, Hal Broderick, Tom Jacoby, Lois Tilton, Jim Newell and Gordie Greiman.

Raisin Voters Recall Three

Special Election Is Certain for New Government Township

Raisin Township will have another election and new governing officials following Tuesday's recall of three officials.

Township voters, approximately 50 percent of the [illegible] voters there, recalled Robert D. Moore, supervisor; Marjorie Comfort, clerk, and Dr. Robert Murray, trustee.

Unofficial returns were 756-405 for the recall of Moore; Comfort, 687-465, and Murray, 678-465.

The recall vote leaves the township without a quorum on its five-member board, and technically without a governing body for township affairs. The governor of the state may make appointments to fill the positions until an election is held according to Howard McCowan, election division of the Michigan Department of Secretary of State.

An election, by law, must be held early this fall.

Moore was elected supervisor and to public office for the first time last fall and took office in January. Comfort, former township treasurer, also was elected clerk last fall, and Dr. Murray was a 13-year veteran on the board.

Although all charges against the three were vague, at best, probable reason for their ouster was the employment earlier this year of a professional assessor for township property.

Some properties were found not even to be on the tax rolls, card files on property were not complete, and other property not properly assessed. Whether the new board will retain the services of a professional assessor will be a question or decision for the new board.

Campaign against the three officials was organized in June with the filing of recall petitions. Reported leaders in the recall were Claude Lane, Shirley Rohback and Larry Carpenter.

In a statement Wednesday morning from Mrs. Comfort, she said, "I've enjoyed my years serving Raisin Township and am disappointed this association is over. I regret the turmoil that is going to take place now in township government."

Duhan Reports on School Opening

Tecumseh Public Schools will open for all pupils, except kindergarten, on Wednesday, Sept. 5, according to Supt. Robert Duhan.

Elementary pupils, kindergarten through sixth grade will be mailed assignment cards during the last week of August. However, if it is necessary to make some assignment changes after school starts because of class loads, these changes will be made as soon as possible.

Parents of children, who are new to the Tecumseh Public School District and who haven't registered their children, are asked to enroll their kindergarten through sixth grade pupils immediately with Mrs. Vollmar at the Board of Education Office, 304 W. Chicago Blvd.

Children are eligible for kindergarten if they are five years old on or before December 1, 1979. Parents who plan to send their children to kindergarten and haven't enrolled them are asked to do so immediately.

The Junior High School (grades seventh and eighth) will be open from August 20 for new enrollments. Guidance personnel will be at the Senior High School from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Thursday and Friday, August 30 and 31, to confer, counsel and enroll pupils new to Tecumseh High School.

The first day will be a full day of school for all pupils in grades 1-12. Kindergarteners' first day will be Thursday, Sept. 6. Kindergarten teachers will, however, be in their rooms from 8:55 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. (except for lunch) on Wednesday, Sept. 5, to meet with parents and students.

If a child has been assigned to a morning session, parents should plan to meet with the teacher in the morning. If assigned to an afternoon session, they should plan to meet the teacher in the afternoon. Parents should bring their child's health record and birth certificate, if it was not presented at the time of the child's registration.

High School student schedule cards will be mailed to the enrolled students the last week of August. High School clases will begin on September 5th at 7:45 a.m.

Junior High School pupils are to report at 7:45 a.m. on Sept. 5, the seventh grade to the boys' gym on the first floor and the eighth grade to the girl's gym on the third floor. Regular classes will begin immediately following the distribution of schedule cards.

Elementary starting time will be 8:55 a.m. Because of the hot lunch program, there will be two lunch periods at Herrick Park, Patterson, Tecumseh Acres and Sutton Elementary Schools. The first lunch period will be for grades 4, 5, and 6 from 11:40 a.m. to 12:25 p.m., and the second lunch period will be for grades 1, 2, and 3, from 11:55 a.m. to 12:40 p.m. The lunch period for all grades at Ridgeway, Tipton, and St. Elizabeth Schools will be from 11:55 a.m. to 12:40 p.m.

Junior High will start at 7:45 a.m. with first lunch period from 10:40 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., and second lunch period from 11:35 a.m. to 12:25 p.m. with school dismissal time at 2:20 p.m.

Senior High starting time will be 7:45 a.m. with first lunch period at 10:45 a.m. to 11:15 a.m., and second lunch period from 11:50 a.m. to 12:20 p.m. with school dismissal at 2:20 p.m.

Hot lunches will be served in all Tecumseh Public Schools starting on Wednesday, Sept. 5th. Applications will be available in late August or early September for families wishing to apply for free and reduced price meals or free milk.

Bus service to Tecumseh Public School pupils will again be on a "safety first" basis. State regulations state that pupils in grades kindergarten through sixth grades may be required to walk up to one-half mile to scheduled bus routes and pupils grades seven through 12 up to one mile. These regulations are used to determine the length of bus routes as well as to group pupils so that fewer stops may be made. Backtracking has been eliminated unless absolutely necessary. Parents of pupils requested to join groups at pick-up points are again asked to give their cooperation.

All new children to receive bus service will be contacted by bus personnel as to time and bus number for the pupils. It is planned at this time that bus routes and times will be the same as last year unless parents are contacted individually.

Bus service for kindergarten will begin on Thursday, Sept. 6, with the morning session from 8:55 a.m. to 11:25 a.m., and the afternoon session from 12:45 p.m. to 3:15 p.m. Kindergarten bus drivers will make home calls sometime before Thursday, September 6, to acquaint parents of their school bus routes.

Construction, Maintenance Projects Near Completion

Although Tecumseh and area residents are aware of many construction projects underway in the city, few may realize the projects undertaken by the Tecumseh schools.

These special projects, according to Supt. Robert Duhan, are:

High School Track, Athletic Field

Construction started in early June on an all-weather metric track, which was made possible through a gift to the school district. Included in this project is a complete renovation of the athletic field, including extensive underground drainage and new sodding of the football field. Athletic Boosters Club and the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation are funding a new computerized football scoreboard. Cost: $163,884.

THS Window Replacement, Insulation

Original part of the high school, constructed in 1948, is taking on a new look this summer with decorative insulated exterior and interior panels being installed. Each classroom is also being equipped with replacement windows of double insulated glass. The majority of the glass in this section of the building is being eliminated completely. Several classrooms are also receiving new recessed lighting and insulated ceilings. Cost: $56,157.

Junior High Heating System

Heating system in the junior high building has been completely renovated this summer. Original steam lines and related equipment — installed in 1918 — have been replaced. In addition to this, all exterior doors to the building have been replaced. Cost: $19,819.

Asphalting

Asphalt is being applied at the Sutton, Patterson and Herrick Park elementary school sites. Cost: $6,555.

Roof Replacement, Patterson

Large portion of the roof at the Patterson elementary school has been replaced. Cost: $4,273.

Ridgeway Addition, Alterations

Work has been completed on the Ridgeway school addition, library and office alterations. Cost: $57,850.

High School Lockers

Replacement of lockers for the main floor of the original part of the high school building have been ordered; however, they will probably not arrive in time for installation before school starts. Cost: $8,749.70.

Supt. Duhan says the above special projects are funded through the Board of Education's general account and are made possible by the special one-half mill tax levy approved by the voters two years ago.

Funds collected from this millage are used exclusively for maintenance and repairs of school buildings, grounds and related equipment.

Board Approves School Usage

Tecumseh School Board voted Monday night to allowed the Intermediate School District to use the Tecumseh facilities for their special election Oct. 1.

Voters from this area will be casting their ballots in the vocal music room at the high school. Schools from all Lenawee districts will host local balloting.

The ISD is asking to raise its countywide millage from 1.5 mills to 2.5 mills.

City Ordinance for Controlling Parks, Cemetery

Although Council has requested a revision, a new ordinance for using city parks and Brookside Cemetery may be ahead in the future. Such an ordinance was presented to officials Monday night.

Complaints have been made about groups drinking and using foul language near the tennis courts at Satterthwaite Park. This has affected usage of the courts, especially after dark.

Realtive to an ordinance for management of the new civic auditorium and establishment of a board of trustees, Council approved the first reading of the ordinance.

Renew Agreement

Council approved renewing an agreement Monday night with Gaylon Robinson, owner of Robinson's Water Care, relative to egress and ingress to his property off the city's southwest parking lot.

Renewal was for five years.

New Meeting Date

Because the next regularly scheduled Council meeting falls on Labor Day, Sept. 3, officials approved re-scheduling it for Tuesday, Sept. 4. Action was taken Monday night by Council.

Seven Teachers Hired, Staff Not Complete for '79-80 School Year

The Tecumseh School Board approved two, one year leaves and filled seven teaching positions Monday night. Superintendent Robert Duhan also reported that two, and probably three positions, must still be filled.

Mary King has been hired to teach junior high home economics and journalism/English. She replaces Nancy Falzone, who will be teaching home economics at the high school.

David Biscupski has been hired to teach elementary physical education, a position vacated by Gerald Fox. Biscupski comes to Tecumseh with one year's teaching experience.

Janet Morgan, who taught for Tecumseh a semester last year, will be taking an extra third grade at Tecumseh Acres.

Sandra Ellison will be filling a first semester maternity leave at the first grade level in Tecumseh Acres.

Susan Pieh has been hired to teach at Herrick Park after returning to Tecumseh with Morenci teaching experience.

Deborah Lawson will be taking a sixth grade at Patterson with experience at the Onsted and Perry school systems.

Susan Slater will be teaching kindergarten at Tecumseh Acres.

The board also authorized Duhan to fill a position for an elementary vocal music teacher for two days per week. An elementary disabled teacher must still be hired.

Duhan also reported that presently 250 students are registered to enter kindergarten. Only nine classrooms at that level had been planned, but the board authorized the hiring of an additional teacher if the enrollment increases as little as five students before the beginning of the school year.

One year leaves were granted for Pearl Osburn, first grade teacher at Patterson and for Jan Peshke, kindergarten teacher at Tecumseh Acres.

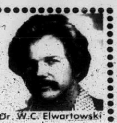
News From The Tecumseh Chiropractic Life Center

101 S. Pearl Tecumseh



Dr. W.C. Elwartowski

Dear Doctor,

How can Chiropractic help constipation?

There is no such thing as "a little constipation" and there is no true measure of its effect on the individual, his family life and on his relations with his associates in the business world.

No explanation of constipation is necessary. Everyone at one time or another has "enjoyed" the condition. Most measures adopted for relief are of a temporary nature. Relief may be obtained, but the condition recures.

Chiropractors have learned that the vital working parts of the body respond to nerve energy impulses transmitted from the brain. When pressure on a nerve prevents the proper flow of energy to a vital organ or gland, it cannot do its jobs. In the digestive tract, functional failure can result in constipation.

The chiropractor, through scientific knowledge, locates the offending nerve, frees it and restores the vital flow of nerve energy to the affected organ. With normal function restored, nature works from within to restore the digestive tract to normal efficiency.

For further information on this question, or if you have other related questions, feel free to write Dr. Elwartowski at 101 S. Pearl St., Tecumseh, MI 49286.

If your brand new car is 'totaled' will your insurance company pay you for a brand new car?

Some insurance companies think a new car is a used car the minute you use it to drive out of the dealership. Not Auto-Owners.

With Auto-Owners, if you have an accident anytime within 90 days and your new car is a total loss, we'll pay you the total cost of your new car. And with Auto-Owners, your new car is covered immediately, automatically, under your previous policy.

So if you're about to get a new car, talk to us at Auto-Owners. Maybe you should get a new insurance company, too.

MR. and MRS. BILL FAULKNER

Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred (Bill) Faulkner, 504 Outer Dr., celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at a dinner with their family Aug. 19.

Wilfred H. Faulkner and Danice R. Wesner were married Aug. 21, 1954 at Immanuel Lutheran Church, Rock Falls, Ill., by the Rev. Donald Cipnick.

They have lived for 12 years in the Tecumseh-Adrian area. Mr. and Mrs. Faulkner have three children, William of Tecumseh, and Jane and John at home.

Mr. Faulkner is employed as the elementary principal for the Madison School District and Mrs. Faulkner works as a secretary at Adrian High School.

MRS. TODD JOHNSON

Patrick, Johnson Are Wed

Dawn Joette Patrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Patrick of Pittsford and Todd Edward Johnson, son of Fred Johnson, 6540 Billmyer Hwy., and the late Barbara Johnson, were married in the Wheatland Congregational Church Aug. 4.

The Rev. Clyde Wonders performed the afternoon ceremony.

Annamae Bertalon played the organ and Melissa Bertalon played the piano. Annamae sang, "There Is Love," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The grandparents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Eber Cunningham of Pittfsord. The groom's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Routson of Blissfield and Edith Miller of Manchester.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white satin gown with square neckline, natural waistline and set-in layered sleeves, gathered and tied at the shoulder. Lace accented the neckline and her veil. Her bouquet was composed of white daisies and pink roses with baby's breath.

Marcia Miller, the bride's cousin, was maid of honor. She wore a light blue, single knit gown of floral print, which she made. She wore a white hat with blue ribbon. Her bouquet of blue and white daisies were accented with baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Dawn Johnson, the groom's sister; Annette Shelle and Betty Curtis. Their gowns were of yellow, lavender and light green, respectively.

The flowers matched the colors of their dresses.

Dette Patrick, the bride's sister, was flower girl wearing a white satin dress, similar to the bride's with a round neckline and lace.

The bride made her gown and the gowns for her bridemaids, flower girl and mother.

Lawrence Patrick, the bride's brother, was best man. Ushers were Howard Bertke, the groom's cousin; Jeff Philo and Brian Johnson, the groom's brother. Jimmy Miller, son of Judy and James Miller, was ring bearer.

A reception for 250 guests was held in the church basement. Cake, ice cream and punch were served by Denese Patrick, Diane Johnson, Edna Gruner, Donna Stretch and Litz Cunningham. Marge Scarp of Osseo made the four tiered cake with a fountain in the center. It was decorated in the wedding theme colors.

After the reception, the couple had an open house at their new home on Oaks Road in Pittsford. A A buffet supper was served by Dee Miller, Edna Gruner and Jean Tharp.

The bride is a 1977 Hudson High SChool graduate. She is employed at Mr. Frank and Sons in Jonesville. The groom graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1977 and is employed at Inter-American Zinc in Adrian.

After a brief honeymoon, the couple resides in Pittsford.

MR. and MRS. LARRY J. SINES

Ruth King Weds Larry J. Sines

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Larry J. Sines are honeymooning in Hawaii for two weeks, following their wedding Aug. 17.

Ruth Ann King and Larry Jack Sines of Ann Arbor recited their marriage vows before the Rev. Roy Wagner in the United Church of Christ.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Robert King, 217 W. Church St., Clinton. Groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Conklin, 320 Michigan Ave.

Linda Corwin was the soloist and Mrs. Larry Dicks was the organist.

The bride wore white A-line gown with a train attached to the shoulder, styled with cap sleeves and a high lace neckline. Her fingertip length veil was edged with matching lace, and was held by a lace cap.

She wore a set of pearls, a gift of the groom. Her bouquet was of yellow roses, daisies and stephenotis.

Mrs. Dan Jurasek was her sister's matron of honor. Bridemaids were Kim Porterfield and Cathy Gibson, all of Clinton. They wore identical gowns of peach polyester knit with lace bodices, and picture hats. They carried nosegays of peach and white carnations and daisies.

Robyn Pray of Tecumseh was the flower girl.

Best man was Mark Mines, of Clinton, brother of the groom.

Groomsmen were Marty Graham of Florida and Dan Jurasek of Clinton.

Ushers were Jeff Gibson of Clinton and Tom Nelson of Ann Arbor.

A reception at the Tecumseh Products Workers Union Hall, Tecumseh, was attended by 250 guests. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Michael Junkins of Clinton.

The bride is a 1977 graduate of Clinton High School, and she attended Jackson Community College and Adrian College.

Groom is a graduate of Walled Lake High School and Olivet College. He is manager of Minnesota Fabric's Corporation.

Upon their return from a wedding trip, the couple will reside at 2180 Medrord Road, Apt. 27, Ann Arbor.

Rehearsal dinner at the Brass Lantern, Adrian, was hosted by the groom's parents.

Noon Ceremony Unites Couple

CLINTON — Darcy Jean Ford and Bruce Grady Price of Midland were married in a noon ceremony, Aug. 18, in the Smith-Kimball Community Center.

Bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jean Ford of Clinton. Groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Burtice Price of Midland.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Floyd Vaughn of the Clinton Baptist Church.

The bride wore a white Qiana gown trimmed with pearls, styled with an empire waist, long sleeves and a train. Her bouquet was of sweetheart roses.

Della Ford was her sister's maid of honor, wearing an aqua polyester gown and she carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses.

A buffet luncheon was served to the immediate family and friends at the Center. Tables were decorated with floral arrangements and white candleabra.

A reception given by college classmates was held later in the evening in Midland.

The bride is a graduate of Clinton High School. She is returning to Western Michigan University to complete work on her major in dance education with a music minor.

The groom is an employee of the engineering department of the Phoenix Engineering Inc., Grand Rapids.

They will live in Wayland.

Lorey Lovell, Gregory Curran Wed

Lorey Lorraine Lovell and Gregory James Curran exchanged marriage vows Aug. 17 in an evening ceremony performed by the Rev. Kenneth Boyd in First Baptist Church.

Parents of the bride are Jerry Anderson of Tecumseh and Mrs. Ann Anderson of Clark Lake.

Groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford J. Curran, 9631 Newburg Rd.

Mrs. David Champanois was organist and Dawn Champanois was soloist.

Bouquet of pastel gladioli, mums and carnations, with pink rosebuds, graced the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white chantilly gown, styled with a Queen Anne neckline, featuring a lace bouffant skirt with six tiers of lace and pleated trim. Her chapel train was sprinkled with seed pearls. Her lace edged veil was held by a Juliette cap of matching lace.

Bridal bouquet was composed of mauve rose, pink carnations and blue forget-me-nots.

Mrs. Ben Stevenson of East Lansing was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a floral print cotton gown, with a headpiece of mauve roses and baby's breath. She carried a bouquet of matching flowers.

Similarly gowned, Michelle Townsend and Mrs. Thomas Osburn, both of Tecumseh, were bridesmaids.

Crystal Lovell, of Onsted, niece of the bride, was the flower girl.

Mark Amstutz of Clinton was the best man.

Ushers were Ben Stephenson, East Lansing, brother-in-law of the bride; and James Neill, of Tecumseh.

Reception at the church was attended by 150 guests.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. William Carothers, who cut the cake; Mrs. Charles Christianson, poured punch and Tina Lovell, sister of bride passed the guest book.

Bride is a 1979 graduate of Tecumseh High School, and is a bookkeeper at United Savings Bank. Groom is a 1977 graduate of Tecumseh High School, and is a draftsman for Walker Mfg., Grass Lake.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to Florida for a week, the couple will reside at 9421 Newburg Hwy.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents, at the Country House.

Visits New York

Henrietta Lindsley and Evelyn Harrison of Clinton returned Aug. 17 from a weeks visit in Lodi, N.Y. and area with Marjorie Smith and Barbara Pfalz.

MRS. GREG CURRAN

Couple Recites Nuptial Vows

Anita Marie Nichols and James Mark Baran recited their nuptial vows in St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, Aug. 3, before Msgr. Vincent J. Howard.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Nichols, 216 N. Oneida St. and Mr. and Mrs. John Baran, Wyandotte St.

Casandra Kormus was the organist. Phil Bamber was the soloist.

As she approached the altar with her father, the bride wore a white polyester organza gown, styled with a stand-up collar trimmed in silk venice lace. Rosebuds on lace flounced the hemline and edged the chapel train. She wore a cross necklace and pearl earrings.

Silk flowers on a crown held the bride's veil trimmed in silk lace. She carried a bouquet of silk roses, carnations and fresh baby's breath and stephanotis.

Amy Nichols was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Cherie Norris, of Tecumseh; Penny Starr, Tipton; and Kellie Dora from Lynwood. All wore gowns of blue with neckline edged in ecru lace, and skirts with ruffled hems.

Attendants carried nosegays of blue and white silk and fresh flowers.

Best man was Jay Andrews. Groomsmen were Marmon Baran, Jack Barta, of Melvindale, Joe Barta, of Detroit, all brothers of the groom. Ushers were Kent Norris and Bill Osmer, of Adrian.

Flower girls were Megan Baran of Adrian, the groom's niece; Becky Nichols and Lisa Nichols, of Milford, cousins of the bride.

The reception at Tecumseh Products Workers Union Hall was attended by 500 guests. Special guests were the groom's grandmother, Telka Baran of Massachusetts, and the bride's great aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith of Pennsylvania.

Bride attended Eastern Michigan University and is employed at Herrick Hospital. She is a 1978 graduate of Tecumseh High School, and will attend Jackson Community College to study nursing.

Groom is a 1976 graduate of Tecumseh High School. He attended Retts School of Electronics, Jackson Community College as Emergency Medical Technician. He is employed at Ford Motor Co., Milan.

Upon their return from a trip to Northern Michigan, the couple will reside at 111½ N. Maiden Lane.

RICHARD DeROUSIE

DeRouise Is Named Manager

Richard DeRousie has been named the new Meyer Industries district sales manager for the Michigan, Ohio and Indiana territory according to an announcement by Alan E. Beatty, Meyers President.

Meyers manufactures and markets aluminum fishing boats, Sportspal canoes, and Explorer inflatable boats.

DeRousie's responsibilities include servicing Meyers dealers in his sales territory as well as participating in national marine trade shows and other Meyers marketing activities.

He is a 1974 graduate of Blissfield High School. He joined Meyers in April, 1978 and participated in moving the Sportspal canoe factory from Pennsylvania to Blissfield during 1978.

Since that time he has been involved in the manufacture and sale of Sportspal canoes.

Rich is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart DeRousie of Blissfield.

Reidy, Linger Are Married

TIPTON — Tipton Community Church was the setting for the wedding of Marie Julia Reidy and James Garrett Linger, Aug. 17.

The evening ceremony was performed by the Rev. Raymond Scribner. Maureen Reidy, sister of the bride, assisted in the ceremony by reading a passage from the Bible.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Reidy, of Cleveland, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Linger of Tipton.

Given in marriage by her brother, Joseph Reidy, the bride wore a white wedding gown designed and made by the bride. The gown featured hand sewn lace and tiny buttons. She wore a fingertip-veil and carried a nosegay of silk orange blossoms and yellow rose buds.

Mrs. Lee Marsh, sister of the groom, was matron of honor in a sleeveless yellow chiffon gown. She carried a fan shaped bouquet of yellow silk roses.

Gary Linger of Wilmington, N.C., brother of the groom, was the best man.

Reception dinner was held at the Tecumseh Country Club. White lace skirted the bride's table, which was enhanced with bouquets of white, yellow and blue pompom daisies and blue tapers. The wedding cake was topped with fresh yellow and white pompom daisies.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Linger are members of the United States Air Force.

Dinner will be at 12:30 p.m.

Anyone planning to attend is asked to contact Mrs. Lester Munger, 6880 Occidental Hwy., Tecumseh, 423-7868, or to have your name put on the mailing list for another year.

JA Directors Are Organized

Board of directors of Junior Achievement of Lenawee County for the program year 1979-1980 was organized recently.

Named to the 16-member JA governing body were individuals representing business, civic, and county leaders. JA board members are responsible for the development, operation and policies of the local Junior Achievement program, according to Robert Bell, President of Faraday, Inc., who is the newly elected president of the JA board.

Junior Achievement is the nations oldest youth economic education program. Junior Achievement is a program where students actually get to operate and manage their own business. The student team meets once a week with the guidance of professional business people. Students make all the decisions and assume full responsibility for their project. Through this first-hand experience, young people learn how our economic system works.

Directors elected were: Mr. Bell, president, Faraday, Inc.; Steve Hickman, vice president of sales, Brazeway, Inc.; Robert Goedert, president, The Goedert Company; Les Moench, division manager, General Telephone Co.; Jack Germond, president, Commercial Savings Bank; Al Graybiel, president, First Federal Savings & Loan Assc.; Don Bates, president, Adrian State Bank; Al Brittian, president, Bank of Lenawee County.

Merlyn Downing, president United Savings Bank of Tecumseh; Robert Nystrom, president, Citizens Gas Fuel Company; Dick Keeley, president, Buckeye Products, Inc.; Ed Schenkel, optometrist. Tom Denning, Chevrolet Motor Division-General Motors Corp.; Larry Herker, vice president of Sales, Blissfield Manufacturing Co.

Harry Hans, general manager of manufacturing, Tecumseh Products Company and Mike Marshall, Chamber of Commerce.

Lunch Prices Rise 10 Cents in Tecumseh

Tecumseh's school lunch prices will increase 10 cents for the 1979-80 school year, an increase of approximately 15 percent.

School board approved the increase at Monday nights board meeting.

Prices for the elementary meals will rise from 55 to 65 cents junior and senior high prices from 60 to 70 cents. Increases in adult lunches for faculty and school employees will rise at the same time.

The board raised the prices after discovering that inflation "had taken its toll" with food costs, labor and utility costs all rising.

The food service program will again be under the direction of ARA services. ARA is now beginning its third year with Tecumseh after operating much to the satisfaction of the board last year. The service operated in the black and participation in the program system wide was better than 60 percent.

Board Raises Reimbursement for Mileage

Tecumseh School Board raised its mileage rate of reimbursement to 18 cents a mile Monday night for staff and administrators to cover gas costs.

The rate before the increase was 15 cents a mile. The board reported the increase was in line with the maximum allowed by the Internal Revenue Services for taxing purposes. The maximum, as set by the IRS, is 18.5 cents.

Mel Opens Business

BRITTON — A new automotive shop has opened in Britton at 113 W. Chicago Blvd.

"Lewis Automotive" is owned by Mel Lewis, a two-year Britton resident and lifetime Lenawee County resident.

Mel has been interested in cars since he was 16 and has worked in many garages before he opened his first shop on the corner of M-50 and M-52.

When asked if his shop had a special service his reply was, "Do anything from oil change to engine change."

Along with a helper, Norm Sandafer of Saline, Mel promises low-cost auto repairs for local residents.

Sewer Payments Due

BRITTON— All property owners of the Village of Britton are reminded that their taxes and sewer payments are due and payable no later than Aug. 31, 1979.

There will be a 1% collection fee on the taxes and none on the sewer collection.

Please make the adjustment before mailing your check, or contact Village treasurer, Elizabeth Osterhout for the correction.

Taxes will be collected by the treasurer Thursdays 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Saturday 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

After September 1, 1979 a 4% collection fee will be added and taxes will be payable at the County Treasurer's office.

Sand Lake Fire Flyes met recently with 10 members and one new member, Janet Winkler.

Reports were given on the Aug. 11 rummage sale by Liz Kent, with a profit of over $100. Delores Settles gave a report on the new cookbooks, with them selling so well the members will order 200 more. Anyone wanting cookbooks may call 467-2619.

The Vials of Life are being delivered to each household in Franklin Township by members of the Fire Flyes and Sand Lake Fire Fighters. Over half of the township has been given vials, however if people aren't home they will be left in their door.

Anyone who receives a Vial of Life and doesn't understand what the program is, may call one of the members and they will come out and explain the Vial of Life Program. There is no cost to the people of Franklin Township and the vials are being furnished by the Sand Lake Fire Fighters and Fire Flyes.

The Sand Lake Fire Fighters will hold their 13th Annual Picnic on Aug. 26, at noon at the Childrens Summer Camp on Pentecost Hwy.

Plans were completed for the Spaghetti Supper to be Sept. 8 at 4 p.m. This will be a joint money making project and all proceeds will go for new equipment.

The Fire Flyes will be serving refreshments for the Lenawee County Mens Fire Fighters Association, Aug. 21, at Sand Lake.

New flooring was purchased from proceeds from the chicken barbecue for the kitchen, bath and radio room. Clean-up committee for September will be Sandy Kirkendall and Becky Whitehead. Dolores Settles, Esther Horton will be in charge of refreshments.

The traveling gift was won by Patti Shultis and the 50-50 by J. Grace of Clinton.

Dates and the chairman in charge were set for: Progressive Dinner, Oct. 6, Verna Parkes and Karen Clark; Halloween, children under 10, Maggie Hause and and Arlene Miller, over 10, Carol Schmucker and Karen Clark; Christmas Sale, Nov. 30 and Dec. 1, Ollie Koons, Dolores Settles and Linda Erickson; Christmas Party, Dec. 9, Marian Krapp and Bonnie McCollum.

If for some reason a member cannot be on one of these committees, please call the president at 456-4926.

New Events at Church

BRITTON — A sell-a-bag rummage will be held this Thursday and Friday, Aug. 23 and 24, at the Britton Congregational Christian Church. It will be held at the Fellowship Center from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Aug. 26 will be the Sunday School Annual Picnic. The picnic will follow the 10 a.m. church service at the Village Park.

Due to bad weather, the auction to be held at the "Church Fair" was postponed and will be held in September.

Final plans are underway for the Turkey Supper and Bazaar on Sept. 13. The Womens Fellowship is sponsoring the event.

Dear Total Image,
I have excessively oily hair even though I shampoo everyday. Is there anything I can do other than shampoo frequently for this problem?
Nancy L.
Tecumseh, MI.

Dear Nancy
You might try this old-time recipe to rid the hair of those oily stains. Get a box of dry oatmeal flakes, use a half cup for long hair, a little less for short, and slowly work the dry flakes into your oily hair.
Now get a brush and start brushing those oil absorbed flakes out. Brush ... then brush some more, stimulating the scalp.
It will do wonders for the oil, blotting most of it up, and will give your hair a needed brushing.
Now shampoo well, lathering and rinsing at least twice to rid the hair of the oatmeal.
Next rinse with a solution of 1/5 cup water and 3/5 cup apple cider vinegar and 1/5 cup lemon juice. Rinse once again and then again!
Thanks, you for writing Total Image. Remember if you have a problem, let us hear from you either by phone at one of our locations or write Village Hair Forum, 104 E. Main, Manchester, MI.

Guaranteed challenge:
If you're a young person looking for some real challenge, now's the time to look into the Army. From law enforcement to medicine, from cooks to combat arms, the Army has more challenging opportunities to offer than anyone.
$419 a month to start
Army pay is better than ever. And with meals, lodging and medical and dental care provided, you'll be surprised how far that pay will go.
Skill-training courses
Ever wonder where to get that "experience necessary" the classified ads always ask for? A good place is the Army. With hundreds of training courses, the Army can teach you skills you'll be glad to have later on.
Educational opportunities
If you're interested in earning college credits, being in the Army can help you. Through the Army's educational program, Project AHEAD (Army Help for Education And Development), you'll be able to start a college or vocational school program at the same time you enlist—with the Army paying up to 75% of your tuition for approved courses taken during off-duty hours. (There's also the Veterans' Educational Assistance Program that can go a long way toward paying educational costs after you leave the Army.)
Travel opportunities
Joining the Army can mean a chance to work and live in Europe, Alaska, Hawaii, Korea, the Canal Zone, or almost anywhere in the continental U.S.
Join now, go later
You can do just that—join now and, if you qualify, you can report up to 365 days later—with the Army's Special Delayed Entry Program. A terrific option for high school seniors and others with unfinished business ahead of them.
First come, first serve.
To find out which training programs are open, and to have the best chance of getting the one you want, call me now.

10 to 12:00 — Cards, games and crafts. Noon—Bag lunch; Grocery bingo after lunch.

Celebrate 40 Years

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jolet, of Detroit, were honored on the occasion of their 40th wedding anniversary, Sunday, at the home of their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jolet, Clinton-Macon Rd.

There were 60 guests attending the buffet dinner from Detroit, Sterling Heights, Warren, Grosse Pointe, Onsted, Tecumseh and Clinton.

The anniversary cake was made by Sandy Jolet.

Ron Jordon, local country music singer played guitar and sang and several musicians joined in providing the afternoon's entertainment.

Baby Baptized by Grandfather

CLINTON — Carolyn Mc-Dermott Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Bowman of Tecumseh was baptised by her grandfather the Rev. Paul McKenna in the United Church of Christ, Sunday morning.

Rev. McKenna is a former pastor of the church.

Participating in the baptismal service was the baby's great-great aunt, Carrie McDermott.

Family members in attendance included the baby's grandmother, Mrs. Paul McKenna, paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bowman, and uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Mark VanDoren, nee McKenna, of San Francisco, Calif., who have been visiting their relatives for the past week.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson, of Elwood City, Pa., great aunt and uncle of the baby; Mrs. Ivan McKenna, of Homer, an aunt, Kevin Bowman, an uncle; and Mr. and Mrs. James Curth.

A christening brunch was held at the Bowman home in Tecumseh after the service.

Cyclist Injured in US 12 Accident

CLINTON — Joseph Bernard, 22, of Ann Arbor, sought his own treatment for minor injuries received when he was thrown from his motorcycle.

He told Clinton State Police that he was eastbound on US-12, when a southbound vehicle ran the flashing red signal on US-12 at M-52. Bernard swerved to avoid the other vehicle, ran into a field, hit a rut and was thrown off the motorcycle.

Mishap occurred Sunday.

Girl Scout Round Up

CLINTON — Girl Scout Round Up will be Tuesday, Sept. 11 at 7 p.m. in the United Church of Christ.

Any Clinton area girls age 6-17 interested in joining Girl Scouts this year will have a chance to meet and discuss Girl Scouting.

This meeting is for prospective Brownies and juniors and their parents.

Anyone unable to attend, or who has questions may call Linda Welch, 456-4630.

Plan Retreat

CLINTON — United Church of Christ Choristers will have an annual retreat Saturday, Aug. 25 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the home of their choir director, Janet Day.

Children attending are to bring a sack lunch. Beverage and dessert will be provided.

Adult choir will have an all day retreat Sunday, Aug. 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steffens. There will be a potluck supper at 6 p.m. and the congregation is welcome to attend the supper.

Choir director Carolyn Dicks has requested a leave of absence from her duties for the coming year. She will continue as organist.

Honor Cindy

CLINTON — Bride-elect Cindy Kay Tallman, of Adrian, formerly of Clinton, was honored at a bridal shower, Sunday in Adrian.

Co-hosts for the lawn party were Cindy's step-sister, Faith Rouster of Ann Arbor, sisters, Donna Tallman of Clinton; Yvonne Tallman of Plano, Texas, and Cheryl Frownfelder of Adrian, sister of Cindy's fiance.

Marriage of Miss Tallman and Frederick K. Frownfelder will take place Sept. 1 in the First United Presbyterian Church, Adrian.

The bride to be is the daughter of Delbert R. Tallman of Plano, Texas, and the late Marilyn Tallman.

Cooperation, Visibility Is Key to Vandalism

by Kathy Brown

Vandalism is news that nobody likes to read about and news that reporters don't like to have to write about.

Still it happens and it poses a perplexing problem to police departments everywhere. No one seems to know what to do about it.

Police visibility and cooperation of alert citizens appear to be a community's best defense for areas that seem to attract this activity, notably community parks.

"We try to hit these areas as frequently as possible," said Tecumseh Police Chief Merlin Mowery.

He said it is not uncommon for police to contact the parents of young people that police find engaged in "mischief" in city parks during late hours.

When possible, arrests for trespassing have been made. Mowery said that usually the same individuals are involved whenever vandalism rises.

"We have a good group of workers out there covering the community," Mowery said about the Tecumseh Police officers.

"They are covering a lot of territory and trying to be where the problems may come up and head them off where they can."

The cooperation of citizens is appreciated, said the Chief. Mowery commented that citizens do cooperate with police in tips about suspicious activity that may or may not turn out to be something that warrants investigation.

During this time of year the community is settling down after vacations and just before school starts. It is an important time for residents to remember to be vigilant about their property and personal safety and contact police when they suspect vandalism or other property crimes.

School To Open

Tecumseh Nursery School will start Tuesday, Sept. 4 for the Tuesday and Thursday groups and Wednesday, Sept. 5 for the Monday, Wednesday and Friday groups.

Sessions are held in the First Presbyterian Church, 211 W. Chicago Blvd.

Olis Puffer is the director. Call 423-4018 for information.

Meyers Shows New Boat Line

Dealers from Indiana, Ohio and Michigan were invited to an open house at Meyers Industries Aug. 16 for a showing of the local boat manufacturer's 1980 line.

Company president Al Beatty of Tecumseh and staff greeted the guests.

The company, located at Al Meyer Airport, is introducing three new aluminum boat models, a 16 ft. Runabout and a 16 and 14 ft. Bass Boat.

New in the inflatable line is a 14 ft. Explorer runabout. The 16 ft. Sportspal Canoe ultralight introduced last year was also featured.

The Explorer inflatable boat line, manufactured in Ithaca, joined Meyers as a division in April this year. The line ranges in size from a nine foot, 42 lbs. Dinghy 1 to the 14'6", 170 lbs. Explorer IV and can be used with a range of four to 40 hp motor. It packs down into a trunk size package for easy handling.

Meyers has six lines of lightweight aluminum boats that feature Meyers unique, stretch formed heliarc welded construction. These are the flat boats for fishing, Bass Boats, new Runabout and standard canoes.

In addition, Meyers has the Sportspal line is manufactured in Blissfield and the inflatable division in Ithaca. Meyers also manufacturers Jeep tops.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

The two squirrels were having a wonderful time running after each other. It must have been play and the game was a wild and furious squirrelly version of Chase. They raced up and down the slender trees on the creek bank at breakneck speed.

Streaking up one tree the lead squirrel would stay just barely in front of the pursuer and when they reached the point of running- out-of safe branches a decision had to be made. They either jumped to a nearby tree and kept the same order of leader and follower or they turned around on the tree and raced back down. When this happened the roles were reversed of course, the chasee became the chaser and the chaser became the chasee.

They were handsome squirrels, just about full grown. Their tails still had that luxurious bushiness so typical of young squirrels. They were quite sure-footed and agile. We could not help but laugh at how noisy they were. Their sharp claws scratching on the tree back were loud. Just listening to them race up and down brought that old tired cliche to mind, the one about running with reckless abandon. Exactly what they were doing.

The trouble struck when the squirrels were high in one of the trees. Who knows why they jumped on some trips and turned around on others. This time it was apparently the turn for jumping. I did not see the leap but I certainly heard and saw the results. There was the sharp dry crack of dead wood breaking and I happened to be looking just as two dark objects came crashing through the tree. It had to be a squirrel and the dead limb he had misjudged.

Squirrels do not fall often and I would imagine that hardly ever are they injured. However, at this time of year when the youngsters are perfecting their tree climbing skills, learning how to jump from one precarious branch to another, discovering just how far out on the pencil thin branch is safe, and laying out their own tree roads, there must be many more spills than we see. I know this kid fell to the ground but the landing site was over the creek bank and out of my view.

It all happened much quicker than it takes to tell. After seeing the fall I looked up and noticed the squirrel left in the top of the tree. He had turned around, his head was now pointed towards the sky. looked rigid, statue-like. It was so easy to know that his friend's fall was a new and frightening experience. He was hanging on for dear life.

Meanwhile the fallen squirrel had righted himself, caught his breath, and was clutching the tree trunk just up far enough for me to see him. He was almost a mirror image of his pal. His head was up, his tail straight and down, and he was hanging onto that tree trunk as though nothing else in the world were safe. It was some moments before the kids regained their composure.

Once they had though they were off and running. It was interesting to see them go back to the same old game. From all outward appearances there were no bad memories of the fall nor were there any fears. However, somewhere in the back of their little heads must be a lesson learned about the instability of dead wood.

Memoriam

In loving memory of Nelson "Don" Roe, who passed away on August 28, 1978:

No one in the world can fully know, Nor a thousand words convey, The loss we feel inside our hearts, Since you were taken away.

Though God and time have balmed our sorrow, There will always and forever be, A "Don Roe" - shaped place in all of us, Where we hold dear your memory.

Beloved husband, son, father and brother, as sadly missed today, as a year ago.

8-23c

In loving memory of Mrs. Helen Service Michaelson who passed away 12 years ago August 25, 1967.

A page in the book of memories is gently turned today. Years go by and memories stay. As near and dear as yesterday. Sadly missed by her mother.

Macon News

By Phyllis Thomas

Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Swanston and family and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schafer and sons attended the wedding Saturday evening of their niece, Terri Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Miller of Reading, to David Marvin, also of Reading held in the Reading United Methodist Church. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Other Macon area residents who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crittenden, Steve and Mark; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clark; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore and family; Mrs. Floyd Rhoades; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ruhl, Jeff and Mark; Mr. and Mrs. Wade Scudder and Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas.

Terri's maternal grandparents, Thomas Swanston of Tecumseh and the late Eunice Swanston were former Macon residents.

Form Committees

Robert Bell, president JA of Lenawee County, announced today that four committees have been formed after a meeting of the JA Board of Directors.

Tom Denning, superintendant of production for Chevrolet Motor Division-General Motors, Corp., was named chairman of Junior Achievement's Counseling firm and advisors Committee.

Named to the fund raising committee were Steve Hickman, vice president of Sales, Brazeway, Inc., and Merlyn Downing, president of United Savings Bank of Tecumseh. This committee is responsible for effective implementation of the JA fund raising campaign.

Richard Keeley, president of Buckeye Products, Inc., has been named chairman of the long range plan committee. This committee translates the objectives of the board into a plan of action covering a minimum of three years.

Ed Schenkle, Adrian optometrist, and Mike Marshall, Chamber executive, have been named chairmen of the center manager committee. This committee is charged with the responsibilities of finding an individual to work with the JA program in the Adrian & Tecumseh community two evenings a week.

Position Continued

Tecumseh School District's CETA painter position will be continued in the 1979-80 school year after the local school board voted to retain the painter's services Monday night.

The painter was funded by CETA since 1974 while the position before that time was filled by local teachers. The teachers cost the school district approximately $10,000 a year while the CETA worker's salary was $13,354.

Money spent on the CETA worker is reimbursed up to $12,000, nearly a 98 percent covered cost.

Reunite After 22 Years

Mrs. James Lepien and daughter, Valerie, of Red Lands, Calif., had a good reunion last week with her cousins, Joe, Mike and Bill Bartenslager, and their sister, Mrs. Rex Kelley, nee Bartenslager, after an absence of 22 years.

Mrs. Lepien said Tecumseh had changed a lot in those past years, but Harold Easton would never change, she commented after a visit to Easton's station.

Friends, Mrs. Jim Palmer and Mrs. Paul Dangler, took Sandy Lepien on a tour of the town and to visit old friends.

With the help of former classmate Mrs. Dennis Irelan, 25 classmates from Tecumseh High School gathered to rehash old times.

After spending Sunday and Monday with Mike and Gayle Bartenslager, Mrs. Lepien rejoined her husband, Jim, and two other children in Port Huron.

Mrs. Lepien is the daughter of Ben and Ina Bartenslager, who now reside in Arizona. Her address is: Mrs. James Lepien, 521 Norwood, Red Lands, Calif. 92373.

Everett Gilbert of Conesus, New York surprised his daughter and family, Jim and Phyllis Thomas, late Saturday afternoon. He was accompanied by Willie Cunningham, also of Conesus. They left early Monday morning after visiting Everett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Gilbert of Saline. 92-year-old E.M. Gilbert is recovering from surgery on August 6 at Saline Hospital. He is improving and has returned to their room in the Evangelical Home, Saline.

Charles Bigelow has returned to his home after a stay in Herrick Memorial Hospital. Recent visitors of Charles and Luella were their elder son and family, Bill and Nancy Bigelow, Brad and Brett, of Somerset, Ky.

Quigley, Valendra Win Raisin Matches

Janet Quigley and Tom Valendra survived above everyone else to take championship honors Sunday at Raisin Valley Golf's annual club matches.

Quigley won the championship flight in the women's division after defeating Jeanne McCarley by two holes. Valendra won top honors among the men after beating John Kennedy with six holes to play.

In the first flights, Carolyn Baker beat Jackie Velandra while Mike Klein beat Clarence Champanois for the same honor in the men's division.

The men's championship match involved 36 holes, while all other matches were 18 holes. Trophies were presented to all winners and runner-ups.

APPALACHIAN WORKERS — Tecumseh's Fellowship of Christian Athletes visited Mt. Vernon, Kentucky early this month for a week to join in the Christian Appalachian Project for home repairs. The group went under the guidance of Jim and Sandy Curth, Karen and Mike Diepenhort and Frank Graham. The group consisted of Scott Schafer, Ann Burns, [illegible]dre, Sue Ely, Wendy Mauer, Kevin McFadden, Monica Mumme, Linda and Lisa Sprague, Julie Jones, Tami Overton, and Therese Rapin.

Loggers Are Tops In Wednesday League

Wednesday League

The Loggers and Big Boy played a very close game in front of a large crowd to decide the championship of the Wednesday League. The Loggers jumped off to a 4-1 lead after the first inning but saw Big Boy bounce back in the second to tie the game at four runs apiece.

In the bottom of the third, the Loggers exploded for seven hits and six runs to take a commanding 10-4 lead. Big Boy couldn't be discouraged as they came right back with five runs in the fourth on homers by Lancaster and Wierich.

The Loggers added another run in the fifth and Big Boy scored another in the sixth but still trailed 11-10. In the bottom of the sixth, the Loggers scored three times and held on in the seventh to claim the victory.

Hunt and Roberts had three hits apiece to pace the Loggers. Gibson had four hits in four trips and Driscoll went three for three to lead Big Boy.

Fourth year resident cooks, Sharon Connors, Kay Todd and Sandy Curth had the task of stoking the appetites of Tecumseh athletes at the annual football camp near Chelsea, last week.

A salad buffet was featured for noon and night lunches had a build-your-own sandwich bar.

Added this year was a 10 p.m. snack, when make your own sundaes were offered with all the ice cream and assorted toppings camp participants wanted.

Day helpers who drove back and forth were Lois Tilton, Josie Jones, Judy Spagnoli, Marge Brazee and Wilma Silberhorn.

Wilma also organized the dessert collection of cookies, brownies, cakes and pies.

This year's cooks composed a song of five verses, which the boys rehearsed, and presented on parents night, with the help of the cooks.

Friday mornings breakfast featured a presentation of gag prizes by the cooks.

However, the effort backfired a bit, when the prizes planned for latecomers to meals, were instead awarded to the cooks who had inadvertantly slept in, when the electricity was off in the night. They had to be aroused by the students who came in late after driver training sessions.

Debbie Makes MSU Squad

DEBBIE RODGERS

It took months of preparation and a grueling five-week tryout camp but the true competitive spirit of Debbie Rodgers of Tecumseh came through to earn her a position on Michigan State's #1 nationally ranked cheerleading squad.

Rodgers began in April along with 109 other candidates and by May she made it through the three cuts that narrowed competition down to the final 18.

Former MSU cheerleaders judged the basic skills required for first cut and selected the stunts to be evaluated throughout competition. They also assisted candidates on cheerleading techniques and gymnastic proficiency.

Two distinct panels of judges assessed Rodgers during second and third cuts. Each 10-member panel used an accumulative point system for scoring.

By third cut, Rodgers was being judged on her ability to execute difficult stunts, partner-mounts and pom-pom routines. Overall appearance and enthusiasm were also taken into consideration.

"The competition was very keen," said squad adviser Edward Rutherford.

"Those who made the squad should be very proud, but they have a big job ahead of them."

Before the cheerleaders return to campus to begin preparations for the busy football season they will travel to Muskegon, Aug. 24 and perform an exhibition show in a local mall.

The weekend of Aug. 31 will find the squad out in Las Vegas, Nev., performing on the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon.

When they return to MSU they will jump right back into regular workouts and begin practicing a halftime show with the MSU Marching Band.

This fall will be the first time the two groups have performed together on the field.

The squad can also look forward to being seen on the Big Ten Television Network twice during basketball season and possibly twice on ABC's "College Football Game of the Week" this fall.

Rodgers, a senior majoring in psychology, is co-captain of the Spartan cheerleading squad and a third-year member.

A 1976 Tecumseh graduate, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Rodgers of 509 S. Occidental Highway.

Carol Davis Beats the Pro

Pat Stanley was in charge of the "Low Net-Low Putts" and "Beat the Pro" tournaments August 15 at Tecumseh Country Club

Carol Davis was the only one to beat the pro with a net 68.

Winners in the other tournament were:

First flight: Barb Wheeler, first low net; Maurine Hannibal, second low net; Pat Holmes and T. C. Roekle tied for low putts.

Second flight: Carol Davis, first low net; Ruth Hanna, second low net; Irene Feldman, low putts.

Third flight: Shirley Herrick, first low net; Lucy Roberts, second low net; Fran Kuthe and Emily Skinner tied for low putts.

Barb Palmer and Irene Feldman had chip-ins. Stan Brion also had a chip in on hole 18 for an eagle.

The fall luncheon will be Aug. 29. Awards for the "Old Pal" tournament willbe made. A business meeting will also be held. The golf tournament will be a 9 A.M. shotgun start and golfers are asked to sign up.

Rotary Golf Is a Success

Tecumseh Rotary board of directors approved the report of one of the most successful golf outings on record at its Aug. 14 meeting.

One hundred and twenty-five Rotarians from southeastern Michigan participated and shared the hospitality and courtesies of the Tecumseh Country Club.

Board also set Dec. 11 as the date for Christmas party celebrating the 75th anniversary of Tecumseh Rotary at Tecumseh Country Club. Area Rotary clubs will be invited to join.

Three new members were also recommended for membership by the board.

Most rustproofers won't touch used cars. We rustproof them twice.

Tuff-Kote's exclusive 2-Step System.

At Tuff-Kote we think we rustproof used cars better than anyone else in the world. That's because we rustproof every used car twice with our exclusive 2-Step System.

Step 1. Penetrant.

Tuff-Kote's unique penetrant creeps down to the bare metal to help stop existing rust. And that's important. Especially in used cars where rust has been forming for some time.

Step 2. Sealant.

SERVING TECUMSEH AND AREA SINCE 1850

VOL. 129 OUR 130th YEAR—NO. 5 | THURSDAY, AUGUST 30, 1979 | TWELVE PAGES—25c

Jim Beardsley Was City Attorney Here for Twenty Years

Services were held last Thursday for James C. Beardsley, 64, well known Tecumseh attorney who died early Thursday morning at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

He had been in failing health for the past few months.

For many years he was considered one of the finest lawyers in this area and in his position as city attorney, he wrote most of the city statutes that are in effect today.

James C. Beardsley was influential city attorney for 20 years and knowledgeable of Tecumseh's past.

Mr. Beardsley resigned as city attorney in March 1970, and at that time he had been city's sole legal advisor. He had served as a member of the Charter Commission and had encouraged its adoption on Dec. 14, 1953. Prior to Tecumseh changing its status from village to city, he had served the village as its attorney, succeeding the late John Zeigler on April 3, 1950.

In 1962 he was elected a director of United Savings Bank of Tecumseh and was on the board until 1970.

Locally, he was active in a number of organizations: member and former director of the Tecumseh Country Club, member and former officer of the Tecumseh Club, American Legion, VFW, Tecumseh and Lenawee County Historical Society, and at one time, very active as a leader for the Boy Scouts. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Beardsley was one of Tecumseh's finest historians and his knowledge of the area and its first settlers was such that he was considered an authority.

A life-long resident of this area, he was born on Jan. 15, 1915, in Macon. After graduating from Tecumseh High School in 1933, he attended Eastern Michigan University, University of Michigan and Vanderbilt University, where he received the degree of doctor of scientific jurisprudence in 1940.

In 1941, he entered the U.S. Air Force and served that armed branch of the services through World War II and until 1949. Before being discharged, he had received the Air Medal, Oak Leaf Cluster and the Distinguished Flying Cross and had attained the rank of lieutenant colonel.

Professionally, he was a member and past president of the Lenawee County Bar Association. Mr. Beardsley also was a member or former member of the American Judicature Society, Michigan General Probate Council, and National Advisory Board of the American Security Council.

He was a member of the National Historical Society, American Museum of Natural History, American Forestry Association, Michigan Audubon Society and the Wilderness Society.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Dr. John W. Beardsley and Mabel (Meeker) Beardsley, and two brothers.

Survivors include his widow, Marjorie, and eight children, Virginia Tankersley, Houston, Texas; Ann, Plymouth, Ohio; Susan, Pleasantville, N.Y.; James, of Adrian; Margaret, Houghton; and John, William, and Catherine, all at home; and one grandson.

Memorial contributions in memory of James Curtis Beardsley may be made to either the Herrick Hospital Heart Fund or to the American Cancer Society.

Burial was at Brookside Cemetery. Arrangements were by the Purse Funeral Home.

New Sidewalk behind Stores Is Scheduled

Sidewalk construction behind the stores in the city's northeast block will begin next week, city manager Cal Zorn announces.

Construction includes sidewalk behind Ken-Ray Drug and behind all stores facing Chicago Blvd., except for Lawson TV, which is next to an entry off N. Ottawa St.

Upon completion of the sidewalk construction, city officials hope to blacktop the entire parking lot by late September of early October.

Change Thursday Pickup Date to Tuesdays

Garbage pickup in Tecumseh has now been confined to two days, Cal Zorn, city manager, reports.

Pickups normally made in the past on Thursday have been switched to Tuesday, effective this week. This area lies south of E. Chicago Blvd. and east of S. Union St.

All pickups will now be confined to Tuesday and Wednesday, and residents scheduled on these two days in the past are not affected by the above change.

3 Discussions, Appointment Are on Agenda

Chamber of Commerce will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday morning at Don' Beef Buffet with three items of discussion on the agenda.

Committees are expected to report on the proposed Moonlight Madness merchant sale, raffle and Christmas promotion plans.

A chairman of the nominating committee also will be appointed.

Need Early Copy for 'Short' Week

Because of Labor Day next Monday, The Herald will require early news and advertising copy. Cooperation will be appreciated.

Publication will be on the newsstands Wednesday afternoon and in the mail Thursday morning as usual.

HS Orientation for Freshmen, New Students

Orientation for all incoming freshmen, other new students, and their parents, will be held Tuesday, Sept. 4 at 7:15 p.m. in Tecumseh High School cafeteria.

Students are asked to bring along class schedule, locker assignment and school discipline code.

This meeting is extremely important, because it will acquaint all new students with the operation at Tecumseh High School, according to Principal Clarence Lacny.

Raisin Board Appointments Thursday Night

Appointments to complete a new Raisin Township board will be made Thursday night, Chris Ruggirello, clerk announces.

Since the recall of three members of the board on Aug. 21, the township has been without a complete board.

Last week, county prosecutor Harvey Koselka ruled that Mrs. Ruggirello, a deputy clerk, officially became clerk on the recall of Marjorie Comfort. His ruling provided the board with a quorum and the power to make temporary appointments, one of which will be for supervisor and the other for trustee.

On Aug. 21 township voters recalled three from the board, including Robert Moore, supervisor, and Dr. Robert Murray, trustee.

Present members of the board, besides Ms. Ruggirello, are Lynette Sayler, treasurer, and Eugene Vaughn.

This Thursday night meeting is scheduled to start at 7:30 at the township hall on Occidental.

ISD Budget at $6,533,439

The Lenawee Intermediate School District set its yearly budget at $6,533,439 Tuesday night with a levy of 3.2193 mills.

The $6.5 million budget is actually in excess of the millage revenue to be collected but will include fund equity, money left over from last year's revenue collection.

The ISD board has been authorized to levy up to 3.3 mills for the past 10 years, but did not this year because of the 7.7% increase limit put on tax dollars collected by the Headlee Amendment.

Breakdown of the millage money includes: special eduction - 1.4633 mills, vocational education - 1.4633 mills, and general fund - .2927 mills.

In other action, the board passed a resolution to borrow $395,000 against interest paid against revenue, and it made a formal agreement with the county for the administration of Maurice Spear Campus.

The board also approved the position of a new teaching principal at the Maurice complex to involve the campus more closely with the rest of the area schools. No additional costs are involved.

Registration Ends Tuesday, Sept 4

Sept. 4 is the last day for Lenawee residents to register for the upcoming Oct. 1 special education county-wide millage election.

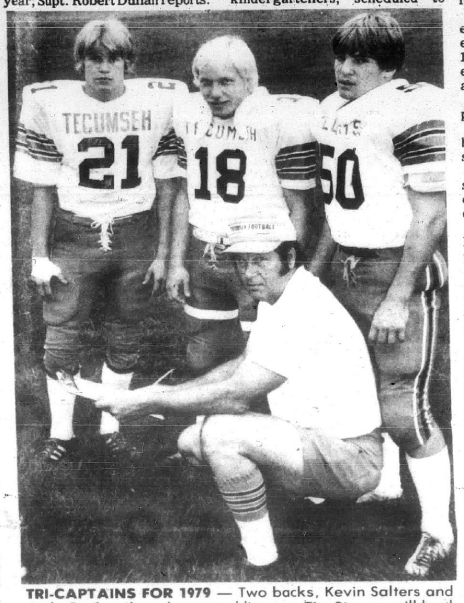
Registration may be made at any city clerk's office, township office or Secretary of State offices.

The Lenawee Intermediate School District is asking county residents to increase the special educational millage from 1.5 to 2.5 mills.

Schools Ready for Sept. 5th Opening and 3,600 Students

All facilities and the teaching staff are complete and ready for the opening of the 1979-80 school year, Supt. Robert Duhan reports.

About 3,600 students are expected to begin the new year here next week with all students, except kindergarteners, scheduled to start next Wednesday. Kindergarten classes will not begin until Thursday. Teachers will report next Tuesday.



TRI-CAPTAINS FOR 1979 — Two backs, Kevin Salters and Andy Geshweiler, above, and lineman Tim Steuwe will lead the Indians when they open next week at Chelsea in the 1979 season opener. Coach Pat Connors is entering his seventh year as head coach and will learn a bit more about his Indians this Thursday evening in a scrimmage at Fowlerville. (PHOTO BY KENT DOWNING)

Projected breakdown of the total enrollment is 1,875 for the elementary; 525, junior high, and 1,125 in the high school. Special education enrollment is estimated at 75.

Official enrollment for state aid purposes will be taken Sept. 28th.

During the past week, three have been employed to complete the staff.

Bernard Rex Reinink of Pittsford has been hired as a special education teacher for learning disability in the elementary.

Barbara Records, who filled in last year, has been employed as a parttime vocal music teacher.

An unusually large kindergarten enrollment, now over 270 compared to 244 last year, has necessitated an extra kindergarten session at Ridgeway.

Christine Harsh, a 1979 Adrian College graduate, has been hired for this session, which will be held in the afternoon at Ridgeway. There will be a total of 10 morning and afternoon kindergarten sections.

2 Juveniles Caught

Tecumseh police had their share of complaints the past week, including one incident involving two juveniles driving a vehicle without permission and theft of five batteries.

Officers stopped a car early last Wednesday morning after it was seen without headlights on. Young driver told police that it was his father's car, and he had taken it without permission.

Further checking disclosed a battery in the trunk of the car. About this time school officials called the department that two of their vehicles had batteries missing.

Overall, five batteries had been taken from vehicles at different locations in the city, including Tecumseh Auto Sales at 209 E. Patterson. Both juveniles reportedly admitted taking the batteries, stashing them at different locations to be picked up later.

Young driver told the police that he took the car keys from his mother's purse. Officers turned them over to juvenile authorities in Adrian.

Saturday, Ino D. Banda, 21, of 1101 Shady Lane, compounded his problems with the police after he nearly hit a patrol car with his motorcycle upon entering Satterthwaite Park.

He first gave false identification, claiming he was another person. Officers verified his identification and then charged him with driving on a suspended license.

Later that day, Banda drove his motorcycle into the rear of a car driven by Lisa A. Schneider, 17, of Adrian, who was stopped in the Community Center drive, waiting for traffic to clear before entering W. Chicago Blvd.

Banda left the scene only to be picked up later and charged with leaving the scene of a property damage accident.

Resume of other complaints are:

Aug. 22 — Thomas Pollock, 514 Pawnee Heights, reported damages to both doors of his vehicle. Police theorize that the door were kicked.

Aug. 22 — Mrs. Sue Hess, 108 W. Pottawatamie, reported an attempted B&E at her residence. Screen to rear door had been cut.

Aug. 23 — Linda Winzeler, 506 W. Kilbuck, reported her bicycle stolen at the high school.

Aug. 24 — Lee O. Russ, 19, Clinton, was charged with being a minor in possession of alcohol.

Aug. 25 — Mark A. Jackowski, 18, of 1633 E. Munger Rd., was arrested on W. Chicago Blvd. for drunk driving.

Aug. 25 — Alvin Buntin, 109 N. VanBuren, reported a CB radio taken from his home. A rear door was pushed in to gain entry.

Aug. 25 — Chester S. Casey, 24, Adrian, was cited for driving on a suspended license.

Aug. 26 — William B. Newman, 19, of 7957 E. Monroe Rd., was charged with reckless driving after police chased him on W. Chicago Blvd. at speeds up to 80 mph. A passenger with him, Edwin D. Dejonghe, 20, of 6981 Ridge Rd., was charged with having open intoxicants in the car.

Aug. 27 — Howard S. Kobel, 30, of 511 W. Brown, was cited for driving while under the influence. He was observed speeding on N. Union St.

Aug. 28 — Carl J. Brighton, 29, Manchester, was charged with a being a disorderly person for fighting in a public place. Incident took place at the Wrong Way Pub.

Police Trace Hit-Run Mishap to Holloway Rd.

Seldom are police able to solve a hit-run incident, but such was not the case Saturday.

Cars belonging to Jon Frost and James Martin were parked on Murray Dr. and both were damaged by a hit-run driver. Police arrived and discovered that the other vehicle must have sustained damages as a trail of radiator fluid left the scene.

Officers followed the trail to 5834 Holloway Rd. where they arrested Harold R. Molnar, 23, on charges of careless driving and for leaving the scene of a property damage accident.

In six other traffic accidents here, officers cited three for violations. Resume is:

Aug. 22 — Frederick L. Davis, 32, Hudson, was leaving a city parking lot off N. Ottawa when Melonee Smith, 10, of 202 E. Pottawatamie, rode her bike into the path of his vehicle. Young girl escaped injury but her bicycle was damaged.

Aug. 22 — Jule M. Robert, 17, of 502 W. Chicago, was cited for failure to yield the right of way after pulling out of N. VanBuren into the path of Kenneth D.Whittemore, 34, Onsted, on W. Chicago Blvd.

Aug. 23 — Gordon L. Logan, 50, of 4815 W. Monroe Rd., was turning at the intersection of Chicago and Evans St. when struck by Kenneth D. Schmidt, 17, of Adrian.

Aug. 26 — Thy-Hou Lin, 25, Ann Arbor, was charged with failure to stop within an assured clear distance after running into the rear of a vehicle operated by Denise I. Pearson, 25, Oregon, Ohio, on W. Chicago Blvd.

Aug. 26 — William Faust, 602 Conklin Dr., reported his car damaged while parked on Conklin. A witness told police that a car turned off Ternes Rd. and sideswiped the Faust vehicle and continued west on Conklin Dr.

Aug. 28 — Jeffrey L. Young, 18, Alma, was cited for failure to stop after hitting a turning vehicle operated by Loyal L. Lewis, 32, of 738 Waskins Dr. Accident occurred at W. Chicago and Occidental Rd.

MD PLEDGE CENTER — Jim Erb, left, has donated the Erb Chevrolet sight on W. Chicago as the pledge center for Tecumseh's donations in the upcoming Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon for Muscular Dystrophy Next to him is this year's director, Bob Cunningham and two volunteers for the phones at Erb's, John Pratt and Kay Russell.

Plans Set for Telethon

Local plans are now being finalized for the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon for myscular dystrophy with Erb Chevrolet emerging as the local pledge point.

The number to call to phone in pledges is 423-8331. Call from 7 p.m. Sunday night, Sept. 2 to 6 p.m. Sept. 3.

Two fish bowls will also be used in the local campaign for immediate money donations, one at Erb Chevrolet during the entire telethon and one at the four corners of Tecumseh on Monday only.

WLEN will also have live coverage of the telethon at both locations.

Money from this annual event goes to muscular dystrophy (MD) research, to MD camp and some money does stay locally to help those affected by the disease. MD research is not supported by the United Way.

Phone answerers and help of any kind is still needed by coordinator Bob Cunningham. To volunteer or to have any of your questions answered, call 423-3339.

Food donated to volunteeers is also appreciated and may be dropped off a Erb's during the 24 hour event.

Annuals

1979 Tecumseh High School annuals will be distributed Friday, Sept. 7, all day during student home room periods.

Students must have their receipts to pick up annuals.

50 THS Students Join Band Camp

Fifty Tecumseh High School students began band camp at 7:30 a.m. Monday morning and will continue their marching camp exercises until Friday at the high school.

The camp is under the direction of Tecumseh band director Jimmie Rice, beginning his seventh year here. Rice is getting help this year from Bill Silberhorn, Lori Slavick, and Pete Goodman.

Silberhorn is a Western Michigan student who is helping out, while Goodman and Slavick have been hired to help with the percussion and flag lines of the band. Both come most recently from an Ypsilanti drum and bugle corps.

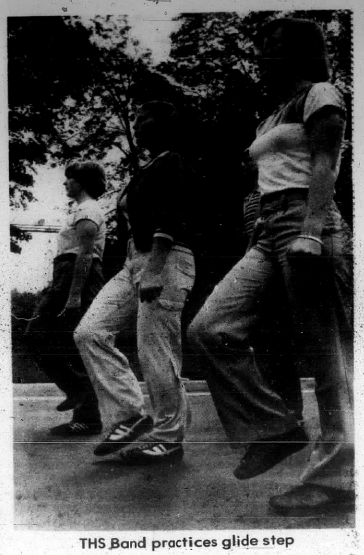
The students at this camp, much like any other, work on fundamentals. They practice the glide step, mark time, size of step, turns and expanding arc, to name a few.

They do work on one competition show they will use much of the football season, but the basics are stressed this early in the year.

And those basics are practiced until the marching group works as a total unit precisely and accurately. That's one key to the camp's success.

The music, too, is important. It is simplier than stage band material, but it is as demanding. Jimmy Rice works to make the music as musical as the indoor concert.

And that is certainly another key to band camp this week. The group is working to back spirited football games, for support, etc., but this group is working for much more. They are a separate marching, musical unit, as well as a supporting one.



THS Band practices glide step

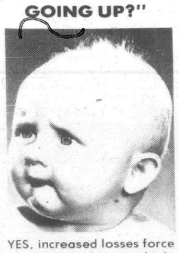
"Insurance is GOING UP?"



YES, increased losses force insurance preminums higher. One way to keep them down is to accept a 'deductible clause', as the cost of handling small claims is a big insurance expense.

Letter To The Editor

To the Editor:

I regret having to tell you all of my decision to drop the petition I was bringing around for the 25 m.p.h. traffic signs we wanted posted on our section of North Union, as some possible means for discouraging speeders that seem to think our road is the Michigan International Speedway of Tecumseh.

I am even more sorry for this decision because of you people who were so enthusiastically in favor of this petition and who signed so willingly.

For letting you encouraging souls down, I feel guilty, because I feel I'm not only disappointing you, but also your children and grandchildren in the one and only means easily available for trying to make our section of road a much safer one.

Many with defeating attitudes, who signed the petition and some who didn't, yelled that better police action was required, without realizing our police force has stepped up its patrolling time in our area.

However good they are while there, they aren't much of a deterrent to speeders when they have to leave.

There's no way they can provide 24 hour service strictly for us alone and it would be selfish and unfair to expect them to.

So let's be serious folks! Short of making this part of North Union a toll road with a toll booth every 20 yards, our best-our only-option is speed limit signs, of which there are now NONE in our area of road, not even at the city limit.

Plainly and truthfully, I've been discouraged, but if enough of the rest of you that have not yet signed the petition want me to continue to bring it around, I will once again pick up my pen, rediscover my enthusiasm, and simply just ignore the sad sacks who never want to help with solutions, but only add to the existing problems.

Mrs. Robert J. Loomis
743 N. Union St.

Meet in Monroe

Members of the Past Chief's Club of Josephine H. Hall Temple #49 were entertained in the home of Mrs. Jessie Ehlinger of Monroe for their August meeting.

The group met at a local restaurant for luncheon and then retired to the home of Mrs. Ehlinger, where a short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Harry Schuch.

Mrs. Beulah Todd was honored with a birthday card shower, and congratualtions were sent to Mr. and Mrs. Hary Schuch who were observing their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Games of cards were played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Miriam Nixon, Mrs. Schuch and Mrs. Rena Hubbard.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Attend 'Corn Boil'

Members of the Tecumseh Church of Christ attended the tenth annual "Corn Boil" hosted by Bob Rupert at the Hickory Hills Campground on the Rupert Farm, Aug. 19.

Rupert has had a lot of experience in the culinary arts, and he superintended the corn boiling in a 50 gallon copper kettle, such as those used by Pennsylvania Dutch folks for cooking apple butter.

The day's entertainment was provided by a group of singers, formed by the pastor, Otis Lang, and included one of his guitar students on lead guitar, Dave Rupert, and also Bernie Callis, Bob Bacus, Barbara Callis, and Mabel Baskins.

There was also horse shoe pitching and softball.

The church families brought along lots of other foods, which were served at the dinner.

The public is invited to regular services at the Church of Christ, 312 W. Chicago Blvd.

Sundays there is a Bible Study at 9:30 a.m.; worship at 10:30 a.m.; evening worship at 6:30 p.m.; Wednesday evening worship at 7 p.m.

Listen to the daily radio program every morning at 9:45 to 10 a.m., radio station WLEN 103.9 on your FM dial.

The minister is Otis Lang. His phone number is 423-5340.

Boysville Gets $40,000 Grant

Boysville of Michigan has recently been awarded a $40,000 challenge grant from the Trustees of The Kresge Foundation in Troy, Michigan.

The money will go towards financing the completion of Boysville's new multi-purpose dormitory at their central campus in Clinton.

The total cost of completing the dormitory project is set at $80,000.

Boysville's Executive Director, Brother Francis Boylan, said the balance of funding will come from pledges by individuals, corporations and other foundations who have expressed an interest in Boysville's capital needs.

These additional monies are expected to be raised or pledged by Dec. 31, 1979.

The Kresge Foundation, one of the largest and most prominent in the nation, has issued new grants totaling $35.1 million to 177 non-profit organizations this year.

The foundation considered nearly 1,200 qualified proposals this year alone.

These grants are generally awarded to projects involving the construction and major renovation of facilities.

Usually, recipients have raised initial funds, and then grants are authorized on challenge basis to help obtain the balance of funds required.

Boysville's new multi-purpose dormitory will be used to house 24 youth on campus. The facility will also act as a multi-purpose student center and include a vocational-education program in Food Services for Boysville students.

Final completion of the building is set for December of this year.

Seek Adult 4-H Leaders

Have you ever felt the thrill of rapelling down a 100 ft. overhang? Could you live completely off the land for several days? We're looking for volunteers who are committed to working with young people.

The Michigan 4-H Challenge program offers youth and their adult leaders, the opportunity to experience wilderness survival, hiking and backpacking and high-adventure.

Adult leaders will receive training and certification for the tasks they will perform from qualified volunteer instructors. The safety of the young people involved is of utmost importance. Therefore a training and certification procedure has been set up for volunteers who wish to become 4-H Challenge Leaders.

Candidates for certified Challenge leaders must be 21 years old; 16-20 years olds can become associate leaders (training is identical).

For more information contact Elva Lovell, 4-H Program Assistant, 199 N. Broad Street, Adrian, MI 49221. Phone 263-8831, ext. 296.

Rose Service Marks 90 Years

Mrs. Rose Service was honored Aug. 22 on the occasion of her ninetieth birthday.

Family, friends and neighbors shared a cake baked and decorated by her granddaughter Vivian Leonard of Leslie.

Mrs. Service is the mother of 12 children with nine still living. She has 27 grandchildren and 31 great-grandchildren.

The family appreciates the many cards, visits and flowers that made the day one to cherish and remember.

James Turns Six, Has Party

James Foughty, who was six on Aug. 21, was honored at a birthday party Aug. 9 at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foughty, 613 S. Occidental.

Jamey's sister, Angela, helped with the party decorations and with the games. Prizes were given to the winners of the games. Guests also received favors and a party hat.

Refreshments featured a clown decorated cake, and ice cream.

Mrs. Jerry Cramer and Mrs. Ted Pizio assisted the hostess.

Youngsters who attended the party are Michael and Scottie Cramer, Teddy Pizio, Eric Patterson, Bobby and Shaena Moore, Mary, Darleen and Charlotte Lambert, and Michael and Kelvin Cook.

Accidents

Three traffic mishaps were investigated recently by local police with two drivers cited for violations.

Aug. 20, Lorrie A. Lazar, 19, Tipton was charged with disregarding a red light after her vehicle struck Catherine C. Miller, 42, of 111 Brown, who was turning off W. Chicago into N. Union St.

On Aug. 20, Rebecca L. Hite, 17, of 3205 Gove Dr., was cited for speeding after she was unable to stop at the intersection of Russell Rd. and S. Evans. Her eastbound vehicle struck another driven by Samuel R. Starkey, 30, of 5306 Osburn Dr., who was northbound.

Justus Watia, 34, Hancock, ran into the rear of a vehicle driven by Melvin W. Ruettinger, 55, of 802 Sunset Dr. Aug. 20 on W. Chicago Blvd.

If your brand new car is 'totaled' will your insurance company pay you for a brand new car?

Some insurance companies think a new car is a used car the minute you use it to drive out of the dealership. Not Auto-Owners.

With Auto-Owners, if you have an accident anytime within 90 days and your new car is a total loss, we'll pay you the total cost of your new car. And with Auto-Owners, your new car is covered immediately, automatically, under your previous policy.

So if you're about to get a new car, talk to us at Auto-Owners. Maybe you should get a new insurance company, too.

Macon News

By Phyllis Thomas

Many Macon area residents, friends and relatives, former residents and former Ford Farms co-workers and personnel attended the Golden Wedding Anniversary celebration for Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pennington of Hessel, residents for many years of Macon and Britton. The occasion, held Sunday at the Tecumseh Grange, was hosted by their five children, their spouses and grandchildren.

The Penningtons have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mills Swick for several days.

MACON UNITED METHODIST CHURCH CALENDAR

Thursday: 7:30 p.m. — Chancel choir will resume practice after their summer vacation. New members are always welcome.

Sunday, September 9 is Christian Education Sunday and will be the Sunday School Promotion Day.

Sunday, September 9 is the picnic for all youth, grades seven through 12.

Boys and girls willing to serve as Acolytes during the Sunday morning church service are asked to contact Mrs. Ivan Bugbee. Ordinarily, the Acolytes should be at least eight years old and be tall enough to manage the lighting of the candles. Training, which is required, will be offered.

Award Prizes

Underwood-Orr American Legion Post awarded drawing prizes at the Lenawee County Fair.

Presentation was made by Lenawee Fair Queen runner-up, Jennifer Angler.

Prizes, in the form of dressed meat, were beef, from 1,240 lb. steer to Russ Mitzner, of Tecumseh; pork from 200 lb. hog, to Jack Carr, of Tecumseh; and lamb from 130 lb. sheep, to Bill Rangler of Tecumseh.

Relatives 'Send' Baby Shower to Vickie Occhi

Jan Clewis and Pam Felton gave a proxy shower for their sister and her husband, Sgt. Donald Occhi, who are expecting their first child in the middle of August.

The couple is stationed at the Schofield Barracks in Hawaii.

A telephone call to Hawaii caught Vickie by complete surprise.

Each of the guests had a chance to say hello and "Wish you were here."

Guests waited to wrap up their baby gifts at the shower. When the shower was over the gifts were packed in boxes along with notes, pictures and decorations from the cake, which was made by Vickie's aunt, Arelen Wilson.

The shower was then on its way to Hawaii.

Among the guests were Vickie's mother, Marilyn Felton of Tupelo, Miss., Nancy Hebb and her daughter, Nicky, of Van Wert, Ohio, and relatives from Blissfield, Britton and Tecumseh.

News From The Tecumseh Chiropractic Life Center

Dr. W.C. Elwartowski

Dear Doctor,
What exactly is a slipped disc?

It doesn't sound like anything very serious. Just a little something which slid out of place a little bit. It shouldn't hurt anything, and it'll probably slip back into place the next time the urge strikes it.

But the aches and pains which accompany the slipped disc, the long and drawn-out periods of agony which intensify, and the too often crippling effects of the slipped disc belie the statement that it isn't anything serious.

The disc is one of the soft, cushion-like segments which separates the vertebrae. When a disc slips, something else has to give and nerve pressure in the affected area is the immediate result.

Chiropractors are students of the spine and the body's nervous system. It is their business to locate such disorders in the nervous system, make simple, gentle adjustments to correct the disorder and to restore normal function to the nerve system and to the body. With the disorder resolved, nature cures.

The paralyzing effects of the slipped disc respond quite naturally to competent chiropractic adjustment.

For further information on this question, or if you have other related questions, feel free to write Dr. Elwartowski at 101 S. Pearl St., Tecumseh, MI 49286.

Dr. W. C. Elwartowski

School Millage Set at 27.4316

BRITTON — At Thursday night's special School Board meeting the Board of Education adopted a resolution relative to the special election that will be held on Monday, Oct. 1. This resolution was adopted for the purpose of voting on a Special Education Millage Proposition.

The 1979 tax rate was also set-up at the meeting as follows:

8.0716, allocated; 18.5, extra voted; .36, 1955 Debt; .50, 1975 Debt — Total Mills: 27.4316.

As a result of the Headlee Amendment the allocated millage is being reduced by .4284 mills. Due to an increase in the State Equalized Valuation of the district the debt millage is being reduced by .39 of a mill.

The board accepted with regret the resignation of third grade teacher, Ann Creger, who is retiring after teaching 25 years at Britton.

The board granted Sandra Bandurski a leave of absence for the first semester of the 1979-80 school year.

School Doors Open Wednesday

BRITTON — School will officially open at the Britton-Macon Area School Sept. 4. There will be a Teacher's Conference and Organizational Meeting at 9 a.m. in the school cafeteria on Tuesday, Sept. 4.

School will start for all pupils on Wednesday, Sept. 5. There will be a full day of school for all pupils on this day.

School will start at 8:18 a.m. and dismiss at 3:03 p.m. The doors to the school will be open at 8:10 a.m. Students should arrange their schedule so that they arrive at school no earlier than 8:10 a.m.

Parents of Kindergarten children who did not register their child last spring will be able to register them in the afternoon on Tuesday, Sept. 4.

It is suggested that mothers of Kindergarten children put them on the buses the first day. Those who bring their children Wednesday are requested to leave them in the room with the teacher and not remain. It is believed that this method makes it easier for the child to adjust to school on the first day.

New students are asked to enroll at the Principal's office the week of Aug. 27-31. The time for registering will be from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Cafeteria lunches will be served on Wednesday, Sept. 5, for all pupils and teachers. Pupils who carry their lunches are expected to eat in the school cafeteria.

The driving of automobiles or motors vehicles by students during the noon hour will not be permitted. If a student wishes to drive his or her car, they must obtain permission from the High School Principal.

The staff for the 1979-80 school year is as follows:

HIGH SCHOOL STAFF

William L. Saxton, superintent; John D. DeLine, principal; Eileen Fore, bookkeeper and secretary; Erma Hagans, secretary; Marilyn Alexander, Spanish and English; Roger Anspaugh, agriculture; Cheryl Cochran, home economics; Anthony Bandurski, library; John Drennan, science; Larry Jacobsen, history and English; Sue Kasdon, art - high school and elementary; Al Lenz, social studies; Mark Lewis, mathematics; Dorothy Long, commercial; Marilyn Preston, mathematics and physics; Peggy Raeburn, physical education and counseling; Patricia Richardson, English and journalism; Randy Salisbury, physical education and coaching; Meri Schoof, instrumental music; James Sweigart, government and counseling; Douglas Witt, English, social studies and coaching.

ELEMENTARY STAFF

Catherine Smith, kindergarten; Rosemary Schroeder, first grade; Nancy Whitford, second grade; Pamela Dafoe, first and second combination; Vacant, two third grades; Rosemary Niblack, fourth grade; Susan Shaw, fourth grade; Geraldine Gorton, fifth grade; Sandra McMaster, fifth grade; Patricia Bryce, sixth grade; Elizabeth Cheever, sixth grade; Diane Matuszak, physical education and Title 1 teacher aide.

Buses will run about the same schedule as last year. Students should be ready at the pickup place, fifteen minutes early for the first week until the driver is able to adjust his run for an arrival at the school at 8:10 a.m.

The lunch prices will remain the same as last year (45 cents for grades 1-6 and 50 cents for grades 7-12). Due to the rising food costs it will be necessary to charge for second helpings to maintain these low prices.

Harley Slicks Entertain

RIDGEWAY — Mr. and Mrs. Harley Slick and Brad of Ridgeway had another houseful of guests Sunday, Aug. 26.

Those they entertained were Nina Matthews of Waterloo, Sandy Bruce and family of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Randy Slick and daughter of Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Linn of Ridgeway, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Linn and son of Ridgeway and Mrs. Dorothy Hindes of Britton.

ANNEROSE EICHHORN and SABINE WOHRLE

Girls Visit Zeemers

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zeemer and family of 7997 N. Britton Hwy. have had the pleasure of having two girls from Germany visiting them for three weeks.

Sabine Wohrle, 19, is a distant relative of Mr. Zeemer. This relationship is how Sabine and her girlfriend, Annerose Eichhorn came to visit.

The girls have been experiencing many new things. They especially enjoyed having sweet corn, sloppy joes and baked beans, all of which they never had before.

They enjoyed talking about the way our living is different than theirs. Television for an example; there you have to pay for it and commercials are only shown at the beginning or end of a show.

Sabine lives on a farm of 20 Hektars in Bad Mergentheim and Annerose lives in the village of Weikersheim-Elpersheim. They both are beginning a three-year business school while they work at an office for a dairy.

Visiting the Ohio State Fair, touring Detroit and Greenfield Village, going to an American wedding, and shopping at Fairlane Mall are some of the activities the girls have been doing on their stay.

Many of their experiences will be lasting memories when they return home in September.

Kimberly Dick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dick of 5121 S. Britton Hwy., Britton, graduated August 3 from South Central School of Practical Nursing. She is working fulltime at Saline hospital.

Jumpers Set New Record

The U.S. Olympics Parachuting Team that recently spent some time in Tecumseh practicing their jumping for the international competition has set a new world record for a 10-man speed star in the competition going on now in France.

Also the 8-man competition team is in first place, tentatively.

The meet will go on there for three or four days before the finalists are determined.

YMCA Closes

The YMCA of Lenawee County will be closed August 25th through Sept. 3rd for cleanup of the facility. Equipment repairs are also made at this time.

The 1979-80 YMCA fall and winter program brochure was mailed out the week of August 27th. The YMCA will open for its regular fall program, Sept. 4th.

Registration week will be Sept. 10th through the 14th, 8:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. Members only are scheduled Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday with open registration being Thursday and Friday.

New Hours for Britton Post Office

BRITTON — The Britton Post Office will have new hours, for Saturday only, for all Britton area residents.

The office will be open for two hours only from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m.

This will begin Sept. 1. The weekday hours will remain the same.

B-M Menu

SEPT. 5-7

WEDNESDAY — Hot dogs on bun, potato chips, green beans, peach halves and milk.

THURSDAY — Tacos, shredded lettuce, cheese, chilled applesauce and milk.

FRIDAY — Tuna salad or peanut butter sandwich, corn, celery sticks, cake and milk.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

Part of the best fun and certainly the greatest disappointment of the summer was the pair of tiny wrens who set up housekeeping in the bluebird box. We were absolutely amazed at how incredibly hard they worked building their nest. F'inally the job was done.

One of the finishing touches was a long twig which hung out of the doorway. There must have been about four inches showing and it looked thorny, probably from a rose bush.

We quickly saw that this stick was not sloppy construction. It served many purposes. For one thing it was carefully placed to effectively cut down the size of the doorway. It would also have been a deterrent had a starling or some of his cohorts tried to reach through the oversized door and break eggs or kill baby birds.

After the busy nest building period, the weeks of egg laying and incubation were rather quiet. However, even though there was not the coming and going that there had been, the wren not busy with the eggs was usually nearby watching.

We laughed one day at a wren/catbird encounter. When the large gray bird apparently flew too close to the nest, it took the tiny wren no time at all to rush to the rescue.

Next I saw the twosome flying back, only now the wren was being chased by the catbird. Instead of trying to figure out what was happening we simply enjoyed watching.

We also enjoyed watching the feeding process once the eggs hatched. Baby wrens have unbelievable appetites and these poor parents worked oh, so hard. Trip after trip they made and usually with wriggly, crawly green worms tightly clasped in their bills. One would usually zoom right into the house but the other preferred landing on the lookout perch first.

As the kids grew the tempo of the feeding increased. Sometimes there was a traffic jam at the front door and, even though it was large for a wren, it was not large enough for two at the same time.

One of the chuckles when watching wrens raise their family is realizing that the adult birds are never empty billed. They take food into the house and carry out neat little white sacs. The kids eliminate all body wastes in these small sacs and thus the nest is clean and sanitary.

F'inally came the day when the kids started appearing in the doorway. Little round heads with wide yellow mouths. As they became more venturesome and stretched farther out the doorway, we saw another reason for the protruding thorny stick. It effectively kept the young wrens in where they belonged.

As all wren watchers know, the high point of the whole experience is seeing the kids leave home. We have observed it a few times but all too often they pop out either too early or too late for us.

This year we had a sure-fire stakeout — surely between Mom, Gertie T. and me somebody would know what was going on. When we felt the leave-taking was imminent. Mom spent the better part of two days with the binoculars glued to her face. No way were those kids going to sneak out on her.

Near the end of the second day she strongly suspected trouble. The bramble twig was out of position — could one of the youngsters have moved it from inside? — and an adventurous kid kept leaning farther and farther out. Mom and Gerti T expected to see him topple out on his head any minute.

Bright and early Wednesday morning we resumed the vigil. However, it was a mixed-up morning and about an hour and a half slipped by with no one watching. You know what happened, the silly little birds all bailed out and we did not see a one. When we could get back to the surveillance of the bluebird box it was immediately apparent that we were watching an empty house. What a disappointment — we had invested so much time and had been so sure. Oh well, maybe next year.

Hospital Asks Approval of Rehabilitation Program

Herrick Hospital has asked the state to approve the establishment of a HOPEUNIT Rehabilitation Program for mental health patients.

The HOPEUNIT Program would function under a management contract between Comprehensive Care Corporation, a health care management company, and Herrick Hospital.

The hospital would provide the inpatient beds required for the inpatient phase of the treatment program, nursing, and all supplementary space, including 19 acute care beds, and areas for group patient dining, group therapy and lectures and a lounge-recreation area.

Comprehensive Care Corporation would provide the rehabilitation program, including a treatment team in residence, a training program, back-up personnel, documentation for the Joint Commission on Hospital Accreditation, clinical and administrative management, and community public relations.

The project would cost an estimated $4,000, and would begin in September.

In keeping with state and federal regulations, requiring state approval and local health agency board action prior to new service, Herrick Memorial Hospital has applied for a Certificate of Need.

The application is on file with the division of Health Facility Planning and Construction, Michigan Department of Public Health.

Allen, Meadows Honored

Steve Allen and Jayne Meadows will be awarded honorary doctorate degrees by Siena Heights College Thursday, Sept. 6 at 8 p.m. in Francouer Theatre in the college's Performing Arts Center.

Allen (comedian, actor, director, author, song-writer and musician) and Meadows (Broadway stage, motion pictures, television, nightclub and radio entertainer) can now add one more title to their distinguished careers...that of educator.

The Allens will each be presented Doctor of Human Letters for their involvement in the Public Broadcasting Service's award-winning "Meeting of Minds" series which is one of Allen's latest pioneering ventures in the entertainment-media world. The program is created, written, produced, directed and hosted by Allen (he wrote the theme song as well) and most of the leading female roles are played by Meadows.

The husband-wife team is being honored for offering viewing audiences a unique example of television as an educational vehicle, for the 18 years of perserverance it took to make the idea a reality, and for the "mind-stretching" that "Meeting of Minds" has harvested in the public consciousness.

In "Meeting of Minds" actors portray various historical characters from different time periods in a hypothetical gathering and exchange views and ideas on topics from authority of Church and science to romantic love.

The public is invited to attend the convocation presentation by Siena Heights Faculty. The event is free of charge.

Dundee Takes First

The Tecumseh Recreation Department women's softball tournament began on August 21 and saw Dundee Products blast DST 14-0.

Dundee scored 10 times in the first inning and then played excellent defense as they coasted to their eleventh straight victory. Dundee only committed one error in the contest compared to 10 errors by DST.

Phyllis Below and Kim Gall had three hits in three trips for DST.

Airport Bowl held off a late inning rally by Ives' Body Shop to gain a 10-7 victory. Airport jumped off to a 6-0 lead after three innings.

Ives' came back with two runs in the 4th and 5th innings but Airport scored four runs also. Ives' then rallied for three more runs in the sixth and seventh, but fell short with bases loaded.

Jane Faulkner had four hits in four trips while Lori Spotts, Amy Montague, Maria Evans, and Beth Haines had three hits apiece. Phyllis Roberts had three hits for Ives'.

In semi-final action, Doc's scored two times in the second inning and held a 2-1 lead after three innings. In the fourth, Dundee pushed a run across to tie the game. Doc's couldn't get things going again and was unable to get a hit the rest of the game.

Dundee scored the winning run in the sixth to take a 3-2 victory and advance to the finals. Doc's outhit Dundee 5-3 but committed four costly errors. Theresa Lauer had two hits for Doc's.

Airport Bowl pounded Jerry's Pub 15-1 in the other semi-final game. Airport scored six times in the first inning and added three more in the second. Jerry's got their only run in the fourth on a bases loaded walk. Airport went on to score six more runs while holding Jerry's scoreless.

Lori Spotts slapped three singles in four times at bat while Maria Evans, Jane Faulkner, Amy Montague, and Pat Mannino added two hits apiece.

Dundee played excellent errorless defense as they captured first place honors in the championship game. Dundee collected 17 hits and scored 11 runs while holding Aiport scoreless. Airport had seven hits and left 10 runners stranded on base.

Lori Monagin had four hits in four trips while Phyllis Below, Mary Mueller, and Kim Gall had two hits apiece. Judi Rothfuss and Betsy Owens had two hits apiece.

Men's Softball Tournament Results

In the first game of the men's softball tournament, J&X Electric eliminated Blaisdell's 15-12. J&X scored four times in the first inning, but Blaisdell's came right back to tie the game.

Blaisdell's held a 7-5 lead after three innings and rallied for five more in the fifth. J&X picked up another in the fourth and then exploded for nine runs in the fifth to take a 16-12 lead and earn the victory.

Hively and Roberson had three hits apiece to pace J&X. Stevenson had four hits in four trips to pace Blaisdell's.

In a make-up game between Tractor Village and Blaisdell's, Tractor Village crushed Blaisdell's 17-5. Tractor Village pounded out 16 hits and were aided by six Blaisdell's errors.

Munson had three hits to pace Tractor Village. The victory left Tractor Village with a 5-5 record.

VFW rallied for seven runs in the fourth inning and went on to defeat Tecumseh Fence 12-9. VFW outhit the Fence 19-9.

Creswell, Dotson, Sisson, and Starkey had three hits apiece while Bunch had three hits including a home run.

Ember's Bar jumped off to a 7-0 lead after two innings but saw Tecumseh Plywood score four times in the third and pulled within two after a three run, fifth inning. Ember's scored four more in their half of the fifth and two more in the fifth while allowing Plywood one more run in the sixth to clinch the victory.

Tuberville and Nykodym had three hits apiece to lead Emer's. Nykodym and Skelton had home runs for Ember's.

Dundee Products eliminated Race Track Inn 4-1 in action on Monday night. Dundee scored a run in the fourth to tie the game at one run apiece. In the fifth, Dundee scored two more and added another in the sixth to claim the victory.

Dundee collected eight hits to Race Track Inn's three.

American Van Stand became too hot for Wendy's to handle after they erupted for nine hits and nine runs in the second inning. Van Stand went on to pound out 28 hits and score 17 runs in their six innings at bat. When the game was over, Van Stand had clinched a 17-4 victory.

Brown had a perfect night at the plate with four hits in four trips. Schwartz also had four hits including two home runs. Arnold and Jerry Iso had three hits apiece.

The Loggers rolled over Handley Equipment 17-1 to advance to the quarter finals of the tournament. The Loggers' big inning came in the sixth when they scored eight runs. The Loggers outhit Handley 18-5 but committed only two errors, compared with seven errors by Handley.

Hunt, Porterfield, and Warner had three hits apiece to pace the Loggers.

Errors proved to be J&X Electric's downfall as they committed 13, allowing USB to score 14 unearned runs. J&X outhit the Bank 16-13 but lost the game 20-9.

McLeod had three hits to pace USB while Hancock and Weatherwax had three hits apiece for J&X.

TOP WOMEN — Dundee Products, 10-0 for the season, finished their regular season of play last Monday to go into tournaments with an uncontested first place finish in women's softball in Tecumseh. Team members include, front, l-r, Sue Brown, Peggy Albaugh, Connie Ries, Ann Iott, Pat Armstrong and Linda Gibbs. Back, Linda Wittkopf, Sandi Raymond, Lori Monagin, Mary Anne Mueller, Kim Gall, Phyllis Below and Sue Richter. Ruth King was not present for the photo. (PHOTO BY JOHN SEAY)

Cards of Thanks

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say: Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, We thank you so much whatever the part. By the family of Russell O. Schultz.
8-30c

We wish to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to our children and grandchildren for honoring us on our Golden Anniversary with an open house held Aug. 19 at St. Peters Episcopal Church. We also wish to thank all those who helped to make this day an eventful one for us, especially the ECW and Daughters of St. Peters of the church and Mrs. Emma Harrison, who was an attendant at our wedding. Also our appreciation to our neighbors, friends and relatives for the many cards, gifts and phone calls. May the Lord's blessing be with you.

US-12 - M-50 Fatality

CLINTON — Intersection of US-12 and M-52, west of Clinton, was the scene of another fatal accident, Saturday, at 8:25 a.m.

Ronald Edwin Fowler, 21, of Rhodes, Mich., was pronounced dead at the scene, when his southbound automobile slammed into the side of a westbound semi-trailer truck, which was almost through the caution lighted intersection.

Clinton H. Webb, 56, of Mishawaka, Ind., was the driver of the truck, which jackknifed on the highway, when it was struck. Webb escaped injury.

Clinton State Police investigated the accident, and Clinton Fire Department was called to the scene to hose gasolene from the highway.

Air Show Set for Fall Fest

CLINTON — An added free feature at Clinton's Fall Festival '79 will be an air show on Saturday, Sept. 29.

This event will be co-sponsored by the Clinton Village Council, Clinton Township Board, and the Clinton Chamber of Commerce, instead of having fireworks as on previous years.

Beginning at 5 p.m. Dave McKenzie of Wyandotte will present a 15-minute aerobatic show over the Clinton High School athletic field on Kehoe Rd.

He'll use a home-built Great Lakes bi-plane in a series of loops, spins, and rolls.

McKenzie is a flight instructor out of Grosse Ile, and is employed as a product designer for Ford Motor Co.

Next the Blue Birds of Tecumseh, will stage a half-hour show with three planes and a 12-man parachuting team, targeted at the CHS athletic field.

There will be a new 4-man stack canopy parachute drop, each standing on the preceding man's chute, and landing in sequence, and other exciting manuevers in the air.

Participants are all from the Tecumseh Parachuting Service, including: Bob Spicer, Tecumseh; Randy Hernandez, Tecumseh; Lenford Beard III, Tecumseh; Bill Yeider, Adrian; Gary Garr, Swanton, Ohio; Nancy and Bob Domeier, U-M students, of Clinton; Phil Green, Tecumseh; and Gerry Markland, the current overall accuracy and style champion in Michigan.

Also jumping will be Dave Sauve, of Mason, chief jump master, first in Michigan with 4,000 jumps and 11th in U.S.

Meanwhile, with all this going on overhead, Phil Glebe of Ypsilanti will be filling his seven stories high, gas-fired, hot-air, nylon balloon. He'll take off the CHS athletic field about 6 p.m.

Items Needed for Auction

CLINTON — Clinton Chamber of Commerce will again sponsor an auction during Clinton's Fall Festival, Sept. 29.

Saleable items are needed for this Chamber benefit event.

Any usable items, new or used, or antique will be welcome, excepting clothes.

Call 456-7408 before delivery to the barn beside First Federal Savings, on E. Michigan Ave.

This year the auction will be staged in the parking lot beside the State Savings Bank of Clinton, on Saturday, Sept. 29.

Clinton Schools Open Wednesday

CLINTON — An estimated student population of about 1,300 pupils is expected for the 1979-80 school year at Clinton Community Schools.

Pre-school orientation for all professional staff members will be held on Tuesday, Sept. 4, beginning at 8 a.m. and continuing throughout the day and additional faculty meetings will be held during the week.

School will open for all students, kindergarten through 12th grade, on Wednesday, Sept. 5, for a whole-day session.

Classes will begin at 8:30 a.m. and will be dismissed at 3:05 p.m. for elementary, 3:10 p.m. for middle school students, and 3:15 p.m. for all high school students.

Buses will pick students up in the morning so as to arrive at the school around 8:15 a.m. and will make the return trip leaving the school at about 3:20 p.m.

New Regulations for Immunization

CLINTON — Parents should be aware that because of Public Act 368, 1978 Part 92, "Immunization", there is a major change being implimented during this 1979-80 school year.

A CHILD WHO ENTERS SCHOOL IN SEPTEMBER AND WHO HAS NOT COMPLETED THE IMMUNIZATIONS REQUIRED OR WHO HAS NOT FILED AN EXEMPTION TO THE REQUIREMENTS BEFORE FEBRUARY 1ST, SHALL BE EXCLUSED FROM SCHOOL ATTENDANCE.

A child who enters school at any other time of the school year who has not completed the immunizations required by law or who has not filed an exemption within for months from entering, shall be excluded from attendance.

The Michigan State Health Department is vigorously implimenting this new law.

Therefore, Clinton Community Schools, and the parents who send children to CCS are placed under obligations to comply with the law and the health department regulations.

The following represents health department regulations:

A. Diptheria, Tetanus, and Pertussis: The following shall consitute fulfillment of these requirements for the above:

1. For children 6 weeks through 5 years:

Diptheria and tetanus toxoids and pertussis vaccine (DTP) should be given intramuscularly on three occasions, 3 doses of 4 to 8 weeks intervals. The minimum interval which must be observed between each of the first three doses is four weeks.

2. For children 6 years and older:

Any combination of the three doses of either DPT and /or TD shall constitute fulfillment of these requirements.

B. Polio:

The following shall constitute fulfillment of the requirements of polio prevention:

1. Every child shall receive at least 2 doses of trivalent oral polio vaccine (TOPV). The first 3 does shall be given not less than 6 and preferably 8 to 12 months after the second dose.

2. Inactivated Polio Vaccine (IPV) or Salk Injectible may be substituted for part of the required oral polio vaccine series. If three or more doses of IPV have been given, a single dose of TOPV given more than six months after the third IPV dose shall constitute fulfillment.

3. Monovalent Oral Polio Vaccine (MOPV) may be substituted for part of the required trivalent oral polio vaccine series. Any combination of 4 doses of MOPV and TOPV, provided that the minimum interval of at least 6 months has been observed between the third and final dose.

C. Measles - the student must have received the vaccine at age 12 months or later and after January 1, 1967 to be adequately immunized.

D. Rebella - the student must have received the vaccine at age 12 months or later and after July 1, 1969 to be adequately immunized.

Kindergarten To Begin

CLINTON — There shall be a regular kindergarten AM and PM sessions on Wednesday, Sept. 5.

All parents who have registered their child for kindergarten shall receive a letter before school starts, stating the room number and their teacher's name. Please register immediately if you have not done so already.

Transferring of students from morning to afternoon sections may be necessary after opening day enrollments are determined. All transfers will be made only after personal notification to their parents.

For the first three days of school, be sure your child wears a tag stating his name, complete address and a phone number. This will assist the teachers and bus drivers greatly if needed.

Registration by Tuesday

CLINTON— All Elementary and Secondary students who are new to Clinton Community Schools are urged to register at the appropriate building Principal's Office by Sept. 4. The offices will be open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The school Counselors, Ozzie Hashley at the High School, will be in their offices to advise new students on course selection, curriculum, and scheduling matters.

Market Seeks Green Thumbs

CLINTON — Did your green thumb go a bit wild in the garden this year? If you have a surplus of any garden produce, it would be welcome at the Farmer's Market to be held in conjunction with the Kitchen Walk Sept. 8.

There is no charge to the gardeners or farmers who want to sell their own produce from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the lawn at the Smith-Kimball Community Center.

If you have produce and would like to set up a display that day, call Shirley Fraley 456-7185 or Mary Ann Hunter 456-4100.

Need Statement

"A parent applying to have a child registered for the first time in a school in this state shall present to school officials, at the time of registration or not later than the first day of school, a certificate of immunization or statement of exemption under Section 9215."

Exemptions of immunization of statement of exemption under Section 9215 are: (1) provided for when a physician certifies that a specific immunization is or may be detrimental to a child's health or is not appropriate, and (2) when a parent of a child presents a written statement to the administrator of the child's school to the effect that the requirements of imunizations cannot be met because of religious convictions or other objections to immunization.

Section 9208 further states, "A teacher or principal shall not permit a child to enter or attend school unless a certificate indicating that a minimum of one dose of immunization agent against each of the disease specified by the department (State Department of Health) has been received and certified by the health professional or local health department.

A parent having a child registered with only these minimum doses of immunizing agents shall present an update certificate of immunization within four (4) months after initial attendance showing that the immunizations have been completed as prescribed by the department."

To summarize, parents must be aware of the immunization requirements as defined by the state. Parents are responsible to have thier children immunized either through their own private physician or the Lenawee County Health Department.

The imunization process must be completed or in the process of being completed when the child enters school. If immunizations are not totally completed by the 1st of February 1980, those children who are deficient in immunizations will be refused attendance to school.

AN IMMUNIZATION CLINIC HAS BEEN SCHEDULED FOR September 20, 1979 at the Clinton Community High School Library from 2:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. to offer an opportunity for those students who do not meet the immunization requirements of the state.

75 Boys, Girls Join in Tecumseh Area Day Camp

(PHOTO BY KATHY BROWN)

By Kathy Brown

If their parents could only have seen them, there they were pitching in to construct an outdoor lavatory, making utility tables out of wood scavaged from the woods'and dutifully washing hands before meals—well, almost.

They were learning about living in the great outdoors with some of the area's experienced campers and youth leaders, all interested adults.

"They" were the 75 boys and girls, scouts and non-scouts, aged kindergarten through teenage and their 18 volunteer adult instructors in the first day camp held in the Tecumseh area in seven years.

Site for the Aug. 13-17 camp was Beardsley Woods, 1/3 miles south of M-50 on Rogers Hwy.

Among the staff members were Jack Wilkie, educator-naturalists at Michigan State University's Hidden Lake Gardens in Tipton. With the help of the adults, he introduced the children to edible plants a la Euell Gibbons, with such concoctions as "May Apple Custard" and a berry punch.

Carol Buck of Clinton was resident art instructor at the camp. She demonstrated the use of natural dyes derived by boiling common plants like Queen Anne's Lace (yellow dye) and pine cones (brown dye).

Staff and children were residents of Tecumseh and Clinton areas. Mary Ann Chellman of Clinton was coordinator. Equipment was requisitioned from the Irish Hills Girl Scout Council and area scouts and leaders participated. The National Guard provided the daily water supply.

"I'm just thrilled with the staff," said Mary Ann Chellman "Some of them have masters degrees. They're experienced with children and camping and interested." It has been exciting for all of us."

Camp atmosphere was informal, as evidenced by the camp nicknames even the adults adopted. "Crazy Lady" and "Sunshine" were two of the memorable, contrasting names.

Campers assembled at Beardsley Woods each morning at 9 a.m. with dismissal at 3 p.m.

One night, the group slept out, either under the stars in sleeping bags or in the tents.

Some of the students were quite imaginative in their approach to sharing duties.

The Snoop Troop for example hoisted a camp flagpole complete with bed sheet flag bearing their signatures and camp troop name. They also worked out a schedule with symbols portraying each job and camper.

Returns Home

Mrs. Anna Grigg has returned to her home after a two month stay at Bixby Hospital and Hillhaven Convalescent Center.

WELL MANAGED TROOP—George Lancaster, member of the Snoop Troop, proudly explains to camp coordinator Mary Ann Chellman and another group visiting in the background, how his group divided camp chores with the aid of a schedule.

Auditions for 'Kiss Me Kate'

Auditions for, "Kiss Me Kate", the next production of the Tecumseh Players, will be held Wednesday, Sept. 5 thru Firday, Sept. 7, from 7 to 10 p.m. at the Tecumseh Community Center Glass Room.

Local talent is needed, anyone interested in volunteering in set construction, props, wardrobe, etc. is welcome to come too. If there are any questions, please call 423-5929.

Performance dates for the musical are, Oct. 25, 26, 27, and Nov. 1, 2, and 3.

Anyone wishing to read the script may do so at the Tecumseh Public Library.

Music and lyrics, by Cole Porter, book by, Bella and Samuel Spewack. The genius of Cole Porter's music and lyrics find a melodius marriage with Shakespeare in a story that centers around a Baltimore theatre group's revival of the comedy "The Taming of the Shrew."

Amusingly, the two leading players - a tempermental stage director and his estranged headstrong wife - find their real lives running parallel to the roles they portray on stage. "Kiss Me Kate" is merry, melodious and sophisticated Offering such great numbers as "Another Op'nin, Another Show", "Wunderbar", "Too Darn Hot", and "Brush Up Your Shakespeare".

Be prepared to sing a number from the show or something similar to demonstrate your range and vocal type. Please bring own sheet music. Principle male role must be able to sing baritone, and principle female role must have an extensive soprano range. Other female role must sing contralto or soprano. Two gangster roles are also available in the show. In addition to many dancing scenes.

Willie B. Morgan will be artistic director, Susan Santner will be production director, with Helen Bendes as musical director.

TEAR GAS ENDS SIEGE

Attempted Murder Charged in Russell Square Shooting

A five-hour siege ended about 6 a.m. Monday when local police flushed Eddie Newell Jr., 29, from his apartment at the Russell Square Apartment complex, corner of Russell Rd. and Adrian St.

Newell has been charged with attempted murder and is in the county jail under $150,000 bond after his appearance later Monday in District Court.

Tecumseh police were called about 1 a.m. on a domestic problem to 703 Russell Square. When the officer arrived in the parking lot, a shot ripped through a window screen.

Local officers along with Lenawee County deputies and State Police were summoned to help. Police attempted to talk Newell out of his apartment but failed.

Before 6 a.m., the building was evacuated and two tear gas rounds were fired into Newell's apartment. He was seized in the hallway outside his apartment.

When apprehended, Newell was unarmed, according to Merlin Mowery, Tecumseh police chief. A search of the apartment, however, turned up a .38 caliber revolver.

Len DeMoss, Moving from City, Resigns Council Position

Councilmember Leonard DeMoss resigned from his elected office Tuesday night at the Tecumseh City Council meeting. He stated he has moved from the city to live closer to his work. He is employed at the Ford Motor Company, Rawsonville plant.

DeMoss' resignation was accepted with regrets by Major protem Dr. Carlton Cook, presiding in the absence of Mayor Aden Mead.

DeMoss served three years as a councilmember. He was first elected in 1975, succeeding Councilmember Wallace Whiting. He was then reelected in 1977. His term would have expired at the end of 1979.

In both elections, DeMoss

LEONARD DEMOSS

received the second highest tally of votes, and indication that he was known to and popular with voters.

"I do this with much regret as there is still so much I would like to work toward and see accomplished," DeMoss, 33, wrote in his letter of resignation.

"I have thoroughly enjoyed serving my community as a member of this council. I love Tecumseh with all my heart and it will always be home to me."

He thanked the electorate, council members and city employees for their support and cooperation. "I hope I have lived up to their expectations and helped contribute to the progress of Tecumseh," said DeMoss.

City manager Cal Zorn said that according to Tecumseh's city charter, DeMoss' council seat will not be filled before the city election Nov. 6.

He cited the charter's requirement that any vacancy that occurs 120 days or less before the next regular elections shall not be filled.

In this case, the vacancy occurs in less than 120 days before the election.

If a vacancy were to occur before the charter deadline, council must appoint someone to the vacancy within 60 days, said Zorn.

City Hopes To Meet with EMT Official

Prompted by questions by Councilmember James H. Palmer, the city of Tecumseh is trying to arrange a meeting with Dick Payne, owner of the Palmyra based EMT Ambulance, regarding the company's recent pull out of its Tecumseh dispatch unit.

Payne said Wednesday morning that he received a message to call City Manager Cal Zorn.

EMT ceased operating its Tecumseh ambulance unit at the North Pearl St. office as of Aug. 31. Payne said without Tecumseh's subsidy he cannot afford to operate in Tecumseh. Service to the area will continue however, for the Palmyra office of EMT Ambulance.

Tecumseh Fire Department Rescue Squad will continue to respond when called to a true emergency, said Fire Department Chief Wallace MacGeorge.

In an emergency, residents may call either the Lenawee County Sheriff's Dept. or city police for ambulance, as in the past.

After it made a first quarter payment of $2,333 to city EMT Ambulance, the city decided not to continue the ambulance subsidy because the county required a "hold harmless" agreement from the city in order for Tecumseh to receive a $1 per capita reimbursement.

The hold harmless requirement was one the county maintains was in the original, one year subsidy plan, but the city says it was asked to sign only since March.

City Attorney Greg Forstheofel cautioned that the city should be protected with professional malpractice insurance before it signs a hold harmless agreement to be eligible for subsidy reimbursement.

He told Council Tuesday that he and manager Zorn asked Payne to get the city some insurance rates. "I suggested some modifications and I have not heard from Payne in the past 30 days," Forstheofel told.

"We are interested in knowing what kind of rates can be obtained. What are the costs or even if the insurance is available," said Forstheofel. He said that the rates Payne quoted were not based "on a realistic number of calls for the city of Tecumseh."

Payne told the Herald that he talked with City Manager Cal Zorn Aug. 20. Payne said he told that EMT Ambulance will leave Tecumseh Aug. 31, but Payne said he did not hear from the city in the interim.

Payne said he does not plan to purchase additional malpractice insurance. "It would cost more than the Tecumseh subsidy," he said and added that the state does not require such insurance to operate his service "on an EMT level". Further, Payne said he's never been sued.

Meanwhile, ambulance service will continue to the area but be dispatched from the Palmyra office of EMT.

GOP Candidates Are Announced for Oct. 16 Vote

Three Republican candidates have been selected to run in Raisin Township's special election on Oct. 16th.

Louis Rebottaro will seek the post of supervisor; Chris Ruggirello, clerk; and Bernadine Potts, trustee.

Mrs. Ruggirello is the present clerk, a position she assumed after a recall vote ousted three officials in August. Her deputy clerk is Diana Westgate.

A Democrat slate has not been announced, and the party has until 4 p.m. Thursday to file with the county clerk, Pat Johnson, in Adrian.

CRITTENDEN SUPERVISOR

2 Named to Raisin Board

Larry Crittenden, Tecumseh High School social study teacher, was appointed interim supervisor for Raisin Township at a special meeting last Thursday night.

He and Dale Mitchell, Lenawee County Drain Commission supervisor and who was appointed a trustee for the township, will serve until the township's special election on Oct. 16th.

The two appointments followed the recall of three township officials at an election on Aug. 21.

Chris Ruggirello, deputy clerk before the recall election, became clerk after the election and joined Lynette Sayler, treasurer, and Eugene Vaughn, trustee, on the board and providing it with a quorum.

LARRY CRITTENDEN

At the special meeting, Sayler nominated Mitchell for supervisor but failed to obtain a second from either Ruggirello or Vaughn, who then voted for Crittenden as supervisor with Sayler abstaining in the vote.

Petitions Available for 3 Council Seats

Petitions for Council are available at city hall, but as of Wednesday morning none had been taken out.

Three seats, currently held by Mayor Aden Mead and Harold Easton plus the one resigned by Leonard DeMoss Tuesday evening, will be on the November ballot.

It's not known whether Mead and Easton will seek re-election, although Mead announced during the past year that this would be his last term on Council.

Deadline for filing is 5 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 17th.

Kipke Leaves City Position of Engineer

Charles Kipke, city engineer here for the past seven years, has been appointed managing director of the Lenawee County Road Commission and will relinquish his duties here in Tecumseh.

A registered engineer, from Onsted, Kipke served several communities and worked in Tecumseh two days a week. He expects to phase out his engineering business, Kipke Associates, Civil Engineers, by Oct. 1st.

He will assume his position on Sept. 10 and will have an annual salary of $30,000.

Cal Zorn, city manager, says Tecumseh will use consulting engineers in the future and has no immediate plans to fill Kipke's post at the present.

Kipke, a member of the County Road Commission, until he resigned last month, was assistant county engineer for Lenawee County from 1964 to 1969. At one time he was employed by Ayling-Cunningham Asphalt Paving Corporation, and in the construction of Michigan International Speedway, he was project superintendent.

$20,000 OK'd for Purchases

Tecumseh City Council approved up to $20,000 in purchases for four pieces of used equipment to dispose the city's wastewater treatment plant sludge at Tuesday's city council meeting.

The used equipment, scouted by Tecumseh city employees, will mean a savings of several thousand dollars to the city, indicated city manager Cal Zorn.

Purchase planned will include a 1968 Case tractor at $7,500; a 1968 Ford Truck tractor at $3,500; 6,200 gallon tanker with new tires at $1,800 and a new liquid spreader with 2,100 gallon tank and knives at a cost of $8,500.

Zorn said that this type of equipment will enable the city to spread the liquid sludge underground on local farms and eliminate complaints about odors.

It will also enable the city to make applications under more soil and weather conditions and increase the carrying capacity from its present 1,500 gallon sludge truck.

In other action, Council approved the low bid of Adrian Fence Company for $2,966 for the two backstops and extensions at the Lenawee ball field on Russell Rd.

These backstops were approved by and will be paid for by the Tecumseh United Fund gift to the city.

Council approved Tuesday night the city's engaging McNamee, Porter and Seeley engineering consultants to advise the city on problems with city water well number seven.

City manager Cal Zorn reported to council it was pumping air and Dunbar Drilling Company informed the city that acidization would not correct the problem.

Zorn added that the situation with the well is not interfering with city's water suply, but that the situation should be corrected because of the investment in equipment.

Husband Is Jailed after Threatening Wife with Knife

An estranged husband is in the county jail and faces assault and attempted kidnapping charges after being arrested here by Tecumseh police about noon Tuesday.

Darold Marc Kidd, 26, Adrian, was to be arraigned Wednesday in District Court, according to Merlin Mowery, local police chief.

Kidd reportedly threatened his wife, Donna Jeane Collins Kidd, 18, at her father's home at 713 Ternes, with a four-inch kitchen knife. She had separated from her husband and had moved back home.

According to the police report, Kidd was first seen by the victim behind the house while he cut telephone wires there to prevent her from calling the police. After exchanging some words, through a window, she tried the phone, found it dead, and then used a CB radio to summon help.

When the patrol car arrived, she broke away from Kidd who had entered the house through the front door. Kidd is said to have told the police that he wanted her to come back to his apartment in Adrian.

Other complaints were:

Aug. 31 — Tony Vasquez, Adrian, reported his car scratched while parked from left rear door to the front.

Sept. 1 — Son Van Nguyen, 21, and Huong Van Ngueyn, 21, both of 1200 W. Pottawatamie, were charged with having open intoxicants in a car.

Sept. 1 — Joan Ann Adams, Clinton, had a CB antenna stolen from her vehicle.

Sept. 1 — Ivan Bugbee of Bug's Super Service station reported a B&E. A rear window was broken to gain entry and apparently used in leaving the station. Bugbee reported 36 candy bars and 36 packs of cigarettes stolen. Juveniles are suspected.

Sept. 2 — Ricky I. Sayers, 23, Blissfield, was charged with drunk driving and fleeing and eluding after officers chased his motorcycle at speeds over 80 mph on Rogers Hwy. He was first observed speeding on E. Chicago Blvd.

Sept. 4 — Melvin Still, Sand Creek, reported chrome light fixtures taken from his pickup parked near the union hall on S. Maumee St.

Double Contributions

Tecumseh area contributions for muscular dystrophy topped $10,828 this Labor Day weekend in conjunction with the national Jerry Lewis telethon, said local coordinator Bob Cunningham of Tecumseh.

Tecumseh area residents more than doubled their contributions of last year when $5,000 was collected from the area.

Tally for the collection centers and pledges was $1,310 for the downtown fish bowl at the Bidwell Building, organized by Greg Gadek; $1,381 for the fish bowl at Erb Chevrolet of Tecumseh, local pledge center; and $2,723 in pledges.

An anonymous donor offered to double whatever was raised in pledges and cash contributions, a donation which placed this area over the $10,000 mark.

And this does not include donations from Tecumseh area residents that were made directly to the pledge center in Adrian, said Cunningham.

He said part of the reason was because the Adrian number was available to viewers of Detroit and Toledo television stations.

"People in the Tecumseh area poured out their hearts with support and hard work," Cunningham said. The Erb sponsored pledge center operated for 24 hours.

Clowns and costumed animal characters attended the fish bowls and asked for donations while volunteers manned the phones, sometimes on double shifts.

WLEN and WABJ radio periodically had live broadcasts and reported Tecumseh totals.

Meanwhile, downtown Tecumseh had another fish bowl with live entertainment and sing-a-longs. People passing by in cars stopped at the traffic light to give donations. Many youngsters went door to door collecting for muscular dystrophy.

US Parachutists Set World Record

The U.S. Parachute Team that trained here in early August, set a new world record August 23 at the World Parachuting Championships in Chateauroux, France. They built a 10-person "star" formation in freefall only 5.16 seconds after exiting an aircraft.

This time eclipsed the previous record of 8.8 seconds for a 10-second "star" held by the Russians since November 1978.

Earlier in the World Championships, the Australian Parachute Team also beat the Russian record with a 5.89 "star," but within an hour the U.S. Team surpassed the Australian mark with the 5.16 second jump.

Overall, in the eight-man competition, one of the groups that trained here, Mirror Image, from America, finished first overall.

The Canadian team was second, French third, Chinese fourth and British fifth.

In the four-man competition, the Canadian group, Rocky Mountain High finished first, Symbiotl trom England was second.

The Australians were third, Chinese fourth and Tesferact from the U.S. was fifth.

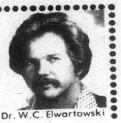
Dear Doctor

News From The Tecumseh Chiropractic Life Center

101 S. Pearl Tecumseh



Dr. W.C. Elwartowski

Dear Doctor,

How does chiropractic help high blood pressure?

Relaxation and rest can help to control high blood pressure, but they seldom, if ever, bring permanent relief.

No respecter of persons, high blood pressure is a constant threat to middle-aged people and over; and when it hits, it brings disability and --all-too-frequently, death.

"Blood pressure" is the measure of the blood against the walls of the blood vessels. When the muscles surrounding the blood vessels tighten, the vessels become narrow and blood pressure rises. This overworks the heart, and assorted other disorders begin to develop.

Since the function of the heart and the muscles of the blood vessels is controlled by nerve energy impulses from the brain, it is essential that the free flow of this nerve energy be maintained.

The chiropractor, through scientific care and competent spinal adjustments, keeps the nerves free, prevents or restores impaired functions of blood circulation, and maintains equalized blood pressure. Nature's healing from within, aided and abetted by skillfull chiropractic care, eliminates and controls "high blood pressure."

For further information on this question, or if you have other related questions, feel free to write Dr. Elwartowski at 101 S. Pearl St., Tecumseh, MI 49286.

Dear World

MY YOUNG SON starts to school today . . . It's going to be sort of strange and new to him for awhile, and I wish you would sort of treat him gently.

You see, up to now he's been king of the roost . . . He's been boss of the backyard . . . His mother has always been near to soothe his wounds and repair his feelings.

But now things are going to be different.

This morning he's going to walk down the front steps, wave his hand, and start out on the great adventure . . . It is an adventure that might take him across continents, across oceans . . . It's an adventure that will probably include wars and tragedy and sorrow . . . To live his life in the world he will have to live in, will require faith and love and courage.

So, World, I wish you would sort of look after him . . . Take him by the hand and teach him things he will have to know.

But do it gently, if you can.

He will have to learn, I know, that all men are not just, that all men are not true.

But teach him also that for every scoundrel there is a hero . . . that for every crooked politician there's a great and dedicated leader . . . Teach him that for every enemy, there is a friend.

Steer him away from envy, if you can . . . and teach him the secret of quiet laughter.

In school, World, teach him it is far more honorable to fail than to cheat . . . Teach him to have faith in his own idea, even if everyone says they are wrong . . . Teach him to be gentle with gentle people and tough with tough people.

Try to give my son the strength not to follow the crowd when everyone is getting on the bandwagon . . . Teach him to listen to all men — but teach him also to filter all he hears on a screen of truth and take just the good that siphons through.

Teach him, if you can, how to laugh when he's sad . . . Teach him there is no shame in tears . . . Teach him there can be glory in failure and despair in success.

Treat him gently, World, if you can, but don't coddle him . . . Because only the test of fire makes fine steel . . . Let him have the courage to be impatient . . . Let him have the patience to be brave.

Let him be no man's man . . . Teach him always to have sublime faith in himself.

Because then he will always have sublime faith in mankind.

This is quite an order, World, but see what you can do . . . He's such a nice little fellow, my son!

Baaske - Gibson Recite Vows

A quartet sang and played guitar at the wedding of Susan Jean Baaske and John Russell Gibson Aug. 25 at the Adrian College Chapel in Adrian.

The singers were John Getz, Phil Gamber, Lisa Baker and Val Egli.

Kerwin Leader was organist.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baaske of 502 Parkway Ct. and Mrs. Harold Gibson of 11064 Macon Hwy. in Clinton and the late Harold Gibson.

Ted Evans, pastor of a fellowship church in Toledo, Ohio, was the officiating minister.

For her wedding, the bride wore a sleeveless white silesta jersey gown with English net yoke. The empire waistline flowed into a circular skirt trimmed with Venice lace and featured a cathedral train.

Her bouquet was composed of stephanotis, salal roses, ivy and glamellias. Her full length veil was edged with scallopped Venice lace and secured with a head hugging lace bonnet with seed pearls.

Mrs. Thomas Tilton of Tecumseh was matron of honor wearing a sleeveless yellow Qiana gown. She wore a cluster of white daisies and blue statis in her hair and carried an arrangement of white daisies, blue statis, baker's fern in a wicker basket.

Tom Tilton of Tecumseh was best man. Ushers were Randy Mayes of Bolivar, Mo., Bruce Baaske, the bride's brother of Tecumseh; William Gibson, the groom's brother of Houghton.

A reception followed the ceremony at Ritchie Dining Hall at Adrian College.

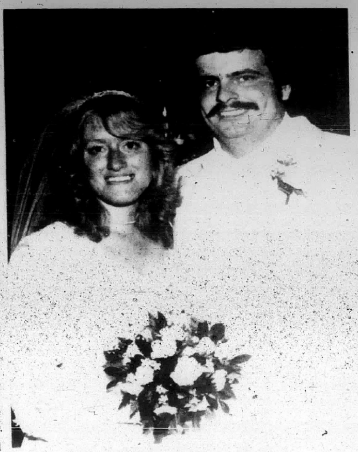
Kathy Morse and Cheryl Coffey cut cake.

The bride is a teacher's aide at Adrian Tfaining School. She earned a bachelor of arts degree in social work from Oral Roberts University.

The groom is manager of Macon Golf Club.

Mrs. Harold Giison hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Hathaway House, Blissfield.

MR. and MRS. JOHN GIBSON



MR. and MRS. STEVEN MARTIN

Collins-Martin Wedding Nuptials

Marcia A. Collins of Adrian and Steven Martin were married Aug. 31 in Tecumseh Assembly of God, by the Rev. Raymond Warnick.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Carter Collins, Sterling Heights, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Martin, 6951 Close Dr., Tecumseh.

Mrs. Harold Firestone was the organist. Ward Bush played the piano and Mark Pearson was the vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, she wore a sheer white gown with accents of lace at the V-neckline and on the long gathered sleeves.

Her attendants were matron of honor Mrs. Elaine Howard of Chimacum, Wash., sister of bride; and bridesmaids, Mrs. Terry Parks of Chimacum, Wash., sister of bride; and Mrs. Randy Collins, Atikokan, Ont., sister-in-law of the bride. Debra Parks of Chimacum, Wash., niece of bride, was a junior bridesmaid.

Mark Pearson of Tecumseh was the best man.

Ushers were Bryan Van-Benschoten, brother-in-law of groom, of Tecumseh; Pat Fielder, Palmyra; and Duncan Judson, of Tecumseh.

Reception was held at the Tecumseh Assembly of God Fellowship Hall.

Bride is a graduate of Ann Arbor Pioneer High School, and Grand Rapids School of Bible and music. She is employed at Merillat Industries.

Groom is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and is employed at Peerless Gear & Machine Co., Clinton.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Ont., the couple will reside at 501 W. Kilbuck.

Rehearsal dinner was held at the Birch Room, in the Big Boy, Adrian, hosted by the groom's parents.

Couple Wed at First Baptist

The First Baptist Church in Tecumseh was the setting for the marriage of Susan Ann Palmer and Jeffrey Alan Peavey Aug. 25 at 7 p.m.

The Rev. Kenneth Boyd, pastor, officiated the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Palmer of 5546 Milwaukee Rd. and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Peavey of Mt. Pleasant.

Janet Champanois was organist. Jan Campbell and Suzy Finkbiner of Bay City were soloists.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white knit, sleeveless gown with a fitted lace bodice and attached chapel train. Her fingertip length veil was accented with cotton lace. Her diamond earrings were a gift from the groom.

She carried yellow roses and daisies and miniature green carnations and baby's breath in her bouquet.

Julie Palmer of Tecumseh was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a mint green polyester gown with crystal pleated skirt and slit sleeves. In her hair, she wore a spray of daisies and green miniature carnations. She carried daisies carnations and baby's breath.

Karen Henderson of Trenton and Paula Peavey, the groom's sister of Mt. Pleasant were bridesmaids.

Amy Jo Palmer and Amy Joy Palmer, the bride's sisters, were flower girls along with Jackie Henry, the bride's cousin.

They wore yellow gowns styled like the bridemaids gowns and carried matching flowers.

John Peavey of Houston, Texas was his brother's best man.

Ushers were Rick Erskin of Mt. Pleasant and Mike Pung of Lansing. Groomsmen were Jeff Pickler of Mt. Pleasant, Paul Juk of Paw Paw and Scott Palmer the bride's brother of Tecumseh.

A reception was held at the Peerless Gear Union Hall in Clinton. A unity candle centerpiece with yellow roses decorated the bride's table.

Sandy Schultz of Tecumseh served punch.

The bride is a graduate of Ferris State College. The groom is a student at Ferris State College and a member of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity.

The newlyweds reside at Big Rapids.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted at the Tecumseh Country Club by the groom's parents.

MR. and MRS. JEFFREY PEAVEY

Patricia Brosamer received her associate degree in applied arts and science in marketing mid-management at Jackson Community College, July 31. She is a 1977 graduate of Tecumseh High School. Her parents are Mrs. Lucille Brosamer and the late Donald Brosamer. She is employed in data processing at Herrick Hospital.

Two Make Honors List

Ferris State College has honored 1,850 students for scholastic excellence during the spring quarter by naming them to the Academic Honors List, Dr. Robert E. Ryan, vice president for Academic Affairs, has announced.

Students named to the list include Wendy E. Moore and Deborah M. Mulready, of Tecumseh.

MR. and MRS. JOHN YOAKUM

Barron Promoted To Group Manager

The Upjohn Company has promoted Jerrold L. Barron to group manager, information systems.

Upjohn is a research oriented worldwide producer of human health care products and services, chemicals and agricultural specialties.

Barron joined Upjohn in 1959 as an accountant trainee, treasurer's personnel affairs. In 1961, he was named a systems and programming technician, and in 1965, he rose to head, data processing systems and programming.

He was promoted to manager, information systems development, in 1971, and became manager, corporate information systems, his most recent position, in 1972. In 1973, he received the W.E. Upjohn Award for his outstanding professional achievements.

An alumnus of the University of Michigan, he earned a BBA in accounting in 1958 and MBA finance in 1959.

He and his wife, Shirley Dayharsh Barron (University of Michigan, 1958, B.S., nursing), have four children and live in Portage.

Barron's mother, Esther Barron, is a resident of Tecumseh, where Barron graduated from high schol in 1953.

Orientation At Alma

Upperclass students with fond memories of their own introduction to Alma College life have planned the pre-term orientation for 355 members of the class of 1983.

Highlights for the ten-day session held before Fall Term classes begin include an evening meal at President Robert D. Swanson's home, a picnic with faculty members and their families, academic seminars and a pre-term talent show.

Among the freshmen attending the orientation period September 1 through 10 will be two from Tecumseh.

They are Brigit Fabok, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ferenc Fabok of 8899 Matthews Highway, and James Lincoln, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Lincoln of 499 Seminole. Both are 1979 graduates of Tecumseh High School.

Attends Course

Cornell University, located near the Finger Lake Region of upstate New York, was the setting for a comprehensive short course in "The Principles and Basic Methods in Modern Microscopy" attended by Tecumseh's Dr. Nydia Meyers Aug. 6-10.

The program was complied and presented by a five-member teaching team of the Royal Microscopical Society of England through Cornell's College of Engineering.

Purpose of the intensive course was to demonstrate how to teach a basic course in microscopy to improve the level of teaching at the university level.

Co-sponsors for the program were the Royal Microscopical Society and the New York Microscopical Society.

"It was a comparative study for us to see how microscopy is taught in England and the United States" and the difference was evident, Dr. Meyers commented.

She said that the depth and level of advancement and theory studied in England is far advanced of the United States.

The experience was "an excellent example of distinguished teaching and education," said Dr. Meyers.

Lectures and lab sessions were held from 8 a.m. to 12:30 a.m. daily.

Cornell University is the only university in the United States that offers a Phd in microscopy.

Dr. George G. Cocks, coordinator for the program is associate professor of chemical microscopy at the School of Chemical Engineering at Cornell.

Participants came from industries such as Xerox, Union Carbide and Ralston Purina and medical and chemistry universities in the East.

Dr. Meyers, a research scientist in sickle cell anemia at the University of Michigan School of Medicine Dept. of Human Genetics, is an alumna of Cornell where she earned her Master degree in organic chemistry.

Hall and Yoakum Marry

Laurie Hall and John Yoakum recited nuptial vows Aug. 25 at 7:30 p.m. in the Grace United Methodist Church in Britton.

The Rev. Kenneth Reeves, pastor, officiated the candlelight ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Hall of 11705 Monroe Rd. in Britton and the son of Mr. Marvin Yoakum of 115 W. Logan and Mrs. Shirley Dennison of Springfield, Ohio.

Mrs. William Raeburn was organist. Mark Gilmore and Michelle Wilts were soloists.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white silk organza gown with venice lace bodice. The gown featured a sheer yoke and sheer sleeves with a trumpet cuff of lace. The skirt was edged in lace. The waistline was empire styled.

Her cathedral length veil was edged in lace and secured by a Venice lace cap. She carried colonial bouquet with red roses and baby's breath.

Kim Bruce of Britton was maid of honor wearing a blue floral print voile gown with ruffled bias formed off the shoulder neckline and sleeves and a deep flounce at the hemline.

She wore a spray of flowers and baby's breath in her hair and carried blue and white daisies and baby's breath in her bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Amy Costello of Tecumseh, Sue Vallie, Janis Tubbs, Diane Reaum, all of Britton.

They were dressed in printed voile gowns of peach, yellow, green and pink. They wore matching flowers in their hair and carried matching bouquets.

Flower girl Jennifer Ivan of Britton wore a white gown and carried a small bouquet of daisies.

Jeff Balong of Milan was best man. Ushers were Barry Hall, the groom's brother of Britton; Leo Budd of Toledo, Ohio; Ron Benham of Britton and Derek Sleeth of Saline.

Bobby Dennison of Springfield, Ohio was ring bearer. He is the groom's stepbrother.

A reception was held at the Britton-Macon High School multi-purpose room. A bowl of daisies in pastel colors, accented by baby's breath, decorated the bride's table.

After a week in Florida, the couple will reside at 4105 Hoagland Rd., Britton.

The bride is a graduate of Britton-Macon High School, employed by Ann Arbor Bank and Trust. The groom, a Tecumseh graduate, is employed by Ypsilanti Regional Psychiatric Hospital.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at Woodley's in Milan.

Completes 3 Day Workshop

Beverly A. Baughey, General Manager of the Tecumseh Country Club, recently completed a three-day educational workshop on marketing and promotion at the Hotel Hershey, Hershey, Pennsylvania, sponsored by the Club Management Institute of the Club Managers Association of America.

During the three-day session, participants spent over 28 hours in an intensive continuing education program designed to assist professional club managers in improving their knowledge and skills.

Mrs. Baughey also completed the course at Montauk, Long Island, New York, in April of this year on General manager duties for exclusive Country Clubs.

If your brand new car is 'totaled' will your insurance company pay you for a brand new car?

Some insurance companies think a new car is a used car the minute you use it to drive out of the dealership. Not Auto-Owners.

With Auto-Owners, if you'll have an accident anytime within 90 days and your new car is a total loss, we'll pay you the total cost of your new car. And with Auto-Owners, your new car is covered immediately, automatically, under your previous policy.

So if you're about to get a new car, talk to us at Auto-Owners. Maybe you should get a new insurance company, too.

Power Agency Resolution

CLINTON — At a special meeting of the Clinton Village Council, Aug. 27, action was taken to facilitate the work on the Michigan South Central Power Agency.

Clinton has joined the cities of Coldwater, Hillsdale, Marshall and Union City in a consortium, under Act 448 Public Acts of Michigan 1976, to plan, finance, develop, acquire, construct, reconstruct, improve, enlarge, operate and maintain a project to supply electric power and energy.

At this meeting the council approved the participation of the Village in this project; approved the power sales contract; a substation agreement; an economic dispatch agreement; and the bond resolution.

They also adopted the first supplemental resolution authorizing an initial series of power supply system revenue bonds for the purpose of paying the cost of the Project I and the Substation Project.

Hunting Class Is Offered

CLINTON — Hunter's Education will be offered beginning Sept. 10 and will run two or three nights a week.

Walk To Visit Historic Homes

CLINTON — Folks from miles around may wonder what appetizing scents are wafting from some of Clinton's most interesting kitchens, Saturday, Sept. 8.

Historical Society of Clinton is sponsoring a timely project to demonstrate the preservation of foods, in the old-time fashion, as a part of the observance of Clinton's 150th anniversary.

Visitors will pick up their tickets with a booklet of recipes and a map of directions to the host kitchens, between 1 and 4 p.m. at the Smith-Kimball Community Center.

There will be a visit to Farmer's Market, where local gardners will offer the surplus produce of their gardens for sale.

St. Dominic's Altar Society is hosting an ice cream social on the center lawn all afternoon.

First kitchen to be visited will be in the historic old Community Center, where Pam Jeppesen will make apple pies using an old-style apple peeler.

Next kitchen is in the home of Sharon Scott, 204 E. Michigan Ave., where she will make elderberry jelly, and her mother, Ann Stone, will make noodles.

The Scott home is the former Fred Reiser house, built about 1903-5. An interesting modernization of the kitchen has taken place, retaining much of the character and some of the original cupboards.

Next, a bit further east, at the Jon A. Bowles house at 303 E. Michigan Ave., Shirley Fraley will make pickles on the porch, and someone from the Lenawee County Extension office will demonstrate the drying of vegetables in the kitchen of the house, known as the Campbell farm house, built in the late 1800's.

Nearby, at 135 E. Michigan Ave., the Stanley Gibbard residence is the oldest house in the village, built by Clinton's founder, Alpheus Kies about 1830.

Antique collector's items create an intriguing decor in this kitchen were Jackie Gibbard will make vegetable soup, and Joanne Reeve will use an antique slaw cutter to make sauerkraut which is fermented in the jars, then sealed.

A three block jaunt to the corner of 102 Litchfield and Jackson Rd., and one will visit the Charles Helgren house, which has been beautifully restored by its present owners.

In the upstairs kitchen, Anna Mae Waterman will make bread. In the summer kitchen in the basement, Jennifer Retke will can tomatoes and thee will be rug weaving demonstrated there, too.

Folks will want to return to the center for ice cream and cake and perhaps, to browse through the display of Farmer's Market produce.

Co-chairmen for this project are Shirley Fraley and Mary Ann Hunter.

Arlene Schroeder Is Named Chairman

CLINTON — Arlene Schroeder has been named chairman of the Bike-A-Thon for the benefit of St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, Sept. 15 in Clinton.

The project will raise funds to support the hospital, according to William Kirwen, director of development at the internationally recognized hospital.

The Bike-A-Thon will be open to all ages from children in second grade or eight years old to adults.

Route will be tailored to the age groups participating, with the oldest biking up to eight miles.

The bicyclists will meet at the Clinton High School parking lot at 10 a.m. and the ride is expected to end by 2 p.m. Route will be south on Sunset Dr. to Clinton-Macon Rd., east on Macon Rd. and return.

Pledge cards will be given out at the schools.

Teacher Contract Is Re-Opened

CLINTON — Candy Martin Shade, president of the Clinton Education Association reported after a special emergency session of the teachers, Tuesday morning, that there has been "no movement by the school board" on the matter of salaries and benefits, which have been in negotiation since June.

The three year contract for 1979-81 has a re-opener clause, which permits consideration of salaries [illegible] discussion now.

Mrs. Martin said the teachers have made some movement, but the board has not, since negotiations began.

Clinton teachers are looking for a swift, equitable settlement, she said.

School was expected to open Wednesday with all the teachers at their desks. The teachers will wear buttons, "Clinton Teachers ask Why — no contract?"

Next negotiation session between the board and CEA will be Monday, Sept. 10.

Superintendent Richard Wegner explained that the board is awaiting the pupil enrollment figures, which determine the amount of money available to meet the contract needs.

"They have an offer on the table and so do we—, and we have a lot of negotiating to do," Wegner said.

Ask For 1 Mill Increase

CLINTON — Mary Ann [illegible] is chairman of a committee to inform the voters in the Clinton Community School District about the Intermediate School District Special Education millage proposition.

The one mill increase will be voted upon throughout the county Monday, Oct. 1.

Community support for the millage will be encouraged by this committee.

A special meeting has been called for Thursday, at 7 p.m. in the library of the Clinton High School to explain the need for the millage, and to answer any questions.

A representative of the Intermediate School District will make a slide presentation.

Baraca Philathea Class Honor Harley Watsons

BRITTON — The Baraca Philathea class of the Britton Congregational Christian Church honored one of its member couples Aug. 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Watson of Adrian were honored on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. They received a plaque with golden wedding bands.

The class started out together as teen-agers and today it still has 25 of its original members, stated Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt. She was in charge of devotions during the meeting. She read "Looking Up" by Marjorie Holmes.

The group met for a cooperative chicken dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Benedict. Twenty-one members and friends attended.

President Gerald Benedict announced during the business meeting that the turkey supper will be held at the church Sept. 13.

In the tradition of the Britton community, the fellowship of the church took its turn and hosted the Britton-Macon school teachers and their spouses at dinner on the first day of the school year, Sept. 4. Meal was served at the church, prepared by the women's fellowship.

Guests at the meeting were from Wamplers Lake and Chicago, Ill. Next meeting will be Sept. 30 at the Glen Gripton cottage at Wamplers Lake.

Traces Roots

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bower, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Crutchfield, Kelley and Kirk, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gibbs, Tracy and Troy, left Friday evening for Illinois.

The family is tracing its "roots" so it went to the Salem and Kinmundy, Ill., area, which is where Andrew Crutchfield was born, to meet some of their kin.

Saturday afternoon they went to the Phillips Cemetery, Kinmundy, to take pictures and get dates on the Crutchfield tombstones.

They also located the little old school house, which Mr. Crutchfield attended as a boy. Saturday evening they attended a 40th anniversary party for cousins on Mr. Crutchfield's mother's side.

Sunday, they attended a big picnic at Forbes Lake, Kinmundy, which were relatives on the Crutchfield side. Sunday morning they spend with Alta Crutchfield Krutsinger, who is 87 years old. She was able to give much of the family history dating back to the late 1700's.

The group reported it arrived home very early Monday morning, tired, happy and full of enthusiasm.

Visit Relatives

Todd, Andrea and Scott Bower spent Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, with their aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Martolock, while their parents went to Illinois.

Hidden Lake To Hold Autumn Series

Hidden Lake Gardens, has recently announced an autumn series of non-credit classes open to interested persons registering in advance.

A series of four tree detective hikes is to be held on alternate Saturday mornings, beginning, Sept. 8. Participants will learn to recognize common trees using a popular identification booklet.

An inspiration from Japanese gardens class is offered Saturday afternoon Sept. 8. Color slides and table top activities will help demonstrate the possibilities in unarranged looking garden arrangements.

An edible wild plant class is scheduled for Saturday afternoon, Sept. 22. Participants will be introduced to a variety of edible wild plants and have an opportunity to sample a number of prepared wild foods.

An arboretum walk, Saturday afternoon, Oct. 6, will introduce hikers to interesting trees and shrubs in the Gardens' collections.

A terrarium workshop, Saturday afternoon, Oct. 20, is planned for participants who want to get their hand dirty in constructing their own terraria to take home. Plants and soil will be provided.

Further information and registration forms may be obtained by calling the Gardens' office, 431-2060.

7th Beland Reunion

The Beland Reunion was held for the seventh year Sunday, Aug. 19, at he Beland cottage at Sand Lake, with 49 members and two guests present.

A potluck dinner was held at 1:30 p.m. Later, swimming and social time were enjoyed by the group.

Meeting was conducted by president Clarence Beland of Petersburg.

The officers relected were Mr. Beland president; Donald Peters Jr. of Westerville, Ohio vice president; and Mrs. Fredrick Helme of Tecumseh, secretary treasurer.

Each family was to bring a family picture and information on their family, such as birthdates, likes, dislikes, work information, etc. to be put in the history and ancestory book, now being compiled by Charles and Helen Beland.

Guests came from Ohio, Missouri, and several places in Michigan.

Next meeting will be held the third Sunday of Aug. 1980 at the same place

Pictures To Be Taken Sept. 13

Student pictures will be taken Thursday, Sept. 13 at Tecumseh High School for freshmen, sophomores and juniors.

Envelopes to be sent home will be distributed in homerooms Tuesday, Sept. 11. Envelopes are to be filled out, the money enclosed and turned in when the pictures are taken. Checks should be made payable to Dundee Studio, not Tecumseh Public Schools.

All students are to have their picture taken whether they purchase pictures or not.

Tecumseh Jaycee Auxiliary

September signals the close of summer projects and the beginning of several new ones for the Tecumseh Jaycee Auxiliary.

Sept. 8 the women will sell Ronald McDonald House T shirts to benefit a facility being built to house parents of terminally ill children who are hospitalized.

Proceeds of a September car wash, date to be announced, will be used to support the work of the University of Michigan Burn Center.

A CPR (Cardio Pulmonary Resusitation) Course is being planned for the club.

The club ran a concession at Michigan International Speedway for the Champion 400. While they watched, two of the drivers went through a guardrail. They were about 10 feet from Richard Petty as he pulled in front of Benny Parsons to win the race.

Another MIS visit is planned Sept. 15.

Sept. 22 Tecumseh Jaycee President Harold Petee and Jaycee Auxiliary Marge Ball will eat ice cream 'til their hearts are content at the eat-a-thon to be held at Satterthwaite Park Sept. 23, 2 p.m. Spectators are welcome.

The group plans to make a puppet tree and puppets for the Tecumseh Public Library.

Club members are writing to their legislators in Lansing to protest a switch from state to federal meat inspection regulations which are more lenient.

The group is selling drawing tickets for the Tecumseh Area Chamber of Commerce. In appreciation for the Christmas supper planned by their children, the members took the youngsters to the Lenawee County Fair.

The club's Job for Teens project ended in August.

One of the newest projects initiated by the Jaycee Auxiliary is an interclub newsletter called "Mailbag" that is aimed at keeping all Tecumseh clubs aware of each other's activities and projects.

Any reader interested in helping with any of these community service projects may contact Tecumseh Jaycee Auxiliary president Marge Ball at 423-4724. Or call Laurie Foust at 423-8185.

Mrs. Lander Hosts DAR

Abi Evans Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met Aug. 10 at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Lander.

The hostess served luncheon. Her daughter, Mrs. James C. Lincoln, assisted her in serving.

Regent Irene Wisner presided at the meeting which was opened in ritualistic form.

Chaplain Cecile Smith read a Prayer for Unity by Dwight D. Eisenhower, which was written by him for his inaugural address Jan. 1953.

A communication from the "Mail Bag" editor, Barbara Myers, was read. This regards the Tecumseh interclub newsletter for the exchange and promotion of club news and scheduled events in Tecumseh.

For national defense, Mrs. Neil Pearson resumed a question and answer quiz pertaining to United States History.

Three members were voted on to join the chapter: Ella Louise Cook, new member; Elileen Hunt, reinstated member; Mrs. Naomi Hamilton, transfer from St. Louis chapter.

Mrs. Thelma Frayer presented a program on markers and monuments. She showed pictures of different types. She also told how the styles changed during different eras.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

Chipmunks. They are cute, little, bright eyed characters with cheek pouches and flat bushy tails. According to the first volume in THE ANIMAL KINGDOM edited by Fredrick Drimmer chipmunks are ground squirrels about 10 inches long with half of this length being tail.

It is nice to talk about chipmunks in the plural but seldom, in fact, never have we seen them that way around here. To be quite truthful, seldom have we seen them. This summer has been by far and away the best season for these little guys.

There was one who visited the near-my-window feeders occasionally and, when on the porch, I saw one in the backyard and along the sandstone by the porch.

Sandstone and chipmunks almost go together. They love the nooks and crannies of the walls, edging, and what have you. Our next door neighbors, in their absolutely gorgeous backyard, have piled flags around flower beds and, even more important, they have it built up around a fish pond.

They have seen a chipmunk or two around this and it was from there that I saw the chipmunk come that ran along the fence.

At first I could hardly believe my eyes, he was so fast and so small. However, after several trips along the bottom of the cyclone fence and a quick sprint to the cement slab which used to be Missie's kennel run, I finally convinced myself that I was indeed watching a chipmunk.

Nothing else could be so fast or so tiny. Besides, he had the light front, tan back with stripes, and sat hunched over like a squirrel — it could be nothing else.

When there was some closer viewing other markings were noticeable. The sharply pointed little head had two white stripes and the ears were rounded.

The stripes on his back — well, the book's description is concise. "...the central stripe on its back is bordered on each side by a brownish line, while the two outermost stripes are separated by white."

It was interesting to read that as soon as the youngsters are born the back stripes show under the skin.

Chipmunks live underground. At the end of a sloping tunnel, which can be as much as three feet long, are a number of little 'rooms'. Some for sleeping, some for food storage.

These animals are great hoarders, they fill their underground storerooms with seeds, grains, nuts, and berries.

Apparently several members of the same family live together so perhaps there is hope that just maybe we will see two together sometime.

They are not hibernators in the true sense of the word. They do not store up body fat in the fall and go into a deep sleep. Instead they cache food away and only take short naps.

In bad weather they stay underground sleeping and eating. And, by the way, this book comments on how neat chipmunks are when excavating a new tunnel.

Instead of piling the dirt around the 'front door' they carry it away and spread it out so as to leave no telltale signs.

My best ever chipmunks experience came one day when I was on the porch. I barely heard tiny claws scratching the flagstone and saw, out of the corners of my eye, a flash of something little.

A chipmunk ran across the top of the porch planter and sat down at the corner.

As usual I was amazed at how intricate his markings were. Suddenly his little front paw/hands jerked up and rubbed his cheeks.

Next I saw an empty sunflower seed shell fly out of the corner of his mouth. It happened again, and again, and again.

These little characters have cheek pouches and this one must have filled up either on or under the near-my-window feeders.

He picked a nice place for a picnic, It was a hearty meal, too, for when he left there was a neat pile of empty hulls. He must have been a left-handed eater because they were all on his left side.

Players To Meet Sept. 11

Next general meeting of the Tecumseh Players will be Sept. 11, 8 p.m., at the Tecumseh Community Center. It will be preceded by the board meeting at 7 p.m.

Plans for "Kiss Me Kate" will be in full swing. The play will be in rehearsal and most of the various department heads chosen.

For those who were unable to attend auditions, this meeting is an opportunity to volunteer your talents for "Kiss Me Kate".

Iota Epsilon Starts New Year

Fourteen members and two guests of Iota Epsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met in the home of Mrs. Sandy Hughes for a salad buffet on Aug. 22.

The members had a short business meeting to discuss their plans for the coming 1979-1980 season.

Evening ended with the members exchanging gifts and revealing the identity of their "secret sister."

Elect Officers

Lenape District of the Wolverine Council, Boy Scouts of America, recently elected a new slate of district committee officers to administer the Scouting program in Lenawee County.

Selected as district chairman of the Lenape District Committee was Ronald L. Reeves, vice-president and general manager of Venchurs Packaging, Adrian.

A number of sub-committee chairman will be working with Reeves. Cub Scout committee chairman, Mary Bates; Boy Scout committee chairman, Willard Whitcher; finance committee chairman, Greg DuMars; manpower resources committee chairman, Edwin Walters; and district Commissioner, David Hoover.

Other committee members elected, who will serve on the fore mentioned sub-committees, are: Phyllis Bramer, Cub Scout leader training; Robert Whitacre, Cub Scout membership; John Deming, Boy Scout leader training; and Ben Slomski, Boy Scout advancement.

Elected as district members-at-large, who presently hold positions or who assist as called upon, are: Bill Bates, Henry Berglund, Clifford Bramer, Charles Clucus, Thomas Cook, Patricia Deming, Neal Judkins, Hon. Rex Martin, Harely Robinette, Harold Robinson, Joseph Rockwell, Peggy Rockwell, Wanda Sheldon, Nancy Sinclair, and Kenneth VanValkenburg.

Airman Michael A. Wotring, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wotring Sr. 205 Russell Rd., has completed Air Force basic training at Lackland AFB. Airman Wotring has finished his specialized training in the Security Police. He will be home on furlough Aug. 31 for 15 days then will return to Robins AFB, Georgia.

Honorably Discharged

Sgt. Bradford Dillon has been released from the Army after serving three years at Ft. Hood, Texas with the First Cavalary. He is a 1976 Tecumseh graduate. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dillon, 128 Bailey Dr., Adrian.

Sorority Holds Salad Supper

The season's Beginning Day for Xi Delta Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, was held at the cottage of Mrs. Robert Martin, Evans Lake, with a salad supper.

Mrs. Terry Paterson presided and passed out yearbooks and program books. All future meetings will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held at the home of Mrs. Rex Armstrong Sept. 20, 21.

Plans were also finalized for a craft party to be held at the home of Mrs. Patrick Alexander on Sept. 11.

A picnic was enjoyed by the girls and their families in July at the Martin cottage. Swimming, skiing, and volleyball were enjoyed during the day.

The September meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Ellis.

Rates Are Going Up

A public hearing has been scheduled by the Public Service Commission/Michigan Department of Commerce on an application by Southeastern Michigan Rural Electric Cooperative, Inc., to raise its rates by approximately $129,592 annually.

The Adrian utility serves electric customers in rural Lenawee County and in Whiteford Township, Monroe County. Its last rate increase became effective in May 1978.

The hearing will begin at 9:30 a.m. Sept. 10 in the offices of the commission, 6545 Mercantile Way, Lansing.

City Is Awarded

Tecumseh has been awarded an American Automobile Association Pedestrian Safety Achievement for 14 years without a pedestrian traffic accident, reports Automobile Club of Michigan.

Tecumseh is one of 57 Michigan communities to receive an award in the 40th annual AAA Pedestrian Safety Inventory. City officials will be presented a plaque later this month.

Livonia earned AAA's Grand Award and Award of Excellence in the 50,000 to 500,000 population category, the highest recognition given to cities with outstanding pedestrian death and injury records and pedestrian accident prevention programs.

A record of more than 2,750 cities participated in the nationwide program, representing 80 percent of all cities with populations over 25,000.

Michelle Born in Dennis Baer Home

Two-day old Michelle Ann Baer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Baer, 502 Spafford, didn't make her parents, three sisters, and grandparents wait long to see what she looked like.

She was born at home at 10:29 a.m. Sept. 4 in her family's home, with the family and four EMT Ambulance technicians in attendance.

"I will never forget it," said Mrs. Baer relaxing after dinner that afternoon at Herrick Memorial Hospital were the mother and baby were later admitted for routine check ups.

Just as proud of the deliver was EMT Ambulance co-owner and technician Kathy Payne, 26, who assisted Mrs. Baer deliver Michelle in the Baer Family living room.

"It made my whole life. It was the most beautiful thing I've ever seen. It was a beautiful delivery," she said with a radiant glow. Mrs. Payne, herself a mother, gave birth to a son, Richard Payne III, 16 months ago by Cesarian section.

When Payne and her co-workers told the story, the EMT technicians explained that assisting at a birth is an experience desired by emergency medical technicians.

"Everyone wants to bring a life into the world," said Payne. "We're trained for it," said Bob Ahleman, her partner. "But it rarely happens. You kind of dream about doing it in the field."

"We usually see people all mangled up and very rarely do we get to bring a life into the world," elaborated Ahleman, a newlywed of nine months.

Payne and Ahleman were at Herrick Hospital when they received a dispatch to the Spafford St. residence.

Another EMT ambulance manned by Colvy Averill of Palmyra and Pam Sturgis of Blissfield, just happened to be at the north end of Tecumseh, returning from Ann Arbor. They were radioed to assist. They were ready with cot, wraps, towels and plenty of water.

When EMT Ambulance arrived, the mother and father were practicing LaMaze exercises. The mother's contractions were 40 seconds apart. Within four minutes of the ambulance team's arrival, Mitchell was born.

"We put the baby on the mother's tummy and it was beautiful," Payne related, smiling. Baby weighed 8 lbs. 5 oz.

Although Mr. Baer could not be reached for comment, Payne and Mrs. Baer reassured the reporter that he did fine, too.

"I think the whole neighborhood thought that the world was coming to an end when they saw the two ambulances," remarked EMT technician Bob Ahleman.

He said that when the call came in, the oldest daughter, Tina, 5, responded with only "Hi. My name is Tina." It took a while before it became apparent that her mom was about to deliver a baby, then the EMT people said they took of excitedly.

Jackie Gof, EMT dispatcher said, "Kathy has been waiting so long to deliver a baby. She was in second heaven."

Besides Tina, Michelle also has two other sisters, Amanda, 3, and Jenny, 1. It was a relatively normal morning for them, except that breakfast was late. They munched in the kitchen and watched television while their sister was being born.

Father Dennis Baer is employed at Ford Motor Company in Ypsilanti. The family moved here from Saline in March of this year.

Arriving practically at the same time as their granddaughter were paternal grandparents Bernard and Bessie Baer of Ypsilanti.

Maternal grandparents are Eastern Michigan University professor Dr. Ken Grinstead of Ann Arbor and Marie Messer of Phoenix, Ariz.

Plan Home Tour

Six Ann Arbor homes built before World War I will be open to the public during the seventh annual Old West Side Homes Tour on Sunday, Sept. 16.

A special feature of this year's tour will be two authentic English double-decker buses which will provide free shuttle service between the homes.

Tour hours are from 12 noon to 5 p.m. Tickets may be purchased on the day of the tour at the tour headquarters, the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints (R.L.D.S. Church) at the corner of Jefferson and Fourth Streets in Ann Arbor. Free childcare for children under 12 will be provided at the church.

Tickets are $3 on the day of the tour.

Sunday School

The First Presbyterian Church Sunday School will begin at 9:45 a.m. starting Sept. 9.

Students will register at this time and be given a tour of the entire church, everything they have never seen before.

Donuts, coffee and hot chocolate will be served. Parents are invited to attend and help register their children.

Meeting

Herrick Hospital Auxiliary will have a breakfast meeting at the Tecumseh Country Club Sept. 11 beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Thelma Copeland, director of volunteer services at Bixby Hospital, will speak on the topic: "The Excitement of Volunteering."

Floris Snyder, 423-2587 or Florence Howe, 423-2251.

Dundee, Ember's In Men's Softball Finals

Men's Tournament

Tractor Village scored two runs in the first inning and then J. Borton hit a two run homer as Tractor Village added three more in the second enroute to defeating Welding Metals 6-3.

Welding Metals didn't score a run until the sixth inning when they scored twice. Tractor Village scored another run in the sixth. Welding Metals picked up another run in the seventh but fell short.

R. Borton had three hits in three trips while Smith chipped in with two hits. The victory sends Tractor Village into the quarter-finals against Big Boy.

Margie's Restaurant scored three times in the second inning and held a 5-2 lead after three innings. Margie's scored another run in the fourth to take a 6-2 lead.

In the fifth, Big Boy scored a run to pull within three but Margie's countered with a run in that same inning. Big Boy tied the game in the sixth and then went on to win the game in extra innings 8-7.

Driscoll had two hits to pace Big Boy while Ward had four hits in four trips to pace Margie's. Margie's outhit Big Boy while 18-10 but left 11 men stranded on base. Big Boy advances to the quarter-finals against Tractor Village.

Dundee Products scored 14 runs on 16 hits as they romped to their 12th straight victory without defeat. VFW collected 15 hits but only scored six runs as they bowed out of the tournament.

Goodacre paced Dundee with three hits in four trips while Gull, Grounds, Mulready, and Travis chipped in with two hits apiece.

Dotson and Kruger paced VFW with three hits in four trips. The victory sends Dundee into the semi-finals.

Ember's Bar collected seven hits and five runs in the third inning and went on to defeat American Van Stand 10-4. Van Stand committed a costly error in the sixth allowing Ember's to score three unearned runs.

Nykodym had four hits in four trips, including a home run. Auito had three hits in four trips while Gurtzweiler and Tuberville hit home runs.

Arnold had three hits to pace Van Stand. The victory lifts Ember's into the semi-finals.

USB held a 4-1 lead after two innings over the Loggers but fell behind in the fourth when the Loggers came up with four runs. The Loggers went on to collect 13 hits and nine runs to defeat the Bank 9-5.

Ives had three hits in three trips and Vogel had three hits in four trips, including a home run. Durkee had two hits in three trips to pace USB. The Loggers advanced to the semi-finals against Dundee Products.

Tractor Village couldn't get things started as Big Boy plowed them under 9-1. Tractor Village had only three hits in the contest as compared to 12 by Big Boy.

Buell had a home run, triple and double in three times at bat. Gibson, Lancaster, Roberts, and Speilman had two hits in three times at bat. The victory sends Big Boy into the semi-finals against Ember's Bar.

Dundee scored 16 runs on 18 hits to sweep by the Loggers 16-4. Dundee jumped out to a 6-0 lead after the first inning and held a 10-0 lead after four innings. The Loggers scored five times in the fifth but Dundee put them away with another six run rally in the sixth.

Goodacre and Murphy each had four hits in five times at bat to lead Dundee's hitting attack. The victory sends Dundee into the finals.

The bats of Ember's Bar did not cool off as they pounded out 27 hits and scored 21 runs to defeat Big Boy 21-10 and advanced to the finals.

Schlegel had a perfect night at the plate with five hits in five times at bat. Nykodym added four hits while Auito, Horton and Skelton chipped in with three hits apiece.

The game had been a see-saw battle until the sixth inning. Big Boy had the lead three times and were tied at 10 runs apiece until Ember's rallied for seven runs in the sixth and four more in the seventh to clinch the victory.

Plan Youth Flag Football

The Tecumseh Recreation Department in cooperation with the Tecumseh Board of Education will again sponsor youth flag football for fifth and sixth grade youths.

Registration will be taken at the recreation department located in the Community Center. Registration is $3.50 per youth and should be paid before the registration deadline on Sept. 28.

A mouthpiece will be provided each youth, however, it will not be issued until the first practice or get-together with his coach.

There will be eight teams this year and each youth that played last year will be assigned the same team. All new players will be placed on one of eight teams.

All youths will be notified by the team coach to which the youth has been assigned. Please do not call the school office or recreation department for youth assignments unless contact by coach has not been made by Oct. 3.

All games will be played at the Pony League Field on Russell Road. Practice locations will be determined by coaches.

Plan Tory Meeting

The Britton Tory Athletic Boosters will hold a "Meet the Teams Night" Thursday Sept. 6 at 7 p.m. in the high school gym.

The junior varsity and varsity football and girls basketball teams will be introduced and the coaches will talk about the upcoming season. A Tory Athletic Booster Meeting will follow the program.

The Britton JV football game with Pittsford scheduled for Sept. 6 has been canceled.

Defense, Press Will Be Keys

The 1979 basketball season is almost upon us and since the middle of August, the Clinton Redskins girls basketball team has been making preparations for this fall's season opener against Saline.

Last year the Redskins were 21-3 and for the second year in a row, reached the state class "C" quarter finals before losing to Parchment. It was the second most successful year in CHS history and the third consecutive year the girls won 20 or more games.

Three starters were lost through graduation and Clinton may find it difficult to repeat the past year's performances. Missing this year, and with them a total of 10 years of experience, are all league and all county players Sue Richter and Lisa Cark, plus co-captain Judy Zimmerman.

These three girls helped compile a super record of 64-over the past three years that included two league, three district and two regional championships.

This year's team will have good speed and should be able to outrebound most of the teams on their schedule.

Defense and our full court press will be the keys to a successful season according to Coach Bob King, who is starting this fourth year as head coach.

Clinton's biggest problem will be replacing forward Sue Richter who was all state the past two years and the third leading scorer in the state of Michigan.

The Redskins won't have anyone of Richter's offensive ability, but they are hoping to develop a more balanced scoring attack. This will be an experienced team as seven letterman return and King will be looking to them for leadership.

Three year veteran Kris Pratt will start at one guard. She was a leader in assists and steals last year and one of the best defensive players on the team.

Barb Winder, a good offensive player, will start at one forward. She was the leading rebounder last year with 244 and scored over 200 points.

Winder and Brenda Cark, who will start at center, are both 6' tall and they should become two of the best rebounders in the county. Brenda is a sister of last years all league center Lisa Cark. King says that her skills are excellent and he is expecting her to become an offensive threat and a standout on defense.

A battle is looming for the other two starting positions. Senior Karyn Coward and junior Renee Peterson are vieing for a forward position while juniors Carrie Merillat and Teri McKenzie are competing for the point guard position.

Rounding out this years team are seniors Beth Langowski (who should see plenty of action at forward and center) and Jani Thompson, junior Renee Snyder and sophomore Lisa Moore.

The first game of the season is at home with Saline Tuesday, Sept. 11. All home games start at 5:30 p.m. with the varsity game starting around 7 p.m.

Fall Golf

Women from Tecumseh Country Club had their fall golf luncheon Aug. 29. Barb Blanden conducted a short business meeting and along with Harriet LaVoy and Noreen Barss ran the tournament of the day.

Winners were Kay Luper, 1st low net; Noreen Barss, Ann Dodd and Ruth Jobes tied for 2nd low net; Mary Badour, 5th low net; T.C. Roekle, 1st low putts; Liz Grossman and Connie Sack tied for 2nd low putts. Shirley Herrick and Maurine Hannibal had chipins.

Carol Davis is in charge of the summer long "Old Pal Tournament", and presented prizes to the following winning teams.

Group 1. Janie McKie and Vera Clark, 1st; Fran Kuthe and Joyce Manwaring, 2nd; Allee Collins and Helen Damon, 3rd; Lucy Roberts and Liz Grossman, 4th.

Group 2. T.C. Roekle and Gloria Schwartz, 1st; Edna Smith and Maurine Hannibal, 2nd; Ruth Jobes and Annabelle Bock, 3rd; Lee Smith and Sue Jordon, 4th.

Clinton Runners Open Sept 6

Clinton cross country team opens its season on Thursday, Sept. 6, at Saline.

Clinton returns only two lettermen from last year's LCAA championship team that finished with a 7-1 record, was 15th in the state class C meet, and runners-up in the regional meet.

The top returning letterman is senior Tom Nighswander. Tom was the number two man last season and earned a place on the all-LCAA team.

The other returning letterman is Junior Matt McNeil. McNeil was the number four man a year ago and has looked impressive in early season workouts.

All other team members are out for the first time. The top five looks to be rounded out by junior Mark Arquette, Sophomore Mark Rochowiach, and freshman Jack Thompson. All three have looked good for first year participants.

Other squad members will be sophomores Alan Mammoser and Chris Kruchkow, and Frosh Don Krauss.

Coach Hashley sees Addison, Onsted and Hudson as contenders for the LCAA title. As far as the Redskins — "We're looking for a .500 season with improvement from meet to meet. I expect Nighswander and McNeil to have outstanding seasons beyond that we're very inexperienced."

Indians Will Play Right Along with the Best

The Tecumseh varsity football squad has no outstanding players or player this year. They're young too. But they have the potential to be good and head coach Pat Connors is sure that they will play right along with the best in the league.

Where the team will finish in the league is an uncertainty. Flat Rock is always tough and promises to be a state contender this year. Monroe CC is also returning some choice players and promises to have a tough team.

The Indians are going to have to fight all the way and any position they take this year in the standings will certainly be well deserved.

The team overall is small for 1979 and they're not particularly fast. The squad is quick, however, and that is necessary. They're intelligent players and they know their assignments in the games.

The young Indians proved their quickness in last Thursday's scrimmages at Fowlerville and coach Conors, along with his assistants were reasonably pleased with the games. The players had good attitudes and hit hard.

They made mistakes, they always do in the opening scrimmages. That's why the games are played — to find areas where the team needs sharpening.

Listing strengths for any team coming out of a scrimmage has to begin at the helm. And Tim Todd should well be listed as a strength for the Indians this year. He played backup quarterback last year, but did see a lot of action. He throws well and could pose quite a threat to defensive backfields.

But no quarterback is good without receivers and Todd has good ones in Scott Gilpin, Steve Palmer, Scott Hans and Scott Schafer. The offensive line in general looked good too at the scrimmage. They held off the pass rush well and allowed Todd to throw.

The offensive backfield boasts returning proven runners in Kevin Salters, Steve Palmer and Andy Geshwiler. All are good, overall runners. They will be making room this year for three younger players. Mark Van Buren and Dave Garcia are sophomores and Dave Duhan is a junior.

The defensive unit looked tough at times also at the scrimmage. They were aggressive and they moved a lot. But like the rest of the team, they must keep improving for Tecumseh to be really challenging.

Names to remember in the defensive unit include Geshwiler, Gilpin and Tim Steuwe at the linebacker positions, Randy Harrison on the line, defensive end Chris Smith and deep back Hans.

Many players will yet flourish into proven assets for coach Connors. As with most teams, time will tell who the best players are and time will tell who the best teams are.

And the Indians will have their first shot at proving themselves Friday when they travel to Chelsea. Opening kick-off is 7:30 p.m.

THS ENDS — THS quarterback Ted Todd will have three receivers in, l-r, Steve Palmer, Scott Hans, and Scott Gilpin. Scott Schafer, missing, will also see action at the tight end position.

Britton Has Potentially One of The Areas Best Backfield

Head Britton coach Randy Salisbury has his usual problem with the B-MHS varsity squad this year. They lack depth with only a 23 man varsity roster, and they can certainly not afford injuries.

Still, Salisbury has one strength he can count on big. That's his offensive backfield.

The Tory squad has the potential to be very explosive offensively with a basically ground-oriented attack. Still, the offensive backfield will not be afraid to pass at all and if they develop to their full potential, the backfield could be the best in the area.

Chris Kimerer is a senior returning to the squad after quarterbacking all last year for the Tories. Chris has a good arm and is an excellent back, but he is only part of the backfield Salisbury hopes will put Britton at or near the top of the league this year.

Also returning in the backfield is David Bruce. Bruce is one of Salisbury's best payers. He plays outside linebacker as well as his fullback position, and at 6'6", 201 pounds, Bruce can be an extremely difficult back to bring down.

Joining the backfield this year is Jim Slatic, an extremely fast student who missed the football season last year after transferring into Britton. Slatic, a 5'10" junior, was the key to Britton's track squad in the spring and he could wll be the key to a wide open running Britton team this year.

The third back in the Britton team this year is sophomore Eddie Montalvo. The young 5'6", 155 pound player gained 1200 yards last year as a freshman on the JV's squad and added 20 touchdowns to his credentials.

Coach Salisbury can also count on his seniors as a definite strength this year. He may have a strong offensive backfield, but he needs strong senior leadership even more with unproven players making up the majority of the defensive and offensive squads

The players are so young in experience that just who will end up in the starting positions for the Tories is still a mystery so early in the season. For the linemen, linebackers and safeties, only time will tell.

Hopefully by Friday night when the Tories travel to Northwood for their 8 p.m. kickoff, the Britton players will all mesh as one strong unit.

And the Tories are going to have to mesh as one strong unit early. They open the season with three tough games that could easily set the mood for the rest of their season. They play non-league matches with Northwood and and Ida while challenging Tri-County foe Sand Creek in between.

The league will not be an easy pushover either by any means. The league is balanced more so than in the past. Summerfield, Sand Creek and Madison all boast very strong teams.

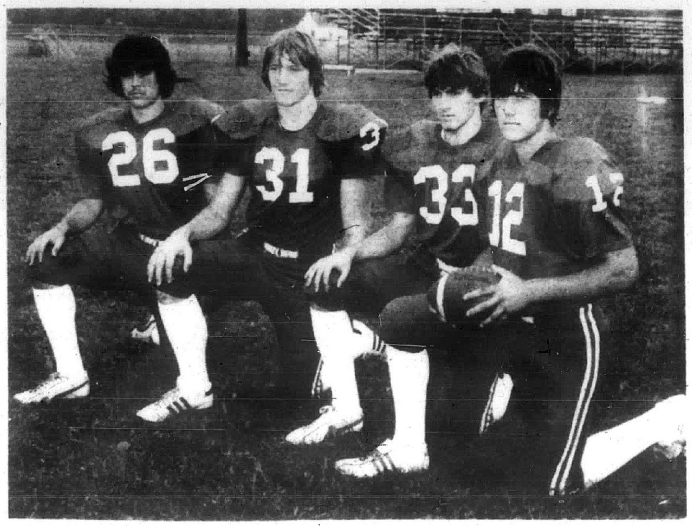
TRI-CAPTAINS — Sharing leadership duties with coach Randy Salisbury this year are tri-captains, l-r, David Bruce, Chris Kimerer and Greg Fanslau.



OFFENSIVE BACKFIELD — Joining quarterback Chris Kimerer, right, in the backfield for the Tories are, l-r, halfback John Montalvo, fullback David Bruce and halfback Jim Slatick.

Clinton Returns 2 Starters in Rebuilding 1979 Season

At the outset of this pigskin season coach Don Eaton and his Clinton Redskins find themselves in the same position as most of the area football teams. They must start from ground zero in constructing their respective squads after graduating most of the starters from last year.

Coach Eaton admits that he may have depended too heavily on his first string last year to the detriment of his potential starters for this year but the reason for playing is to win and it is a coach's job to seek out the strong points of a team and to capitalize on them.

Eaton and his team however, seem to relish the challenge of reconstruction and there are definite benefits to be gained from starting from the ground up.

Number one among them is the competition generated by the unfilled positions. With the incentive of a possible starting position ahead of him latent talents often emerge from unexperienced payers.

Lack of "shoe-in" starters also contributes to greater depth throughout the team as the necessity for versatility over specialization involves a greater number team members in competition.

This situation can also prove to be an asset where injuries are concerned. If a team with no depth sustains an injury to one of its "stars" and there is no one waiting on the bench to fill in, the entire defensive or offensive squad could collapse.

The tri-captains for this year's Redskin team will be Steve Wahl, Brad Williams and Warren Green, all seniors.

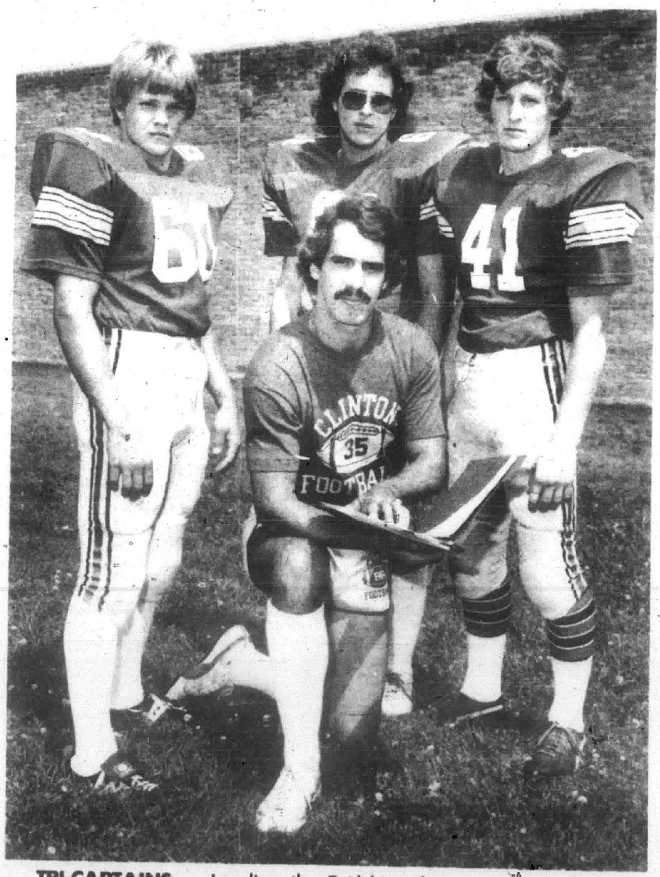
The Redskins, traditionally a strong defensive team, appear to have some good talent in this area in the persons of Jr. Keith Kinard at middle guard, seniors Chris Douglas and Brad Williams at tackle and Barry Yocum and Mike Krauss, a senior and sophomore at the ends.

In the quarterback slot as with all positions, there is more than one contender. Possible candidates include junior Randy Weirich and a freshman, Bob Zimmerman. Zimmerman's speed (he ran the mile in 5:04 in junior high) could make him a good scrambler.

Offensively a strong line could be built around Williams, Krauss and Douglass with Warren Green or Dale Brooks at center.

The weaknesses of this team remain to be seen and many changes could occur between this preview and the first game, but informed sources report that passing defense may be a little weak and that unlike last year's team, this one will run fewer options, but as coach Eaton emphasized, it's a wide-open field and a new season so only time will tell.

Clinton opens against Erie Mason at home September 7th.



TRI-CAPTAINS — Leading the Redskins this year along with head coach Don Eaton are, l-r, Brad Williams, Warren Green and Steve Wahl.

TWO RETURNING — Coach Don Eaton has some rebuilding to do this year in Clinton's football squad after returning only two starters to the 1979 team. They are Barry Yocum, number 42 and 70, Chris Douglas.

Adrian Rivalry Is Over

This season not only marks the end of Tecumseh's participation in the Huron League, but it also is the first time in over 20 years that the Adrian Maples are not on the Indians' schedule.

The big rivalry is over, one which had captured the fancy of players, students and fans. It was "the" game of the year for both Tecumseh and Adrian.

Fans are still wondering why Tecumseh cancelled out last November, and some of the reasons offered simply fail to justify the action.

For this season, the Maples have been replaced by Harper Creek. In the future, Monroe CC reportedly will replace Adrian as Tecumseh's big rival in the final game.

Unless there's a tremendous change of heart, the CC game will never match the Adrian rivalry that attracted thousands of fans to each game. The 1979 season simply won't be the same as in the past

Chamber Seeks 'Home' Here for Santa

Santa Claus needs a Tecumseh office so he can hear the Christmas wishes of Tecumseh area children.

The Tecumseh Area Chamber of Commerce is searching for a location for Santa. Anyone with a suggestion may contact either Jan Fox, at the Grey Fox Floral, or Don McCallum, at Sluyter's Electric. They are coordinators for the chamber's Christmas promotion.

Santa is scheduled to arrive in Tecumseh Sunday, Nov. 25 at 2 p.m. Musicians are also being sought to provide a few seasonal numbers.

Chamber members have discussed $35 as the assessment for advertising and promotions during the holiday season.

Next meeting on Christmas promotion will be Thursday, Sept. 13 at 7:30 p.m. at Don's Beef Buffet.

Nine Members on Committee

A nine member committee has been formed in the Tecumseh School District to inform local voters about the need and the reasons for the county-wide one mill charter millage levy for special education. Voters will decide on the millage Oct. 1.

Ken McElroy is chairman of the Tecumseh School District committee. Committee members are Dee and Jim Colson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beach, Tom Sura, Ed Walters, Earl Mason and Ed Rapin.

A 12-minute slide presentation is available for viewing by Tecumseh groups.

For more information, readers may contact the Porter Center or George Eison, assistant superintendent, special education or Dick Egli, telecommunications director.

Moves Business

Eric Long, owner and operator of Eric's Auto Service at 1104 W. Chicago Blvd. for the past three years, has moved his business to E. Chicago Blvd. and Maumee.

Business and operations will remain the same and under the title of Eric's Sunoco.

Dems Not Opposing Supervisor Position

There is no Democratic opposition for the seat of supervisor in the Oct. 16 special election in Raisin Township.

Jim Hite, Democratic nominee, withdrew from the race, hours after his party nominated him.

"We do not choose to contest this position" is what the Democrats reported to Lenawee County Clerk Pat Johnston.

However, the Democrats will run DeLight Sieler for clerk and William R. Berry for trustee.

Louis Rebottaro is the Republican candidate for supervisor. Chris Ruggirello, present clerk, will run as a Republican candidate for that office in the Oct. 16 election. Bernadine Potts is the Republican trustee candidate.

The three vacancies on the five member Raisin Township board were created by the successful Aug. 21 recall of three township officials.

PC Recommendation to Council Monday

No action was taken by the Planning Commission Tuesday night on a revised plan relative to a senior citizen complex and multiple-family development north of W. Chicago Blvd. and south of Seminole Dr.

At a July 30th meeting, the Commission rejected the original plan of Clinton builder, Ed Day, and recommended that Council turn it down. Council will receive this recommendation next Monday night.

Day's revised plan would have the development approximately 700 feet south of Seminole, rather than 500 feet, and would leave space for single family homes across from homes presently on Evans Creek Dr. Seminole would eventually be tied in with Evans Creek Dr.

When the Commission took action in July, traffic congestion to and from the proposed development to W. Chicago Blvd. was cited. Day presented a letter to the Commission from the Department of Transportation, which approved access to the development off the boulevard.

The department also stated that a second access would be desirable.

Richard Heglin, representative for the development of Courtland Place, a planned subdivision of approximately 40 acres north of Burt St., asked the Planning Commission for approval to develop in three phases.

Phase one would consist of developing 27 lots.

Commission did not object to developing the subdivision in stages. Council, however, must approve it before work starts.

Examinations Set for Two

Eddie Newell Jr., 29, was scheduled for examination Wednesday afternoon in District Court after his arrest Sept. 6 in a shooting incident at the Russell Square Apartment complex.

Charges of attempted murder have been filed against Newell.

An examination in court is scheduled Thursday afternoon for Darold Marc Kidd, 26, Adrian, who was arrested here Sept. 7 by Tecumseh police.

Charges against Kidd include attempted kidnapping, felonious assault and illegal entry.

Newell reportedly took a shot at a local police officer who had been sent to the apartment complex over a domestic problem. He held off officers for nearly five hours before being routed from his apartment by tear gas.

Kidd is said to have threatened his estranged wife with a knife in an attempt to return her to their apartment in Adrian.

Browns Buy Restaurant

Rod and Lois Brown completed sales transaction Monday for the purchase of the House of Pizza on W. Chicago Blvd.

The restaurant had been owned for the past 17 years by Paul and Terri Pinter, who plan to devote their time now to farming after some traveling and relaxation.

Few changes are planned for the present by the Browns, who opened Tuesday as the new operators. Some redecorating has been completed and some remodeling in the future is contemplated.

Present plans call for the same dinner and sandwich menus plus the restaurant's specialty of pizza.

Mr. Brown is a well known car salesman in this area and is currently employed at John Underwood Chevrolet-Olds-Pontiac agency, west of Clinton. Mrs. Brown is employed at Tecumseh Finance Company. Both will continue working at their present positions.

Craig Brown, their son, will work full time at the House of Pizza, and will be joined in the evenings and weekends by his parents.

GO INDIANS, GO — Varsity cheerleaders will need all the cheers possible this Friday night when the Indians travel to Flat Rock and face a tough Ram eleven. Tecumseh opened the season last week with a 31-20 win over Chelsea. Leading the cheers this season are, bottom and clockwise, Julie Beasley, Lynda Sprague, Jeannie Johnstone, Barb Marcotte and Paula Knisely. Bonnie Birchfield is in the center. Council Race Is Dim - Only 1 Has Filed

Only Harold Easton, veteran councilman and former Tecumseh mayor, has filed a position for re-election to city Council.

Vera Gardner reports no other petitions out. Deadline for filing is next Monday, Sept. 17th, at 5 p.m.

Mayor Aden Mead indicated earlier this year that he would not seek re-election, and Leonard DeMoss, who was up for re-election, resigned last week as he was moving from the city.

Unless there are at least two more petitions taken out and filed, Easton will be the only one on the ballot for the three Council seats to be filled at the November election.

Chamber Works on Board Slate

Terms of four members of the board of directors of the Tecumseh Area Chamber of Commerce expire in December 1979.

Those four are: David Blanden, president; elected in 1977 and served as president in 1978, 1979.

John Damelio, chamber drawing coordinator, elected in 1977.

Marten Vegter, elected to a two year term in 1978.

Mike Volpi, appointed in August 1979 to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Henry Newlin.

Lincoln Lloyd, nominating chairman, is working with a nominating committee to put together a slate of four nominees for three year terms. Nominees will be announced to the chamber at its October meeting.

EMT Threatens Suit

EMT Ambulance will sue the city of Tecumseh for breach of contract if the city does not pay EMT a $2,900 subsidy it owes the Palmyra ambulance company for Tecumseh based service from April to Aug. 31, said Rick Roble, attorney for EMT Ambulance.

Roble told the Herald Wednesday morning that EMT "compiled 100 percent" with its contract with the city of Tecumseh to serve the community from a Tecumseh based ambulance in return for a $1 per capita subsidy.

EMT Ambulance pulled out of Tecumseh Aug. 31 because according to Dick Payne, ambulance company owner, he could not operate a Tecumseh unit without Tecumseh's subsidy.

However, EMT Ambulance continues to serve Tecumseh area residents without the city's subsidy.

Tecumseh's Mayor Aden Mead commented Wednesday "plans are now underway" to set up a meeting with the city, EMT Ambulance and county officials to try to resolve the situation, bring an ambulance service closer to the city of Tecumseh and also to fulfill the obligation of the county agreement to hold the county harmless."

Marc Grossman of Lenawee County Human Services said that Mead has been in contact with him. "We are in the process of trying to set up the meeting," said Grossman.

The city of Tecumseh made one payment of $2,333 to EMT Ambulance for the first quarter of the year. City stopped payment of its subsidy to EMT when the city learned Tecumseh sign a hold harmless agreement, releasing the county from any liability, in order to receive reimbursement.

The city argued this was a new requirement in the county emergency medical services system plan. The county maintains that the hold harmless agreement was in the original plan.

City Attorney Greg Forsthoefel advised the city not to sign the hold harmless agreement until the city was covered under the ambulance provider's professional malpractice insurance.

However, EMT owner Dick Payne said the cost for such insurance "would exceed the subsidy." He added that the State of Michigan does not require such insurance.

Joseph W. Hull, chief, licensing and certification section, Division of Emergency Medical Services, Michigan Department of Public Health told the Herald that under P.A. 368, the state does not require professional malpractice insurance for an ambulance service. "As long as they are practicing up to a level of their training," the ambulance provider is covered by the act, said Hull.

"That is not to say that they can't be sued," added Hull. "Anyone can be sued. But it is a question of if you have a judgement against you." He said the chances of such a judgement were "unlikely" and added he was unaware of any such judgements.

Marc Grossman of Lenawee County Human Services said Payne did file proof with the county that he has the insurance specified in the county emergency medical services system plan adopted by the county last year.

Those criteria were proof of: "Workers Compensation Insurance in amounts required by law, including employee's liability coverage; bodily injury liability not less than $100,000 for each person and not less than $300,000 for each occurance and property damage liability insurance not less than $50,000 for each ambulance."

Ten local units of government (which includes villages within their townships) have contracted for ambulance service with EMT ambulance, submitted a hold harmless agreement to the county and have received reimbursement from the county, said Grossman.

In northeastern Lenawee County, these communities and their total reimbursement from the county for the first two quarters are Raisin Township, $2,161; Clinton Township, $1,170; Tecumseh Township, $524; Macon Township, $658; Ridgeway Township, $878.

Franklin Township indicated no interest in the county plan.

EMT's withdrawal of its Tecumseh based ambulance raises the question of whether or not ambulance service will be provided within 15 minutes to these communities that contracted with EMT.

This response time was a criterion that was in the county adopted plan and one which EMT indicated it would comply with when the communities requested service proposals and bids from ambulance companies.

Police Selling 30 Bikes Here

Tecumseh police will sell approximately 30 bicycles here Saturday, according to Merlin Mowery, police chief.

Sale will be held at the city garage, behind the hospital, starting at 9:30 a.m.

All bikes are ones recovered by the police but not claimed by previous owners.

Three Elected to Foundation

The board of trustees of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation, Inc. held its annual meeting Sept. 11 at which time three trustees were elected to terms expiring Sept. 30, 1982.

They are: Wayne Kaiser and Edna Smith, both reelected and Richard Egli, newly elected.

James Anderson was elected president. Other officers elected are Janet Robinson, vice-president and Marten Vegter, secretary-treasurer.

'What You Are' Program Is Wednesday

"What You Are", a program about the individual and modern day values, will be seen and discussed Sept. 19 at the meeting of the Presbyterian Women's AssociaTion.

Coffee and cookies will be served by officiers, Eloise Adams, Ruth Dustin, Irene Bolt and Lynn Cook, before the meeting at 7 p.m. in the lobby outside the church lounge.

Dr. Morris Massey, associate dean of the college of business at the University of Colorado, developed the videotape that is made available through the media center of the Lenawee Vo-Tech School.

Eight Attend Kalamazoo Assembly

Georgianna Bush, Helen Escott, Carl and Rita Greenwald, Linda Miller, Mary and Ed Mitchell and Mary Nichols, all members of Tecumseh Rebekah Lodge #338, attended the Rebekah Assembly of Michigan, held in Kalamazoo during the past week.

Mrs. Bush was the honored recipient of the Degree of Chivalry. Mr. Greenwald was installed as chaplain of the Grand Lodge Independent Order of Oddfellows and also received a recommendation to the friendship of all Oddfellow members throughout the world as well as an award for membership gained.

These awards were presented by the Sovereign Grand Master, Hugh Bradley.

Usual Rates Will Apply

County residents who use the services of EMT ambulance or any public or private ambulance provider must still pay the usual rates for service.

The purpose of the county emergency medical services system plan was to insure efficient ambulance service for county residents.

The county offered a $1 per capita reimbursement to a local unit that agreed to cooperate with neighboring areas in emergency situations for ambulance coverage, require the ambulance be licensed by the State of Michigan and that the ambulance company name the county as additional insured.

The county has insisted that the contract is only with the local units of government and not between the county and the ambulance provider. Because of this arrangement, the county required the local units of government responsible to contract and pay for ambulance service and then seek reimbursement from the county.

To date, 20 local units of government have met requirements for the county plan and were reimbursed a total of $32,689, said Grossman.

Tecumseh is the only local unit of government that has indicated interest and completed the necessary paperwork, but has not filed a "hold harmless" agreement. Further, there has been no problem with any other ambulance provider, public or private, contracted by the local units of government, Grossman indicated.

Meet Thursday

Tecumseh merchants will meet Thursday at 7:30 a.m. at Don's Beef Buffet to discuss the Christmas season promotion.

MR. and MRS. HARRY PORTERFIELD

Harry Porterfields Celebrate 50th at Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Porterfield, 14980 Hudson Rd., Clinton, will be honored on their golden wedding anniversary, Sunday, Sept. 16, with an open house from 1 to 5 p.m. at Water Wheel Estates, Clinton.

The event will be hosted by their six children and spouses. They are: Mr. and Mrs. John (Alice) Eddy, Evans Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Forrest (Bud) Porterfield; Mr. and Mrs. John (Joyce) Hedlesky; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Williams of Tecumseh; and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Porterfield of Clinton.

There are 21 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Cora Bachman and Harry Porter were married Sept. 14, 1929 at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pate in Blissfield.

They have lived in Clinton for 34 years.

Mr. Porterfield retired in 1967 from Ford Motor Company, and is presently employed at Clinton Post Office. He is a deacon and both are members of the Clinton Baptist Church.

The couple requests that gifts be omitted.

Bob Cojeen Completes GT Course

Robert L. Cojeen, supply supervisor for General Telephone Company, recently completed the company's "Labor Relations I" course held at its state headquarters training center in Muskegon, according to Les Moench, Jr., Adrian division manager.

The three-day course is designed to help supervisors improve their skills in dealing with personnel problems, employee grievances and administering the company's collective bargaining agreement.

Cojeen began his career with General Telephone in 1978. He has held the positions of supply assistant and his current position. He and his wife, Debbie, reside at 404 Outer Drive.

Brats Meet Thursdays at Library

When you think of brats, do you think of mean, nasty kids? Lots of people do. But at Tecumseh Public Library, B.R.A.T.s are members of the Book Review Action Team.

B.R.A.T.s are creative, imaginative third through sixth graders who have fun and are excited about writing book reviews.

They will meet every Thursday from Sept. 13 to Nov. 15, from 4:15 to 5 p.m.

B.R.A.T.s write reviews at home, then share them with the group each week. The books will include new library books and some old favorites.

The reviews are put on display for other young patrons to read. Not only do B.R.A.T.s help other young readers choose books, they widen their own reading backgrounds and develop reviewing skills.

Call the library at 423-2238 or stop in for more information.

Talking It Out

ROGER PROCTOR

Do Survivors of a Sudden-Death Feel the Stages of Death"?

In her book, On Death and Dying, Dr. Elisabeth Kubler-Ross, indicates that the acceptance of any death usually goes through these stages: shock and denial; great anger and trying to place blame; a brief period of bargaining followed by a long and often deep depression; then, hopefully, ultimate acceptance of the facts of life and death.

Dr. Kubler-Ross further states that the survivors of sudden-death victims must go through the same stages of grief as for survivors of those whose death comes slowly.

Reading about and becoming better acquainted with the stages of grief can provide insights for throughtful contemplation. Reaching a point of understanding how others have had to cope with similar situations can provide strength and consolation at the time of death of a loved one.

We have quite a few books and lists of others which may assist you in coping with your loss of loved ones. We stand ready to help you as best we can. Remember, your needs are our concern.

Purkey, Bozeman Nuptials

The First United Presbyterian Church in Tecumseh was the setting for the marriage of Laura L. Purkey and Darrell G. Bozeman, Aug. 25.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Purkey of 908 Maple St. and Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Bozeman, 104 S. Division St.

Pastor Edmond I. Watkins officiated the ceremony. Mrs. Ardath Oberlin was organist. Nate Smith and Kathy Lewis were soloists.

Candelabra decorated the pews with coral bows. White gladioli and coral carnations decorated the candlabra and church altar.

For her wedding the bride wore an ivory gown of polyester sheer satin organza. The Queen Anne neckline featured pearled Venice lace.

She wore an ivory rose necklace and earrings. Her chapel length veil was secured by an appliqued headpiece matching the ivory gown.

Her bouquet was composed of stephanotis, white rosebuds and coral silk lilies.

Shelley Purkey, the bride's sister of Tecumseh, was maid of honor wearing a coral taffeta gown with ivory silk organza overlay and fitted waist. Ivory antique lace accented the hem and V-neckline. She wore an ivory picture hat with cluster of silk and ivory ribbon to match her bouquet of silk daisies, lilies and carnations in shades of coral.

The bridesmaids gowns were designed and made by Delores Schultz, the bride's aunt.

Bridesmaids were Susan Brown of Tecumseh, Paulette Sera and Fonda Bozeman, the groom's sister.

Misti Hillebrand of Britton, the groom's niece, was flower girl.

She was attired in coral eyelet gown made by the bride and carried a basket of silk flowers and ivory lace.

Paul Lemanski of Tecumseh was best man. Groomsmen were Kent Jacoby of Saginaw, Paul Corollo of Monroe, Gordon Whelan of Tipton and William Smith of Tecumseh.

A reception followed the ceremony at the United Products Workers Union Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Martin Jr. of Tecumseh and Connie Hillebrand, the groom's sister of Tipton and William Starling, were hosts.

Kelley Martin, the bride's cousin, passed the guestbook. Pat Steele, the bride's cousin, cut cake assisted by Geralyn Wroblewski.

After a vacation in the Upper Peninsula, the couple will reside at 2531 International Dr., Apt. 1110 C, Ypsilanti, Mich. 48197.

The bride is a nurse employed at Saline Hospital in the Intensive Care Cardiac Unit. The groom is a senior at Eastern Michigan University in Industrial Education. Both are Tecumseh graduates. The bride graduated from Washtenaw Community College.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at the Country House restaurant.

MR. and MRS. DARRELL BOZEMAN

Childs, Wagenschutz Are United

Patricia Anne Childs and Lon David Wagenschutz were married Sept. 1, 7:30 p.m. at Grace Lutheran Church in Tecumseh.

Pastor Kenneth Strack officiated the nuptial ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Childs and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wagenschutz, all of Britton.

Candelabra and arrangements of roses, carnations, daisies and baby's breath decorated the altar. Peach satin bows marked the pews.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white silk organza gown with Queen Anne neckline, bodice trimmed in lace and long lace sleeves. The overskirt was scalloped and edged in lace. The skirt itself was edged in Venice lace and flowed into a chapel length train.

She wore a heart shaped diamond necklace, a gift from the groom. Her fingertip length veil of double illusion was edged in lace and secured with a lace cap.

She carried an arrangement of Sonia roses, white daisies, carnations and baby's breath.

Margie McCrate of Tecumseh was maid of honor wearing a peach gown of floral print voile, styled with blouson effect. She wore a matching hat and carried a nosegay of white daisies, peach carnations and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Pam Dusseau, Pam Furgason, JoAnne Schroeder and Linda Wagenschutz, the groom's sister.

Mark Willaert was best man. Groomsmen were Mike Childs, the bride's brother; Tom Craig, Craig Wagenschutz, the groom's brother and Paul Wielfaert.

Kristie Brablec was flower girl and Donnie Heeman was a youthful groomsman.

Ed Aluk, the bride's uncle was soloist during the ceremony. Allen Ballenberger was organist.

"Follow Me" and "The Lord's Prayer" were two of the musical selections.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wendland were hosts at the church. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Bortel and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Judkins were hosts at the reception, held at the Lynn C. Weeman Post 514 in Ida.

The bride is employed at United Savings Bank in Tecumseh. The groom is self-employed as a farmer. Both are Britton-Macon school graduates.

After a vacation in the Bahamas, the couple will reside at 9691 Ridge Rd., Britton.

MR. and MRS. LON WAGENSCHUTZ

MR. and MRS. SCOTT KAMPMUELLER

Briggs, Kampmueller Recite Marriage Vows

Terri Briggs and Scott Kampmueller were married Sept. 7 at Tecumseh Missionary Baptist Church.

bigger Health-tex
is out of this world.

Size 7-to-14 girls love the look of Bigger Health-tex clothes. Their bright colors, soft fabrics and pretty styles make a world of difference. There are so many coordinated separates to choose from—slacks and knit tops, jeans and shirts, jogging suits and dresses. Caring for them is a snap: just toss them in the washer and dryer. Few ever need ironing. And when younger sisters inherit them, they'll still be fresh and pretty. And their modest price tag will surprise you. Come see the wonderful selection today.

Dear Doctor

News From The Tecumseh Chiropractic Life Center

Dr. W.C. Elwartowski

Dear Doctor,
Is neck pain and stiffness anything to worry about?

A "pain in the neck" may be something more personal and painful than "that disgusting fellow sitting over there."

And, "pain in the neck" may be more serious than a sudden, temporary pain. Pains in the area of the neck may be signals from tortured nerves that some part of the body needs prompt attention.

The chiropractor has been prepared by study and training to spot the cause of neck pains, and is skilled in removing the cause of the pain.

Whatever the cause of the neck pain, some part of the nervous system is involved. The chiropractor, with modern scientific methods and equipment locates the cause and takes steps to correct the difficulty. Through gentle adjustments at the hands of a competent chiropractor, the spinal column is aligned and the nervous system is attuned, enabling the body to cure itself from within and bring lasting relief from the aggravating pains.

Don't take a chance with neck pain. Let a competent chiropractor remedy the trouble . . . before it can become serious.

For further information on this question, or if you have other related questions, feel free to write Dr. Elwartowski at 101 S. Pearl St., Tecumseh, MI 49286.

2 Charges

David L. Smith, 20, of 202 E. Pottawatamie, was a mere spectator to a fracas outside the American Legion early Sunday morning but ended up with two charges filed against him.

Police were called to quell a disturbance and found a sizeable crowd on S. Evans, outside the Legion. A fight had just ended.

Smith reportedly was outspoken and was asked to leave the scene several times before police arrested him. He scuffled with the officer, was eventually handcuffed and placed in a patrol car which had arrived moments earlier.

When officer of the second patrol car attempted to take him to the police station, he discovered that someone had taken the car's keys. Smith was then placed in the other patrol car for transportation.

During this time Police were attempting to disperse the crowd. Smith then left the patrol car and attempted to run away. He was apprehended again and taken to the station where a $100 bond was posted.

Charges filed against him were obstructing a police officer and resisting arrest.

Other complaints the past week were:

Sept. 5 — Paula Hoehn, 500 Stacy, reported a bicycle stolen from a garage there.

Sept. 7 — Raul R. Lopez, 45, of 4253 Billmyer Hwy., was cited for drunk driving and driving on a suspended license. He was stopped on W. Chicago Blvd. for erratic driving.

Sept. 9 — Emerson K. Vincze, 26, of 110 N. Oneida, was cited for drunk driving. He was stopped on the boulevard at Adrian St.

Four Suffer Accident Injuries

Four suffered injuries here in traffic accidents the past week. None was serious but a motorcyclist was fortunate.

A Milan man, Keith A. Straub, 22, was southbound Saturday on Rogers Hwy. when his motorcycle failed to negotiate a curve south of M-50. A small tree eventually stopped his bike, some 150 feet from the point where it left the highway.

Straub, injured and taken to Herrick Hospital by ambulance, was cited for violation of the basic speed law.

Last Thursday, Alaf Khan, 34, of 3816 Osburn Dr., turned off Russell Rd. and into the path of a vehicle driven by Lorey L. Curran, 18, of 9421 Newburg Rd. Curran and passenger, Elizabeth A. Herrera, 18, of 4260 Occidental, suffered minor injuries.

Khan was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

Mary C. Lapham, 17, of 6780 Gove Court, was southbound on Adrian St. when her car struck and snapped a telephone pole. She told officers she was adjusting a mirror at the time and took her eyes off the street.

Lapham was charged with careless driving.

Resume of other traffic accidents is:

Sept. 6 - Nydia Meyers, 67, of 4401 Macon Rd., was charged with failure to yield the right of way after a mishap at N. Evans St. and Logan with Pauline K. Dinkens, 37, of 604 Brook St.

Sept. 6 - Jack L. Meads, 28, of 2264 Occidental, told police that he was northbound on S. Ottawa and struck a manhole cover which was not in place. The cover dented the rear panel of his vehicle.

Sept. 10 - Marjorie D. Wright, 55, Adrian, turned off W. Chicago Blvd. at Union St. and was struck by Karla A. Meadows, 22, of 506 Cairns St.

If your brand new car is 'totaled' will your insurance company pay you for a brand new car?

Some insurance companies think a new car is a used car the minute you use it to drive out of the dealership. Not Auto-Owners.

With Auto-Owners, if you have an accident anytime within 90 days and your new car is a total loss, we'll pay you the total cost of your new car. And with Auto-Owners, your new car is covered immediately, automatically, under your previous policy.

So if you're about to get a new car, talk to us at Auto-Owners. Maybe you should get a new insurance company, too.

If you join the Army, you can do what I did.

I've seen jungles, deserts, mountains, and cities where English is rarely spoken. I've been trained for several careers. I've had great personal challenges given to me—and I've learned from them.

Your options in today's Army are not limitless. But they are limited mostly by what you can do. Promotions are based on merit, not pull. And if you want to change your field or your address, and you're qualified, the Army will guarantee in writing that you get it just as soon as the opening comes up.

The possibilities are great. That's why I like the Army. That's why you'll like the Army.

Our World Today Is Show Message

The Little Garden Club of Tecumseh gave an inspiring message about "Our World Today" with its standard flower show Aug. 3 and 4 at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church parish center.

To celebrate the club's 25th anniversary, the members chose to describe with flowers, some of the many facets of this decade.

Topics such as energy, OPEC, the Year of the Child and the Supermarket Syndrome were enterpreted in flowers.

In horticulture division, Gisela Gero was Sweepstakes Award winner for the most blue ribbons.

The houseplants in the competition of the horticulture division were so beautiful, that the judges did not feel in fairness that they could pick out one particular plant as the outstanding one in the show.

Pat Schmidt received the Tri-color Award for her fresh flower arrangement entitled the Year of the Child. Obviously inspired by her two sons, Samuel, 4 and Benjamin, 2. The arrangement of giant sunflowers based in a wagon featured a fishing pole with cork bob and even a can of "worms".

Julie Rhora, club president, achieved a blue ribbon for her version of Supermarket Syndrome and Imalee Miles was also a blue ribbon winner for her interpretation of Surviving the '70's.

Charlotte Strack's arrangement of dried and treated flowers received the Award of Distinction. Using dried broom grass, and magnolia leaves she alluded to "Energy" in motion with an interesting combination of metal gears. Jan Hunt's Outer Space and Joyce Butters' OPEC were also blue ribbon winners.

Jean Henning proved her award winning creativity with her entry entitled "Sports," featuring a broken window pane, bat and baseball glove holding a fragile chrysanthemum arranged with Croton leaves.

Lynn Cook received a blue ribbon for her arrangement of Inflation and Mary Furry took a blue ribbon for her version of Leisure.

Laura Miles, 15, received the Junior Achievement Award for her arrangement of pink carnations, baby's breath and Baker's fern with an eye catching disco globe that cast a prism of colors. Laura's arrangements of Star Wars and American College Test (ACT) also captured blue ribbons.

Sue Gross received the Education Award for the best educational display. Jean Ketteman received the Award of Merit for the best horticulture specimen.

Obtain CEU's at Herrick

Physicians throughout Lenawee County can obtain Continuing Educational Units (CEU's) at Herrick Hospital through a new program sponsored by the hospital.

Fifty continuing education credits are required annually by the State of Michigan for a physician to maintain his license to practice medicine.

Since patients in the county are oft times referred to Ann Arbor hospitals, the monthly classes incorporating speakers from the medical staff of St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor, have the added advantage of doctor meeting doctor fact to face and provide an opportunity for the exchange of ideas on current trends in medical treatments.

The medical educational programs presented at the hospital are done so with the cooperation of Dr. Ralph Brandt, noted specialist in clinical cardiology and cardiovascular procedures, and the medical staff of St. Joseph's hospital.

Dr. Brandt is an internationally known lecturer and practioner in the field of cardiovascular medicine. He spoke three months ago at the Phoenix Heart Institute, Phoenix, Ariz. before traveling to speaking engagements in San Diego and Switzerland.

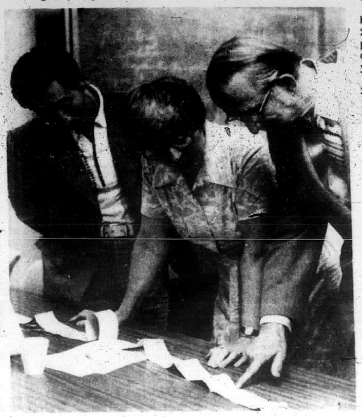
Guest speakers have included Dr. Brandt and Dr. Charles Watts, pulmonary specialist from Ann Arbor, since the classes were intiated in June.

All Lenawee County physicians are invited to the monthly Saturday morning meetings, enabling them to obtain CEU's close to home at no personal cost.

Dr. Brandt has also assisted with an educational program for nurses by lecturing on cardiac rhythm disturbances and medications in the Critical Care Course, established in 1977 to prepare nurses to work in the Intensive Coronary Care Unit and Emergency Department.

Future classes for nurses are being developed by Dr. Brandt and Kathy Bailey, RN, Coordinator of Inservice Education.

The medical staff and nursing staff share their enthusiasm for Dr. Brandt and other St. Joseph staff members contributions to their continuing educational programs.



DR. RALPH BRANDT, at right confers with local physicians and medical personnel.

Shoots Foot Accidentally

CLINTON — Michael Lee McLeskey, of Allen's Trailer Ct., was cleaning his 22 caliber rifle, Sunday, when the gun accidentally discharged and struck his foot.

He was treated at Herrick Hospital and released.

Clinton State Police investigated the accident.

UW Campaign Begins Soon

Sometimes it's not easy being human. Medical libraries are filled with diseases of the body and mind.

And, as if that weren't enough, we humans tend to create many of our own problems.

Drugs, child abuse, family squabbles. The list goes on and on. Things we don't mean to do, but end up doing to each other and ourselves.

It's all part of being human, and all part of why there's a United Way.

The United Way is an organization devoted to making it easier to deal with the problems of being human. An organization dedicated to making humanity more humane.

And since each of us is responsible for keeping the United Way successful, it's like a gift we give to each other for being human.

A gift in the best of human traditions: sharing. Thanks to you.

Remember as the local campaign will soon begin, 90 percent of all contributions to the United Way are retained in local agencies.

Remember, because of the United Way we have; the Jaws of Life for Raisin Twp., softball field bleacher seats, historical documentation at the public library, handicapped children's summer camp, summer activities for a Place for Teens, a contribution to the Tecumseh Community Center tennis courts.

Finalize Plans for Supper, Bazaar

BRITTON — The Women's Fellowship Circles of the Congregational Christian Church met Wednesday evening. During the meeting final plans were completed for the annual turkey supper and bazaar Sept. 13.

It was also announced that the church auction will be held on Sept. 24.

The women voted to pack Christmas gift boxes for patients at the Ypsilanti State Hospital again this year.

Following the business meeting president Blanche Ivan turned the program over to Ardyth Frayer. She opened with a reading, "I've Got To Talk To Somebody God" by Marjorie Holmes, followed by a scripture lesson on Naomi and Ruth. Devotionals were closed by reading a trio of Helen Steiner Rice poems.

Julie Judd and Evelyn McKinney, Tecumseh High School students, told of their trip to Mexico this summer with the Spanish Club. They also showed the group pictures of places they visited and souvenirs brought back with them.

They closed with Julie playing her guitar and the two singing first in English then with Spanish words. The Rev. R. Richard Case closed the meeting with a prayer.

The Golden Rule Circle were hosts and served a fruit cup and crackers following the meeting.

Offer CPR in October

BRITTON — A C.P.R. course will be offered in October at the Grace United Methodist Church.

Reum Is Bike-a-Thon Chairman

BRITTON — Yvonne Reum has agreed to the chairmanship of the St. Jude Children's Research Bike-a-Thon in Britton, to raise funds to support the hospital, according to Mr. William J. Kirwen, director of development at the internationally recognized hospital.

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital was founded by entertainer Danny Thomas. The institution opened its doors to the public in 1962 to combat catastrophic diseases which affect our children.

St. Jude's is non-sectarian, non-discriminatory and completely free of charge to all patients.

At St. Jude's, scientists and physicians are working side by side seeking not only better means of treatment, but also the cause, cure, and prevention of these terrible killers.

All findings and information gained at St. Jude's are shared freely with doctors and hospitals the world over. Thanks to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, children who have leukemia, hodgkins disease, sickle cell anemia, and other child killing diseases now have a better chance to live.

The funds raised in the Bike-a-Thons this fall will assure the continuation of the life giving work at the hospital.

The Bike-a-Thon in Britton will be held Sept. 22 from 8 a.m. til noon, with a rain date of Sept. 29.

Free refreshments will be served during the Bike-a-Thon. Top riders can earn a free T-shirt for collecting $25 or more, and a backpack for collecting $75 or more.

Sponsor forms are available at several stores in Britton. Participants under 18 must have their parents sign their sponsor forms.

Anyone wishing to donate refreshments or willing to volunteer to assist Sept. 22 can call 451-4063.

Slide Show for Women

BRITTON — The September meeting of the Grace United Methodist Women was held at the church Sept. 6. Mr. George Eidson, director of Special Education at the Milton Porter Center, gave a slide presentation of the special education needs in the county.

In a special election Oct. 1, 1979 the Lenawee Intermediate School District will request one additional mill to expand the intermediate district wide special education program.

For the Methodist Women's program, Jane Bird presented a program on Supportive Community. She was assisted by Diana Henry and Lorene Edelbrack.

During the business meeting, Diana Henry announced several local and district meetings to be held this month.

Plans were made for the bazaar and turkey supper, which will be held Nov. 1 at the church.

Dear Total Image,

I have a dandruff problem. I can't seem to get rid of . . . is there any hope for people like me? I've used everything on the market it seems, but nothing works. Could explain just what dandruff is and what causes it?

Cathy Bennett
Manchester, MI

Dear Cathy

The skin on your scalp is just like the skin on all other parts of your body . . . it's constantly producing new cells in the lower layers, while shedding old cells at the top layer. Normally, it takes 28 days for a cell to travel up from "down under" to be shed - and the cells which are sloughed off are very small and barely visible. Experts disagree as to what causes the normal skin shedding to go haywire. Among explanations are hormonal imbalance, an allergic reaction, and upset of the oil glands in the scalp, emotional upset or poor diet.

Remember, dandruff is not contagious, but a tendency towards dandruff does seem to be hereditary.

There are actually two types of dandruff - dry and oily. The oily type often appears during adolescence and is a byproduct of oil skin and hair. The number one rule of dandruff treatment of any type is a hard working anti-dandruff shampoo. All you need to do is read lables and find a shampoo with the ingredient ZPT or zinc pyrithione listed on it. It is especially effective in controlling dandruff without causing scalp irritation.

The Busy Life

Is there anyone so busy as a ten-year-old?

Our Joey isn't in this picture. Called to the phone, you know! Something extremely important like the Cub Scout picnic or the Little League meeting. Decisions that can't wait . . . even for homework. Or so we are told!

But if you'll note the items on Joey's desk you'll see that FAITH hasn't been crowded out of our boy's busy life. Sunday School is just one of his pressing weekly "appointments." But it is one that has as prominent place in his growing up as it has on his desk.

And don't think it is merely parental pride when I tell you that Joey is already revealing some fine traits of Christian character in his attitude toward responsibilities — and toward people. His mother and I planned it that way when we made the Church an important part of our own lives.

Plan Campaign To Inform Public

CLINTON — A committee of 13 chaired by Mrs. James Chellman, is undertaking an informational campaign to acquaint voters in the Clinton Community School District with the Special Education Millage Proposition to be placed before the voters Oct. 1 by the Intermediate School District.

Based on national averages, about five percent of the county's school population has some degree of learning disability. The millage increase intends to serve an additional estimated 1,000 children county-wide that have some degree of learning disability. About 1,300 children are currently served in the special education program.

Since these children are also from the Clinton area, voters will be asked by this committee to support the millage.

Information booth will be set up during Fall Festival '79. For information call Mrs. Chellman, 456-7369. A film is available for use by organizations which wish to learn of the special education program in the county.

Committee includes Mrs. Martin Scott, Mrs. Gary Massey, Mrs. John Basinger, Mrs. Mark Bauer, Mrs. Gerald Marion, Mrs. Mark Burkhart, Mrs. Larry Cunkle, Kay Russell, Mrs. Warren Starks, Mrs. Carl Kemner, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Pratt and Mrs. Roscoe Flack.

BRITTON — Cystic Fibrosis Drive in the village of Britton will be conducted Sept. 17 through 29.

Vivian Brown is coordinator.

Door to door solicitations will be made by Janet Furgason, Meredyth Lorenz, Dawn Moore, Susan Jacobs, Laura Belle Grady.

Plan Paper Drive

CLINTON — Saturday, Sept. 22 there will be a paper pick-up in Clinton between the hours of 10 a.m. and noon.

This will be the final newspaper drive of the year. Support girls athletics by collecting all of your old newspapers and magazines. Bag or bundle them and place them on the curb in front of your home.

Call 456-4435 if you live out of town and want your papers picked up.

Papers may be dropped off at 217 W. Church Street, Clinton before Sept. 22.

Name Omitted

CLINTON — St. John's Episcopal Church was inadvertently omitted from the list of organizations selling Fall Festival car drawing tickets, in the festival publication.

They are indeed selling tickets and would appreciate your support.

The advertising committee apologizes for the omission.

Another correction concerns the Homecoming game, which has been scheduled for 7:30 Sept. 28, instead of 8 p.m.

Feight Picnic

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. John Norcross hosted the Feight family picnic Sunday, with 28 persons attending from Indiana, Wamplers Lake, Manitou Beach, Chelsea, Stockbridge, Saline, Romulus, Adrian and Clinton.

The get-together replaces an annual Christmas event. Games and contests as well as card games were the diversion.

Deadline for ACT Is Set

CLINTON — Any high school senior who has thoughts of going to college, and hasn't taken the ACT test, should plan to take the Oct. 20 test.

Registration deadline is Sept. 21.

Materials can be picked up in the Clinton High School counselor's office.

This is the last ACT test students can take for consideration in the Michigan Scholarship program.

Park Work To Begin Now

CLINTON — Clinton Village Council has granted a contract to Joseph Chie Company of Milan at a cost of $35,200, for the grading, moving of top soil and seeding of the Floyd C. Tate Park area at the west edge of the village. Work will begin this fall.

A group of property owners were present at Monday's meeting to call attention to the weeds which are a problem on private property in the vicinity of Bartlett St.

The village agreed to have the weeds cut and to charge the cost to the property owner.

Complaints were heard about drag racing and speeding on E. Franklin and Sunset Dr. Since there is only one police officer on duty at a time, council explained that it is difficult to police all the potential speeding areas.

Merlin Mowrey and Dave Hunt, whose properties adjoin the former railroad line, have requested the village to sell or lease the property to them, so that they can maintain it. No action was taken.

Enrollment Is Down

CLINTON — Clinton Community Schools are facing funding problems as a result of a decreased enrollment of 1,261, down 40 students from last year's 1,301.

Loss is primarily in the kindergarten, first, second and third grades.

Superintendent Richard Wegner explained that for every child below the anticipated 1,301, the school loses $1,465.74 in state aid, or approximately $57,000.

The state was supposed to fund 50 percent of this loss, but the legislature only voted to fund about 27 percent of the loss for student decrease.

Contracts with the CEA for faculty salaries are still being negotiated, as are contracts with the secretaries and custodians.

A tentative contract has been reached with bus drivers.

However, with the lack of cash balance in the school treasury, and with lower state aid, it will be difficult to find a way to meet the needs of the negotiating groups, Wegner said.

He will suggest possible curtailment of field trips and perhaps, elimination of remedial math as some of the ways to save funds, Wegner said.

OK Tax Service

CLINTON — Clinton Township Board approved a contract for computerized tax service offered by the Lenawee County Board of Commissioners, at a meeting Tuesday night.

There were no objections to an application for an SDM license for Tri-County Oil Co., at the W. Michigan Ave. location.

Board was advised that the Norcross drain work will begin within two weeks.

Building permits totalling $48,000 were reported by building inspector Charles Wilson, and aproved by the board.

Guests at the meeting were Joe O'Donnell, sexton for Riverside Cemetery, and Dick Gutow.

Rugged 23 Days for Gae Service

CLINTON — Gae Service, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Service, Clinton-Macon Rd., spent 23 days in August on a challenging adventure in Colorado.

Gae participated with 39 other young men and women, in the Outward Bound program of the University of Colorado. She was one of the youngest, with most of them about 22 years old.

There were 10 in Gae's troop and two instructors, who spent 23 days in the wilderness mountains near Leadville, Colo.

Carrying 65 lb. packs, they spent 10-12 hours daily rock climbing, scaling peaks and being repelled off of cliffs in the Rocky Mountain National Park.

They planned and prepared all their own natural foods, carrying a seven days supply at a time, and they slept under tarps in the snow.

It was a first experience of the kind for most of the participants.

There was a three-day survival training, when each youth was alone in the wilderness, where they learned the self-discipline of fasting and meditation.

The last five days, groups of four without instructors were given maps and told to find their way from point to point on the map, given only first aid and emergency training.

Only 31 of the 39 completed the rugged experience.

It's only for the "hardy few", Gae suggests, but the adventure was a worthwhile one as it taught one to cope with a varjety of conditions, and to be self-reliant.

Gae is a senior this year at Clinton High School, and has been an accomplished equestrienne for many years.

100 Enjoy Kitchen Walk

CLINTON — More than 100 persons enjoyed the kitchen walk arranged by the Historial Society of Clinton, Saturday, in observance of Clinton's 150th anniversary. Many visitors came from distant cities to participate.

One of the hostesses, inadvertantly omitted from the pre-publicity, was Margaret Bowman, who was busy concocting chili sauce Saturday during the tour. Her unique old family recipe included apples, and it was eagerly tasted by visitors.

At other kitchens, visitors were treated to samples of the various foods that were being preserved in the old-fashioned way. Visitors were enchanted by the charming collections of antique culinary items displayed in all the host kitchens.

Those who returned to the Smith-Kimball Community Center were treated to complimentary apple pie and ice cream, generously provided by the St. Dominic's Altar Society.

Co-chairmen for the event were Shirley Fraley and Mary Ann Hunter.

Tomestones Are Damaged

CLINTON — Clarence Hall, sexton of Macon Cemetery, reported he saw a number of youths running through the cemetery, Saturday, about 6 p.m.

They were knocking down several large stone markers, some from the early 1900's.

Although he saw a car leaving the scene, he was unable to identify it, according to Clinton State Police.

There has been considerable vandalism at the Macon Cemetery, located on Mills Hwy., in recent weeks.

Plan Ticket Sales Meeting

CLINTON — There will be a meeting of the car ticket sales chairmen from each organization selling tickets for the Fall Festival drawing, Thursday, Sept. 20 at 7:30 p.m.

Ticket sales money is to be turned in at this time.

Meeting will be over before the Pre-Festival Party at Dick's Country Inn.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

For many years now I have been able to write about young cardinals shortly after Labor Day. For some nice reason it seems that they always show up on the long weekend. Usually it has been the male red bird bringing several squeaky youngsters to the feeders but if it doesn't happen exactly this way, Mother Nature finds some other cardinal-type fun for us to enjoy.

This year the timing was slightly off. The week before Labor Day was full of fresh-out-of-the-nest young cardinal talk. No, talk is not quite right — they squeak. Shrill, high pitched and continuous.

We heard them but only enjoyed a few sightings. For some reason Papa C was extra cautious, he kept his family tucked away in protective bushels and seldom let them out in the open.

The few glimpses we had though were satisfactory. Young cardinals are dull little characters. At first glance they look much like the females but closer inspection shows them to be browner and with no red highlight markings on the wings, tails, and crests.

They also lack the well defined face masks and their bills are dark brown or black.

By the weekend Papa C, who usually takes care of the family once they have left the nest, had moved his kids across the creek. We heard them occasionally.

The near-my-window feeder cardinal was a young male struggling and suffering through his first molt.

He was losing his dull brown kid feathers and replacing them with the adult scarlet and black. He was going to be a handsome fellow but my, it was not easy.

His red breast was mottled with juvenile brown and on his back several of the molting feathers stood up at odd angles. They were apparently ready to come out but needed one tiny scratch or push.

It was the type of thing which made one wish to help. His wings and tail were quite presentable, bright and pretty.

Oh, his poor head though! Most of the old feathers were gone and the new ones were not all in yet thus there were large patches of black skin showing.

His head was truly a weird sight. The crest which is usually a cardinal's pride and glory was a skinny pitiful thing consisting of two feathers. But he could raise and lower them — he acted proud as punch of this accomplishment.

Actually the black skin on his head reminded us of the bald-headed male cardinal of several years ago. Could this possibly have been a descendent of his? His head was absolutely featherless and this Labor Day's bird did have some feathers so at least there has been some improvement.

The two skinny feathers of his topknot looked strange when standing up straight but they were even stranger when laid flat. They were crooked — they sagged slightly to one side instead of going straight back.

A quick little incident still has us wondering. The molting male was happily chomping sunflower seeds when a pretty female lit on the far edge of one food tray. She was an adult, her bill was bright red. Suddenly the male hopped over to her.

It looked for all the world as though he fed her; however, she could have given him a seed. But what was going on and why? Feeding is a mating and family rearing thing.

Papa C feeds his lady love in the spring and summer, he will also feed her on the nest and, of course, he feeds the kids after they leave home.

This is no time for cardinal courting, he was far younger than she and besides, he was not old enough to have a family anyway.

The female could have taken care of her last brood as they went out into the wide wide world but those family ties should have been broken. He was too old to still be clinging to the apron strings.

Brother Dies

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daehne were called to Phillips, Wisc., Saturday for the death of his brother, Edward Daehne.

John Collins Is Speaker

John Collins, president of the Michigan Historical Society - also known as "Mr. Marshall" - will be the guest speaker at the Sept. 20 dinner meeting of the Tecumseh Area Historical Society beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church.

Collins, a dynamic speaker and enthusiam builder, will present a slide presentation on the historic homes of Marshall, Mich.

Reservations for dinner are necessary. Contact Harvey Schmidt, 423-5914; Theresa Powers, 423-4148; Pat Beardslee, 423-7766; or Betty Kline, 423-4226, by Sept. 17.

During the business meeting, members will discuss how to spend almost $4,000 in proceeds from the Promenade the Past historic home tour.

One suggestion was to duplicate the nearly 3,000 ft. of historic Tecumseh films donated by the late Jim Beardsley.

The films are hailed by state historians as very unique since they show the daily activity of many townspeople doing everything from voting to parading. Estimated cost to duplicate them is $830. Other suggestions for historical society projects are welcome.

The historical society announced the library has a pamphlet on energy conservation for older homes.

If you are a person knowledgeable about local history or have a historical collection, the historical society is interested in tapping your knowledge to organize a visiting lecture series for local school children. Contact Theresa Powers, 423-4148 with the information.

CF Campaign Set To Begin

The 1979 Cystic Fibrosis campaign will be conducted in Tecumseh during the month of September, said coordinator Deborah Higgins, 5356 Osburn Dr.

Volunteers will canvass the neighborhoods for donations Friday, Sept. 21 from 4-8 p.m. and Saturday, Sept. 22 from 9-4 p.m.

Volunteers are needed and may call Higgins at 423-5662.

Cystic Fibrosis is the number one lung disease in children today, Higgins said. A thick, sticky mucus clogs the lungs and airways of its victims, creating breathing difficulties, high susceptibility to infection and lung damage.

Cystic Fibrosis happens once in every 1,500 births, when both parents have the recessive gene which can cause CF. In each pregancy, a child born to parents with CF gene will have a one-in-four chance of having the disease.

Cal Golden Is Caller

Cal Golden from Little Rock, Ark., the national caller "with the golden voice and the golden sequin shirt" will call for the pleasure of western square dancers Sept. 15 at the Tecumseh Community Center.

Dave and Shirley Fleck, round dance instructors from Toledo, Ohio, will cue the rounds beginning at 7:30 p.m. and square dancing will begin at 8 p.m.

All western square dancers are invited to come.

Chamber Pledges $100

Tecumseh Area Chamber of Commerce pledged $100 in support of the newly revived Junior Achievement program in Lenawee County. Pledge was made at the Sept. 6 chamber meeting.

Mike Marshall, representative of the Lenawee County Chamber of Commerce, explained the importance of the Junior Achievement to the local business community. The Lenawee Chamber is acting as a liaison in reviving JA in Lenawee County.

Purpose of JA is to teach young people how the free enterprise system operates. This is done through the formation of Junior Achievement companies composed of 15-30 students. They operate their company just as any business would.

Students are able to sell a limited amount of stock in their company for seed money. They then plan, produce, market and sell their product and are obligated to pay back stockholders plus dividend if the operation is profitable.

Two JA companies are planned to operate in Tecumseh. Four others will operate in the Adrian area. Student participation in Tecumseh is expected to begin Oct. 10. Students will be introduced to the program through their local high schools.

The students will not be charged a membership fee.

Meetings will be held 25 weeks, two hours a week, using school facilities at present.

Tecumseh Products and Fisher Body of Tecumseh are two area business that are sponsoring JA companies by providing adult advisors. These adult business people are currently undergoing advisor training.

Marshall said that this committment of time is an important one that in some cases is more difficult to make than money. He said that JA ceased operation in the county 12 years ago "not because the student interest declined, but because business interest waned."

Professional management of Junior Achievement program based in Jackson will be used to launch the Lenawee program.

Other Tecumseh area businessmen are involved in the board of directors for Lenawee Junior Achievement. They include Robert Bell, president of Faraday; Harry Hans of Tecumseh Products and Merlyn Downing of United Savings Bank. Other business leaders are being sought to complete vacancies on the board.

Tecumseh JV's Defeat Chelsea

The Tecumseh JV's defeated the Chelsea Bulldogs last Thursday, 34-12.

The Indian's scoring machine didn't get on track until early in the third quarter when Tim Parros scored on a flash around the left end. Parros ran his first of two extra point runs to make the score 8 to 6.

Mike Weaton scored the Indian's next scores on runs of 20 and seven yards. Paul Crause scored the Indian's last offensive score of the game when he scampered 80 yards around right end on the last play of the game.

The Indian's defense scored on touchdown pass and returned it 40 yards for the score.

Leading tacklers for the Little Indians were Randy Baxter with 11, Rex Robinson with nine and Stuart Williamson with eight. Offensive standouts were Mike Francisco, Jeff Butler, John Kitson, and Jeff Corley, who passed for over 90 yards.

JV's next game is Thursday at 7 p.m. at Flat Rock.

Hunter Safety Course

Tecumseh Rifle and Pistol Club will sponsor Hunter Safety Course, beginning Monday, Sept. 17 at the Tecumseh Community Center at 5:30 p.m.

Six weeks course will be conducted by Don Withrow, for children 12 years old and over.

In order to obtain a hunting license, youths must have completed a hunter safety course.

TECUMSEH'S CROSS COUNTRY RUNNERS START OFF AGAINST CHRISTI AND CHELSEA.

THS Team Returns Three Runners

Tecumseh's cross country squad opened their season this week with three returning lettermen, but without the services of their strong one-two finishers they have had in the past.

Jesse Castorena and Brian Banda both graduated from the team and each have been very dominate first place finishers for the squad.

The Indians do have bright prospects in their returning runners with D.J. Biscupski, Scott Betzoldt, and Ben Binder returning to the team. The three of them usually finished in the third, fourth, and fifth spots for the Indians last year.

The THS thinclads have even already found a couple surprises in Tim Day and Nick Osburn. Day, a junior, and Osburn, a sophomore, figure highly in new coach Roger Young's squad.

Other runners for the team include Fred German, Kirk Jubenville, Dale Bohannon, Rick Smoke and Steve Dangler.

Overall, coach Young puts Airport as the league team to beat. He plans on having the league come down to Tecumseh and Airport if all goes according to plans.

The Tecumseh boys' squad have the talent and depth. They won't be blowing anybody away without the Banda-Castorena punch, but they will be contenders for the league championship.

On the girls' squad, Young has three very good runners in seniors Anne Smoke and Karen Egli and junior Leslie Oliver.

The three will prove to be the nucleus of the squad as Smoke was nearly a constant first place finisher for THS last year while Egli and Oliver were finishing two and three.

Now coach Young must fill the ranks with relatively new runners. They are Lillian Eby, Julie Zettle, Mary Smoke, Jill and Jodie Schmidt and Nancy Comfort.

Mary Smoke is the only upper classman, a junior, of the six Young must fill his nucleus with. Smoke will undoubtedly help the squad along a lot.

The league title for the girls depends on the girls' ability to fill in behind THS's three strong returning runners, an ability only time will tell.

The girls ran at Napoleon Tuesday and lost 24-31. The local squad had some trouble with runners getting lost, but still finished in the first and third places.

Karen Egli was first and Anne Smoke finished third.

The boys ran late last week against Saline and lost 31-24 and then beat Clinton in the same meet 35-20.

They then ran against Lumen Christi and Chelsea Tuesday in a double, dual meet. They lost to dominate Christi 18-37 and beat Chelsea 17-38.

Christi, who figures to be especially strong all year, took the first, second, fourth, fifth and sixth places. Scott Betzoldt, running his best time of the year, finished third with a strong 15:40 race.

Against Chelsea, Betzoldt's time put him first. Tim Day was second at 16:30. Ben Binder was third at 16:32. Nick Osburn was fifth at 16:41 and D.J. Biscupski was sixth at 16:52.

Golfers Surprise Christi, 162-166

Tecumseh's golf team opened against a tough Bedford four Monday and came up on the short end of a 173-163 Bedford victory.

Ron Smith finished in the number one spot for the Indians with a 39. Mike Zettel was second with a 43, Scott McDonald shot a 45, and Dan Hall finished fourth with a 46.

Greg Scheuerman and Andy Eidson also played for the Indian squad Monday, but their scores did not count in the total 173 strokes.

The JV squad played a practice round during the match. Mark Walters was low for the JV's with a 40, Tim Smith carded a 42, Tom Phelan a 43, Andy Heglin a 46, Steve Behnke a 49 and Derek Nahabedian a 56.

Then the THS golfers meet state Class B champions, Lumen Christi, Tuesday on Christi's home court and the local golfers left with a 162-166 victory.

According to coach Paul Cunningham, the Christi squad just wasn't expecting any trouble from Tecumseh, but Tecumseh went ready to play golf.

Smith and McDonald finished with 40's for THS. Scheuerman and Zettle each posted 41's on the long, par 37 course.

Overall, the local team is beginning the 1979 season with four varsity players returning from last year's squad.

Smith, a Junior, played in the number one or two spot last year and traded positions with John Faulkner, a player that will be missed this year after graduation. Smith is a somewhat inconsistent player for the Indians, but he is definitely their best player and he has the potential to be one of the star players in THS golf history.

Zettle is also returning and he's the lone starting senior on the squad. Zettle is a small player on the team, but he scores well and is an exceptionally good player around the green.

McDonald and Scheuerman are the other two returning starters from last year's squad. The sophomores think alike and play alike. Both will be valuable assets to the 1979 squad.

Four others in the squad are already looking good to play varsity golf. They are Walters, Eidson, Hall and Behnke. But they could easily be joined by others on the team.

The squad also has two standouts in the freshmen coming in this year. They are Heglin and Hyatt. Their names will be well heard in the future.

And the best part of the whole 1979 Indian golf squad is their potential. They could well be on their way to a sixth straight Huron League championship.

The local team was 9-2 last year and with four returning starters and good depth just waiting for a starting position, the 1979 team is probably even better than last year's team.

BEAT CHELSEA — THS quarterback Tim Todd, number 22, stops for just a second for his handoff while the Indian offense is flying into motion. Todd and the Tecumseh team had a good night Friday, beating Chelsea 31-20.

PHOTOS BY JOHN SEAY

Indians Beat Chelsea, 31-20

A well balanced offense, gaining 139 yards on the ground and 190 yards in the air, lifted Tecumseh's Indians to a 31-20 victory over Chelsea in their non-league season opener Friday night.

According to head coach Pat Connors, quarterback Tim Todd threw the ball very well, completing 13 of 23 attempts. Receivers caught the ball well and the line protected the quarterback in fine fashion to allow the passing attack.

The ground attack rounded out the offense, making holes for the passing game while the passing game made holes in the Chelsea defense for the backs.

Kevin Salters led the balanced ground attack with 47 yards while Steve Palmer led the balance receiving with 46 receptions from his flaker position.

Defensively, the team was weaker than coach Connors would have liked. They were not aggressive enough, and if the Indians are going to give Flat Rock a game this Friday, they have got to be aggressive. Connors promises to be working on defense all week in preparation for Flat Rock, who promises to be a state contender.

The Indians led Friday 13-0 after the first quarter. Dave Duhan opened the scoring on a 70 yard interception return from Chelsea. Scott Hans then grabbed a Todd 20-yard pass to finish the first frame scoring.

In the second quarter Todd again connected, this time with tight end Scott Gilpin on a 21-yard scoring pass. Chelsea came back, however, and tightened the game to 19-14. Chelsea's Dunn and flanker Jeff Dills combined for a pair of scores for seven and 30 yards.

Chelsea again scored in the third frame. They took the lead for the first and only time at 20-19, but Tecumseh's Indians came back with two fourth frame scores for the victory.

The first fourth frame score came from Andy Geshwiler on a one yard run and the second score came when Todd found Palmer on an eight-yard pass. Both extra kicks failed for the final 31-20 tally.

Statistically, Tecumseh actually had one less first down than Chelsea with 10 to their host team's 11. Chelsea had one less yard rushing, 138, and they had 149 yards in the air. Chelsea's eight for 19 passing attempts allowed them 149 yards and accounted for two turnovers on interceptions.

Ember's Wins Tourney

Dundee and Ember's locked into a see-saw battle in the Tecumseh Recreation Dept. City League Softball Tournament championship game on Tuesday night.

Ember's jumped off to a two run lead in the first inning but Dundee countered with a run in their half of the first. Dundee scored three times in the second to take a 4-2 lead.

Ember's rallied to tie the game at four runs apiece in the third but Dundee came right back with 2 runs in the fourth. Ember's took the lead in the fifth inning when they scored three times, but Dundee tied it up at seven runs apiece in their half of the fifth.

Ember's took advantage of a couple of errors and rallied for seven runs in the sixth inning and held on to claim a 14-10 victory over previously undefeated Dundee Products. The victory was the third straight City League championship for Ember's.

Nykodym and Schlegel had three hits in four times at bat to pace Ember's 13 hit attack. Mulready had the hot bat for Dundee as he pounded out four hits in four trips.

Eddy Shorts 39 for CHS

Clinton opened its golf season last Wednesday in a quadrangular meet with Summerfield, Willor Run and Ida.

Ida took top honors, scoring 171 while Summerfield followed three strokes back. Clinton finished at 178 and Willow Run's squad carded a 226.

Blake Clark led the Redskins with a 40. Steve Porterfield followed with a 44, Tom Eddy and Rick Peterson with 47's.

Clinton lost its first match of the season Monday when they met Manchester for their opening match of the season.

CHS lost by just three strokes, 174-177. Tom Eddy was hot for the Redskins, shooting a very respectible 39. He was low for the day.

Steve Porterfield carded a 40 to help but Clinton had trouble finishing two other places with teammates carding a 47 and 51.

BHS Wins Big

Britton opened against Northwood Friday night and was not the perfect visitor as the Tories dominated the game with their offense and tallied up 315 yards on the ground for a 22-0 victory in their season opener.

Jim Slatick carried the ball 24 times for the Tories for 124 yards. David Bruce and John Montalvo each carried for 71 yards. Quarterback Chris Kimerer ran a total 48 yards.

The game was not all bright lights for just the Tory offense. A lot of credit has to go to the defense. They held Northwood to just four first downs and allowed them only 35 offensive plays to Britton's 63.

Britton's first touchdown came in the first quarter when Slatick crossed the line after a 68 yard drive. The 10-play drive made the score 6-0 after Britton was unable to cross the line for additional points after.

Britton quarterback Chris Kimerer ran 43 yards for the Tories' second score in the second quarter. Montalvo's run was converted for two extra points to put the score at 14-0.

Montalvo then drove over the one yard line and goal for the final score of the game to finish out a 55 yard drive in the third quarter. Slatick's extra point run as successful to set the final score at 22-0.

Defensively Montalvo and Bruce led the team with seven tackles each from their linebacker positions. Brad Rowe added six

Nighswander First, . . . but

Clinton's Cross Country Team opened its season by losing both ends of a double dual meet to Saline and Tecumseh. The meet was run Thursday afternoon at Saline.

The Redskins lost to Saline 20-41. Saline's runners finshed 1-2-3.

Tom Nighswander finished fourth to lead Clinton. His time was 17:01 as Tom finished ahead of all the Tecumseh runners. Finishing next for Clinton was Matt McNeil, then Mark Arquette. Jack Thompson, Mark Rochowaik, Steve McKay and Don Krauss.

The Clinton squad then traveled to Vandercook Lake Tuesday and lost 24-34.

Nighswander finished first overall with a 17:20 timing and McNeil finished third at 18:23. Arquette was eighth, Rochowaik 10th and Thompson 14th.

Bowers, Muskett Finish in 1st

Women golfers played in the Labor Day Classic at Tecumseh Country Club Sept. 2 and 3. The event was a best ball twosome. Winning the event were the following teams:

Mary Bowers and Kay Muskett, 1st; Irene Feldman and Marty Owen, 2nd; Annabelle Bock and Maurine Hannibal, 3rd.

On Sept. 5, Joyce Manwaring and Nickie Snook were in charge of the three club tournament. Ruth Hanna and Nickie Snook tied for 1st low net; Gloria Schwartz had 3rd low net; Carol Davis, 1st low putts, Mary Hanna had chip-ins.

Linda Waltz Is In Charge

CLINTON — Linda Waltz will be in charge of the Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleaders of Clinton High School this year.

First project is a bake sale, Saturday, Sept. 15 from 9 to 11 a.m. at the State Savings Bank.

They will also sell Redskin jerseys and T-shirts, starting Monday.

For the forthcoming Parents Night game, the cheerleaders will have a "Do You Remember When?" feature.

They will perform some of the cheers from the '50's and '60's and would like some of the former cheerleaders or fans to call in their favorite cheers to Mrs. Waltz, 456-4775, so they can be used on Parents Night.

LOSES BALL — The Indians lost this ball against Chelsea but recovered the fumble. The local team fumbled twice, but recovered both while Chelsea lost three of its four fumbles.

Auto-Owners has 2 car insurance rates for young marrieds:

Better. And better.

If you're a young married couple, chances are Auto-Owners can save you money on car insurance.

Because, unlike some other companies, Auto-Owners doesn't make you wait until you're 25 years old to get good rates. You can get Auto-Owners preferred married rate on car insurance at 23. And that can save you money.

Plus, if you're married and under 23, Auto-Owners also has a reduced rate for you.

Check out our lower rates and you'll probably discover that you and Auto-Owners should get together. And that could turn out to be the perfect marriage.

Most rustproofers won't touch used cars.

We rustproof them twice.

Tuff-Kote's exclusive 2-Step System.

At Tuff-Kote, we think we rustproof used cars better than anyone else in the world. That's because we rustproof every used car twice with our exclusive 2-Step System.

Step 1. Penetrant.

Tuff-Kote's unique penetrant creeps down to the bare metal to help stop existing rust. And that's important. Especially in used cars where rust has been forming for some time.

Step 2. Sealant.

Second, Tuff-Kote applies a special sealant. It locks out salt, moisture and corrosive elements to keep new rust from starting.

Used car warranty.

Tuff-Kote's 2-Step System is so effective at fighting rust, we guarantee our work on most used cars with a 2-year, limited warranty. See your dealer for complete details.

Clinton Loses Opener, 6-0

Erie Mason massed 311 yards on the ground Friday and held Clinton's Redskins to a meager 82 yards as Mason defeated the CHS squad 6-0.

The only score of the evening came by Mason's hands in the second frame when Joe LaPointe ran 52 yards to the Redskin one yard line. LaPointe then took the ball in the rest of the way for the score.

Clinton did get as close as the 14 yard line, but then the CHS team turned the ball over on downs. Any drive that was started was extinguished by costly penalties.

Defensively Clinton played well, stopping Mason from overly dominating the scoring despite 311 yards on the ground. Late in the game, Clinton even stopped Mason on the Clinton nine yard line to prevent a score.

Bobby Zimmerman and Chris Douglas led the defense for the Redskins with 16 and 10 tackles respectively. Chuck Kilgore intercepted one of Mason's five passes.

Statistically, Eric had 19 first downs to Clinton's five. They were zero for five in the air and Clinton was two for seven for 10 yards. Each had one pass intercepted.

Roy Willnow Is Honored

Roy Willnow was honored with a surprise birthday party Sunday afternoon, held at the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church from 2 to 5 p.m. The event was planned by Mrs. Willnow and their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Crockett.

The buffet luncheon was served from a table centered with a birthday cake decorated with red roses. Guests were seated at individual tables with floral arrangements of red roses.

One hundred twenty-five guests were present from Toledo, Adrian, Fayette, Morenci, Plymouth, Onsted, Tipton, Tecumseh and Florida.

Mr. Willnow received a money tree, other gifts, cards and flowers.

Assisting the hosts, were Vera Driffill, guest book; Dorothy Baker, punch bowl; Pauline Solarski, serving the cake and Ruth Bunge and Geisel Gero in charge of the food arrangements.

You Told Us

A total of $27.75 profit was turned over to the Tecumseh headquarters at Erb Chevrolet.

They thanked George's Market, Tecumseh Office Supply, the A & P Store and Ken Ray Drugs for their prize donations. The remaining prizes were turned over to the Tecumseh Girl Scout Community.

Donald and Vicki (nee Felton) Occhi are the parents of a daughter, Leigh Marine Occhi. She was born Aug. 21 and weighed 8 lbs. 15½ oz.

Her parents are currently stationed at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii. Grandparents are James and Marilyn Melton of Tupelo, Miss.

Their grandchild is born, their grandchild is born. Pink if it's a girl and blue if it's a boy. Let the cry go out throughout the land, the Pat Connorses have their first grandchild.

Lois Tilton of Tecumseh couldn't wait to tell the news when she heard. She hiked over to Tecumseh High School north field and hoisted a blue flag on a ruler to let the Tecumseh football coach know it was a boy. She also brought Pat a congratulatory cigar.

"Can't smoke it now," the players scolded their coach, who was about to break the cardinal rule of training.

"I'm a grandfather," Connors proclaimed and proceeded to enjoy his smoke.

Grandmother Sharon Connors reacted rather calmly to grandmotherhood. "I don't feel any different," she commented.

Grandson Michael Patrick was born Sept. 4, weighing 8 lbs. 5 oz. His parents are Mike and Linda Connors of Holt, Fla. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leon Johnson, also of Holt, Fla.

Pvt. Michael S. Garland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Garland, 3755 Black Hwy., recently completed One Station Unit Training (OSUT) at Fort Bennington, Ga.

OSUT is a 12-week period which combines basic combat training and advanced individual training.

This qualifies the soldier as a light weapons infantryman and as an indirect fire crewman.

Soldiers were taught to perform any of the duties in a rifle or mortar squad.

Navy Seaman Recruit Michael J. Declercq, son of Gearld and Nancy Declerc of 214 W. Patterson, has completed recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

A 1979 Tecumseh graduate, he joined the Navy in June 1979.

Mrs. Evely Crawford, 702 Wenonah, recently returned from a 14-day tour of Alaska sponsored by "Successful Farming" magazine.

The trip included a motorcoach tour of the interior from Anchorage to Whitehorse via Mt. McKinley National Park and Fairbanks; a narrow-gauge train ride along the storied gold rush route to Skagway; and a scenic cruise through Alaska's Inside Passage with stops in Juneau, Glacier Bay and Sitka.

They also inspected farms in the Matanuska Valley near Anchorage and in the Fairbanks area.

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Bailey from Mesa, Ariz., Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Weber from Frankenmuth, Mr. and Mrs. James Nichols from Addison, Joel Bailey from Ann Arbor.

They attended the Sept. 1 funeral of their grandmother, Mrs. Ethel L. Graham of Adrian.

The Weber children arrived Saturday and the Nichols children also attended.

Orin Murphy remains a surgical patient at the University Medical Center in Ann Arbor. He is in 6 West, main building, bed 54 and would appreciate cards.

A daughter, Joy Kathleen, was born Aug. 28 at Camp Pendleton, Calif. to Marine Cpl. and Mrs. Douglas D. Gilpin, nee Diane Laslo. The baby weighed 6 lbs. 11 oz.

She is the first child for the couple and she is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Max Gilpin of 423 N. Evans St. Joy's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Laslo of 408 W. Kilbuck St.

Jennifer Is 1000th Student

When Jennifer Fielder came out to train for her first jump Sept. 3, she was in for quite a surprise.

She was the 1,000th student to be trained for 1979. This is the fourth year in a row that Parachuting Service, Inc. has trained over 1,000 students.

Jennifer became interested in skydiving while the teams were here training for the world meet.

A friend, Sheila Anderson, came along with her and both made two jumps before they went off to college on Labor Day.

Intensify Chamber Promotion

John Damelio, ticket sale chairman, announced that promotion for the chamber's Oct. 31 drawing will intensify during the next weeks.

Tickets are sold by chamber members and will be sold at Tecumseh home football games, and the Clinton Fall Festival Sept. 28, 29 and 30.

More sales people and organizations are needed to sell the tickets. Contact Damelio at the August Co. 423-4331.

Honor Amos

Approximately 100 members of Tecumseh Friends Church gathered after evening service Sunday to honor Amos Wilson for his 80th birthday.

Mr. Wilson and some of those present shared memories of his career as mail carrier for 49 years in the Tecumseh-Clinton area.

A mailbox centerpiece was used to hold birthday cards he received.

Special guests included the Wilson's niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Coffin of Oregon.

Mr. Wilson was born here Sept. 8, 1899 and has lived in this area all his life. He worked as a dairy farmer, also. He and his wife, Delia, spend their winters in Florida but are active in the Friends Church and Clinton Historical Society when home.

They are the parents of four children, Mrs. Annabelle Sell of Hillsdale, Arnold of Clinton, Lynn Wilson of Tucson, Ariz., and Paul Wilson of Houston, Texas. They also have 11 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

'Come Alive'

Public is invited to "COME ALIVE" with Stan Scott and Ian Crawshaw, Sept. 19 through 23 at the Tecumseh Evangelical Friends Church.

The services will begin nightly at 7:30 p.m. except for Sunday when the service will begin at 7 p.m.

Stan Scott was a TV newscaster in Steubenville, Ohio, and an avowed atheist until his conversion to Christ in 1971. Now he can be seen on his weekly television program "Spiritual Awakening" via the Christian Broadcasting network Satellite.

Along with Stan will be Ian Crawshaw, outstanding baritone soloist from Fremont, Ohio. Ian Crawshaw was born in New Zealand and worked with Youth for Christ in that country before becoming an associate of Ambassadors for Christ International in 1966.

His training included three years of operatic training with the New Zealand Opera company. He will lead the congregational singing and will bring several special numbers each night. He will present a special concert Sept. 19, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

City Objects To Society's Hike in Rates

Tecumseh City Council protested Monday night the increased charges, effective Sept. 1, for each animal received from Tecumseh at the Lenawee Humane Society animal shelter.

Increase in charge per animal amounts to over 50 percent, from the present charge of $10 per animal to $15.50 each.

Under the Humane Society's plan, the city would be assessed $15.50 not only for each animal brought in by the city's animal control officer, but also for each animal brought by an individual from Tecumseh who finds a stray dog or gives up a family pet.

This method of assessment could raise the city's assessments at the Humane Society shelter from the present $700 a year to an estimated $5,300 annually.

City Council took no action on the notice of charges, but the concensus was that the city will not pay the new assessment.

City manager Cal Zorn called the method of charging "unjust" because the cities with dog ordinance officers—Tecumseh, Clinton and Adrian—are singled out to pay for animals received from their cities while the animals brought from other communities will be charged to the county.

City manager Zorn said that the Tecumseh animal control officer delivers about 70 animals a year to the Humane Society shelter, for a cost of about $700 annually.

Under the new charge method, the Humane Society projected Tecumseh's animal intake for fiscal year July 1, 1979 to June 30, 1980 at 343 animals, projected from the animal intake from the first seven months of 1979.

At $15.50 per animal, the total assessment for the current fiscal year would cost the city an estimated $5,317.

Humane Society budget report states that 200 animals were received from Tecumseh during the first seven months of 1979; 42 strays were brought in by the animal control officer; 15 strays from individuals and 143 animals given up from homes.

OPEN AT LAST — For a project scheduled for completion about one year ago, city officials can only sigh that is now completed. A half mile stretch of Russell Rd. was finally opened to traffic Saturday, connecting it with Rogers Hwy. and to the city's industrial area in the south section of town. Kent Downing photographed the new section with the sun peeping through in the background.

Commission Asked To Review New Plan

Plans for a meeting with representatives of EMT Ambulance, the city of Tecumseh and the county were aborted for the time being this week and no meeting date is scheduled as of Wednesday morning.

Mayor Aden Mead of Tecumseh said that there appeared "no" need for a meeting," since positions had not changed.

Mead was trying to organize a meeting since last week.

Also last week, EMT attorney Richard Roble threatened that EMT would sue the city for payment for Tecumseh based service from April to August under a contract with the city. He estimated amount at $2,900.

Mead commented, "When and if a bill is presented, there's no doubt that council will approve payment of the bill."

Mead added that as yet there has been no invoice received from EMT asking for payment.

City Manager Cal Zorn said he received "nothing in writing" from EMT requesting payment, "except for the contract itself."

About the bill, EMT attorney Richard Roble said, "I'm not sure how we've been handling it, but I'm sure that a bill was sent. There's still the contract."

EMT continues to serve Tecumseh area residents from Palmyra and Adrian. But it withdrew its Tecumseh based ambulance Aug. 31 saying that it could not afford to operate a Tecumseh station without a Tecumseh subsidy.

After an initial payment on a monthly basis for the first third of the year, amounting to $2,373, the city stopped paying the $1 per capita subsidy to EMT when the

Airport Sold to Ypsi Man

Mrs. Allen H. Meyers of Tecumseh, and Kenneth Leighton, businessman with offices in Ypsilanti, recently announced that the Al Meyers Airport will continue to operate and retain its well known name under the guidance of Mr. Leighton.

All present services and people operating on the field were previously advised of this change in ownership by Mrs. Meyers, President of the Al Meyers Airport Corporation which will remain in business.

A statement from both parties explained:

"A primary consideration of the sale was that the airport, its supportive services in the buildings, airplane hangars, and tie-downs on the field, will function as usual. There will be an on-going program for improved maintenance such as grass cutting, snow removal and building upkeep."

Mr. Leighton stated, "I feel that the aviation field is an exciting challenge and I hope to make a contribution to it at the Al Meyers Airport."

Mr. Leighton also owns the property adjacent to the airport on Tecumseh-Clinton Road that is leased by the University of Michigan Health Study.

He is inviting light industries, as well as air allied services, to settle around the airport which would be the heart of the operation.

At present, the following businesses are operating in the buildings on the airport: Jim Bishop Avionics; Parachuting Services, Inc., owned by Harold Lange; and LaLonde Studio of Design, painting airplanes and road vehicles.

In another hangar are National Aircraft Services and School of Aviation under the direction of Wesley Plattner and Wendall Carr, and Tecumseh Aircraft, owned by Pard Diver who specializes in repairing Meyers aircraft and restoring antique airplanes. On the north side of the field is Libra Electrical Manufacturing.

The airport was founded in September 1939, by Al Meyers, aviation pioneer. It began as the home for the manufacturer of the Meyers line of airplanes and the necessary fly-off point for flight testing and airplane delivery.

The three models produced here from 1939 to 1966 were the OTW, open biplane; the Meyers 145, all metal, low wing, two-place modern-type airplane; and the world famous Meyers 200, a four-place, executive model which can cruise at 200 mph.

Drive for $94,745 Starts Next Week

Kick-off brunch for the 20th Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation drive will be held next Tuesday, when officials will meet to finalize plans to raise $94,745 - largest goal yet for the community and area.

Last year's goal was $89,900 and was practically met , just a few hundred dollars short. The year before, the Foundation raised over $95,000.

Roger Proctor, assisted by Harvey Schmidt, is chairperson and has adopted a drive slogan of "The Three C's for Tecumseh: Concern - Cooperation - Commitment."

Division goals are:

Industrial	$53,000.00
Special Gifts	16,745.00
Commercial	12,500.00
Schools	5,000.00
Professional	3,500.00
Residential	2,350.00
Public Employees	1,650.00

$6.6 Million Budget OK'd by Schools

A record budget, one approximately 10 percent higher than a year ago, was adopted by the School Board Monday evening.

Budget approved for the 1979-80 fiscal year amounts to $6,633,330, compared to the past budget of $6,019,085.

Gene Cooley, assistant superintendent, blames the bigger budget on inflation that has affected all school costs.

In the budget, instruction costs amount to $4,690,360. This includes elementary, junior high, high school, special education, driver education and adult education. Second major expense is $1,197,012 for maintenance and operation.

All salaries and related employee fringe benefits amount to approximately 77% of the total budget.

If expenditures do not exceed those planned, a contingency fund in available excess revenue of $198,698 is expected. This amounts to about three percent of the $6.3 million budget.

Cooley says the budget was based on 100% collection of taxes and the expected amount of funds from state aid, which could be cut, depending on the state's economy.

Estimated revenue includes $3,337,516 locally and $2,229,355 from state aid. Other income is derived from the government for transportation, special education, debt service, vocational education, and court placed students.

Monies are also obtained through interest and penalties, trailers, rent, penal fines, fees (library), special gifts, investments and other miscellaneous sources.

Claims False Arrest Against Local Police

A Tecumseh police officer and former police officer, who left the force for personal reasons, were named as defendants in a suit filed by an Onsted man claiming false arrest.

Officer William G. Meni and former officer Jerry Anderson were named in a suit filed in Federal District Court in Detroit by Thomas H. Allor of Onsted.

Allor claims false arrest and is asking compensatory and punitive damages totaling $35,000.

The Onsted man claims that he was arrested because he tried to pay for a gasoline purchase. The incident occurred September, 1978, about a year ago, when Allor reportedly attempted to pay for the gas with a hundred dollar bill.

Anderson left the Tecumseh police department Aug. 24 this year for reasons unrelated to the lawsuit, said Police Chief Merlin Mowery.

Mowery had no comment on the lawsuit but said that Allor was arrested and charged under a larceny statute for failure to pay $9.68 for gas at a local gas station.

Mowery said charges were dropped the next day, because Allor paid what was owed for the gas.

No date has been set for trial in the Detroit court. Attorneys for both sides are still involved in fact-finding.

Enrollment Is Down to 3,580

An unofficial enrollment count taken by the Tecumseh schools shows a drop here of 27 students from last year's official enrollment.

The decrease is largely due to a new state law which requires orthopedic, deaf and multiple handicapped students be counted in the Intermediate School District, although the students may be in the local district. ISD completely funds these special education programs for the handicapped.

Present school enrollment is 3,580, compared to 3,607 for last year.

Five Candidates For Council Race

Five candidates will vie for three council seats in the Nov. 6 Tecumseh city election.

Six originally completed and submitted petitions by Monday's 5 p.m. deadline. But candidate Thomas M. Ball withdrew his candidacy Wednesday morning, said City Clerk Vera Gardner.

Candidates are Harold E. Easton, incumbent; Richard A. Montcalm, William C. Frownfelder, Sandra S. Casper and Michelle Ann Worley.

Petitions for candidacy were taken out by James B. Manley and Edward G. Webber, but not completed by the Sept. 17, 5 p.m. deadline.

Progress Is Little in EMT Service

Tecumseh City Council accepted the recommendation of the Planning Commission on the question of rezoning 30 acres of property, commonly known as the Fuller Property, and directed the commission to review a revised site plan for the rezoning request.

Council did not act on the question of whether or not to rezone the 30 acres, north of West Chicago Blvd., and south of Seminole Street, from single family to multiple dwelling.

This decision came after a painstaking—at times confusing—discussion that amounted to a public hearing with views shared among Council, developer Ed Day, Planning Commission chairman and Seminole Street residents.

Council acted Monday with a quorum of four members. Councilmembers Harold E. Easton and James H. Palmer were excused for out of town absences. Councilmember Leonard DeMoss resigned two weeks ago, since he moved from the city.

The involved discussion Monday night was about the request of developer Ed Day for the rezoning of the 30 acres from single family to multiple family. His ultimate plans for the site include construction of a senior citizen complex and a multiple family development.

After an earlier public hearing, at which several Seminole Street residents objected to the proposed zoning change, Planning Commission recommended in July,

Veteran Jumper Dies After Chute Fails

by Kathy Brown

A Detroit man — a veteran of about 700 career parachuting jumps — died early Sunday morning, Sept. 16, as a result of internal injuries suffered in a fall after his reserve parachute "streamered" and did not open. He was attempting an air stunt at Al Meyers Airport in Tecumseh.

Greg Perlinski, 27, of Detroit, died at University Hospital, Ann Arbor at 2:30 a.m. Sunday during emergency surgery. The accident occurred at about 7:30 p.m. Saturday night.

He worked as a senior rigger and jumpmaster weekends for the past four years at Parachuting Services Inc. in Tecumseh.

Volunteers Sought for 'Civic' Board

Volunteers to staff the Tecumseh Civic Center board of trustees can start to form a line.

Monday night Tecumseh City Council adopted an ordinance establishing the board of trustees to manage Tecumseh's civic facility, to be built on North Maumee across from Tecumseh High School.

The board will consist of seven members. All must be residents of the city. They will be appointed by the Tecumseh City Council for three year terms.

Renew Agreement

James Rundell will continue farming approximately 120 acres of School Board land at the intersection of Rogers and M-50.

The Tecumseh School Board extended the agreement with Rundell on a yearly basis Monday night.

Rent is $45 per tillable acre.

Membership will be named by council with one member each from Tecumseh City Council, Tecumseh School Board, Tecumseh Players theater group and four members from the city at large.

Initially, two members will be appointed for one year terms and two for two year terms so that the terms do not expire in the same year, assuring continuity.

Members may be reappointed to serve no more than two full terms.

Board will meet once a month, unless otherwise specified by Tecumseh City Council.

City also welcomes volunteers for other boards and commissions including the planning commission, recreation board, board of appeals, etc. Interested persons or those with questions on serving other city boards, may contact Paul Preston, assistant city manager and director of community development, 423-2107.

MR. and MRS. STEVEN PIXLEY

Long-Pixley Wedding in Britton Church

The Grace United Methodist Church in Britton was the setting for the marriage of Cheryl Kay Long and Steven L. Pixley, Sept. 8.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Long of 8875 Billmyer Hwy., and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pixley of Palmyra.

The Rev. Kenneth Reeves officiated the ceremony. He was assisted by Father Joseph Immel of Blissfield.

Mrs. Norman Johnson was organist and Nancy Marvin of Adrian was the soloist.

Selections were "The Wedding Song," "One Hand, One Heart", "The Lord's Prayer", and "The Twelfth of Never."

Candelabra and white bows marked the pews. Arrangements of white gladioli, mums and pink carnations decorated the altar and candelabra.

For her wedding the bride wore a white Qiana gown with lace applique at the Queen Anne neckline, on the bodice, and on the long tapered sleeves which had a sheer insert.

The lace applique also edged the bottom of the gown which flowed into a chapel length train.

She wore her mother's antique diamond and pearl necklace which her mother wore on her wedding day.

Her fingertip length veil of illusion was appliqued with lace and secured to a lace cap.

She carried a crescent arrangement of pink sweetheart roses, pink and white carnations, baby's breath and wine starflowers.

Suzanne Long, the bride's sister of Tecumseh, was maid of honor, wearing a wine colored gown of Qiana knit styled with a blouson effect. She wore a matching cluster of flowers and ribbon stramers in her hair. She carried a cresent bouquet of pink sweetheart roses, pink carnations, and wine starflowers.

Bridesmaids were Cathy Pahl of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Lori Bishop of Britton.

Their dresses and headpieces were a dusty rose and styled like the maid of honor's. They carried bouquets of pink carnations and wine starflowers.

Erin Long of Tecumseh, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl and was attired like the maid of honor. She carried a basket of flowers.

Douglas Trettin of Adrian was the best man. Groomsmen were William Loar of Palmyra and Rex Forsyth of Tecumseh. Ushers were Brian Long of Tecumseh, brother of the bride, and David Pixley of Blissfield, Donald and Kenneth Pixley of Palmyra, brothers of the groom.

The ringbearer was Dwayne Lewis of Palmyra, cousin of the groom. Kara Long of Tecumseh, cousin of the bride, and Rebecca Pixley of Blissfield, niece of the groom, distributed the rice.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bishop of Britton were hosts at the church. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Long and Mr. and Mrs. James Rundell of Tecumseh were hosts at the reception held at Peerless Gear Union Hall.

Sue Frazier of Adrian passed the guest book. Angela Tenney of Petoskey and Rebecca Tenney of Onsted, cousins of the bride, were in charge of the gifts.

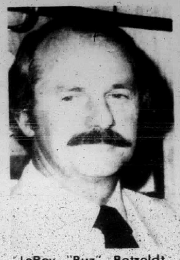
Kathy Pixley of Blissfield, the groom's sister-in-law, and Jill Forsyth of Tecumseh cut and served the wedding cake and the groom's cake.

Others assisting were Kathy Rundell of Holland, Debbie Isenhower of Clayton, and Cathy Bristol of Adrian.

The bride is a 1976 Tecumseh graduate and 1977 graduate of Lansing Business University. She is employed as a bookkeeper at Harneyman's in Adrian. The groom is a 1975 Blissfield graduate and is employed at Derco in Blissfield and self-employed in farming.

They will make their home at 8514 Pennington Rd., following a vacation in Pennsylvania.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted at the Elks in Adrian by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pixley, the groom's parents.



LeRoy "Buz" Betzoldt, employed for the past 17 years in the engineering department at Tecumseh Products, has joined Jack and Joe Hanna at the F.C. Hanna Agency as a licensed resident fire and casualty agent. He successfully passed his state examination on Aug. 16th after completing the Michigan State University fire and casualty school at East Lansing. Mr. Betzoldt is also known for rendering architectural services in construction work.

Seek Addresses

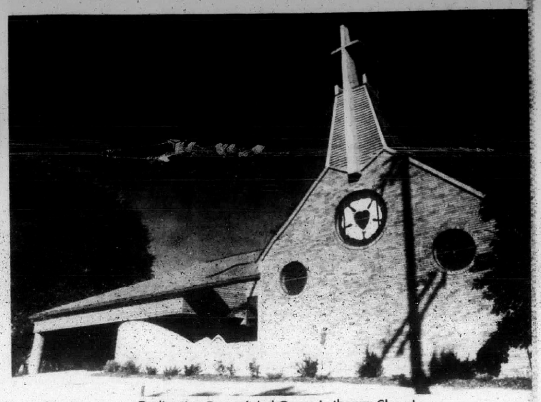
Phone information to Janice Rendel, 423-7715.

The class is planning a reunion for next July.



Dedicating Remodeled Grace Lutheran Church

Church Dedication Sunday

After 15 months of construction the members and friends of Grace Lutheran Church, Maumee and Shawnee Streets, eagerly look ahead to Sunday, Sept. 23 for the dedication of its enlarged and remodeled church facilities.

In the morning services at 9:15 and 10:45 a.m. the congregation's pastor, the Rev. Kenneth W. Strack, will conduct the dedication ceremonies and will preach on the theme, "Except the Lord Build the House."

Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. a former pastor of the congregation, the Rev. Kurt Koeplin of Atonement Lutheran Church, Milwaukee, Wisc., will be the guest preacher in a service of praise.

Following the service will be a fellowship meal for members and guests, arranged under the guidance of the Ladies Aid.

The public is welcome to attend these services.

Oct. 7 from 2 to 5 p.m. the church will have a Community Open House to give an opportunity to its friends in the community to see what has been accomplished in this building project.

The building has been completely renovated with L.D. Betzoldt as the designer and the Wright Bros. Construction company as the general contractors.

An entire new front has been constructed of brick, which not only gives a more attractive appearance to the building but also has a functional value.

This new addition has a covered drive, a ramp for the handicapped, a new pastor's study and a meeting room. The entry of the church has been enlarged for overflow purposes.

Highlighting the entry are 3 large stained glass windows, crafted by Mark's Stained Glass Studios of Tecumseh who have also been commissioned to design leaded glass windows for the church interior, depicting events in the life of Christ.

The sanctuary of the church has been remodeled and redecorated to create a warm worshipful atmosphere. In addition, the basement area has been paneled and folding wood dividers installed for Sunday School and meeting purposes. In another area of the basement, permanent Sunday School rooms have been built.

This project has been a major one for the congregation. With this addition the congregation looks forward to serving the community better.

Tickets Available for Exhibition

Tickets for this season's first wheelchair basketball exhibition game Sept. 22 are available from H.O.P.E. Recreation Center Volunteers and Staff.

Members of the Adrian High School Choir will make advance tickets available, and tickets may also be purchased at the door Saturday evening.

For further information regarding the game, or for interested individuals wishing to volunteer their services to this effort, contact Vivian Hyde at 265-2410.

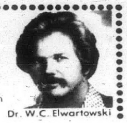
Dear Doctor

News From The Tecumseh Chiropractic Life Center

101 S. Pearl Tecumseh



Dr. W.C. Elwartowski

Dear Doctor,
How does chiropractic treatment help prevent flu symptoms?

Flu, in any of its many forms, is a miserable disease which strikes terror and misery to untold millions as the weather begins to cool each fall.

It's fine to say "rest, soothe the body, cool the fever, warm the chill and help the body build strength." However, it's not very pleasant or satisfying to try to "throw off" the flu once it has taken possession of the body.

Better than all of the cures for the disease, is the prevention of the flu in the first place.

Masses of scientific evidence attest to the fact that a healthy body is the best weapon against all infection.

The rosy glow of health comes from within, from the properly attuned body in which the nervous system transmits its miraculous nerve energy power to all parts of the body, assuring their proper function.

The chiropractor, using a scientifically proven system of gentle adjustments, restores full nerve power to the body to make the body its own best defense against the onslaughts of disease and infection.

For further information on this question, or if you have other related questions, feel free to write Dr. Elwartowski at 101 S. Pearl St., Tecumseh, MI 49286.

Talking It Out

"Is there Help for Parents Whose Child is Terminally Ill"?

The imminent death of a child due to a terminal illness is an agonizing situation for parents. It was out of a similar life-experience that an organization called "Carelighters" was founded.

Lore & Paul Prager founded Carelighters after their youngest son, Kevin, suffered for two years with terminal cancer. The purpose of the organization is to help other parents who have heard the sentence of death pronounced for a child.

Carelighters currently operates out of Ingalls Memorial Hospital in Harvey, Illinois. The parents operate a 24-hour hotline (312-798-1020) for parents to call for any kind of help. They also meet monthly to share feelings and offer each other support.

If you have any such concerns, we invite your inquiry in person or by phone.

Bihlmeyer-Zimmerman Recite Nuptial Vows

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM ZIMMERMAN IV

United Church of Christ in Clinton was the setting for the nuptial vows of Sheila Bihlmeyer and William Zimmerman IV Aug. 24 at 7 p.m.

The Rev. Roy Wagner, pastor, officiated the ceremony for the daughter of Duane Bihlmeyer and Joan Bihlmeyer, both of Tecumseh and the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Zimmerman III of Clinton.

William Bailey, the bride's brother-in-law of Tecumseh was soloist.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white lace gown with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, and tiara veil. She carried white roses, cymbidium orchids and wine and pink carnations.

Mary Kane of Tecumseh was made of honor wearing a wine print with pleated skirt and cape style sleeves. She carried three white roses tipped with wine red and rose tubing velvet streamers.

Bridesmaids were Sheryl Bihlmeyer, the bride's twin sister of Tecumseh, Judy Zimmerman of Clinton, Jane Hyait of Tecumseh and Marsha Camfield of Clinton.

Bridesmaids were attired in rose print gowns.

Terry Reiser of Clinton was best man. Groomsmen were Robert Zimmerman, the groom's brother; Randy Porterfield, Wally Pike and David Maurey, all of Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Henning, the bride's sister and brother-in-law of Tecumseh were hosts at the reception at Peerless Gear Union Hall.

Luana Bailey, the bride's sister of Tecumseh, cut cake.

The bride is a Tecumseh graduate, employed at Northern Telecom Service Center Dispatch in Ann Arbor. The groom is a Clinton graduate, employed at Ford Motor Company, Rawsonville plant.

After a visit to the Renaissance Center in Detroit, the couple resides at Allen's Trailer Court, Clinton.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted at the home of the groom's parents in Clinton.

MR. and MRS. THOMAS BROSAMER

Couple Wed at St. Elizabeth

Mary Jo Barrett and Anthony Wayne Helmes were married Sept. 8, 7:30 p.m. at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church in Tecumseh.

Msgr. Vincent J. Howard officiated the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Barrett of Tecumseh and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Helms of St. Johns.

Pat Patten was organist and Kathy McDermitt was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown. It was blouson style, high waisted with lace inset at the top and sleeves. The skirt itself was edged in lace and flowed into a chapel length train.

She wore heart shaped diamond earrings, loaned to her by her mother-in-law. Her fingertip length veil of double illusion was edged in lace and secured in a lace and pearl cap.

She carried a bouquet of roses, baby breath and daisies.

Sally M. Earles was matron of honor, wearing a peach blouson dress, tied at the waist, and a full skirt. She wore a picture hat, trimmed in a peach ribbon and carried a single white rose with peach ribbons.

Bridemaids were Therese Gower, Linda Young-Reiser, and Shawn Patridge, cousin of the bride. They were attired in mint green gowns, same style as that of matron of honor, and picture hats with mint green ribbons and carried single white roses with mint green ribbons.

Flower girl was Penny Partridge, cousin of the bride. She wore an all white dress of four layers of lace carried a single whie rose and a daisy in her hair.

Rick Atkinson was best man.

Groomsmen were Michael, Mark, Matthew Barrett, brothers of the bride.

Ushers were Martin and Malcolm Barrett, brothers of the bride, and Chris Helms, brother of the groom.

Ring bearers were Michael Earles and Justin Partridge, cousin of the bride.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Tecumseh Grange Hall. Roger and Carol Partridge along with Raymond and Darlene Anthony were hosts.

Servers were Karen Sager, Denise Torres, Sylvia Partridge, Carrie Kime, Phil Reiser, Mick Partridge, Arnold Partridge and Greg Earles.

The couple will reside at 452 W. Chicago Blvd. in Britton.

The bride is employed in Ann Arbor at Northern Telcom, as a dispatch operator. The groom is employed in Adrian as assistant manager of Father and Son Shoes in the Adrian Mall.

MR. and MRS. ANTHONY HELMES

6 Complaints

Only six complaints were investigated by Tecumseh police the past week. Report is:

Sept. 12 — Linda Seaver, 419½ S.Evans, reported a bicycle stolen.

Sept. 15 — Lois Vanells, 417 S. Occidental, reported a car window broken.

Sept. 15 — Steven W. Wright, 21, of 2736 Burwyn Hills, and Larrie R. Henkel, 22, of 234 Park, were charged with having open intoxicants in a vehicle.

Sept. 16 — Fred Couillard, 501 Blanchard, reported a broken windshield and damages to the vehicle's vinyl roof and outside mirror.

Sept. 17 — Richard L. Brosamer, 38, of 820 S. Union, was cited for drunk driving after parking his vehicle in the middle of a downtown alley.

Sept. 17 — Clarence K. Patterson, 25, Manchester, was picked up on a warrant from Jackson for failure to answer a summons.

Danielle Dermyer and Thomas Brosamer Wed

Danielle Diane Dermyer and Thomas Wayne Brosamer were married Sept. 15, 7 p.m. at the First Baptist Church.

The Rev. Otis Lang, pastor of the Church of Christ officiated the ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel D. Dermyer and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Brosamer of 4721 Holloway Rd., Adrian.

Jan Champanois was organist and Kathy Johnstone was soloist.

Yellow carnations and gladioli decorated the altar. Candelabra lined the aisles and white bows marked the pews.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white organza gown, featuring a high sheer neckline. The bodice was trimmed in Venice lace and was accented with seed pearls. Bishop sleeves were accented with Venice lace motifs. The chapel train was edged in matching lace. A Juliet cap secured her floor length veil.

She wore pearl earrings, a gift from the groom.

She carried yellow roses, daisies and yellow carnations with dark brown yarrow arranged in a colonial bouquet.

Florence Rapin of Tecumseh was maid of honor wearing a yellow Qiana knit gown with empire waistline, sheer floral cape. She wore three yellow silk roses in her hair and carried a single yellow football mum with brown streamer.

Bridesmaids were Cathy Chancey of South Pasadena, Calif., Pam Ely of Tecumseh, Brenda Rebottaro of Britton, Pamela Hoyt of Jackson and Debra Dermyer of Adrian.

Bob German of Holloway was best man. Ushers were Dan Shaffer, Doug Clement of Tecumseh, Louie Rebottaro of Britton, Jim Brosamer and Allen Brosamer, the groom's brothers of Adrian.

A dinner reception was held at the United Products Workers Union Hall.

Mary Brosamer and Bonnie Hunter cut cake and poured refreshments during the reception.

The bride is a 1977 Tecumseh graduate, attended Jackson Community College and is employed at the Adrian Country Club.

The groom is a 1974 Tecumseh graduate, employed at Tecumseh Fisher Body.

After a wedding trip to Mackinac Island, the couple will live at 5751 Catawba Dr., Adrian.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Brosamer, at the Country House restaurant.

Thru My Window

BY MARDA GENE DUNCAN

Three of Mother Nature's own were afflicted with the fall hoarding urge.

It was a beautiful afternoon; in fact, it was so beautiful that we were on the porch. It seemed much more like summer than fall, but, in spite of the warm air, pretty sky, and bright sunshine, the trio was working feverishly hard at preparing for cold weather.

The trio being a chipmunk, a nuthatch, and a fox squirrel. Had we not been on the porch we would have not known about any of the action.

We first noticed the chipmunk. He was streaking back and forth along the north fence. Trip after trip, after trip, after trip he made.

It was obvious that he was filling his cheek pouches at Gramp Royal's feeder and carrying the goodies back to his den. As always we were amazed at how fast he moved as he skipped and bounded along.

Watching closer we finally traced his route. Along the fence and then it was a quick sprint to the cement slab on which the little gray and white barn rests. Good grief, he slipped under the front of the barn and popped out the back.

Then it was only a short trip to the feeder. He came back to the same way. But why, instead of running along the fence all the way, did he detour under the barn?

Could he have paused under the building to make sure the coast was clear or was it just a challenge, a chipmunk way of having fun?

Whatever the reason, he was certainly working hard at building a cache of food against cold weather. Also working hard at doing the same thing was the cute white-breasted nuthatch.

He was going from the backyard walnut tree to the oak which grows on the creek bank. One tree is on the east side of our porch view while the other is on the west and, as the bird flew back and forth, we had ample opportunity to watch the typical nuthatch pattern of flight.

It is undulating, a few wing beats alternating with short glides. It is similar to the chickadees but not quite as scalloping as theirs.

In addition to watching, we also enjoyed hearing him. Funny nasal yanking sounds.

Both trees have rough bark and obviously the bird was storing his goodies in the deep crevices and crannies. We could never quite decide what he was hiding where but possibly he too was snitching sunflower seeds from our neighbor's feeder.

There were no questions about the squirrel. He was burying walnuts. While watching him lug big black nuts from one place to another we were again struck by the incongruity — such a definite fall activity on such a decidedly summer afternoon.

Of course, we knew the squirrels were in the nut burying business. Walnuts are such messy, dirty things that when the squirrels begin storing them, they come to the feeders and we laugh at their dirty faces and front paw-hands. Around their mouths are telltale dark brown stains.

This particular fox squirrel was having great problems deciding where to bury his treasures. After carefully picking a nut to store away, he ran around the yard, checking the creek bank and usually settled for a spot either just over the bank or in the yard not far from the top.

He was very interested in the small area beneath the winged euonymus bushes along the back fence but, more often than not, he finally decided not to cache them there.

Why such indecision? Was he looking for ground easy to dig in or what was his criteria?

It would be fun, when the snow and cold comes, to keep track and see if the squirrel retrieves any of his buried walnuts, but somehow I rather doubt that any of us will be doing much porch living then.

HOLLOWAY — The Holloway Homemakers 4-H Club had a farewell party for Martha Bohannon, who is leaving to join the army.

Nahoko Amano of Japan was also an honored guest. She has been living with Kay Retter and her family, the Dale Mitchell's for a month.

Nahoko came as an exchange student through L.A.B.O. and 4-H exchange. She talked about her family and school. She and her parents, brother and sister live in an apartment in Amahasaki, Japan. Her father is manager of an insurance company in Tokyo and commutes home on weekends.

Nahoko travels by train to a private Sacred Heart School. Students range in age from 11 through 17 years old. She is on the school volley ball team. She also spoke about her dog, Wendy.

Nahoko and her hostess, Kay, have had an interesting month together, sharing their life experiences and backgrounds.

Rolls Car, Injuries Minor

Joseph Cutajar, 30, and his wife, Dorles, 26, of 5337 Osburn had a close call, when their automobile rolled over on US-12, just west of Neblo Rd., east of Clinton.

Mishap occurred at 2:50 a.m. Sunday.

Cutazar was driving west on US-12, when he came around a curve, and apparefitly lost control of his vehicle, rolling it over on the south side of the roadway into a ditch.

Mrs. Cutajar suffered minor bruises.

Vehicle was heavily damaged.

Clinton State Police charged Cutajar with careless driving.

To Sell T-shirts

Tecumseh Jaycee Auxiliary will sell Ronald McDonald House T-shirts Saturday, Sept. 22 beginning at 11 a.m. at Tecumseh's McDonalds.

The T-shirts are available in all sizes from children's small (sizes 6-8) to men's X-Large (46).

Money from the project will go directly to benefit the "Ronald McDonald House," under construction adjacent to Children's Hospital in Detroit.

Primary purpose of the Ronald McDonald House is to build and operate a temporary home for families while their children are receiving treatment at Children's Hospital.

It also affords parents an opportunity to share their concerns with others who, like themselves, are learning to cope with their child's illness.

Plans for the Ronald McDonald house include 20 bedrooms, two common rooms, two laundry rooms, two kitchens, a playroom and an apartment for a resident manager.

These houses are now open in Denver and Atlanta with plans for others in Los Angeles, Boston, Pittsburgh, San Francisco and Detroit.

Need Floats, Musicians

In previous years, when Santa Claus arrived in Tecumseh on the fire truck, there was not much spirit or enthusiasm generated among those few that came out to greet him. The whole event lasted about five minutes.

This year, however, the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce would like to make Santa's arrival a more spirited one, an event that the entire community can share in the excitement of the holiday season.

If enough support from the community can be mustered, the chamber would like to have a parade to welcome Santa, said Jan Fox, Christmas promotions cordinator.

One of the most important elements is Christmas music. Any musicians in the community, particularly someone who might be able to carry a Christmas tune on an accordian, are welcome to form an entry. Bell ringers are also welcome.

Floats are also essential to the spirit of a fine parade. Churches, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, 4-H groups, Tecumseh Players, high school, junior high and grade school students, Jaycees and Jaycee Auxiliary, veterans, men's and women's service organizations are invited to join together and make an entry.

Barbershoppers and Sweet Adelines may participate and lend their voices for a community sing-a-long downtown Tecumseh.

Santa's arrival date is Sunday, November 25 at 2 p.m. in downtown Tecumseh.

Anyone with an entry for the parade may contact Jan Fox at the Grey Fox Floral, 423-5760 or Don McCallum at Sluyter's Electric, 423-3106.
